Important Please read

I wish to place the following bids for this sale to be held on May 28, 29, 30, 2001. I authorize Ira & Larry Goldberg, Inc. or any of their agents to bid on the previous lots up to the price stated. Ira & Larry Goldberg will obtain the lots as reasonably as possible (as though I were present, bidding for myself). Ira & Larry Goldberg Inc. assume no responsibility for failure to execute these bids for any reason whatsoever. By signing this Absentee Bidder Form I agree that I am bound by the "Terms & Conditions of Sale" and any "Terms of Guarantee" which are printed in the front of this catalog. Please note that a 15% buyers premium stated in paragraph 16 of the "Terms and Conditions of Sale" will be added to the hammer price as part of the total purchase price, plus any applicable sales tax. Additionally, all shipping charges will be borne by the successful bidder.

ANY BIDS UNDER 50% OF LOW ESTIMATE WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

Signed Mason says Mason left his signature. We had had no chance to see him then.

Date _____

Each absentee bid form should contain bids for one sale only: the sale name and sale number should appear in the top right hand corner of the Absentee Bidder Form. Please place your bids as early as possible. In the event of identicle bids, the earliest bids received will take precedence. Any bids received later than 6 hours before the auction may or may not be executed.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person, and wish to place bids, you may give Ira & Larry Goldberg's bid department instructions to bid on your behalf. Our representatives will try to purchase the lot for the lowest price possible, and will not purchase the lot for more than you indicate. This service is free and confidential. Note: Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles offers this service as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale in person, and although we will make every effort, we will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

Placing Absentee bids

To place bids, please use the Absentee Bidder Form provided in this catalog. Be sure to accurately put the lot number and the maximum price you are willing to pay on each lot. Always indicate a top limit the amount which you would bid if you were attending the auction in person. This amount should not include the buyers commission noted in chapter 16 of the "Terms and Conditions of sale."

Mail Bids

When bidding by mail, you frequently purchase lots for less than your maximum bid. On the floor of the auction bidding will proceed until above the second highest mail bid. We act on your behalf as the highest mail bidder. If the auctioneer recognizes no other bids from the floor, you are awarded the lot at the opening bid. If bidding proceeds from the floor, the company, acting as your agent, bids in increments over the previous bid. This process is continued until you are awarded the lot or you are outbid by the floor.

Limit Bidders

If you have a "limit" that you must stay within you must clearly notate this limit on your bid sheet. We will buy your lots as inexpensively as possible but will not exceed your "limit".

"Or Bids"

Alternative bids should be indicated by using the word "OR" between the lot numbers. Then if your bid on an early lot is successful, we will not continue to bid on any other lots for you. Or, if your early bids are unsuccessful, we will continue to execute bids for alternative lots until a bid is successful. Bids must always be placed in the same order as the lot numbers appear in the catalog.

Telephone Bids

Bids may be placed by telephone, but are accepted only at Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles discretion and at the risk of the telephone bidder. We will not be responsible for error or failure to notify the customer in a timely manner during the auction. The telephone bidder must notify the company prior to auction all lots the bidder is interested in bidding on. The telephone bidder should have a preconceived idea of the top limit that he/she would like to bid prior to auction. In some instances the representative of the company will request this information at the time of auction. This information is not to be used in the bidding process.

by giving us a range to stay active in the bidding. We will not notify the auctioneer of your limit and will buy your lot at the lowest price possible.

Internet Bidding

For bidders that want to place Absentee Bids over the internet in lieu of by mail or facsimile, Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles has available internet bidding for those wishing to conduct bidding over the world wide web. For those customers wishing to bid via email, please go to goldbergcoins.com. Click the "how to bid" button, then click the online fill in form. You must be registered with our firm to be able to participate in the internet bidding process. This service is free and confidential. Note: Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles offers this service as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale in person, and will not be responsible for error or failure to receive bids due to network or internet down time.

Buyers Premium

The "top limit" you indicate on your bid form is for the hammer price only. Please keep in mind that a buyer's premium will be added to the successful bid price of each lot you buy and is payable by you, together with the applicable sales tax and shipping charges which is applied to the total cost of your purchase (the total cost includes the buyer's premium). The buyer's premium of 15% will be added to each lot as stated in the "Terms and Conditions"

Successful Bids

Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. All bidders will receive a receipt emailed after the sale.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

These Terms and Conditions of Sale set forth the terms of a public auction sale conducted in Beverly Hills, California by Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc., a Nevada corporation, California Auction Bond No. 3595453300 (hereinafter, the "Auctioneer" or "Goldberg").

The Terms and Conditions of sale, the glossary, if any, and all other contents of this catalog are subject to amendment by us by the posting of notices or by oral announcements made during the sale.

By participating in any sale, you acknowledge that you are bound by these terms and conditions.

least six (6) business hours prior to the auction session. Bidder is responsible for verifying said bids were received by Goldberg.

- 3 Each Bidder's determination of its bid should be based upon its own examination of the item(s), rather than the grade represented in this Catalogue or elsewhere. In any purchase or sale, the value of the item(s) is determined by the price. THE PURCHASER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS OF VALUATION CONCERNING ANY AND ALL PURCHASES. All Floor Bidders acknowledge that the Auctioneer can decline to accept bids from the a Floor Bidder who is known to have not, in fact, examined the lot prior to the sale.
- 4 All material shall be sold in separate lots to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer. If any dispute arises during or immediately after the sale of a lot, Auctioneer shall have the right to rescind the lot offered and put the lot up for sale again. In all cases, Auctioneer's decision shall be final. For the protection of any Mail Bidder, no "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. Goldberg shall have the right in its sole and absolute discretion to reject any such bid received. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid; a Floor Bidder must bid higher than the highest mail bid to be awarded any lot.
- 5 Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. No lot will be broken up unless the Auctioneer determines otherwise. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise.
- 1 This catalog contains the description of property of multiple consignors (the "Consignors"), and may include consignments from Goldberg, its principals, and affiliated or related companies and their employees, officers, or principals. All persons seeking to bid, whether in person, through an agent or employee, or by telephone, facsimile or mail, must have a catalogue and register to bid at the auction, either by completing a registration card or by completing the bid sheet incorporated into the catalogue. The Purchaser acknowledges that an invoice describing a lot by number incorporates the catalogue by reference.
- 2 By submitting a bid, whether in person, by mail, by phone, by facsimile or through an employee or agent, the Bidder acknowledges (i) receipt of the catalogue, (ii) that the Bidder has read the Terms and Conditions of Sale and the descriptions for the lots on which they have bid, and (iii) that they agree to adhere to these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Acceptance of Bids: Anyone wishing to place bids on lots who will not be attending the live auction must submit their bid(s) at

- 6 Due to the fungibility of the items sold, all lots may carry a reserve. For purposes of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, a reserve means a confidential price below which the Auctioneer will not sell an item or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor or for the account of Goldberg.
- 7 The Auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the seller, a Bidder by mail, telephone or facsimile; or any other participant in the sale. The Auctioneer may also bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, by (i) accepting bids from floor agents on behalf of the Consignor, or any affiliated or related company of the Auctioneer or the Consignor; (ii) by placing successive or consecutive bids for any lot; or (iii) by placing bids in response to other Bidders.
- 8 Auctioneer reserves the right, at his sole discretion, (i) to accept or decline any bid, (ii) to accept or decline any challenge to any bid or bidding increment, (iii) to reduce any mail bid received, (iv) to open the bidding of a lot at any level deemed appropriate by the Auctioneer, and (v) to determine the prevailing bid. Bids will not be accepted from persons under eighteen (18) years of age without a parent's written consent containing an acknowledgment that the Terms and Conditions of Sale herein and indicating their agreement to be bound thereby on behalf of the Bidder.
- 9 It is unlawful and illegal for Bidders to collude, pool, or agree with another bidder to pay less than the fair value for a lot. Bidders in the sale acknowledge that the law provides for substantial penalties in the form of treble damages and attorneys' fees and costs for those who violate these provisions.
- 10 Goldberg reserves the right to withdraw any lot at any time, even after the hammer has fallen, until the Purchaser has taken physical possession of the lot. No Consignor who has registered to bid at the sale (or at any other time unless otherwise provided in the consignment agreement), or any Purchaser or prospective Bidder shall have a right to claim any consequential damages if a lot is withdrawn, even after the sale.
- 11 GOLDBERG IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ERRORS IN BIDDING. A Bidder should make certain to bid on the correct lot and that the bid is the maximum (plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission) that he or she is willing and able to pay. Since other Bidders (by mail, facsimile and in person) will be present, and since a re-offering could damage the momentum of the sale, once the hammer has fallen and the Auctioneer has announced the winning Bidder, such Bidder is unconditionally bound to pay for the lot, even if the Bidder has made a mistake.
- 12 THIS IS NOT AN APPROVAL SALE. All lots sold to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer are final. Floor Bidders are encouraged to carefully examine all lots which they are interested in purchasing because all sales of items viewed by Purchasers in advance of a sale, even if the sale is by mail, telephone or facsimile, and all lots bid upon by the Floor Bidders, together with all those presenting Goldberg with a resale certificate, out of state resale certificate, or similar evidence that they are acting as a dealer ARE FINAL AND SUCH ITEMS MAY NOT BE RETURNED. If the description of any lot in the catalogue is incorrect, the lot is returnable if returned within five (5) calendar days of receipt and received by Goldberg no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after the sale date. No return or refund of any auction lot will be considered except by reason of lack of authenticity, unless otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. All lots are sold under the condition that any claims challenging grading, authenticity or methods of manufacture must be made in writing within five (5) calendar days of receipt of material. All disputed lots must be returned intact as received in their original, sealed and unopened container. Late remittance or removal of any lot from its original container constitutes just cause for revocation of all return privileges for any reason.
- 13 All prospective Bidders who are allowed the opportunity to examine lots prior to the sale shall personally assume all responsibility for any damage they cause in so doing. Goldberg shall have sole discretion in determining the value of the damage caused, which shall be promptly paid by the prospective Bidder.
- 14 Title to any lot remains with Consignor, any secured party of the Consignor, or assignee of Consignor, as the case may be, until the lot is paid for in full by Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to require payment in full before delivering any lot to the successful Purchaser.
- 15 It is the Purchaser's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his or her possession. Purchaser assumes any and all RISK OF LOSS once the lot(s) is in Purchaser's possession.
- 16 A BUYER'S COMMISSION OF FIFTEEN PERCENT (15%) on each individual lot will be added to all purchases made by all Purchasers, except Consignors, regardless of Purchaser's affiliation with any group or organization, and will be based upon the total amount of the final bid.

- 17 Pursuant to a separate agreement with Auctioneer, Consignors or their agents may be permitted to bid on their own lots in the sale and may receive a rebate commission in whole or in part if successful. Under some circumstances, Goldberg may agree with a Consignor (i) not to require the Consignor to pay for all or part of any items bid upon or re-purchased by the Consignor; (ii) when or where an advance has been made, to have the Consignor pay an agreed upon difference to Goldberg; or (iii) to allow an offset against other transactions with Consignor. Where the Consignor has re-purchased a lot and the lot is either returned to the Consignor or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in accordance with the Consignor's direction, or pursuant to contractual agreement, Goldberg reserves the right to so note in the prices realized or to omit a price from the price realized. Every Consignor who registers to bid in the sale, whether to "protect" a lot, or for any other purpose, agrees to all other Terms and Conditions of Sale per this agreement.
- 18 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, auction sales are strictly cash in U.S. Funds payable through a bank in the United States. Contact Goldberg for wiring instructions before sending a wire. Goldberg reserves the right to decline to release lots for which funds have not yet cleared. No credit card purchases will be accepted. On any cash transaction or series of transaction exceeding $10,000, Treasury Form 8300 will be filed. Lots must be paid for on the earlier of receipt of invoice or delivery.
- 19 Purchaser agrees to promptly pay, on demand, any sales tax, or any other tax, if required by law to be collected, postage, handling, and insurance plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission, and any other taxes required by law to be charged or collected, together with any interest or penalty that may be assessed.
- 20 Purchaser grants to Goldberg or its assigns the right to offset any sums due, or found to be due Purchaser by Goldberg, and to make such offset from any past, subsequent or future consignment, or items acquired by Purchaser in possession or control of Goldberg or from any sums due to Purchaser by Goldberg. Purchaser further grants Goldberg a purchase money security interest in such sums or items to the extent applicable, and agrees to execute such documents as may be reasonably necessary to grant Goldberg such security interest. Purchaser agrees that Goldberg and its assigns shall be a secured party with respect to items bought by Purchaser and in the possession of Goldberg, to the extent of the maximum indebtedness, plus all accrued expenses, until the indebtedness is paid.
- 21 By bidding in this sale, Purchaser personally and unconditionally guarantees payment. If the Purchaser is a corporation, the officers, directors, and principals of the corporation hereby agree to personally and unconditionally guarantee payment as part of the corporation's agreement to bid. The authorized representative of any corporate Purchaser who is present at the sale shall provide Goldberg or its agent, prior to the commencement of the bidding (or at the time of registration), with a statement signed by each principal, director and officer that they each personally and unconditionally guarantee any payment due Goldberg.
- 22 No bids will be accepted from Floor Bidders and Mail Bidders who have not previously established credit with Goldberg unless they first (i) furnish satisfactory credit references or (ii) deposit at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their total bids for that session(s), or such other amounts as Goldberg may require, in its sole and absolute discretion. Any deposits made pursuant to this paragraph will be applied to such Bidders purchases. Any unused portion of such deposit will be promptly refunded upon clearance of the funds.
- 23 On any accounts past due, Goldberg reserves the right to extend credit and impose periodic charges, pursuant to these Terms and Conditions of Sale or as set forth in the Purchaser's invoice. If the auction invoice is not paid in full when due, the unpaid balance will earn interest at the rate of one-and-one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month until paid. In the event this interest rate exceeds the interest permitted by law, the same shall be adjusted to the maximum rate permitted by law. Goldberg further reserves the right to resell the merchandise, or to have an affiliated or related company do so. Purchaser agrees to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and other collection costs incurred by Goldberg or any affiliated or related company to collect past due invoices, including reasonable costs of any resale of the merchandise. Purchaser also agrees to pay the difference between the resale price and any previous disbursements. Any excess money realized from the resale shall first be applied to pay Goldberg its standard fees and commissions for a sale and the remainder, if any, will be paid to the Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to assign its interest to any third party.
- 24 Goldberg may at its sole and absolute discretion, make loans or advances to Consignors and/or prospective Purchasers.
- 25 The Auctioneer may bid for his or its own account at any auction (even though it may not be required to pay a Buyer's Commission, or other charges that other Purchasers may be required to pay) and may have access to information concerning the lots and items contained therein that is not otherwise available to the public. Any conflict of interest or claim of competitive advantage resulting therefrom is expressly waived by all participants in the sale.

26 If a dispute arises concerning ownership of a lot that has been bid upon, Goldberg reserves the right to commence a statutory interpleader proceeding at the expense of the Consignor and successful Purchaser and any other applicable party, and in such event shall be entitled to its reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

27 In the event of a successful challenge to the title to any goods purchased, Goldberg agrees to reimburse any Purchaser in an amount equal to the successful bid price actually paid by Purchaser at auction plus any Buyer's Commission actually paid, in full and complete satisfaction of all claims, which once tendered by Goldberg, relieves and releases Goldberg from any responsibility whatsoever to the Purchaser, even if the instrument is not cashed or is returned.

28 Goldberg reserves the right to postpone the auction sale or any session thereof for a reasonable period of time for any reason whatsoever, and no Bidder or prospective Bidder shall have any claim as a result thereof, including consequential damages.

DISCLAIMERS AND WARRANTIES

ALL ITEMS OFFERED IN THIS CATALOGUE ARE GUARANTEED TO BE GENUINE.

THIS IS A LIMITED WARRANTY THAT THE ITEM SOLD IS NOT COUNTERFEIT, THAT ITS DATE OR MINTMARK HAS NOT BEEN ALTERED AND THAT THE COIN HAS NOT BEEN "REPAIRED."

29 Any other warranty is expressly disclaimed; Goldberg offers no representation that a numismatic item has or has not been cleaned; that any toning is natural or artificial; that any coin will meet the standards or grade of any independent grading service; that any item has a particular provenance or pedigree, or that a numismatic item is struck or produced in a particular style. Any statement concerning such matters reflects an opinion only. Questions regarding the minting of a coin as a proof or as a business strike relate to the method of manufacture and not to authenticity.

a. The descriptions contained herein represent the Cataloger's good faith opinion, or the opinion of an independent grading service, as to the state of preservation and strike. When a grade from an independent grading service is utilized, the information is provided strictly for the convenience of the bidder by mail, telephone or facsimile. Bidders and Purchasers acknowledge that (i) grading is an art, not a science, (ii) the grades contained in the catalogue represent the opinion of the Auctioneer based upon its experience, (iii) it is possible that two people will not always grade the same items alike, and (iv) as market conditions change, grading standards change, and will most likely continue to do so in the future.

NO WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, IS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY GRADE DESCRIPTION, WHICH IS MERELY AN OPINION THAT IS LIKELY TO DIFFER, EVEN AMONG EXPERTS. PURCHASER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS CONCERNING AND RELATED TO THE GRADING OF A LOT BY AN INDEPENDENT GRADING SERVICE.

b. Grading or condition of rare coins may have a material effect on the value of the item(s) purchased and the opinion of third parties (including independent grading services) may differ from the independent grading service's opinion or interpretation of Goldberg. Goldberg shall not be bound by any prior or subsequent opinion, determination or certification by any independent grading service.

c. All oral and written statements made by Goldberg and its employees (including affiliated and related companies) are statements of opinion only, and are not warranties or representations of any kind, unless stated as a specific written warranty, and no employee or agent of Goldberg has authority to vary or alter these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Any alteration shall be effective only if in writing and signed by an officer of Goldberg authorized to do so.

d. Bidders shall have no recourse against the Consignor for any reason whatsoever.

e. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms and Conditions of Sale.

COINS LISTED IN THIS CATALOGUE GRADED BY PCGS, NGC, IGC, SEG OR ANACS CACHET MAY NOT BE RETURNED FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER.

30 By bidding in the sale, (whether in person, by mail, telephone or facsimile, or through an agent), Bidder expressly consents to the following

Waiver and Releases:

Purchaser, for himself, his heirs, agents, successors and assigns, generally and specifically waives and releases, and forever discharges Goldberg, and its respective affiliates, parents, shareholders, agents, subsidiaries, employees, members of their respective boards of directors, and each of them, and their respective successors and assigns from any and all claims, rights, demands and causes of action and suites, of whatever kind or nature, whether in law or equity, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which Purchaser may claim to have with respect to and/or arising out of, or in connection with any challenge to the title to any good purchased, the sale itself and/or the auction, except for reimbursement in the amount equal to any bid actually paid by Purchaser, plus any Buyer's Commission actually paid by Purchaser where such reimbursement is authorized in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. It is the intention of Purchaser that this waiver and release shall be effective as a bar to each and every claim, demand, cause of action and suit that may arise hereunder, and Purchaser hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives any and all rights and benefits otherwise conferred upon him by the provisions of the California Civil Code, which reads in full as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR."

31 Neither Goldberg nor any affiliated or related company shall be responsible for incidental or consequential damages arising out of any failure of the Terms and Conditions of Sale of the auction or the conduct thereof and in no event shall liability for any such failure exceed the purchase price paid.

32 The sole remedy that any Purchaser in the auction shall have, whether such Purchase is bidding in person, by mail, by facsimile, by telephone, or through an employee or agent, for any claim or controversy arising out of the auction shall be a refund of the original purchase price and premium paid, if any.

33 Upon payment of any disputed sum, which in no event shall be greater than the original purchase price actually paid by Purchaser plus any commission or premium actually paid by Purchaser to Goldberg, Auctioneer and its employees shall be deemed released from any and all claims of the Bidder arising out of or in connection with the sale of such property. Purchaser agrees to execute prior to delivery of any refund, any documents reasonably requested to effect the intent of this paragraph. Should the Purchaser decline to do so, Purchaser hereby grants to Goldberg a limited power of attorney to unconditionally effect such release.

34 Rights granted to Bidders and Purchasers under these Terms and Conditions of Sale are personal and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by operation of law or otherwise. Any attempt to assign or transfer any such rights shall be absolutely void and unenforceable. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred on any Bidder or Purchaser by these Terms and Conditions of Sale and terms of warranty. "Purchaser" shall mean the original Purchaser of the property from Goldberg and not any subsequent owner or other person who may acquire or have acquired an interest therein. If Purchaser is an agent, the agency must be disclosed in writing to Goldberg prior to the time of sale, otherwise the benefits of the warranty shall be limited to the agent and not transferable to the undisclosed principal.

35 If the Purchaser fails to comply with one or more of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, then in addition to all other remedies which it may have at law or in equity, Goldberg may at its sole option, either (a) cancel the sale, retaining all payments made by Purchaser as liquidated damages, it being recognized that actual damages may be speculative or difficult to compute, or (b) sell some or all of the property and (some or all other property of the Purchaser held by Goldberg, if Goldberg deems necessary), in a quantity sufficient in the opinion of Goldberg to satisfy the indebtedness, plus all accrued charges. More than one such sale may take place at the option of Goldberg. Such sale may take place without notice to Purchaser. If Goldberg gives notice, it shall be by U.S.P.S. Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested to the address utilized on the Bid Sheet, Auction Consignment and Security Agreement or other address known to Goldberg. Such sale will be at Goldberg standard commission rates at public or private sale, within California, or at another location outside of California to be determined by Goldberg. At the time of sale the defaulting party shall not bid nor be permitted to bid. The proceeds shall be applied first to the satisfaction of any damages occasioned by Purchaser's breach, and then to the payment of any other indebtedness owing to Goldberg, including without limitation, commissions, handling charges, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, collection agency fees and costs and any other costs or expenses incurred thereunder. If a lot or item is not paid for, and is sold by Goldberg for Purchaser's account, in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code, Goldberg shall not be required to account to the Purchaser for any excess proceeds. Purchaser shall remain liable to Goldberg if the proceeds of such sale or sales is insufficient to cover the indebtedness. If other property of Purchaser is also sold, any excess of proceeds will be remitted to the Purchaser after first deducting the expenses set forth above. If Purchaser fails to remit sums due to Goldberg, Purchaser grants to Goldberg a lien with respect to such sum, with interest to accrue thereon at the legal rate, until actually paid, which lien shall apply against any property of Purchaser, including any future goods of Purchaser coming into possession of Goldberg. To the extent permitted by law, Purchaser hereby waives all the requirements of notice, advertisement and disposition of proceeds required by law.

- 36 These Terms and Conditions of Sale and the auction shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of California, whether or not the auction is and these Terms and Conditions of Sale are fully performed in California.
- 37 Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the competent courts of the State of California shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute(s) arising hereunder, and Purchaser hereby agrees that any dispute arising hereunder shall be litigated exclusively in the courts of the State of California, and not elsewhere, regardless of any party's current or future residence or domicile. Purchaser further agrees that venue shall be in the Superior Court of Los Angeles, in the State of California.

- 38 ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS The Bidder/Purchaser shall pay to Goldberg all costs and expenses of collection of amounts due herein, or to otherwise enforce any or all provisions of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the subject matter of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, or any other agreement entered into with Goldberg, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred before legal action, if any, is commenced. The Bidder/Purchaser further agrees that in any litigation or other proceeding based upon, arising out of or related to these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the Bidder/Purchaser shall pay to Goldberg its attorney fees and other expenses and costs incurred in connection with the litigation or other proceeding if Goldberg is the prevailing party.

- 39 If any section of these Terms and Conditions of Sale or any term or provision of any section is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining sections or terms and provisions of a section shall continue in full force and effect without being impaired or invalidated in any way.
- AS STATED IN THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE Certain lots may be reserved by the Consignor. If the Auctioneer identifies a Consignor bidding on his own property, an announcement will be made that the Consignor is now bidding. If the Consignor places a bid in the mail bid book and is successful, the Auctioneer will announce that the lot has been passed.

1 Oak Tree Shilling 1652, Noe-5. PCGS graded VF-30. This one weighs 73.0 grains according to PCGS. All oak tree shillings are rare, and this one has lovely color and clean surfaces. It was probably bent at some point in the past and circulated wearing parts of the tree more than other areas, causing localized weakness there. Well struck and preserved on the reverse. An important coin for the specialist.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

2 Pine Tree Sixpence 1652. PCGS graded AU-50. The recorded weight on this one is 31.9 grains, and this is noted on the PCGS insert. This appears to be Noe-33, with the two pellets that flank the tree. As always seen, the coin is not well centered on the reverse (tree side), with most of the lettering off at the top. The obverse (dated side) is well centered and the strike is sharp. Examination will note a small disturbance on the D of ENGLAND. Lovely silvery gray in color with otherwise problem free surfaces and rims. PCGS has graded 2 as such, with just 5 coins graded higher (MS-64 is the best).

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

3 Pine Tree Shilling, small planchet 1652, 70.8 grains. PCGS graded VF-30. A lovely coin that is toned an antique gray color with lighter shades on the devices, darker in the fields. Scattered handling marks as expected for the grade, mostly hidden in the lettering. One small planchet irregularity between MA on the obverse.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust

4 St. Patrick Copper "Farthing" and Halfpenny. Both grade VG-8. The Farthing has glossy brown surfaces and is free of problems while the Halfpenny has some rim bumps and uneven wear. Both are nice coins to represent the type. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $300-375

From the Fairchild Family Trust

5 (1688) James II Plantation Token tin farthing, Restrike. PCGS graded AU-55. According to Breen in his Encyclopedia, this is one of the restrike issues, struck around 1828 by a London coin dealer named Matthew Young, who obtained the original dies and edge devices. All show a die break in the right obverse field, which is not seen on the originals. Nevertheless, these are collected along with the originals, and almost all examples have heavy tin pesting throughout, as seen here. Virtually no wear, but with the ever-present surface problems.

Estimated Value $800-1,200

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

6 Rosa Americana Twopence (undated). VF-25. Dark brown in color and with average surfaces. Minor handling marks from circulation and some areas of raised verdigris, especially near the rims. Smooth edges and overall a decent example for the grade.

Estimated Value $400-500

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

7 1722 Rosa Americana Halfpenny, inscribed "DEI GRATIA REX UTILE DULCI". VF-30. Nice color and surfaces but there is an unfortunate spot above RE of REX which looks active. Sharply impressed and medium brown with some brassy highlights on both sides. A couple of minor rim ticks and scrapes can be seen.

Estimated Value $350-450

From the Fairchild Family Trust

8 1722 Rosa Americana Halfpenny, inscribed "DEI GRATIA REX UTILE DULCI". Electrotypes, VF-30. A nice electrotypes of this popular colonial issue. Nice surfaces and color.

Estimated Value $50-UP

From the Fairchild Family Trust

Colonial Coins

- 9 1722 Rosa Americana Penny, inscribed "UTILE DULCI". PCGS graded AU-50. These were struck in "bath metal" (75% copper, 24.7% zinc and .3% silver), and hence have brass colors outlining the devices. Boldly impressed by the dies and free of all but minor handling marks. An impressive example of this early American colonial struck in England.
Estimated Value $600-900

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 10 1723 Rosa Americana Halfpenny. VF-30. This is a nice coin for the grade, it is glossy from a protective coat of wax applied years ago. Minor roughness is noted in the fields, but it is not offensive. Boldly struck by the dies and impressive in every way.
Estimated Value $200-250

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 11 1723 Rosa Americana Halfpenny (3 pieces) and 1724 Rosa Americana Halfpenny. These range in grade from Very Good to Fine. One of the 1723s is the overdate, and two have nice surfaces while the other two are somewhat rough from corrosion. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $200-300

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 12 1723 Rosa Americana Penny. VG-8. Slightly rough surfaces but nice color and device detail on both sides.
Estimated Value $75-100

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 13 1723 Rosa Americana Twopence. PCGS graded AU-58. As nice as these are usually found, just a couple of mint state coins have been graded to date. Note slight surface roughness on both sides, from long exposure to a moist environment, and we also note some red areas on the King and in the field on the reverse. Medium to dark brown in color and with a generally pleasing appearance.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,400

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 14 1722 Hibernia Farthing, inscribed "D:G: REX" and 1723 Hibernia Farthing. The first grades F-12 and the second G-4. The first is nice for the grade, although there is a planchet crack extending up from the lower obverse rim, while the second has some minor roughness and porosity.
Estimated Value $175-225

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 15 1722 Hibernia Halfpenny, harp at left. PCGS graded AU-55. Boldly struck on the devices on both sides and with nice brown color throughout. We note some fine scrapes in the field before the face and around the neck, and a hint of red patina behind the head.
Estimated Value $400-500

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 16 1722 Hibernia Halfpenny, harp at right. VF-25. Light brown in color with decent surfaces for the grade. We note some scattered marks, but none are deep or distracting. A well made coin that has strong device detail.
Estimated Value $125-150

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 17 1723 Hibernia Farthing, inscribed "DEI GRATIA REX" (2 pieces). The first grades VF-20 and the second F-12 with some porosity. We note both have some dark olive patina, the first is glossy while the second is more matte in appearance, and both have some rim marks. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-175

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 18 1723 Hibernia Farthing, inscribed "DEI GRATIA REX" and 1724 Hibernia Halfpenny. The Farthing grades VG-8, but is porous and the Halfpenny grades VG-8. As to the color, the first is dark olive but otherwise decent for the grade, the second is much nicer with lighter brown colors from a careful cleaning, but we note a slight bend in the rim near 2 o'clock on the obverse. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $125-175

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 19 1723 Hibernia Halfpenny. EF-40. This one is very sharply struck and well preserved with medium brown surfaces and no signs of corrosion or similar problems. A couple of breaks in the toning on the high points, but these are trivial. An impressive example of this scarce issue.
Estimated Value $150-200

Colonial Coins

- 20 1773 Virginia Halfpenny, period after "GEORGIVS", PCGS graded MS-63 Brown. Choice glossy surfaces that are graced by delicate brown tones and are clean for the grade. There are two dark spots on the lower obverse, one behind George's head, the other below his bust. Boldly struck and very well preserved for this issue.
Estimated Value $600-800

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 21 (1680) London Elephant Token Halfpenny. Thick planchet, PCGS graded MS-63 Red and Brown. This scarce example has excellent surfaces and retains a small amount of original mint red color but the coin is mostly toned. However, the planchet is defective, with long fissures running across at an angle on the obverse, and a few minor pieces are missing from the rim, as struck. On the reverse, the planchet doesn't show the fissures, but there are dark areas mostly inside the shield. One of the few found with any remnants of original mint red, and highly desirable as such. Perhaps ten are known that show some red in the color, with the balance toned various shades of brown.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 22 (1680) London Elephant Token Halfpenny. Thick planchet, VG-7. Even wear but there are two rim bumps both on the lower obverse. All devices are well preserved and defined. Medium brown and pleasing for the moderate grade.
Estimated Value $150-175

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 23 1760 Hibernia-Voce Populi Halfpenny, PCGS graded EF-45. A high grade example of this scarce issue. Fully struck on the devices and struck from badly clashed dies on both sides. As to the color, it's a medium brown and there are only faint signs of surface problems or spots. Another nice colonial which is rarely found this nice.
Estimated Value $400-500

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 24 1760 Hibernia-Voce Populi Halfpenny, SEGS graded VI-30. Nicely struck and preserved with pleasing light brown surfaces. We note some trivial verdigris embedded in the device, but it is minor considering how nice the coin is overall. Scarce and worth a premium.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 25 1766 Pitt Token Halfpenny, VF-25. Nice color and surfaces throughout, but there are some unfortunate scratches in the left obverse field and similar scratches on the reverse near the ship. All lettering and device detail is clear to the unaided eye and this is a nice coin despite the minor scratches.
Estimated Value $800-900

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 26 (c. 1779) Rhode Island Ship Medal, with wreath, silver wash, PCGS graded AU-55. This coin has been silver washed, to make it pass as if it were silver back around its time of issue perhaps. Well struck with most of the devices clear and well centered on the planchet. About two to three dozen are known, of which this is one of the better ones. We note some trivial pin scratches around the ship's rigging, and minor surface erosion on both sides. A rare coin that is seldom offered.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 27 1783 Chalmers Shilling. Birds, long worm, PCGS graded EF-45. A rare issue that is seldom found at all, much less in high grade. This one is unevenly struck, weak at the bottom of the obverse and strong on top, and similar on the reverse. The important design elements and the date can be seen, despite the weakness. Note a small fissure is located along the edge of the lower reverse, as struck, and there is a small spot within the S of ANNAPOLIS. The long worm variety is much rarer than the short worm version, and this is one of the better ones graded. Perhaps a few dozen are known, mostly in lower grades.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

Colonial Coins

- 28 1755-A French Colonies Sou Marque. PCGS graded AU-55. Silvery gray in color and well preserved. Boldly struck, and scarce.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 29 1721-H and 1722-H French Colonies Copper Sou and 1767 Collot. These three range from Very Good to Fine. All have slightly porous surfaces and were probably coated with wax some time ago for protection. The last piece is counterstamped "RF" as nearly always seen. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 30 1762 BB French Colonies Sou Marque. EF-40. A common date, but in nice condition.
Estimated Value $225-275

With an old envelope from the Richard Picker coin firm, later from the Fairchild Family Trust.

Scarce 1776 Continental Dollar

- 31 1776 Continental Currency - Pewter, inscribed "CURRENCY EG FECIT". PCGS graded AU-50. Steel gray in color and lacking the usual tin-pesting that is often seen, the surfaces are truly delightful for this issue. We do note a dull scrape on the O in CONTINENTAL and other small scrapes around both sides hidden within the lettering. Well struck by the dies, with each state visible in the encircling chain and we note the usual die crack through the middle of the chain on the reverse. A pretty dollar, despite its handling marks.
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 32 1783 Nova Constellation Copper. Pointed rays, large U.S. PCGS graded AU-58. Dark brown in color with clean fields and devices for the grade. This is one of the highest graded examples of this important Colonial issue. They were struck at the Wyon Mint in Birmingham, England, and were used widely through the Eastern Seaboard area. Virtually unknown in full mint state, this high grade example will no doubt find much attention from people who need to upgrade their specimen. There are some very minor dings from handling on both sides, but they old and blend well with the patina.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

From the Fairchild Family Trust via Richard Picker, with an old envelope included.

- 33 1783 Nova Constellation Copper. Blunt rays. VF-20. The surfaces are lightly erroded by reddish patina with some darker areas near the devices. No marks from circulation worthy of note.
Estimated Value $300-400

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 34 1785 Nova Constellatio Copper. Pointed rays. Sharpness of EF-40 but there is some damage. Small U.S. This one appears to have been struck on a previously struck coin, as traces of undertype exist on both sides. There are some marks at the center of the obverse and a couple near the rim, and on the reverse near the left edge. Glossy surfaces from a coat of wax, and interesting despite its problems.
Estimated Value $200-300

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 35 1785 Nova Constellation Copper. Pointed rays. VG-8. Dark brown in the fields with lighter copper shades on the devices. Minor porosity throughout, as usual.
Estimated Value $75-100

Colonial Coins

- 36 1787 Massachusetts Half Cent. VF-30. Medium to dark brown in color and with one script initial in the left obverse field. Some small pits on the reverse, but well struck and with nice device details throughout.
Estimated Value $350-400

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 37 1787 Massachusetts Cent. Arrows in left talon. Fine-15. The surfaces have some minor porosity and we note a couple of small rim ticks on the reverse. Well centered and struck.
Estimated Value $150-200

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 38 1787 Massachusetts Cent. "Horn" from eagle's head. VF-20. Dark in the fields with lighter shades on the devices. A few scratches are lightly etched into the left obverse field near the Indian's bow. We also note a few minor rim bumps. The horned eagle variety has always been popular with collectors.
Estimated Value $300-400

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 39 1788 Massachusetts Half Cent. PCGS graded AU-58. Deep brown in color with nice surfaces, save for some faint scratches in the fields. Sharply struck and a lovely coin in every way. Don't miss out if you need a high end example.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 40 1788 Massachusetts Cent. Period after "Massachusetts". Good-4. There are a few stray scratches and a mark or two. The tops of the lettering has worn into the rim, but most of the devices are clear.
Estimated Value $70-90

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 41 1788 Massachusetts Cent. No period. SEGS graded VG-8. Dark olive in the fields and lighter on the devices. There are some old scrapes and surface scratches as expected for the grade.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 42 1785 Connecticut Copper. Bust facing right. PCGS graded AU-55. Medium glossy brown in color with some darker elements clinging to the devices. There are two minor planchet laminations, one on each side, both near the edge, as made. Free of spots or surface problems, and boldly struck. One of the best known, with very few found in grades of EF or above, and none graded as high as mint state according to a recent PCGS Population Report.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

From the Fairchild Family Trust, earlier from Richard Picker

- 43 1786 Connecticut Copper. Mailed bust facing left. VF-25. Glossy from a protective coat of wax and with above-average surfaces. Well struck on the devices and nicely preserved.
Estimated Value $350-450

Purchased from Richard Picker and held in the Fairchild Family Trust for many decades

- 44 1787 Connecticut Copper Lot. The first is the 1787 Horned Bust variety, VG-8; next 1787 "ETLIR" G-4 and last is 1788 Mailed Bust Right, VG-8. The ETLIR piece has a planchet flaw on Liberty's head, and all have dark brown patina. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $150-225

Colonial Coins

- 45 1788 Connecticut Copper. Milled bust facing right. Fine-12. Fairly nice for the grade with medium to light brown color and only a hint of a reddish area behind Liberty's head. A few thin scratches don't distract. Better than normally encountered. Estimated Value $150-200

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 46 1787 Nova Eborac. Figure facing right. Good-4. Dark olive surfaces throughout, with a couple of rim marks and other surface handling problems. Strong device detail, but the surface problems account for the grade. Estimated Value $100-125

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 47 1786 New Jersey Copper. Narrow shield Maris 23-R. Fine-15. With a couple of minor planchet streaks but the color and surfaces remain very nice for one of these. One small edge bump near the plow handles. Estimated Value $200-300

With an old Richard Picker envelope and from the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 48 1787 New Jersey Copper. Small planchet, plain shield. PCGS graded AU-53. One of the nicest New Jersey coppers you'll probably ever find, the color is a delightful chocolate brown, the strike is full and complete, and the surfaces are free of all but the most trivial signs of contact. If all colonials looked like this, they would be a lot more popular! If you demand color, surfaces and strike, then take a look at this coin. You will not be disappointed. One tiny die crack from the V in NOVA to the back of the horse's head, and another lump above the R in PLURIBUS. Do not skip over this lot without taking the time to enjoy it. Estimated Value $800-1,200

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 49 1787 New Jersey Copper. Small planchet, plain shield. Fine-15. Struck from strongly clashed dies, as are most of this variety (Breen-909). Similar to the "Serpant Head" but this is the smaller planchet. Nice color, but the surfaces show some handling marks and several small rim bumps. Estimated Value $300-400

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 50 1787 New Jersey Copper lot. The first is a large planchet which grades VG-8; next is a small planchet "camel head" variety, VG-8 and last is a small planchet, plain shield grading F-12. Each has minor surface problems or porosity, and a couple of rim marks too. Lot of 3 coins. Estimated Value $125-175

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 51 1787 New Jersey Copper. Large planchet, plain shield and 1788 New Jersey head right. The first grades VG-8 and the second grades F-12. Both have minor planchet roughness and should be inspected, but are nice and clean from circulation. Estimated Value $125-175

Both are from the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 52 1786 Vermont Copper. "Vermontensium". PCGS graded EF-45. This one has a curious patina that has the appearance of a toned silver coin instead of a copper coin. One or two minor planchet flakes can be seen on the obverse, with a single spot noted on the D of DECIMA on the reverse. The strike is a bit weak on the plow, but stronger on the mountains, sun and trees. A popular and appealing example of this issue. Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 53 1788 (?) Vermont Copper. VG-8. The date was weakly struck on this one so we can't be certain which date it is. Some green corrosion on the obverse, but with strong devices there, while the reverse is very weak. There are two rim clips or filed areas. Estimated Value $25-50

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 54 1788 Vermont Copper. "ET LIB INDE". Good-4. Nice surfaces for the grade, with good color and no circulation problems. Estimated Value $200-250

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

Colonial Coins

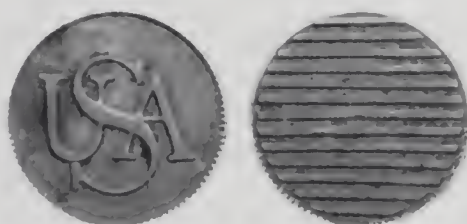

- 55 1781 North American Token, VG-8. These were apparently struck in Ireland and made their way to America where they circulated near Canada. Glossy brown with some red patina on the ship.
Estimated Value $40-50

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 56 (c.1785) Bar Cent, Copper. PCGS graded AU-58. Choice medium to light brown in color with so surface problems or handling marks worth noting. There is a tiny speck located under the center of the S on the obverse, and a couple of spots between the upper bars on the reverse. Well struck and one of the nicest bar cents seen by us in many years. PCGS has graded 3 this high, with 4 graded higher.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust, and purchased from Richard Picker many years ago.

- 57 (c.1785) Bar Cent, Copper. PCGS graded AU-53. Light brown in color for the most part, but there is some green corrosion on the left side of the obverse and scattered spots of green or red raised corrosion on both sides. PCGS has graded 4 this high, with 11 graded higher. Well struck and very popular. This design is thought to have been taken from coat buttons used during the Revolutionary War.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 58 1787 Auctori Plebis Token, VG-8. These tokens were probably struck in England by an unknown maker and closely resemble the Connecticut issues of the period. This one has smooth, even wear and nice surfaces. Struck on a planchet which was a bit too small, as are all seen.
Estimated Value $50-100

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 59 "1789" Mott Token. Thick planchet. PCGS graded AU-55. This is a late die state example with a large die break (lump) attached to the upper left of the clock. Poorly struck up at the centers, as the dies were probably warped, weakening that area. Dark chocolate brown in color and glossy in the lettering. There also appears to be some rim crumbling around the reverse edges, which could possibly be a rim bruise or two, but its hard to tell while inside the PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 60 (c.1792-1794) Kentucky Token Cent. Plain edge. EF-40. Nice surfaces and color on this coin, with medium brown prevailing. Trivial handling marks on both sides from circulation, but fewer problems than usually encountered.
Estimated Value $300-375

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 61 1794 Franklin Press Token. PCGS graded MS-63 Brown. This one is boldly struck by the dies, and very well preserved. Examination will note a trace of mint red adhering near the devices. Free of all but the most trivial small spots. A splendid example of this very popular token.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 62 1794 Talbot, Alhum & Lee Token Cent. With NEW YORK. VF-20. The planchet is slightly porous with some raised areas in the fields near the lettering and devices. Brick red patina on the obverse, more brown on the reverse.
Estimated Value $200-250

From the Fairchild Family Trust

Colonial Coins

Superb 1796 Myddelton Token in Copper

- 63 1796 Myddelton Token - Copper. PCGS graded Proof 63 Red and Brown. Perhaps the only one known that retains red and brown colors, the few others graded are all toned. This one has some minor spots on both sides, mostly near the rim, and some of these are raised. Frosted devices and boldly struck, this is simply a stunning medal that any collector will absolutely fall in love with, as well as the silver piece also offered in this sale. If you have longed for one of these then be sure to spend some time examining the fully struck proof surfaces and superb color of these two historical treasures. Of foremost interest to the colonial specialist or Kentucky collector. Breen states that 8-10 are known, and PCGS has only graded 5, so that estimate is probably about right. Don't miss this opportunity to purchase one of these extremely rare and desirable tokens.

Estimated Value $6,500-7,500

Choice Proof 1796 Silver Myddelton Token

- 64 1796 Myddelton Token - Silver. PCGS graded Proof 63. A beautiful example of this popular medal, the surfaces are toned a medium antique silver-gray with lighter shades on the devices. Of the PCGS examples graded, only 3 have been awarded a grade this high, with just a single coin graded higher.

Breen discusses this medal in his wonderful Encyclopedia (page 106-7). Philip Parry Price Myddelton acquired an enormous tract of land in Kentucky and during 1795-6 he persuaded hundreds of English farmers and laborers to emigrate to his Kentucky land, promising them steady employment.

The dies were engraved by Conrad H. Kuehler and these were struck at Boulton and Watts Soho Mint. The devices are beautiful, Hope with anchor, presents her two children to Liberty, who holds the liberty pole (note the slaves cap of freedom flying at the top). Behind Liberty is the cornucopia, representing the abundance of the new land and fertility. The seedling represents Myddelton's Kentucky project. On the reverse, the dejected Britannia with her spear inverted (a clear reference to the defeat at Yorktown), with the scales of Justice and the fasces down on the ground. Britannia looks down at a cap of Liberty, which has sprung forth near her feet, representing the new American colony. Needless to say, these elements were highly insulting to Britain, and Myddelton soon found himself in the horrible Newgate Prison, charged with "brain drain" and literally the formal charges were "enticing artificers to emigrate to the United States", ending his ambitious project.

Perhaps 15 to 20 are known, and these are extremely rare in any grade, both silver and copper pieces were struck.

Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 65 (1796) Castorland Medal. Silver restrike and Copper restrike. A pair, both of which grade MS-60. The silver piece is prooflike and very nice, while the copper example has some scratches near the beaver and has been harshly cleaned. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $50-75

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

Colonial Coins

- 66 1783 Georgius Triumpho Token. PCGS graded AU-55. As nice as this issue is found, PCGS has graded 5 this high with none graded higher! Brown in color on the obverse, similar on the reverse but there is a large red area on the lower left reverse and another spot of red above that. Minor handling marks on both sides.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 67 1783 Washington Token. Large military bust. PCGS graded AU-58. Medium brown with deeper colors in the lettering, and glossy. Boldly struck, with full details on George and Liberty on the reverse. There is an obverse die crack between 17, and another through the W and these both meet on George's coat. About as nice as these are found, only a single coin has been graded as mint state by PCGS.
Estimated Value $600-800

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 68 1783 Washington Token. Large military bust. Sharpness of EF-40 but plugged. But holed and plugged at the top of the obverse. Medium brown and glossy.
Estimated Value $100-150

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 69 1783 Washington Token. Small military bust, engrailed edge, Baker-4A. PCGS graded AU-58. One of the finest seen by PCGS, only 2 have been graded this high, with none graded higher. Medium brown in color with minor patina in the peripheral lettering. Well struck by the cracked dies, note the encircling cracks at the base of most of the letters. We note some very light pin scratches in the fields, but a glass is needed to see them.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

From the Fairchild Family Trust and earlier purchased from Richard Pickett with envelope concluded

- 70 1783 Washington Token. Draped bust, no button (2 pieces). Both grade VF-30. Both are nice for the grade, but one has some minor run bumps. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 71 Three colonials. This group includes a Washington Large Military bust; a Washington Double Head and a 1783 Nova with pointed rays. Grades range from VG to Fine. The Nova is a bit corroded, the other two decent. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 72 1783 Washington Token. Copper restrike, engrailed edge. PCGS graded Proof 67 Red and Brown. This is the finest graded example of this restrike seen by PCGS, it is alone as the sole PR 67 Red and Brown seen. One other Brown one has been graded, but this particular coin retains much of its original mint red color. Superb surfaces and simply stunning color. If you demand the finest, and can afford it, this and the silver restrike piece should be kept together as the finest known examples of these Taylor restrikes.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 73 1783 Washington Token. Copper restrike, engrailed edge. PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown. If you demand a top notch example of this issue, we do note minor die rust on the lettering and devices. Sharply struck throughout, and hints of original red are noted in the fields.

Colonial Coins

- 74 1783 Washington Token. Silver restrike, Engrailed Edge. PCGS graded Proof 67. This is far and away the finest graded Proof example of this issue seen by PCGS or anyone else for that matter. Only 13 have been graded in all, and this is alone as PR 67. The next coin seen in the PCGS Population Report is PR 65, and that is alone in that grade. At a glance one can see why, the surfaces are superb, the fields deeply mirrored and the devices piled high with drifting frost. A coin dealer named W. J. Taylor purchased the scrap metal from the Soho Mint in 1848, and found device punches and working dies. In a few years he struck some of these in copper and silver, which have very popular with collectors ever since the 1860s. This is certainly the finest known, it would be hard to conceive of a coin grading higher or being more beautiful than the one now offered. If you demand the finest for your colonial collection, then buy this gorgeous example and never worry about upgrading.
Estimated Value $3,500-UP

- 75 1783 Washington Token. Silver restrike, Engrailed Edge. PCGS graded Proof 63. Beautiful for grade, the only complaint are minor hairlines and some trivial defects in the planchet, one at the top rim, and another in the left reverse field. It is unknown how many were made, but a guess is that a few dozen survive. Lovely old silver toning around the rims.
Estimated Value $800-1,100

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 76 1783 Washington Token. "UNITY STATES". PCGS graded AU-58. This design employs the popular reverse which is clearly copied from the regular issue Large Cents from 1796-1807. The edge has been filed to obscure the word UNITY as seen on all specimens. Well struck and a nice brown color, but there is a patch of green above George Washington's head and the planchet has dark streaks on the reverse.
Estimated Value $600-800

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 77 A group of 4 colonials. This group includes the following; 1788 Massachusetts Cent; 1783 Washington Draped Bust Cent; 1783 Washington Unity States Cent and a Washington Double Head token. These grade VG to Fine. Some are corroded and should be inspected. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 78 (c.1783) Washington Token Double Head Cent. VF-20. Cleaned and nicely retoned long ago, but with telltale hairlines in the fields. Nice surfaces and color today, and well struck too.
Estimated Value $150-200

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 79 1791 Washington Token Cent. Large eagle. PCGS graded AU-58. Deep brown in color and well struck, including on the epaulets on the President's coat, but they do show some wear. Clean surfaces for the grade, and worth a strong price for its problem free wear and spot-free surfaces. Appealing design elements, and scarce any better.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 80 (1792) Washington Token Copper Cent. "WASHINGTON BORN VIRGINIA". SEGS graded EF-40 holed, but expertly plugged. As noted on the holder, this coin has been holed, plugged and expertly repaired at 11 o'clock on the obverse. Dark toning and this repair work is scarcely detectable. An important and seldom offered coin that should please the expert as these are seldom found in any grade.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Colonial Coins

- 81 (1792) Washington Token Copper Cent. "WASHINGTON BORN VIRGINIA". VG-7 obverse, poor reverse. This one has a large hole at the top of the obverse, and there are some surface scratches on both sides. Most of the reverse has worn away, perhaps as this was worn for many years as a pendant. Dark brown in color, with some pitting on the reverse.

Estimated Value $250-350

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 82 (1792) Washington Token Cent. "WASHINGTON PRESIDENT", plain edge. SEGS graded Fine-15 Light roughness. As noted on the SEGS holder, there is light roughness on both sides, but the color is a pleasant dark brown and free of major corrosion problems. Nicely struck, but a bit uneven on the reverse so parts of the lettering can not be discerned. Rare and popular.

Estimated Value $1,700-2,000

Perhaps the Finest Known 1793 Washington Ship Token

- 83 1793 Washington Token Halfpenny. Ship reverse, lettered edge. PCGS graded MS-62 Brown. This is currently the finest graded of this important Washington issue. It is alone in its grade category as the sole MS-62, with a couple of others graded lower. There are a few scattered marks above the ship in the field, but nothing worthy of note. Boldly struck and with a lovely tan to brown color throughout, free of spots or other detriments. An important offering and one of the most important Washington pieces in this sale.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 84 1793 Washington Token Halfpenny. Ship reverse, lettered edge. PCGS graded AU-58. Sharply impressed by the dies, but we note the reverse die shows some sinking in the fields above the ship, weakening that area. One small planchet flake on the obverse, located in the field below the S of PRESIDENT, and another larger one on the reverse near the top of the forward mast. Deep brown and free of surface spots or other value impairing problems.

Estimated Value $700-900

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 85 1795 Washington Token. Grate reverse, small buttons, reeded edge. PCGS graded AU-58. Deep mahogany brown shades on both sides, and somewhat glossy. Sharp on the devices, with just a touch of weakness on Washington's upper head and on the ON of LONDON on the reverse. An exciting example of this issue.

Estimated Value $500-700

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 86 1795 Washington "Liberty and Security" Token Halfpenny. "BIRMINGHAM" edge. EF-40. There is a light scratch across Washington's face from his nose to his neck. Nice surfaces and color otherwise, with some weakness on the central shield lines. Scarce and always popular.

Estimated Value $500-600

From the Fairchild Family Trust

Colonial Coins

- 87 (1795) Washington "Liberty and Security" Token Penny. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. One of the nicest of these seen by PCGS, which notes 7 graded this high with just 2 graded higher! An impressive coin that boasts mellow red color throughout and a hint of darker shades along the upper left rim. All devices are fully struck, and this coin is far better than most copper coins of the era. Stunning surfaces that show few signs of handling and are totally problem-free. A foremost opportunity for the specialist.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 88 (1795) Washington "Liberty and Security" Token Penny. PCGS graded MS-63 Brown. Scarce in this state of preservation, the surfaces are clean and show only light signs of handling. There are a few trivial spots on the surfaces, and we note minor red coloring tucked into the devices and lettering on the obverse, more even brown on the reverse. As to the strike, it is bold, and complete separation is noted on the eagle's breast and George's curls.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,300

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 89 (1795) Washington "Liberty and Security" Token Penny. PCGS graded AU-53. With some dark verdigris around the devices visible with a glass. Minor handling marks, and overall pleasing for the grade. Note the sharp strike on George, and also on the eagle and his big shield tail.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 90 Washington "Success" Medal. Large. PCGS graded VF-35. Steel gray in color with darker shades on the worn areas of the obverse, and a dark area on the left side of the reverse. There are some surface marks and small disturbances, where someone may have worked on the areas surrounding the spot. One fine scratch is noted down the back of Washington's face, as well as the familiar die crack from rim to rim through his nose. As usual, the reverse is slightly weak at the center.
Estimated Value $400-500

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 91 Washington "Success" Medal. Small, Reeded edge, Copper. PCGS graded AU-58. This one appears to be struck in copper with the reeded edge visible when carefully examined in the holder. PCGS has graded just 3 coins this high of the popular Washington Success medals. None have been graded higher. Scrutiny notes some dull scrapes down George's face and into the field, but they are very old and can scarcely be seen, even with a glass. A very strong strike, including the epaulets on Washington's shoulder and on his upper curls too. There are some minor dark spots on the obverse, but they blend well with the patina of the coin. If you demand a really high-end example of this medal, then examine this lot to see if its for you.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,900

- 92 1795 New South Wales Halfpenny. Fine-12. Medium brown and with only moderate circulation handling marks. A touch weak in the strike, as often seen for this issue.
Estimated Value $200-250

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

Colonial Coins and Half Cents

- 93 1787 Fugio Cent. Pointed rays, cinquefoils, "STATES UNITED". PCGS graded AU-55. Medium brown in color and well preserved. Minor weakness on the upper left side of the obverse, where minor roughness is noted on the planchet. A couple of very small specks on either side, but nothing problematic. Perfect for the specialist who needs this important colonial issue. Struck from lightly clashed dies, as are most seen. Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

- 94 1787 Fugio Cent. Pointed rays, cinquefoils, "STATES UNITED". PCGS graded EF-45. Chocolate brown in color, but unevenly struck around the periphery. On the obverse there are tiny scratches on the pointed of the sundial, on the reverse we note faint radial pin scratches across the entire reverse and a couple of dark spots. Estimated Value $700-900

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 95 1787 Fugio Cent. New Haven "Restrike" in Silver, PCGS graded AU-58. One of the prettiest silver coins in this entire sale, the periphery is toned with rainbow blues, reds and golds from long storage in an album, and the coin is well struck. Note the die rust on both sides, which shows up as small lumps on the coin. In silver, these are rare, with perhaps 10-15 known, mostly in high grades. Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

From the Fairchild Family Trust

- 96 A group of 4 colonials. This group includes 1767 French Colonies Sou; 1785 Nova Constellatio, pointed rays; 1788 Massachusetts Cent and a 1794 Talbot, Allum and Lee token. These grade Good to VG. Lot of 4 coins. Estimated Value $300-400

Half Cents

- 97 1793 Cohen-2. Sharpness of VF-30 but scratches and rough surfaces. The fields are dark olive and rough, with numerous pin scratches on both sides where someone has tried to remove the corrosion. Sharply struck, with excellent details on all devices and lettering, making this a good selection for a type coin. Inspection recommended, as the surfaces are pretty normal for the issue, and the color is decent. Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 98 1793 Breen-1, Cohen-1, High Rarity-3. Del Bland graded Poor-1. Medium dark chocolate brown with smooth surfaces and relatively clean except for an attempted puncture on the reverse. Estimated Value $500-600

From the Norweb Collection

- 99 1794 Breen-1a, Cohen-1a, Rarity-3. Del Bland graded Fine-15. Sharpness of Very Fine 30 but the surfaces are not perfectly smooth, through 7 in the date is a long scratch, opposite the nose is a lighter one, below AT in STATES is a large pit mark and three more very small ones can be found on the reverse. Darkish steel brown and sharply struck. Estimated Value $700-1,000

Half Cents

- 100 1794 Cohen-4. Net ANACS graded VG-8 Corroded. The surfaces show moderate corrosion as frequently seen on early copper. There is a shallow scratch through the lower part of Liberty's curls to the rim left of the date, and another on the central reverse. Overall, this coin is pretty typical of the those that survive.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 101 1794, Breen-2b, Cohen-2a, Rarity-3. Del Bland graded Good-5. Sharpness of Fine-12 but somewhat uniformly pitted. Medium dark steel brown with tan high points.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 102 1795. Lettered edge, with pole, Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded Almost Good-3. Sharpness of VG-7 but through BERTY and through the fraction are huge areas where corrosion was removed, on the obverse are two edge dents and over TES is one more which has been filed down. Dark olive with tan high points, the surfaces minutely porous.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 103 1795. Plain edge, no pole, Cohen-5b, Breen-5b, Rarity-5. PCGS graded VF-20 and Del Bland graded VG-8. A very attractive light brown example and generally well struck on a cut down large cent planchet, however there is some weakness at the date and at HALF, the latter due to die sinking. The fields on both sides display myriad microscopic marks and on the rim between A and T in STATES is a carbon spot.
Estimated Value $800-1,200

From our Benson Collection Sale, February 2000: 169.

- 104 1795. Plain edge, no pole, Breen-5b, Cohen-5b, Rarity-5. Del Bland graded VG-7. Despite weakness at the date as always seen at this grade level and obliteration of HALF CENT and other letters on the reverse due to the heavy diagonal die crack. Exceptionally clean with a pleasing light brown color.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 105 1800 Breen-1b, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded AU-50. With some blunt striking on the drapery at the end of the bust and a low spot below EN of CENT. Mint state sharpness but an area of shallow erosion is visible from above the second S in STATES through OF with another spot above M. On the lower nick is a tiny nick, otherwise quite free from abrasions. Medium chocolate brown with faint traces of faded mint color and some olive overtones including a very long line through the right obverse field and an area below the ribbon.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 106 1804. Plain 4, stemless; 1804 stems and 1803 damaged. The 1803 grades Fair, but has some edge damage; each 1804 grades VG. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 107 1804. Crosslet 4, stemless, Breen-11, Cohen-12, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded Fine-15. Medium dark steel brown. Slightly sharper with some microscopic hairlines on the face, a heavier one on the neck and a light edge dent above the end of the bust.
Estimated Value $40-60

- 108 1806. Small 6, stemless; 1807; 1809 and 1810. The 1806 grades Fine-12; 1807 VG-8; 1809 G-4 and 1810 Fr-2. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $120-150

- 109 1806 Breen-3, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded Fine-15. Sharpness of Very Fine 25 but in the upper hair are two nicks, a larger one is on the drapery and one more touches the left top of U in UNITED. On both sides are a few less important ones. Medium dark chocolate brown.
Estimated Value $40-60

- 110 1809. Normal date, Cohen-3, EF-45. Medium brown in color and with clean surfaces. The strike is strong, and we note the usual rim crumbling on the left side of the reverse.
Estimated Value $70-80

- 111 A group of Turban Head half cents. This group includes the following: 1809 F-12; 1809 VG-8; 1809 F-12; 1810-F-12; 1825 VG-8; 1828 12 stars G-6; 1828 VF-20, cleaned; 1829 VG-10; 1832 F-15; 1832 VF-20; 1834 VF-25, cleaned and 1835 VG-10, cleaned. Lot of 12 coins.
Estimated Value $250-350

Lovely 1811 Half Cent in Extremely Fine 45

- 112 1811 Cohen-2, Breen-2, Rarity-3. PCGS graded EF-45. One of the classic rarities of the Half Cent series, the date 1811 conjures up memories of tattered and faded want lists pulled from wallets, always with the date "1811" still unchecked. Here is a coin that will excite most collectors, without destroying their bank accounts. The surfaces are medium brown with an average number of ticks on both sides. As to the strike, it is a bit weak on the left side, but sharp on the right. As with most coins seen from this pairing show no die cracks or other deterioration. One of the features is the way the date 1811 was punched into the die, each digit seems to be leaning sharply to the left. A delightful coin for the collector to long enjoy.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000
- 113 1811 Cohen-2, Good-5. A scarce date, but the surfaces are abraded on both sides. Glossy from a protective coat of wax.
Estimated Value $100-130
- 114 1811 Breen-2, Cohen-2, Rarity-3. Del Bland graded Good-6. Somewhat sharper but the surfaces are lightly rough and in the hair over B is a nick. Dark steel brown.
Estimated Value $90-100
- 115 A small group of half cents. This lot includes 1825 F-12; 1828 13 stars, F-15; 1829 ANACS graded EF-40; 1832 VF-20; 1833 VF-20; 1834 F-12 and 1835 F-15. An average quality group for the date collector. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $170-200
- 116 1826 Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded AU-50. Nearly mint state in sharpness but on the obverse are light golden spots, mostly at the chin and mouth, otherwise the color is a pleasing light and darkish steel brown.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 117 1828. 13 stars and 1835. The 1828 is PCI graded EF-40 and the 1835 is PCI graded EF-45, but dark surfaces. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 118 1828. 13 stars. Breen-2, Cohen-3, Rarity-1. Counter-stamped E. CAIN on the obverse. Sharpness of VF-20 with numerous handling marks but nothing serious. Dark steel brown.
Estimated Value $40-UP

- 119 1828. 12 stars. Breen-3, Cohen-2, High rarity-2. Del Bland graded AU-55. With some blunt striking as often seen on this variety. Medium dark chocolate brown with considerable evidence of a faded mint red and light steel blue overtones, marred only by an almost invisible scuff mark between the chin and stars one and two and a microscopic nick above the space between A and L in HALF. Very attractive.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 120 1832 Cohen-1, Rarity-2, the Accessory "E" variety. PCGS graded MS-62 Brown. The die engraver punched in the lower left part of the E below the E of STATES in the wreath. The surfaces are dark brown with some reddish streaks up Liberty's neck to her face, and similar color in the first few stars. Nicer on the reverse, but several spots are noted there too.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 121 1833. ANACS graded MS-61 Brown. Deep, rich brown in color and well preserved.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 122 1833 Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded EF-45. Medium chocolate brown with light steel blue overtones through the stars and date. On both sides are faint circulation marks none of which are serious.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 123 1837. Token. ANACS graded AU-58. A nice example of this widely collected token, HT-73. Nice color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $100-150

- 124 1837. Token, Low-49. Del Bland graded AU-50. With some blunt striking. Mint state sharpness but next to the eagle's legs are a few microscopic scratches and right of the H in WORTH is a tiny nick. Medium brown with some evidence of faded mint red.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 125 1837. Token, Low-49. Del Bland graded VG-10. Sharpness of VF-25 but the surfaces are lightly rough and most of the coin exhibits a silver coating
Estimated Value $30-40
- 126 1840 Electrotpe of an "original". Del Bland graded AU-50. Shows no wear but on the obverse are pit like defects visible under magnification and on the reverse is an edge dent. Brown
Estimated Value $100-125

Half Cents

- 127 1841 Original. Breen 1-A, Rarity-6. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. This one has pinkish copper color throughout, and shows few signs of toning aside from a dusting of haze. Close examination will note some trivial hairlines and just a whisper of specks on both sides. The surfaces are clean, and we note a tiny tick mark near Liberty's nose. This one has the familiar die crack through stars three to six.
Estimated Value $5,000-5,500

- 128 1849. Large date. Breen-4, Cohen-1, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded EF-40. Fifteen points sharper but around star six and along the top of the head are traces of raised corrosion, behind the head is a scratch, along the right obverse edge are some tiny nicks and between O and F is a very small edge dent. Medium chocolate brown.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 129 1850, 1853 and 1856. The 1850 grades VF-20 with scratches; the 1853 EF-45 with scratches and the 1856 VF-30. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $120-150

- 130 1850 Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded AU-55. With a narrow line of low areas along the denticles on both sides and small low spots at the end of the bust and around the inside points of star 12. Mint state sharpness but the brown surfaces display light orange spots around star nine and left of star five, left of star thirteen is a small dark red spot and on both sides area couple of faint abrasions. Double profile from the end of the nose to the bust and all stars are double lined.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 131 1851 Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded EF-40. Pleasing brown surfaces, the obverse with a few minor handling marks.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 132 1853. MS-63 Brown. Glossy brown in color and well struck. One minor spot on the reverse.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 133 1853, Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded MS-62. Iridescent medium dark steel blue brown surfaces with fiery mint red around the obverse devices and throughout the reverse and almost completely free from any abrasions. A beautiful half cent.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 134 1854, Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded MS-61. Excellent medium brown surfaces just slightly iridescent with a light golden color in the upper left reverse, this faded from mint red.
Estimated Value $120-140

- 135 A group of Coronet half cents. This group includes the following: 1849 VF-25, corroded area on reverse; 1850 VF-20 recolored and 1855 VF-30. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 136 1856, Breen-2a, Cohen-1, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded MS-60. With large low areas around HALF CENT. Flawless with darkish steel brown toning and a mixture of light brown.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 137 1857 Breen-1, Cohen-1, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded EF-45. Ten points sharper but cleaned and evenly retoned to a reddish steel color a porous spot above I in UNITED.
Estimated Value $90-110

- 138 A group of Draped Bust half cents. Draped bust half cents as follows: 1800 VG-10; 1803 VG-8; 1804 VG-10, obverse damage; 1804 VG-7, scratched; 1804 AG-3, corroded; 1805 VG-7; 1806 VF-8; 1806 VF-8; 1807 AG-3, corroded and 1808 G-6, cleaned. Lot of 10 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

Large Cents

- 139 1793, Chain reverse, "AMERI." in legend, Sheldon-1, Low rarity-4, Del Bland graded Almost Good-3. Although this cent is uniformly and lightly rough with a tiny edge dent opposite the end of the nose it is a decent example for the grade of a very popular variety. Only the 17 in the date is visible and the tops of STATES OF are worn smooth but no other problems exist. Darkish steel gray in color.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 140 1793, Chain reverse, "AMERICA" in legend, Sheldon-3, Breen-4. Sharpness of Fine-15 but a bit rough and some surface marks. This one has nice details, but the surfaces show some marks including some pits before Liberty's neck and one just above her truncation in the field. There are some bumps along the rim, a few of which have been smoothed out, notably above TIED and ST, and we note roughness throughout on the planchet. This one is dark brown to olive in color, and has some mottling in the color. While not the finest available, this is far from the worst seen, as many are in lower grade and have more challenging surfaces.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

- 141 1793, Wreath reverse, vine and bars edge, Sheldon-6, Rarity-3. Del Bland graded Sharpness of VG-10 but holed and plugged. Holed and crudely plugged above the head and the surfaces are rough, especially on the reverse. Darkish steel brown.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 142 1794 Sheldon-51, Low rarity-5. Del Bland graded VG-10. Sharpness of Very Fine-35 but the reverse is corroded and an attempt was made to improve it by tooling the surface leaving OF AMERICA obliterated or nearly so. Corrosion and pit marks still show, a long portion of the edge over N in UNITED was filed down and under a glass traces of smoothing can be seen in the obverse fields weakening the lower half of 794. Dark steel brown, tan high points on the obverse.
Estimated Value $400-600
Ex: Tom Morley--Superior Galleries 5/92:207--Tom Morley

- 143 A lot of Liberty Cap large cents graded by Del Bland. 1794 FR-2, corroded; 1794 Poor, porous; 1795 AG-3 and 1796 G-4, large heavy edge dent. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-UP

- 144 1796, Liberty cap, Sheldon-81, Rarity-5. Del Bland graded VG-8. Slightly sharper but lightly porous with an ancient long scratch through the upper left wreath and a minor edge dent over ES in STATES. Darkish steel brown.

Lovely Nichols Find 1796 Draped Bust Cent

- 145 1796. Draped Bust, Sheldon-119, Rarity-3. NGC graded MS-61 Brown. This is a hoard coin thanks to a Sen. Benjamin Goodhue who purchased 1000 of these for his daughters, most of the coins were dated 1796 or 1797, and these were preserved through their descendants until 1863 when they were purchased by David Nichols of Gallows Hill, Massachusetts and started entering numismatic channels at that time. Further, the coins from this hoard often had the best planchets, which were prepared by Boulton & Watt in England and shipped to Philadelphia for coining. This particular example has choice medium brown color with a few trivial handling ticks, mostly on the devices. There is a small planchet defect above the RI of AMERICA near the rim, and that will serve to hallmark this particular example. One of the earliest hoards of Federal coinage yet found, and one of the few dates that collectors can hope to obtain in mint state because of this old hoard.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 146 1796. Draped Bust, Sheldon-116, Rarity-5. Del Bland graded Almost Good-3. Sharpness of VG-8 but porous with a very small reverse edge dent. Dull dark steel and lighter steel gray in color.
Estimated Value $100-150

- 147 1797, Sheldon-137, High rarity-2. Del Bland graded VG-10. Sharpness of Very Fine-20 but the surfaces are dark olive and rough with a dent opposite the neck, two more tiny ones on the right obverse, a scratch left of I in LIBERTY and a heavier scratch through UNI.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 148 A group of Draped Bust large cents graded by Del Bland. 1797 AG-3; 1797 FR-2, corroded; 1798 AG-3; 1800 Basal State-1, corroded and 1801 FR-2. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $75-100

Mint State 1797 Draped Bust

- 149 1797. Reverse of 1797, stems, Sheldon-135, Low rarity-3. NGC graded MS-61 Brown. Here is a nice example of the popular Nichols Find variety (see the 1796 above). The surfaces are medium brown with lighter hues near the periphery and brown luster in the fields. Minor handling marks mostly scattered over the devices, keeping the fields clean for the grade. Well struck save for a small area on the back of Liberty's head, where minor weakness is present. No signs of raised spots or other similar "copper" problems anywhere to be seen. A perfect coin for the collector.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 150 1798, Sheldon-184, Low rarity-2. Del Bland graded VG-7. Darkish steel brown. Above the shoulder is a pit mark and over IT in UNITED is an edge dent.
Estimated Value $40-50
- 151 1798, Sheldon-155, Reverse of 1796, Rarity-3. Del Bland graded Good-6. Smooth medium dark steel brown surfaces marred only by some small pit marks in the area of the shoulder and a light edge dent over T in UNITED.
Estimated Value $40-60
- 152 1807. Large 7 over 6, Sheldon-273, Rarity-1. ANACS graded VG-8 and Del Bland graded VG-7. Dark steel brown and clean except for a dent opposite the neck.
Estimated Value $30-40
- 153 1808, Sheldon-278, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded VG-8. With weak striking and heavy flowlines. Slightly sharper but cleaned and retoned to a medium steel brown with a circular reddish spot in the field at the nose, the surfaces glossy but quite free from handling marks except for a thin pin scratch through F A in OF AMERICA.
Estimated Value $80-100
- 154 A group of Draped Bust and Turban Large Cents graded by Del Bland. The following are included: 1802 VG-7, edge dents; 1802 AG-3, corroded; 1802 G-4; 1802 AG-3; 1802 FR-2, corroded; 1802 G-6; 1802 FR-2, corroded; 1803 G-6; 1803 AG-3, corroded; 1803 G-4; 1807/6 G-5 and 1808 AG-3 corroded. Lot of 12 coins.
Estimated Value $150-UP
- 155 1818. MS-60+. Red and Brown. Faded mint red on both sides, with the usual spots. A hoard coin but popular for type collectors who need this style.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 156 A group of Middle date large cents graded by Del Bland. 1817 G-5; 1817 Basal State-1; 1819 VG-7; 1821 VG-7, heavy obverse ents; 1822 AG-3; 1823/2 AG-3, corroded; 1828 G-4, rough; 1830 F-12, rough; 1831 VG-10, porous; 1833 F-15, obverse pitting; 1835 VG-8; 1836 VF-20; 1836 F-15, obverse scratches; 1837 VG-10, cleaned; 1837 VF-20; 1837 VG-10; 1838 VG-7, cleaned; 1838 VG-7; 1838 VF-25; 1839 G-6; 1839 VG-8 and 1839 VG-10. Lot of 22 coins.

High Grade 1823/2 Cent

- 157 1823. 3 over 2, Newcomb-1. NGC graded AU-55 Brown. One of the finest graded of this rare overdate, NGC has graded one coin as AU-55, with 3 graded in AU-58 above, there are none graded higher. PCGS is similar in their Population Report, where we note none graded in AU-55, and a single coin graded higher, it also AU-58. No mint state coins have yet been graded by the two main services. This one has deep brown colors with a few trivial handling marks. Identifiable by a tick on the lowest point of the twelfth star and a couple of small ticks around the date. On the reverse there is a short mark below the T of UNITED, and a small toning spot below the R of AMERICA. Well struck and preserved, with average handling marks for the grade. An important opportunity for the specialist.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 158 1824. 4 over 2, Newcomb-1. PCGS graded AU-55. An outstanding coin for the grade, the color ranges from light brown to medium brown, somewhat mottled but quite appealing overall. Fully struck on the curls of Liberty, and some of the stars show radial lines, though not all. The overdate feature is bold and the coin will certainly enhance even the most advanced collection. PCGS has graded 3 this high, with 4 graded above in AU-58, and a single coin as MS-61 above. Don't expect to find a better one! The reverse is quite nice too, with problem free wear and no distracting marks. Later die state with an encircling crack through the reverse legend.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

- 159 1825, Newcomb-3, Rarity-3. Del Bland graded VI-25. Decent surfaces with traces of removable verdigris around most devices and left of in ONE is a dent. Medium chocolate brown, darker around the stars and letters and the obverse is off-center at K-9.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 160 1835, Newcomb-6, Rarity-1. Del Bland graded VF-25. Sharpness of Extremely Fine-40 with medium chocolate brown surfaces and a light golden color around most obverse devices from being cleaned long ago to remove many tiny carbon spots which still show. On both sides are some small abrasions.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 161 1839. Head of 1838, beaded cords, Newcomb-3, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded AU-55. Pleasant medium brown with darker areas through the date, below the chin and opposite the end of the nose. The only noticeable defect is a small nick in the field behind the neck. Well struck and desirable.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 162 1839. Booby head, Newcomb-13, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded AU-50. Mint state sharpness but between the date and stars five to thirteen are several minute nicks plus a scratch from star thirteen to the lowest curl and around ONE CENT are some moderate sized very shallow defects. Lustrous medium dark steel brown with the faintest traces of faded mint color on the reverse.
Estimated Value $125-150

Cents

- 163 1843, Newcomb-12, Rarity-2. Del Bland graded AU-50. Mint state in sharpness but cleaned and rather nicely retoned to golden brown on the obverse and reddish tan on the reverse. In the upper left obverse field is a long, wide scuff mark and across the rim right of star eight is a fine scratch.
Estimated Value $100-125

Ex: Superior Galleries 2/92:1268--Martin Paul (The Rarities Group).

- 164 1843 Newcomb-4, Rarity-1, Obverse of 1842, Reverse of 1844. Del Bland graded VF-25. Dark steel with brown undertones especially on the reverse. Opposite the eyebrow is a tiny nick and on the lower face are a few new hairline scratches showing raw copper.
Estimated Value $20-30

- 165 1851, Newcomb-7. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. With hints of original red in the fields and lovely brown surfaces. Well struck, and free of low areas.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 166 1851 Newcomb-4. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. With a minor scratch on the neck above the 8, and we note the date shows lots of recutting, and multiple die file marks are noted around Liberty. Great brown color with hints of red, and well preserved. Mostly well struck, but a couple of tiny low areas.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 167 1851 over 81, Newcomb-3, Rarity-1. PCI graded VF-25 and Del Bland graded VG-10. Medium brown and nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $30-40

- 168 1853. NGC graded MS-65 Red. Bright red in color with a scattering of small spots on both sides. Mint fresh fields and devices, which display very few marks from handling. Well struck on most of the stars, and just a couple are weak at the centers.
Estimated Value $1,600-1,800

- 169 1853 Mint Error, double struck rotated in collar. NGC graded EF-40 Brown. Both sides are entirely double struck and the original strike is about 90 degrees clockwise from the later strike, which mostly obliterated the first strike. Note Liberty's headband point near the second star on the obverse, and this will orient the viewer to the various prior strike evidence. All mint errors from the period are scarce and always popular with collectors. There is a broad streak on the reverse probably from a rubber band. Chocolate brown in color with typical circulation marks.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

- 170 1853 Newcomb-3. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Lovely brown color and clean surfaces throughout. A couple of tiny spots on the reverse.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 171 1853. PCGS graded MS-65 Brown. With some red in the fields, but mostly brown in color. Satiny luster and eye-appealing.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 172 1855. Upright 5's. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Choice light brown in color with some mint red around the devices. Well struck and carefully preserved since its time of issue.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 173 1856. Slanting 5. PCGS graded MS-65 Brown. This is a "slanting 5" and not "upright 5" as noted on the PCGS insert. Medium brown in color and with a typical strike, the stars don't show their central lines and we note some weakness on the wreath.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 174 A group of slabbed large cents. These are all graded by either PCI or ANACS, but we are noting the net grades by Del Bland here: 1820/19 G-4, obverse corrosion; 1823/2 G-4, obverse corrosion, cleaned; 1840 VG-7; 1847 VG-8; 1852 VF-35; 1852 VF-30 and 1853 VF-35, recolored. Several show repunched dates on the later issues. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $200-UP

- 175 A group of late date cents. As follows: 1840 VG-10, corroded; 1842 VG-8; 1843 G-6; 1843 F-12; 1844 VG-7, rough; 1844 VG-7; 1845 VG-7, corroded; 1845 VF-20; 1846 G-6, porous; 1847 VG-10; 1848 VG-10; 1848 VG-10; 1849 F-15, recolored; 1847 VG-7, recolored; 1850 VG-10, rough; 1851 VG-8, rough; 1851 F-15, cleaned; 1852 VF-25; 1853 VF-25; 1853 G-6, corroded; 1853 VF-30; 1853 VF-20, whizzed; 1854 VG-7, obverse scratches; 1854 F-15; 1855 AG-3, cleaned; 1855 VG-10, cleaned; 1856 G-10 and 1856 VG-10, rough. Lot of 28 coins.
Estimated Value $300-UP

- 176 A group of Middle and Late Date large cents. As follows: 1816 VF-25, cleaned and retuned; 1816 F-15; 1817 F-12, cleaned; 1829 G-4; 1835 VF-35, cleaned and nicely retuned; 1839 F-15 reverse scratches; 1839 VF-20, obverse corrosion; 1843 VG-8, gouges on obverse and 1844 VF-20. Lot of 9 coins
Estimated Value $125-200

Flying Eagle Cents

- 177 1856. EF-40 but cleaned. This one has been poorly cleaned, and the surfaces show evidence of mishandling. Someone skilled at working with copper could make this one look much better if it was properly retuned. Rare and in demand, this first year of issue of the small cent was enormously popular. Government officials finally responded to years of complaints about the poor condition of the large cents still in circulation and were also trying to rid the public of large numbers of foreign silver coins circulating, many of them counterfeit. The new small cent seemed to be the perfect solution, and in some regards succeed in their quest to produce a uniform (and local) circulating medium. Most of the survivors have been cleaned and mishandled over the years, as these 1856 cents have been collected since their time of issue.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 178 1857. MS-60. A pleasant coin for the date collector as it is well struck and retains original mint surfaces and color.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 179 1857. AU-55. Softly impressed on the eagle's tail and head, but this is as struck. A couple of tiny flecks are noted on the obverse.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 180 1857, 1858 S.L. and 1858 L.L. These all grade AU-50 or better. The 1858 L.L. has graffiti under the eagle, which has been partially effaced by dull scrapes. Note the 1858 S.L. has a die crack which spears the eagle's head through his eye. All three look like they were lightly cleaned too, in the past. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 181 1858. Large letters and 1858 Small letters. Both grade Fine to VF. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $40-50

- 182 1858. Small letters. PCGS graded MS-64. Hazy wood grain toning mostly on the reverse, with a solitary red spot below the E of STATES. Fully struck on the eagle, and minor weakness is noted on ONE at the central reverse.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 183 1858. Small letters. ANACS graded MS-63. This one has minor doubling on the obverse, as often seen. Toned with deep golden hues but still flashy when held under a light.
Estimated Value $200-300

Indian Head Cents

- 184 1859, 1860, 1861, 1863 and 1864 C.N. These grade AU-50 to AU-55. Some are lightly cleaned, but most are perfect for a date set. Lot of 5 coins
Estimated Value $300-400

Cents

- 185 1859 to 1864 Copper Nickel Indian Cents. This lot includes one of each date, 1859 through 1864 Copper Nickel (no bronze or "L" coins) and these grade from Very Good to Very Fine. A couple of have spots and surface scrapes, but good for an album collector. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $70-80

- 186 1862. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the nicest of this date to cross our desk, this magnificent MS-66 deserves special attention. PCGS has graded 38 this high, with only 4 graded higher, making this one of the top 50 known. If you want a really superb example of this date, then check this one out. One minor dark spot on Liberty's chin, but blazing luster all around, and well struck too.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 187 1863. PCGS graded Proof 64. A nice touch of color with some spotting on the outside rims.
Estimated Value $750-850
- 188 1864. Bronze, no "L" and 1874. Both grade AU-55. Both have been cleaned to dupe collectors into believing they were mint state. Still red and bright. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 189 A group of Indian Cents as follows. This lot includes 1864 Bronze, 1865, 1866 with an obverse scratch, 1868, 1875 and 1879 grading from Very good to Extremely Fine. The 1865 was cleaned in the past but the balance of the lot is brown and original. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $75-125
- 190 1864. Bronze, with "L". MS-61 Red and Brown. Wood-grain toning on both sides, with a couple of trivial specks, one on the reverse at the left ribbon end, another at the center of the denomination. Few handling marks, but not as sparkling as others.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 191 1864. Bronze, with "L". AU-58. We note some minor surface roughness on the obverse, perhaps something has been removed or reworked in that area. Scarce and popular in high grades.
Estimated Value $160-200
Ex: Stack's 9/86:192.
- 192 1864. Bronze, with "L". VF-30. This one has streaky toning and some mint red near the lettering and devices. Scarce and always popular.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 193 1865 and 1866. Both grade AU-50. The 1866 was cleaned. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 194 1866. SEGS graded MS-64 Red. Light wood grain toning on the reverse and well struck from lapped dies. We note a spot on the D of UNITED and another on the A of STATES, both of which are small. One short scratch on the upper obverse.
Estimated Value $800-1,200
- 195 1867. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. Mostly red with some light toning on both sides. Well struck throughout, and a lovely gem example of this date. Clean cheek on Liberty, and struck by a reverse die which shows some minor die cracks.
Estimated Value $800-900
- 196 1867. MS-60 Red and Brown. This one has nice color and surfaces. Note the obverse die which shows strong clash marks near the feathers and above, and some die file lines on Liberty's face. A scarce date, and one a collector will appreciate.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 197 1868. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. A high end gem that is graced by bright red color and well struck devices. Examination with a glass will note a couple of tiny specks, mostly on the dentils. Obviously this one has been well cared for since it was coined. Mostly red in color, with slight fading.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000
- 198 1868. AU-55. Satiny brown on the obverse, with a rainbow of colors on the reverse. Nice surfaces and fascinating colors on the reverse.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 199 1869 over 9. EF-45. This one has the horns over the 9 in the date from the recutting. Cleaned and a coin that needs retoning to look more original.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 200 1869. PCGS graded Proof 66 Red and Brown. This is one of the finest graded of the date, it is alone as PR-66 RB, and just 3 have been graded PR-66 Red by PCGS. Hence, this is one of the finest in existence, and we concur, as the surfaces are pristine and the color a delight to behold. Spot-free surfaces, keep this head and shoulders above the pack, and we recommend it heartily to the connoisseur.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300
- 201 1869. MS-60 Plus Brown. Hints of original red in the fields and well struck. There may be some slight repunching on the 9 above the tail. Excellent surfaces for the period.
Estimated Value $300-400

Cents

- 202 1870. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. This coin is stunning, and we expect it to bring a strong price. We note a trace of a fingerprint on the reverse, but no handling problems or areas worth noting. A bright, original coin from an old time collection.
Estimated Value $700-900

- 203 1871. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. Mostly red in color, with an overlay of wood grain streaks on both sides. A couple of minor specks noted, around the periphery. Well struck and seldom found this nice.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 204 1871. Fine-12. Typical for the grade, problem-free though.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 205 1872. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Blazing red and outstanding for the grade, we note virtually no signs of mellowing in the color. The reverse is fantastic, with nary a tick to be found, while the obverse has just a few stray ticks and few enough hairlines that they can be counted on one hand. A key date that is seldom found at all, and rarely in full red condition.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 206 1872. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. One of the key dates to the Indian Cent series, this lovely 1872 is seldom found in grades even approaching this. The color is strong, with red predominating and slight mellowing on both sides. A couple of specks near the date, but they are minor.
Estimated Value $900-1,000

- 207 1872. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Bright and unspotted on the obverse, with a whitish hue over the surfaces. Tracks of an old fingerprint on the reverse on the lower half. A scarce date in high grade.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 208 1873. Closed 3. NGC graded Proof 64 Brown. Streaky and mottled toning and some areas of blue toning around the devices. Scarce
Estimated Value $170-190

- 209 1873. Closed 3. Proof 60. One light scratch at the top of the obverse in the field. Glossy brown with hints of red on both sides, and quite appealing for the moderate grade
Estimated Value $90-100

- 210 1874. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. This one has some sunset gold around the periphery, and is quite nice for the grade
Estimated Value $400-500

- 211 1874. Proof 60 plus Red and Brown. Good contrast, but there are some minor specks on both sides.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 212 1875. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Bright red, but there is an unfortunate spot below the date and another on the wreath.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 213 1875. NGC graded Proof 63 Brown. This is the "recut 5" noted as Breen-1992, and called "rare" as such. Toned with magnificent blue and brown shades and worth a premium as such, as few coins tone with such lovely shades.
Estimated Value $125-175

- 214 1875. Proof 60 Brown. Mottled color with clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 215 1876. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. Bright red with faint speckling starting to settle in. One tiny tick before the headband in the field, otherwise the surfaces are pristine. Seldom found this nice.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 216 1876. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Mostly red with mellow brown tones starting to show. A few minor specks on the lower obverse, probably traces of a fingerprint and a tiny nick on the reverse above the O in ONE.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 217 1876. MS-60 Brown. Centennial year, nice on the obverse, streaky dark tones on the reverse.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 218 1877. Sharpness of Fine-15 but some edge damage and scratches. The upper obverse rim and lower reverse rim show compression damage, and the surfaces have faint scratches on the obverse and reverse. Toned a lovely medium brown, and we note LIBERTY is full on the head band. Perfect for an album where the minor edge damage would be hidden and the scratches would not be noticeable. The key date to the Indian cent series and always in high demand.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 219 1877. Good-5. The surfaces show some old porosity on both sides. Deep brown in the fields, lighter on the devices.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 220 1877. PCGS graded Almost Good-3.
Estimated Value $275-325
- 221 1878. PCGS graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Choice surfaces for the grade, with a clean cheek on Liberty and excellent color too. One tiny speck near the E of ONE on the reverse, which should be removed and we suggest the buyer have this done promptly as it will eventually damage the coin. Faded mint red on both sides.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 222 1878. NGC graded Proof 63 Red and Brown. Nice coppery toning on both sides with ample original surface remaining. Minor hairlines and free of spots or other problems.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 223 1878. PCGS graded Proof 63 Red and Brown. Mostly subdued red in color, and clean for the grade, but there is a planchet flaw left of the date in the field, where a flake has fallen out.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 224 1879. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. The date is obviously recut on the 1 and the 9 in the date, both of which are recut low. Full blazing red color on both sides, with few signs of mellowing. This is tied with 20 others as the finest graded by NGC in the Red Brown category, making it quite an important offering for the advanced Indian cent specialist, with just 2 seen in full Red in this grade. One MS-67 Brown has been graded by NGC. Nearly full red, with slight toning on the face.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 225 1879. Proof 64 Red. This one has been cleaned (lightly) and is now retoning. No real surface problems, and one tiny speck below the F of OF on the obverse. Scarce.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 226 1879, 1880 and 1881. These all grade MS-60 Red and Brown or better. All 3 are really nice for the grade assigned. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 227 1880. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Magenta hues with bluish brown in the devices. A beautiful and alluring coin for the date collector.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 228 1880. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Deep brown toning on both sides and with clean surfaces. Sharply struck.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 229 A group of 19 Indian Cents. This lot includes coins from 1880 to 1899, missing the 1886 otherwise complete. Grades range from Good to About Uncirculated. A couple are cleaned, others show a scratch or two, but these would be good for the album collector. Lot of 19 coins.
Estimated Value $100-115

- 230 1881. NGC graded Proof 66 Red. A superb example of this date, there is only on trivial speck located in the denticles above the C in AMERICA. Pristine surfaces and an exceptional coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,100-1,300
- 231 1881. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. An exceptional cheek on Liberty with bright red color with just slight mellowing. One tiny planchet flake on the R of AMERICA.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 232 1881. PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown. Deep toning with hints of blue and brown on both sides and quite lovely overall. Boldly struck and free of distracting spots or handling ticks.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 233 1881. NGC graded Proof 64 Brown. This is a colorful toned proof, the colors range from red, to yellow to green, with great variety on both sides. Further, its in an old style small PCGS holder, so this one was put away a decade or so ago. Nice surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 234 1882, 1883 and 1884. These each grade MS-63 (mostly) Red. Smooth color and clean surfaces on each. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 235 1882. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Lovely brown tones with a hint of original red beneath, and only a few faint specks on the reverse. Nicely struck and preserved.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 236 1883. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. This one has lovely color hues on the obverse, with deep green hues on the obverse while the reverse is more red and magenta in color. Excellent surfaces and well preserved, and a delight for the toning specialist.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP
- 237 1883. NGC graded Proof 65 Brown. This one shows the recut 3 at the top right of that number in the date. Beautiful color and clean surfaces for the grade, this one will entice the collector with its rich brown tones with blue highlights.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 238 1883. NGC graded Proof 65 Brown. Perfectly smooth brown luster and well struck. A beauty.
Estimated Value $175-200
- 239 1884. PCGS graded Proof 64 Brown. Somehow, brown just does not describe this coin, for it is bright magenta in the fields, with a brown on the face of Liberty and similar vibrant colors on the reverse.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 240 1885. NGC graded Proof 68 Brown. Here is a wonder coin, the grade says it all, PF-68! How many of these exist, just a single coin in the brown category. There is one other graded this high by NGC as PF-68 RB, and of course none are higher. Further, the toning is magnificent on this coin, deep brown with alluring blue highlights throughout. At the base of the reverse, there is a hot magenta area below the wreath, while the balance is the same blue-brown over mirror fields. The strike is perfect, to be sure, with no signs of weakness. As to marks, we could only locate one tiny one above the E in ONE, which apparently kept this from an even higher grade. Free of all but the most minute signs of handling, and no spots to speak of. If you demand one of the very finest known examples of this date, then take a look at this stunning example.

Estimated Value $3,000-UP

- 241 1885. NGC graded Proof 68 Red and Brown. A perfect mate to the 1885 PF-68 Brown cent in this sale, this is the big brother coin, the Red Brown coin that also reaches the pinnacle grade of PF-68! Note the sublime surfaces, the perfectly preserved splendor the encompasses all an Indian Cent can be. Fiery orange-red toning that shows slight mellowing, just enough to keep this from the "Red" classification. No signs of spots in the fields, and just a hint of handling on Liberty's neck. Fully struck, and perfectly preserved. This is the finest graded by NGC (along with the PF-68 Brown also in this sale) there are no others that grade this high, and there are no others graded higher by that service. If you demand one of the finest known wonder coins for your collection, then take your pick, a superb brown example or this mind boggling red-brown example.
- Estimated Value $3,000-4,000
- 242 1885. PCGS graded Proof 66 Red and Brown. Mostly red with minor toning starting to form. Free of problems aside from a tiny dot on the first 8 in the date.
- Estimated Value $500-600
- 243 1885. PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown. Deep brown fields with hints of red and blue when examined under a light. This one is a real beauty, and its housed in the old green insert PCGS holder. A lot of coin for the money.
- Estimated Value $250-300
- 244 1885. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. This one is mostly brown on the obverse, some red on the reverse. Clean surfaces for the grade, and very nice indeed
- Estimated Value $150-200
- 245 1885. Proof 64 Brown. Glossy surfaces throughout, and very well preserved. Bold and beautiful, with nice color and spot free
- Estimated Value $125-150

- 246 1886 Variety 1. PCGS graded Proof 66 Red. One of the finest graded by PCGC of the date, which has awarded this grade 5 times, and none are graded higher, of course. This no nonsense coin glows with original red luster and is simply stunning. The surfaces approach perfection and it would be hard to imagine a nicer example of this date.
- Estimated Value $2,000-3,000
- 247 1886. NGC graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. This is the type 1 variety. Flashy red in color with some toning on the upper obverse, and lower reverse too. A scarce date and hard to locate with this much red.
- Estimated Value $200-250
- 248 1886 Type 1. MS-63 Red and Brown. Mostly brown on the obverse, with some red, while the reverse is a bit lighter in color.
- Estimated Value $150-175
- 249 1886 PF-60; 1887 MS-63 Red and 1888 PF-60. Some have been cleaned. Lot of 3 coins.
- Estimated Value $150-200
- 250 1888. NGC graded Proof 64 Brown. Exceptional surfaces and evenly toned throughout. A pristine coin for the grade.
- Estimated Value $130-140
- 251 1889. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Deep brick red in the fields, with Liberty toned a shade of gold. Bold and beautiful, and well preserved. One speck on her neck, and another at the bust tip.
- Estimated Value $300-UP
- 252 1889, 1890 and 1907. Each is NGC graded MS-64, the first two are Brown, and the last is Red. Each is nice for the grade assigned, and none have spots. Lot of 3 coins.
- Estimated Value $100-120
- 253 1889, 1890 and 1891. All grade MS-60 Red and Brown. Lot of 3 coins.
- Estimated Value $70-90
- 254 1890. PCGS graded Proof 64 Red. Brick red in the fields with the central devices on Liberty splashed with gold tones. A couple of handling marks on each side from full gem, but no major spots.
- Estimated Value $200-300
- 255 1891. PCGS graded Proof 64 Red. This one has some delicate flecks of color on the high points over the otherwise blazing red surfaces. Hidden tick marks on Liberty's face from full gem, but a beautiful coin nevertheless.
- Estimated Value $200-300
- 256 1892. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Mint fresh and well preserved, this coin is certainly at the high end for the grade assigned. We note a tiny disturbance on the second feather, but the cheek and fields are extremely nice on this coin. PCGS has graded 42 as such, with 11 higher.
- Estimated Value $250-300
- 257 1892. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Original and red throughout, with well struck devices. There is a trace of a fingerprint on the obverse, and a minor toning spot located on the inside of the base of the wreath, just above the high ribbon bow.
- Estimated Value $250-300

Cents

- 258 1892. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. This one is certainly very high end for the grade. One tiny speck is noted near the ball of the 9 in the date, otherwise the color is nice with brilliant luster and free of significant handling marks.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 259 1892, 1893, 1895 and 1896. These four grade from MS-61 to 63. Each is spot-free and has some original mint red under the brown toning. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 260 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895 and 1896. These grade MS-60 or better. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $100-150

- 261 1893. NGC graded MS-66 Red. Blazing red color with just a whisper of haze on the obverse and free of detracting dark spots. NGC has only graded 20 this high, with a single coin graded higher. With the recent advent of more and more specialists demanding top quality coins in each series, the top graded coins receive more and more attention from bidders when they cross the block.
Estimated Value $500-750
- 262 1893. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Blazing red in color with lighter shades at the top of the obverse, and free of spots or other problems. Examination with a loupe will note a couple of tiny handling marks which keep this from perfection. On the reverse there is a hint of haze, and a couple of infinitesimal specks. One of just 21 graded this high by PCGS, with 5 graded higher in Red.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 263 1893. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bright red in color, with clean surfaces and problem free surfaces. Scarce this nice, and worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 264 1893. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Beautiful color and clean surfaces that show only a few hints of haze. One of 21 graded this high by PCGS, with just 5 graded higher, hardly a "common date" in this grade! Bid accordingly.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 265 1894. NGC graded Proof 66 Red and Brown. This one has pretty wild colors, the obverse has deep brown in the fields while the devices are magenta and blue, on the reverse we note fireplace ember red with some blue on the high points. Superb surfaces and quite nice in every way.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 266 1894. PCGS graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. This one has hazy toning around the devices and remains reflective in the fields. In an old style small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 267 1896. MS-65 Red. Full blazing red and without the usual spots or similar detractors. Bold and beautiful in every way.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 268 1897. PCGS graded Proof 66 Red and Brown. Mostly red, with pinkish hues in the fields and well frosted devices. A rare coin this nice, and really hard to find any better.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 269 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900 and 1901. These grade MS-60 or better. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $100-150
- 270 1898. NGC graded Proof 66 Brown. Deep brown shades on both sides with highly reflective fields and wonderful surfaces. A high-end gem that will entice the advanced numismatist to bid high.
Estimated Value $400-UP
- 271 1898. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. Slightly faded mint red on the obverse, with toning starting to form on the Indian's cheek. Two trivial specks are noted, one near the O of ONE and another on the right side of the wreath. Pristine surfaces.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 272 1898 (2 pieces) and 1899 (2 pieces). These grade from MS-61 to MS-64. One of the 1898s has some heavy reddish patina on both sides. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 273 1899. NGC graded MS-66 Red. This one is more golden than red, but the surfaces are pristine throughout. NGC has graded 45 this high with just 6 graded higher. A blazer for the date collector.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 274 1899. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bright red on the reverse, the obverse gold in color with some pink areas, perhaps from storage. There are some tiny specks around the O in ONE on the reverse. For the date, PCGS has graded 35 as MS-65 Red, with just 31 coins graded higher by that service (in Red) of the date.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 275 1899. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Gold colors with some deeper red on both sides, and well struck. Scarce this nice, as previously noted.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 276 1899. NGC graded Proof 65 Red. Deep fuschia and magenta on the obverse, and similar on the reverse with bits of golden yellow there. This one must have been exposed to something unusual as these are not the typical colors seen. Many will find this highly appealing, so take a look and see if you love wildly toned coins.
Estimated Value $140-160
- 277 1900. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Deep ruby red around the periphery, a bit more golden at the centers. Clean for the grade, and appealing. A scarce, turn of the century proof.
Estimated Value $200-UP
- 278 1900. ICG graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. Nice overall, although there are some small carbon flecks mostly around the reverse periphery. Mostly brown in color, with some red near the devices.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 279 A group of Indian Cents, 1900 to 1909. This group includes all Philadelphia Mint coins from 1900 through 1909 and grades range from Extremely Fine to About Uncirculated. Lot of 10 coins.
Estimated Value $50-75

Cents

- 280 1901, NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Mostly red with just a touch of toning on Liberty's face and atop the devices. The surfaces seem choice for the grade.
Estimated Value $200-UP
- 281 1901 (2 pieces); 1903; 1906; 1907 (2 pieces) and 1908. These grade from MS-60 to 64. We note some small raised spots on a few of the coins, so inspection is recommended. Most are toned, but some have hints of original red in the fields. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $100-135
- 282 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1908-S and 1909. These grade AU-53 to MS-60. Some have been cleaned. Lot of 9 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 283 1902, NGC graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. Nice and reflective with deep red hues in the fields and hints of yellow too. A couple of very small specks on both sides.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 284 1903, Proof 63 Red and Brown. Mostly red, with rose-gold toning around the periphery. Traces of an old fingerprint on the reverse, and a couple of very small specks noted on each side.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 285 1904, MS-65 Red. Here a real blazer that looks like it was just plucked from an original roll. The color is bright and undiminished and ranges from bright yellow to blazing red. Well struck too.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 286 1904, NGC graded Proof 63 Red and Brown. This one is a bit washed out in appearance and we note some hairlines in the fields.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 287 1905, NGC graded Proof 67 Brown. One of the finest graded by NGC, it is alone as the finest Brown example at this grade level, and just a few others are graded this high in the red and brown, or full red category. Beautiful blue hints on Liberty, with resplendent brown on the reverse.
We note there is a tiny raised speck of dust on the fourth feather from the top, this will cause the coin to tone differently over time, and NGC now offers a service where they will reholder the coin and remove the raised defect. This is quite important to accomplish because the longer the dust or residue stays on the coin, the more likely it will change the color and possibly damage the coin. We trust the new owner will send the coin back to NGC before this becomes a problem.
Estimated Value $700-UP

- 288 1906, PCGS graded Proof 65 Red, fiery sunset gold and red in color, with well frosted devices and clean fields. We note a faint line on Liberty's face, which must have kept this from an even higher grade. While many may believe this is a common date, in full Red condition they are scarce, in fact PCGS has graded just 18 this high, with 14 graded higher in full Red. One for the gem specialist.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 289 1906 Snow-21, Repunched Date. ANACS graded MS-61 Brown, Repunched Date. Nice surfaces for the moderate grade assigned, and well struck. The repunched date is minor but can be seen on the 1 and 6 with a glass.
Estimated Value $50-75
- 290 1908, NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Here is a toned collector's delight, the fields are toned a black-red with deep vibrant colors, while the devices are magenta and blue. This coin received some sort of different treatment to appear like this today, when compared with the usual run of the mill proofs we see. Take a look.
Estimated Value $400-UP

- 291 1908-S, PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Blazing reddish gold in color and well struck. A tough date, but overshadowed by its little sister, the 09-S! In an old small PCGS holder. Clean, spot-free surfaces.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 292 1908-S, Fine-15. There is one small edge mark on the right side of the reverse.
Estimated Value $30-40
- 293 1909, PCGS graded MS-65 Red.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 294 1909-S, MS-64 Red and Brown. This one has stunning hues of color, mostly on the obverse, and was obviously exposed to some unusual circumstances to obtain such an artist's palette of attendant hues. Deep red to green, with magenta thrown in too, take a look and see as they are too delicious to describe.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 295 1909-S, EF-40. Glossy brown and original
Estimated Value $250-350
- 296 1909-S, VF-25, LIBERTY is pretty bold on this one, with just a bit of wear on the diamonds. Typical medium brown in color, and decidedly scarce as a date.
Estimated Value $200-275

- 297 A group of Flying Eagle and Indian Cents. This lot includes 57 pieces which range in grade from Poor to Extremely Fine. There is an 1870 with a large hole in it. Others are cleaned (a few), some are banged up, but many are just nice circulated coins. Inspection recommended. Lot of 57 coins.
Estimated Value $100-UP

Lincoln Cents

- 298 1909. VDB. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. Nearly perfect surfaces and color. A delight to behold.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 299 1909. VDB. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. Nearly perfect surfaces and color, with slight mellowing in the color.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 300 1909. VDB. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. Nearly perfect surfaces and color, with slight mellowing in the color.
Estimated Value $75-100

- 301 1909-S. VDB. NGC graded MS-66 Red. An exceptional example of this ever popular key date. The original red color is fully present, and only the faintest traces of a fingerprint can be seen. Superb color and surface quality. Only 484,000 struck, most of which entered circulation at the time of issue. Some were saved as the first of their kind, and this is likely one that was set aside and carefully preserved since the day it was made.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000
- 302 1909-S. VDB. ICG graded MS-66 Red. This one has a few very minor specks on either side, with a small fingerprint pattern on the reverse. Excellent surfaces that show few signs of handling or other detriments. Fiery yellow red in color.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 303 1909-S. VDB. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bright original red in color with just a few hints of specks. An important coin to locate in gem condition. Typical strike, with weakness on the top of O in ONE, and the initials a bit soft on the lower reverse.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 304 1909-S. VDB. ICG graded MS-65 Red. The color has just a trace of reddish mellowing on this coin, and the strike is full and complete. A key date that has always been popular with collectors since the day they were struck. Collector's heard that the bold initials on the reverse were going to be dropped, so many hoarded the initial V.D.B. coins knowing they would be scarce. Luckily for today's collectors, they remain scarce, but available for a price.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000
- 305 1909-S. VDB. EF-45. This one is perfect for the date collector who demands top quality without paying the much higher price for a mint state example. Light wear from circulation, and no problems worthy of note, just medium brown in color and all is boldly struck. Note the tiny die crack through the right peak and inside leg of the M in UNUM and a tiny die dot before the E of E PLURIBUS. One to put in your date set and mark off your want list forever.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 306 1909-S. VDB. AU-50 but cleaned. Cleaned, but a coin that could be improved with a little more natural appearing brown toning. Scarce and popular.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 307 1909-S. VDB. VF-25. Medium to dark brown in color and with average surfaces. There is a faint pin scratch through the right obverse field into Lincoln's hair and above. Rare and always in demand as the key date to the Lincoln Cent series.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 308 1909-S. VDB. Sharpness of Fine-12 but corroded. The entire coin has been corroded or bathed in some sort of abrasive acid. Inspection mandatory, as the faults are visible with a glass, but the coin appears to just have streaky toning to the unaided eye.
Estimated Value $175-225
- 309 A complete set of Lincoln Cents, no Double Die, 1909-1964. This set grades Good and better, with many later dates in Mint State. Note the 1909 S VDB is VG and nice for the grade, other key dates have decent surfaces too. A select old time collection. Mounted in two Whitman blue coin albums.
Estimated Value $600-800
- 310 Lincoln Cent collection, incomplete, 1909 to 1961-D. This collection grades from Good to Uncirculated. The following dates are missing: 1909 S. VDB, 1909-S, 1914-D, 1922 "P" and 1927-S. Many high grade coins are included, and the later dates are mostly mint state. There is a 1955 double die, which grades EF-45, but is cleaned to an unnatural brightness. Lots to work with here. Mounted in 2 Library of Coins Albums, and a very nice set for the collector.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 311 1909-S. MS-63 Red. Mint fresh luster and clean for the grade. One tiny planchet flaw on the reverse rim near the bottom. Spot-free too.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 312 1909-S and 1931-S. The 1909-S grades Fine-12 and the 1931-S grades MS-60 with spots. Some of the spots on the 1931-S may be removable, but let an expert handle it. A nice pair for the album. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $30-45

Cents

- 313 1911. ICG graded Proof 66 Red. Slightly mellowed color on the reverse, with a couple of fingerprint traces on the upper right reverse. Excellent color and surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 314 1911. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. A blazing red gem that is housed in the old style small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 315 1911 and 1916. NGC graded MS-64 RB and NGC graded MS-65 RB. Two coins in lot.
Estimated Value $40-60

- 316 1911-D. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Sharply struck, especially on the wheat ears. Minor mellowing in the color on the top of the reverse, but not enough to knock it out of the red designation. In the old style small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 317 1911-D. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Sharply struck by the dies and exceptional surfaces and color for the grade. A difficult date to find in full "red" and hence should see a strong price. Perfect for the date collector.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 318 1911-D and 1926-S. Both grade MS-60+. A couple of spots are noted on each coin, but they otherwise have decent surfaces. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

Rare Gem Red Proof 1912 Cent

- 319 1912. ICG graded Proof 66 Red. Superb surfaces that show no signs of handling or problems. We note hints of color steaks on Lincoln's coat towards the date, and a couple of smaller ones on the reverse. An extremely rare coin in Proof, 2,145 were struck. It is unlikely that many are better than this example of the few gems known.
Estimated Value $6,000-UP

- 320 1912. ICG graded MS-66. The strike is a bit weak around the periphery, but strong on the wheat ears. Spot-free and superb in every way.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 321 1912-D. ICG graded MS-66 Red. With mellow pinkish color throughout and a few tiny flecks. Areas of brighter red on the reverse.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP

- 322 1913. ICG graded Proof 67 Red. One of the finest graded by the small wave of grading services now serving the collecting and dealing public. This is tied with the best seen by PCGS, but we don't have a Population Report for ICG as of yet. The surfaces are pristine and the color is mint fresh and red with slight mellowing around the reverse periphery. Die swirl lines are noted in the fields from polishing and preparation for coming proofs.
Estimated Value $2,500-UP

- 323 1914-D. PCGS graded AU-55. One of the key dates to the Lincoln Cent series, the 1914-D has earned its place in the collectors hall of fame by just being downright hard to find in any grade. To find a nearly new example as offered here is a real treat, and we suspect many collectors would like to own this coin. Perfect brown surfaces and well preserved, with boldly struck devices and appealing in every way. A foremost rarity because of high collector demand.
Estimated Value $600-750

- 324 1914-D. Fine-12. This one appears to have been cleaned and retoned some time ago, and we note some faint surface marks around the edges. Perfect for the date collector.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 325 A group of Lincoln Cents 1911 into the 1940s. This lot includes 60 pieces and grades from Good to BU. Several dates are included and this would be perfect for the album collector to upgrade their set and fill in many dates. Lot of 60 coins.
Estimated Value $100-UP

- 326 1915. NGC graded Proof 65 Red. Sharp and well preserved, with a ring of darker shades around the periphery. Medium red in color with splendid surfaces throughout. A rare date in proof grades, especially in full gem condition.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 327 1915-D. ICG graded MS-67 Red. Nearly perfect surfaces and truly a wonder coin. The strike is sharp, but the amazing part is how well the surfaces were preserved. A pristine coin for the specialist.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP

- 328 A group of high grade circulated Lincolns 1909-1931-D. These 21 coins grade from Very Fine to Mint State 60+. This is a nice selection for the date collector who is forming a set. Lot of 21 coins.
Estimated Value $200-UP

- 329 1915-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. This one is in an old PCGS holder, most of the red color is intact, but we note an old spot over the left wheat ear head. Sharp for this date, and a condition rarity in gem red grades. Color photo.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 330 1915-S. NGC graded MS-63 Red and Brown. Nice surfaces and color, with only two very tiny specks on each side. Mostly untoned.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 331 1916 PDS group. The grade AU-55 and better. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 332 1916-D. PCGS graded MS-65 Red and Brown. Actually, Red and Green would be a more accurate description. Lightly toned with verdant green and rose hues.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 333 1917. ICG graded MS-67 Red. There are a couple of tick marks on the reverse, and some stacking marks noted on Abe. Blazing red color and free of spots.
Estimated Value $300-UP

- 334 1917-D. ICG graded MS-66 Red. Flashy red luster and well struck, with a trace of a fingerprint below IN GOD. Sharply impressed.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 335 1918. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bright red in color with a light fingerprint in the right obverse field. Well struck and preserved.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 336 1918-D. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bluntly struck on the right wheat ear head and with the peripheral lettering on the reverse drawn towards the edge. Free of spots or other problems.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 337 1919. ICG graded MS-67 Red. This one must have just been plucked from an original roll, its surfaces are clean and untuned.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 338 1919-D. ICG graded MS-66 Red. Golden toning around the periphery, light, but it is there. Blazing red elsewhere.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 339 1920. NGC graded MS-66 Red. This one has a small dark streak on the upper left obverse, and other areas of dark color near the devices on both sides. A golden-red color throughout, with clean surfaces that show few signs of ticks.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 340 1920-D. ICG graded MS-66 Red. This one has a moderate strike, with localized weakness on the edge and a few scattered tick marks on both sides, mostly on the devices.
Estimated Value $700-1,200

- 341 1921. ICG graded MS-66 Red. Blazing red color throughout and problem free surfaces.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 342 1921-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Steakly shades on the reverse, the obverse even and wholly red. A touch of weakness in the strike on TRUST, otherwise all is bold and complete. This one is in the old style green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 343 1922. Plain, Strong Reverse, VG-8. We note a small mark on the first digit of the date, and the obverse is weakly struck, as usual. Medium brown and scarce.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 344 1924. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. With light multicolored toning starting to form in reds and yellow shades.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 345 1926-D. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. One of the rare dates in full red condition, this coin has clean surfaces and abundant red luster that shows only faint mellowing in color.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 346 1927. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. Bright original red on the obverse, with a minor faint streak on the lower reverse.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 347 1927-S. MS-63 Red and Brown. Nice color and surfaces for this rare date, but note that the strike is rather weak, especially on the wheat ears.
Estimated Value $50-75

- 348 1928-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. With some pretty colored spots below the right stem of the durham wheat ear. Light hairlines and mellow red color throughout. In an old style small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 349 1931-D. MS-65 Red.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 350 1931-S. MS-63 Red, almost. A couple of tiny spots from full red.
Estimated Value $50-60

1942 Cent Struck on a Brass Ecuador Dime Planchet

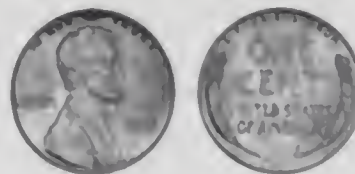

- 351 1942 Error Cent, struck on an Ecuador dime planchet. NGC graded MS-64. An amazing error, the planchet is obviously made of brass and the coin has a distinctive appearance quite unlike a normal copper cent! Further, the color is bright and mint fresh, without heavy spots or other problems, just a few scattered minor specks to note the passage of time. There is a trace of a fingerprint on the upper obverse, otherwise the coin is basically as struck. Examination with a glass will only note a few trivial signs of handling, and the surfaces remain very close to gem condition.

It is probable that this error was created in a similar fashion to the 1943 copper cents, perhaps a bin of Ecuador dimes had just been struck at the Philadelphia Mint, then a tub of copper planchets were dumped in the bin for coining Lincoln Cents. Apparently two planchets remained in the bin from the Ecuador dimes, and were struck with Lincoln Cent dies. Records show that two 1942 cents are known struck on brass planchets, and this is one of those two (See Judd under Mint Errors). With modern rarities routinely commanding five figure prices at auction, this early 20th century error with a proven population of just two coins should prove to be a bargain. Further, it fits hand in glove with the 1943 copper cent error, and 1944 zinc cent errors. Employees at the Philadelphia Mint were no doubt distracted with the World War, and quality control slipped a notch. A foremost opportunity for the specialist to purchase a truly rare error coin. This one comes with an NGC Photo Proof certificate.

Estimated Value $10,000-UP

- 352 A small group of early "S" Mint Lincolns. Included are 1910-S, 1911-S, 1912-S, 1913-S, 1914-S and 1915-S, grades range from Fine to Very Fine. The 1913-S is a bit dirty, others nice for the grade. Lot of 6 coins
Estimated Value $40-50

- 353 1955. Doubled die obverse, PCGS graded MS-63 Red. Mellow original red on both sides, with the devices sharply struck. One of the most popular mint errors, and this one is much better than most seen. Problem free preservation throughout.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

- 354 1972. Doubled die obverse, PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Very red color and free of spots or problems.
Estimated Value $350-400

Cents and Two Cent Pieces

- 355 1972. Doubled die obverse. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. One of the nicest of this issue seen, bright original red and well preserved throughout. Bold, with the doubling clear to the unaided eye.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 356 1972. Doubled die obverse. MS-63 Red and Brown. The obverse with all lettering and the date clearly doubled, similar, but not quite as dramatic as the 1955 version.
Estimated Value $150-200

Two Cent Pieces

- 357 1864. Small motto. AU-58. Scarce and always in demand by date collectors. Mottled wood-grain toning on both sides.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 358 1864. Small motto. VG-8. Nice surfaces for the grade and scarce.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 359 1864. Large motto. PCGS graded MS-65 Red and Brown. A gem example of this popular odd-ball denomination. The surfaces have substantial red in the fields, with a soft brown tone starting to settle in. Boldly struck and quite appealing. In an old small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 360 1864. Large motto (2 pieces). One is PC1 graded AU-50 and the other is VF-30. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $60-80
- 361 1864. Large motto. MS-60. Nice color and surfaces, with a single speck on the upper wreath on the reverse.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 362 1865. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 363 1865 to 1869 partial set. One of each date, 1865 to 1869, grading from EF-40 to AU-50. A great way to start your date set, lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 364 Two Cent Piece lot. Includes the following: 1865 VG-8, corroded; 1866 VF-25; 1867 VF-20; 1868 EF-40; 1869 F-12 1870 VG-8 and 1871 F-15. A group for the date collector. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $110-130
- 365 1865 (4 pieces). A variety group of 1865 Two Cent Pieces including 1865 Plain 5, Repunched Date, ANACS graded AU-58; 1865 Plain 5, Double Die Obverse, ANACS graded EF-45; 1865 Fancy 5 VF-30 with some obverse and reverse marks and 1865/5, broadly repunched date, EF-40 cleaned. An impressive array for the specialist. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 366 1868. MS-60 +. Medium red to brown with signs of old cleaning and now a bit cloudy in appearance. Well struck and nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 367 1868. MS-60 Red and Brown. With substantial original red under light brown toning. Well struck and clean for the grade assigned.
Estimated Value $80-100
- 368 1870. Proof 55. The obverse has some spots, but retains most of the brick red color from the Mint.
Estimated Value $100-150
- 369 1871. MS-60 Brown. Mostly brown with some lighter shades beneath. Well struck.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 370 1872. AU-55. Nice mint color with light brown toning.
Estimated Value $100-125

Three Cent Pieces

Silver Three Cent Pieces

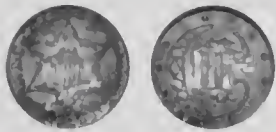

- 371 1851. PCGS graded MS-66. Hot gold, red and green toning around the periphery of this lovely gem. There are some gold flecks on the reverse, but it also has the fluorescent colors matching the obverse. PCGS notes 49 have been graded this high, and 5 higher. If you love bright colors, take a look at the gem.
Estimated Value $1,100-1,200

Extremely Rare 1854 Proof Three Cent Silver

Enlarged

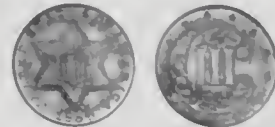

- 372 1854. NGC graded Proof 65. Deep gray in color with hints of gold at the center, with the toning very deep and rich in color. Reflective fields and boldly impressed by the dies. Apparently this is obverse die 2, per Breen as there are die file marks above TED of UNITED. These were struck on May 22, 1854 to commemorate the change in the design of adding two additional outlines to the star. As a Proof, PCGS estimates 30 were struck, Breen says 20 survive. A total of 17 have been graded by PCGS and NGC combined, and of those, NGC has graded 3 this high with none higher, and PCGS has none as PR-65, and a single coin graded PR-66 above. Hence, this is certainly in the top 4 known, and one of the few gems available of this date. It is also the first year of issue of the redesigned obverse, and important as such to type collectors. This particular coin is tied with the coin from the Garrett Sale and the Pittman Sale, both of which are graded by NGC as PF-65. A gem example of this truly rare coin, and worthy of the finest collection.
Estimated Value $20,000-UP

Another Rare Proof 1854

Enlarged

- 373 1854. PCGS graded Proof 64. A beautiful example of this extremely rare coin. This one is from the die pairing with the file marks above TED. Toned with magnificent colors, light rose at the centers and deep blue around the periphery with hints of green too. The stars are all fully struck and the coin has a superb appearance. If you didn't get the gem just offered, then this coin would certainly do. PCGS has graded a single coin higher, and just 3 this high.
Estimated Value $12,500-15,000

Lightly Toned 1854 Proof Trime

Enlarged

- 374 1854. PCGS graded Proof 64. As a proof, this is an extremely rare coin, about 30 were struck, and perhaps 20 remain today. This one has delicate gray color with some lightly mottled areas on the upper obverse, the reverse is more rose colored and better balanced. If you want a lovely near-gem example of this date, then take a look at this coin. One of 3 graded as such by PCGS, with a single coin graded higher by that service. An opportunity to "choose" from 4 extremely rare high grade proofs of this date, certainly an opportunity not to be equaled any time soon, perhaps never again, once this small hoard is disbursed. In an old style green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $12,500-15,000

Three Cent Pieces

One of Four 1854 Proof Trimes

Enlarged

- 375 1854. PCGS graded Proof 64. Sharply struck and well preserved. This coin is very darkly toned with deep midnight blue shades on both sides. Boldly struck and we are not certain which of the two obverse dies struck this coin as the plastic PCGS holder covers the diagnostic areas. This is one of 3 coins graded as such by PCGS, with a single coin graded higher, all 3 of which (plus a gem PF-65 graded by NGC) are offered in this sale! What an opportunity to purchase one of these extremely rare coins. Don't pass it up. In an old style green insert PCGS holder. Estimated Value $12,500-15,000

- 376 1855. NGC graded Proof 65. One of the top dozen of this rare date. NGC has graded 4 this high, with 5 graded higher. Silvery white and untuned, with excellent surfaces that show no signs of problems or handling issues. Boldly struck, but a couple of stars don't have full centers. There are light hairlines in the fields, but they are not too distracting. Deep watery mirrors surrounded by the contrasting frosty devices. An important offering, and eagerly sought by collectors since one was auctioned in 1958 for over $1,000 (S.J. Kabealo's Pittsburgh Sale, 11/14/58:1018 at $1,050), a record which held until 1966, and prices have been moving higher in fits and starts ever since. A splendid coin for the advanced numismatist. Estimated Value $9,000-10,000

Gem Proof 1857 Trime

Enlarged

- 377 1857. NGC graded Proof 65. Silvery gray in color, with deep green and gold shades mixed in. The planchet shows faint parallel lines from the planchet preparation process. Less than 100 were struck, and few gems survive today. NGC has graded 4 this high, with 2 higher. Probably in the top dozen known in Proof. Estimated Value $7,500-10,000

- 378 1857. NGC graded Proof 64. This example boasts well mirrored fields and central gold toning and a drop of blue color at the top of the star. Deeper toning on the reverse, somewhat mottled with dark blue and deep gold. An impressive and boldly executed example of this seriously rare proof issue. Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 379 1857. PCGS graded Proof 64. Blazing white in color, with well mirrored fields and frosted devices. Toning free, and displaying all diagnostic characteristics of a proof issue. PCGS has graded 12 as such, with 6 graded higher. Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

Three Cent Pieces

One of the Finest Graded 1858 Three Cent Pieces

Enlarged

- 380 1858. NGC graded Proof 67. This coin is tied for the finest known with 2 other pieces, all NGC graded PF-67. There are none graded this high by PCGS for the date. On the obverse, the toning is light gold, while the reverse has a richer gold tone throughout. Outstanding surfaces throughout, with no signs of handling or other problems. There are two very minor breaks in the mirror field below the T of UNITED, near the star, and these are likely mint caused. Each tiny reverse star, as well as the obverse star, is bold. Note a small area of the lower left of the obverse star is missing part of its outer pair of lines where they were polished off the die. A stunning coin that will be the highlight of any advanced proof trime collection.
Estimated Value $13,000-15,000

- 381 1858. NGC graded Proof 64 Pittman. Light silvery-gray in color and boldly struck. A beautiful coin that is well executed and preserved. Further, it is enhanced by the Pittman pedigree and so memorialized on the NGC insert. Slightly toned with streaky gold on the obverse, and a touch cloudy on the reverse.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

From the Pittman sale a few years ago.

- 382 1858. PCGS graded Proof 64. This one is mounted in an old green insert PCGS holder. Excellent surfaces that show light gold and blue toning, but mostly light gray in color. Perhaps 100 were struck and few remain this nice. An impressive example of this rare, early proof issue.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000
- 383 1863. PCGS graded Proof 63. A lovely white coin
Estimated Value $300-350

Nickel Three Cent Pieces

- 384 A lot of 3 cent nickels. The following are included: 1865 G-4; 1867 EF-40; 1868 G-6; 1870 EF-45; 1872 VF-30; 1873 AU-50; 1874 AU-58 and 1876 AU-50. Lot of 8 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 385 A group of 4 Three Cent Nickels. Each of the following is ANACS graded as indicated: 1865 AU-50; 1866 AU-55; 1868 AU-50 and 1870 EF-45. Each is original. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 386 Three Cent Nickel lot. This group includes: 1865; 1866; 1867; 1868; 1870; 1873; 1876 and 1881, grades range from VG to Fine. Lot of 8 coins.
Estimated Value $70-80

- 387 1870. NGC graded Proof 65. A sparkling gem that boasts excellent color and surfaces, further it is free of toning and spots.
Estimated Value $900-1,000
- 388 1879. ANACS graded VF-30. Average surfaces.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 389 1881. Proof 63. Spot free and perfectly bright.
Estimated Value $225-275
- 390 1883. PCGS graded Proof 64. Sharp and untuned for this scarce date.
Estimated Value $240-260
- 391 1888 and 1889. The 1888 grades VF-20 but has a light scratch and the 1889 grades VF-25. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 392 A Three Piece Lot of Slab Coins. 3-Cent Nickel: 1889 ANACS Proof 64; Buffalo Nickel: 1926-S ANACS graded VF-20; and Mercury Dime: 1936 ANACS MS-67 Full Split Bands. 3 piece lot
Estimated Value $700-800

Nickels

Shield Nickels

- 393 1866 Rays. MS-60. Nice surfaces and color, and struck from crack dies above the date.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 394 1867 Rays and 1867 No Rays. The Rays example grades EF-40 and is lightly cleaned, the No Rays coin is AU-58. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 395 1868, 1870, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1876 and 1880. These grade AU-55 and better. The 1880 was lightly polished. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 396 1869. Proof 60 plus. Nice surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 397 1871. MS-63. Good luster and decent surfaces, without a problem or flaw.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 398 1875. MS-63. Light hazy toning over lustrous fields.
Estimated Value $225-275

- 399 1877. PCGS graded Proof 65. A gem example of this scarce date, only 510 were struck, and most of those have been graded lower. This coin retains its sparkling fields and well struck devices on both sides. If you want a piece to delight in, take a peek at this one.
Estimated Value $1,700-2,000

- 400 1878. Proof 64. This may be the overdate as there is something inside the lower ball of the second 8 in the date, which looks like a 7. Fresh mint glow and with clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 401 1879. 9 over 8. PCGS graded Proof 67. Stone white and fresh, with uninterrupted mint sparkle and frost. PCGS has only graded 21 this high with 7 graded higher. If you want an outstanding example of this overdate, then jump in. The overdate feature is microscopic.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,800

- 402 1881. Proof 60. Nice save for one old spot on the obverse wreath, which has started to tone.
Estimated Value $150-250
- 403 1882. MS-63. Bright luster on both sides and well preserved. This one is free of toning and problems.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 404 1882 and 1883 Shield Nickels. These both grade AU-55. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $90-100
- 405 1883. NGC graded Proof 65. A satiny untuned gem proof example of this final year of issue. Far better than usually encountered.
Estimated Value $325-350
- 406 1883. MS-64. A few handling marks, mostly in the fields, and with a mushy strike on the legend.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 407 1883. Proof 60 plus. Good quality for the moderate grade, with flashy fields and contrasting devices.
Estimated Value $125-150

Liberty Nickels

- 408 1883. Without "CENTS" and 1883 With "CENTS". Both grade MS-60 to 63. Fresh luster and well struck. Perfect for the type collector. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-150
- 409 1884. Proof 63. Flashy surfaces and well struck with a faint overlay of nickel haze. Scarce in this grade.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 410 1885. MS-60 Plus. This one has nice surfaces for the grade, a few minor hairlines, but they are toned over with familiar nickel gold colors. Bright luster in the fields and well preserved aside from the hairlines. The key date to the series, mintages plunged on minor coinage while the Philadelphia Mint closed down production on February 16, 1885 through nearly the end 1886.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 411 1886. PCGS graded MS-64. Mint fresh luster in the fields and boldly impressed by the dies. Nice color and surfaces throughout, with just a few hidden slide marks on the reverse, the obverse especially nice. One of the key dates to the series.
Estimated Value $600-900

Nickels

- 412 1887, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1895, 1896 and 1899. These grade MS-60 or better. Most are bright, but a couple have minor toning or streaks. Perfect for the date collector who needs these. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $500-750
- 413 1887. Brilliant Proof 60. Rose toning on the obverse with hints of sunset gold too. Well struck.
Estimated Value $80-100
- 414 1888. PCGS graded Proof 64. This one has some interesting colors starting to form, especially on the reverse. Sharply struck and pleasing for the grade.
Estimated Value $170-190
- 415 1889. PCGS graded Proof 64. This coin may be mint state instead of a proof, take a look and see for yourself. Flashy luster and well struck, and a beautiful coin either way.
Estimated Value $200-UP

- 416 1890. NGC graded MS-67. This is the finest graded 1890 nickel by either PCGS or NGC, it is alone as the sole example in MS-67. If you demand the absolutely finest 1890 Liberty Nickel, then here it is. Mint fresh luster and boldly struck throughout. Around the periphery is delicate pinkish yellow toning. As flawless and appealing as one could hope for.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500
- 417 1893. MS-60 Plus. With a few minor hairlines from a cleaning. Nice surfaces otherwise.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 418 1894. MS-60. Nice luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 419 1895 PCGS graded PR-64 and 1907 NGC graded PF-63. The first one has faint specks on both sides, the other nice surfaces. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 420 1895. NGC graded Proof 64. Bright surfaces that show few signs of toning. Well struck as expected, and well preserved, which is always a surprise.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 421 1897. MS-60 Plus. A coin for the date collector.
Estimated Value $50-75
- 422 1898. NGC graded Proof 65. A sparkling jewel that boasts mint fresh surfaces and remains a true gem. Well struck, too, with full device detail throughout.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 423 1899, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1908 and 1912. These each grade AU to Unc. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $175-225
- 424 1900, 1902, 1904, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910 and 1911. This group grades MS-60 or better, most are lustrous and would fit nicely in a date set. A nice group for collector. Lot of 9 coins.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 425 1901 Indian Cent; 1901 Liberty Nickel; 1913 Type 11 Buffalo Nickel and 1942-P Jefferson. The 1901 Indian Cent grades Proof-63 Red and Brown; the 1901 Liberty Nickel grades AU-50, but is dull; the 1913 Buffalo grades AU-50 Retoned and the 1942-P Jefferson grades Proof 64. These are from a type set. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 426 1901. MS-63. The 19 show recutting at the base of those digits. Good luster and surfaces.
Estimated Value $75-100

- 427 1903. PCGS graded MS-66. Here is a resplendent jewel for the collector who needs this date. The surfaces are untuned and the luster is full and complete, and best of all, the coin has virtually no signs of handling.
Estimated Value $800-1,000
- 428 1908. PCGS graded Proof 64.
Estimated Value $170-190
- 429 1909. PCGS graded MS-63. A slight blush of light toning.
Estimated Value $50-75
- 430 1912. MS-63 or better. With pinkish colors when examined under a light, nice surfaces.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 431 1912-D. PCGS graded MS-63. Fresh mint luster and well struck. We note a couple of trivial areas which look like acetate residue, perhaps this could be removed. Flashy luster in the fields and we note a few handling marks on Liberty's neck and in the field, but very choice for this scarce date.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 432 1912-S. PCGS graded MS-63. Toned with hazy nickel gray on both sides with hints of blue, russet and red shades too. Boldly struck, including each of the stars, and with a clean cheek on Liberty. Rare in high grades.
Estimated Value $700-850
- 433 A complete Liberty nickel set. This set grades from EF to Uncirculated except for the 1912-S, which grades VG-8. The 1885 is Proof 60 and the 1886 is EF-45. There is even a 1913 "copy" nickel included. Mounted in a World Coin Library album. Lot of 33 coins and 1 "copy" (1913).
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Nickels

Buffalo Nickels

- 434 A partial set of Buffalo Nickels, 1914 to 1938. This partial set grades from AU to Unc. and a few are cleaned. Inspection needed as many scarce dates are included, and a few coins have beautiful toning. Mounted in a Library of Coins album.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP
- 435 A partial set of Buffalo Nickels. This set grades from AG to AU. Many missing on the first page of the album, much more complete after 1920. Several higher grade coins are included, and some duplicate dates too. Mounted in a Library of Coins album.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 436 Partial Buffalo Nickel set. This is an interesting set, the grades range from AU to UNC. Dates include: 1914-S, 1915-D, 1916 PDS, 1917 PDS, 1918 PS, 1919, 1920 PS, 1921, 1923, 1925, 1926, 1927 PDS, 1928 PD, 1929 PS, 1930, 1931-S, 1934 PD, 1935 PDS, 1936 PDS, 1937 PDS and 1938-D. Some have been cleaned, but this is a great start on this important collection. Mounted in a Library of Coins album. Lot of 38 pieces.
Estimated Value $750-UP
- 437 1913. PDS, all Type 1. Each grades MS-60. The Philadelphia coin has some green debris in the lettering and devices which should be removed as this will only hurt the coin over the long haul. Flat strike on the "S" Mint coin, as always, with some weakness on the bison and the Chief's head. A nice group for the date collector. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 438 1913. PDS, Type 1, 1913 Type II, 1914 and 1915. These all grade EF to AU. A selection for the date collector, and these would enhance a coin album set. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 439 1913-D. Type 1 and 1913-S. Type 1. Both grade MS-63. The "S" Mint coin has a typical weak strike at the periphery. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 440 1913-D. Type 2 (2 pieces). One grades EF-45, the other VF-20. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 441 1913-S. Type 2. PCGS graded MS-63. A choice example of this popular "S" Mint coin, which is the first year of issue. Note the luster in the fields and the good strike on the bison.
Estimated Value $450-550

- 442 1914. PCGS graded Proof 64. This one is very nice for the grade, untoned and deeply struck by the dies, it is perfectly preserved for today's collector.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 443 1914-D (2 pieces). The first is EF-45 but cleaned, the next is VF-20. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 444 1915-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Well struck, with satiny luster throughout, and a worthy coin for the specialist. A rarity in this grade.
Estimated Value $600-800
- 445 1916 PDS. This lot grades AU-50 or better. The S Mint coin has scratches on both sides. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $150-250
- 446 1916. MS-63. Fresh luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $50-75
- 447 1916-S. AU-58. A full horn slider.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 448 1917-D. MS-64. Bright and fresh, with outstanding surfaces and a hint of toning just starting to form. Well struck for this often weak date, the horn is full and part of the tail tip is can be seen. Minor weakness on the peripheral devices, as usual.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 449 1919-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Well struck on the bison, especially the horn, while the tail has some weakness on the tip. A scarce date this nice and certainly worth a look as few grade this high. From an old collection and we sent this in to PCGS just in time to get it back for inclusion in the sale. Light nickel-blue toning on the coin.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 450 1920-D. PCGS graded MS-63. The strike is decidedly average, weak on both sides, as too often seen on the mintmarked early dates. Nice luster and still choice in grade.
Estimated Value $900-1,100
- 451 1924-S. Sharpness of EF-40 cleaned or possibly whizzed. The surfaces show moderate wear on the high points and have been cleaned and retoned. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $150-UP

Nickels

- 452 1925-D, PCGS graded MS-64. Pristine surfaces for the moderate grade, and we see strong luster too. Pinkish toning starting to form.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 453 1926, NGC graded MS-67. One of the finest graded by NGC, with just 2 seen this high and a single coin graded higher. Superb surfaces and lovely colored toning starting to form over silvery-white surfaces on both sides. Although a common date, this coin is decidedly rare in this grade and worthy of a king's collection.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 454 1926 (2 pieces); 1936 PDS, 1937 DS. These grade MS-60 or better. Most are brilliant. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $100-150

- 455 1927-D, MS-63. Mint luster in the fields and with good color too. Minor handling marks from a higher grade.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 456 1930-S, PCGS graded MS-64. Bright and without toning. Typical "S" Mint strike, a bit weak on the high points.
Estimated Value $120-150

- 457 1936 Mint error, struck about 10 percent off center. AU-50. Nice surfaces and color, and a popular design with collectors.
Estimated Value $100-150

- 458 1937, PCGS graded Proof 67. A superb example for the collector, this one boasts delicate sunset gold toning with hints of nickel blue haze on both sides. Pristine surfaces and a delight to behold.
Estimated Value $850-900

- 459 1937-D, 3 legged, AU-58. This coin has some minor scrapes on each side, one on the Indian's brow, and on the reverse there is a scrape on the upper bison's back, and a scratch on his shoulder. Missing the forward leg of the beast, and always popular with collectors who need an example for their sets.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 460 1937-D, 3 legged, EF-40. One of the key dates to the date sets, this popular error is always in high demand. One tiny dig on the rim above the head on the obverse, and nice surfaces otherwise for the grade.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 461 Two complete Jefferson Nickel sets in albums. One set grades BU and up, the other circulated to BU grades. One set is mounted in a Library of Coins album, the other in a Megh-rig Album. Both extend from 1938 through 1961.
Estimated Value $175-200

Half Dimes

- 462 1796. "LIKERTY" error, Valentine-1, Rarity-4. PCGS graded AU-58. This is one to take a look at, the coin has peripheral toning around both sides and is bright at the centers. There is a long thin obverse scratch down Liberty's neck and some faint graffiti is noted in the right obverse field. The reverse die is rotated about 30 degrees counter clockwise. Reflective on the devices, likely from an old cleaning. Nevertheless, Liberty sports good definition on her curls, and most of the eagle's breast feathers show.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000
- 463 1829. Valentine-16, LM-10, Rarity-5. SEGS graded AU-55. This die variety remains very scarce since its discovery by John W. McCloskey in 1975. The diagnostics are the recut top of the 1 in the date, and an extra serif between the CA of AMERICA. As to the coin, the surfaces show light gold toning and some luster remains. An opportunity for the half dime variety specialist to upgrade or finally purchase a high grade example of this challenging variety. Certainly well up in the Condition Census for the variety, with only a single mint state coin reported.
Estimated Value $200-UP
- 464 1830. Valentine-8, LM-3, Rarity-2. SEGS graded AU-55. Original toning and minor handling marks on both sides. Nice for the variety.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 465 1831 Valentine-1, Rarity-1. MS-60+. Dark gray toning and well struck. Later die state with filled letters on the reverse.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 466 1831. Valentine-4, LM-4, Rarity-2. SEGS graded AU-50. Dark gray toning with dark gold near the date and around parts of the rim. Sharply struck and probably cleaned and retoned long ago.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 467 1837. No stars, small date. PCGS graded MS-66. This is the flat topped 1 in the date and is much rarer than the normal peaked 1 large date variety. It is important to note that this coin is in an old green insert PCGS holder, which dates back to the time before the small date variety was noted on the holder. As such, only a single coin has been graded this high besides the present example of the small date variety! PCGS has graded 20 in all of both varieties as MS-66, but there are none graded higher. Gorgeous mint luster throughout, and lightly toned with gold hues.
Estimated Value $3,700-4,200

- 468 1837. No stars, small date. NGC graded MS-65. The flat top 1 or small date is much rarer than the pointed 1 according to Breen. Frosty white luster in the fields and with a touch of gold toning starting to form on both sides. As a type coin this date and grade is fairly available, but always in high demand by a variety of collectors that need one. Boldly struck and from a middle die state with some die crumbling along the right side of Liberty, but this one was struck before the die failed at the first A of AMERICA (although a minor die crack is noted there). Truly a beautiful coin in every way.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700
- 469 Seated coinage lot. 1837 No Stars half dime, EF-40 with light hairlines; 1839 No Drapery Quarter, F-15, cleaned and 1861-O Half Dollar, EF-40, cleaned. The half dime is nice, while the other two coins have been cleaned a bit too harshly. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $125-175
- 470 1837. No stars. AU-55. This one could possibly grade better, so check it out. Nice color and surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $225-300

- 471 1838. Stars, no drapery. NGC graded MS-65. One of the best to survive and the first year of the "with stars" type. Apparently many were saved, and because of their small size many were saved in high grade. Deep green and blue toning on both sides, and pristine surfaces beneath, from what we can see, keep this coin in the gem class. The NGC Population Report shows 58 have been graded this high, while an additional 54 have been graded higher. Fully struck on each side, and impressive in every way.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

Half Dimes

Ultra Rarity 1839 Proof Half Dime

Enlarged

- 472 1839. NGC graded Proof 64. This is an incredibly beautiful and ultra rare example of this early proof issue. We were able to track it down to the Bowers and Merena sale of June, 2000. Prior to that, this coin hadn't been offered in over 110 years! Toned with shades of ocean deep blue with hints of lighter gold around the periphery. Naturally, the strike is intense, with no signs of weakness anywhere to be found. Breen estimates that 4 are known, which is probably about right, as 4 have been graded by the services (NGC has graded 3 as PF-64, and PCGS has graded 1 as PR-65). This particular coin was not recorded by Breen, as it hadn't turned up in his lifetime or recently enough to trace.

Bowers notes that this coin was purchased by an attorney from Vicksburg, Mississippi from a Chapman Brothers sale in the 1890s, and held in that collection until it was sold in June 2000. Certain to be the highlight of any early proof collection.

The 39 in the date is repunched, as noted in Breen.

Estimated Value $22,500-27,500

From Bowers and Merena's June 2000 sale, lot 423.

Rare 1841 Proof Half Dime

Enlarged

- 473 1841. NGC graded Proof 63. Light gray in color with silvery highlights. Boldly struck and with full device details on both sides. We note a small lint mark above Liberty's shoulder in the left obverse field, and a couple of small ticks in the fields. Perhaps a dozen were struck, with few graded by the services. We note 1 graded as such, with 3 graded higher by NGC, while PCGS has graded a single coin as PR-63. An extreme rarity in proof. In NGC holder #283064-001.

Estimated Value $9,000-UP

- 474 1842-O. NGC graded VF-35. This is a scarce issue from the early days at the New Orleans Mint. This one is neatly toned and shows only trivial handling marks, expected for the grade One for the date collector.

Estimated Value $200-300

- 475 1845. NGC graded MS-62. Nicely struck for the date, with sharp devices and well defined stars. Deep blue and gray on the obverse, mottled gray on the reverse.

Estimated Value $150-175

- 476 1849-O. PCGS graded EF-45. Rare in high grades, the recent PCGS Population Report notes only a dozen graded higher, and this coin is alone in EF-45 in that report. Untoned throughout, with some luster in the fields. One minor scrape down from the cap into the field. As to the strike, it shows minor weakness as usually seen on the issue.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 477 1850-O. PCGS graded AU-50. The dies show rust from improper storage or shipping and this is typical of the date. Natural medium gray in color and nicely struck.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 478 1857. PCGS graded Proof 64. Deep rose toning on Liberty, with deeper blues in the fields surrounding. Perhaps 75 were struck, with PCGS showing 12 graded this high and 7 graded higher. Hazy gold toning on the reverse and problem free throughout. A foremost rarity for the specialist to enjoy.

Estimated Value $3,000-3,400

Half Dimes and Dimes

- 479 1858. NGC graded MS-64. Deep mottled blue and gold toning on both sides. Sharply struck throughout, even on Liberty's stars, most of which show part or all of their radial lines. The fields show clash marks on the reverse.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 480 1859. NGC graded Proof 65. The final year of the with stars regular issue (a few proofs were struck with stars in 1860, but these were not for circulation). Note that the date shows recutting on the 18 and 9. Milky and hazy toning on both sides, but reflective when examined closely. One short lint mark on the inside field of the last two stars. NGC has only graded 34 this high, with 22 graded higher.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 481 1860. Legend. NGC graded MS-65. Attractive natural sunset toning encircles the borders on both sides.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 482 1862. ICG graded MS-63. Deep green and gold on the obverse and reverse, and struck from clashed dies. Clashed on both the obverse and reverse.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 483 1863. PCGS graded Proof 64. A creamy white beauty. Only 460 proofs made for this scarce low mintage date.
Estimated Value $450-550

- 484 1866-S. PCGS graded AU-55. A scarce date in high grade, this one is nearly mint state and quite nice for the grade assigned. Delicate toning on both sides over luster in the fields, and struck from clashed dies.
Estimated Value $225-275

- 485 1867-S. PCGS graded AU-50. Light gray in color and generally untuned. On the reverse there are some minor specks scattered about. Scarce and uncommon this nice.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 486 1868-S. ANACS graded AU-58. Toned a smoky gold on the obverse, lighter on the reverse. Well struck from worn and cracked dies, which is normal for the issue.
Estimated Value $175-200

- 487 1870. NGC graded MS-64. Toned, with nice shades of brown and gold throughout, minor weakness on the wreath.
Estimated Value $200-250

Superb Gem 1796 Dime

Enlarged

- 488 1796 JR-4, Rarity-4. NGC graded MS-66. This is very likely one of the finest known of the variety. Both sides display deep blue and gray toning in the fields with lighter gray tones on the devices. Fully struck on the stars, with each point and center bold, similar on Liberty's curls which show separation even on the highest design elements. Slightly weak on the eagle's breast and thigh, where a few of the feathers are not fully brought up. As a die variety, this is more desirable than the usually seen JR-1 or JR-6 coins, as far fewer are found of this die pairing. Special care was taken in 1796 to produce really exceptional coins, as this was the first year of issue of this denomination. The design was adopted by famed portraitist Gilbert Stuart, who employed Ann Willing for his model of Liberty, said at the time to be the most beautiful women in Philadelphia. On the reverse, the rendition of the "small eagle" design was also well received, with the proud outstretched wings and delicate wreath surrounding. A superb example of an important type coin that is of unimprovable quality. The recent NGC Population Report shows 9 graded this high, with just 2 graded higher for the date. Color photo.
Estimated Value $35,000-45,000

- 189 1796, JR-1, Rarity-3, PC1 graded Good-6. Here is a problem-free example of this important type issue. The fields are medium to light gray while the devices are offset by lighter shades of silvery-gray. Although worn, the rims are well separated from the lettering and stars on both sides, and the eagle and wreath are clear. On the obverse, the die shows a lump attached to the first star, as seen on virtually every coin struck by this die.
Estimated Value $750-850

Blazing Gem 1798/7 Sixteen Stars Dime

Enlarged

- 490 1798 over 7, 16 stars, JR-1, Rarity-3, NGC graded MS-66. Certainly one of the very finest known of the variety, with only 3 so graded by NGC, and none graded higher. Similar at PCGS, which has only graded 1 coin as high as MS-65, and none higher! This one has frosty luster on both sides, and is virtually untuned. Struck from clashed dies which show faint clash marks on the obverse, and the obverse has been lapped, weakening the lower details. The upper curls on Liberty and a few of the obverse stars are not fully struck, but all show definition, similar on the reverse, where the shield has weakness at the center, as always for this variety. A superb coin which is one of the finest graded.
Estimated Value $30,000-40,000

- 491 1805, Four berries, SEGS graded MS-63. Toned with dark gray around the periphery of the obverse, with rose shades at the center, on the reverse we note flecks of gold and blue throughout over silver surfaces. Clean and not displaying many handling marks. We must note the weakness in the strike on the upper curls, feathers and drapery lines, which is nicely toned over. There are some minor hairlines too, as always seen on these important coins. As a type coin, the 1805 dime is a perfect choice, they usually come well struck and are one of the more available dates of the series. Take a close look at this one to see if it's the coin for you.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 492 1807 JR-1, Rarity-2, PCGS graded MS-61. Steel gray with hints of colors near the devices and a couple of flecks around the edges. Well struck from clashed dies, as usually seen for this date. The shield lines are all crisp and bold, and the eagle's wings are full and complete. Minor weakness around the periphery, as struck. Problem free surfaces, and perfect for the high grade type collector.
Estimated Value $2,800-3,200

- 493 1827 JR-12, Rarity-1, NGC graded MS-65. Deep blue and rose toning on both sides, with reflective fields. The surfaces are splendid and show few signs of handling or marks. The strike is full on all but a few of the stars, most of Liberty's curls and the eagle's feathers are sharp. Although this is a common variety, this is probably one of the very finest known of the variety, and of the date. Turning to the NGC Population Report, we note just 2 graded higher, with only 21 graded this high as MS-65 for the date. If you demand gem type coins, take a look at this example to see if it would fit into your collection.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

- 494 1827, JR-5, Rarity 3, PCGS graded MS-64. The splendid mark-free surfaces are overlaid with natural light to medium lilac toning. Housed in a first generation PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $2,700-3,200

Probable 1828 Proof Dime

- 495 1828. Small date JR-1, Rarity-2. PCGS graded MS-65. This coin is most likely a proof, but the graders at PCGS apparently did not agree. Note the full and complete frost on all the devices, especially on Liberty and within the eagle's wings. As to the strike, it is razor sharp throughout, each radial line on every star is bold, and the mirror surfaces within the shield lines on the reverse. Obviously, this is a special coin, and anyone examining it will have to develop their own opinion, but this is clearly not a normal, run of the mill business strike.

Proofs are known from this die pairing, and to find one of the few examples known in such pristine condition, obviously an early strike, would be too much of coincidence. PCGS has only graded 1 coin as a proof, and in mint state just 4 this high and a single coin graded higher. Untoned and with just a couple of faint handling marks. Stuck from clashed dies, as are most of this issue. A foremost rarity in this grade (whether proof or mint state) and one of the finest in existence.

Estimated Value $5,000-UP

- 496 1829. Medium 10c, JR-12, Rarity-3. PCGS graded MS-66. A superb coin, and certainly one of the finest known of the date! PCGS reports just 4 graded this high, with 2 graded higher. Note the deep gray toning throughout, with a smooth cheek on Liberty that shows no signs of handling. The stars and curls are deeply impressed by the dies, and no signs of weakness are seen. If you demand a coin for the ages, then take a look.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 497 Dime lot. This lot includes the following dimes: 1830 F-12; 1833 JR-9 VF-20 cleaned and retoned; 1838 with stars, bisecting obverse die crack, VF-25; 1876 VF-30 cleaned; 1877-CC VF but corroded and scratched; 1905-S EF-40 polished and 1907 EF-45 cleaned. A lot to be inspected. Lot of 7 coins.

Estimated Value $100-130

- 498 1831 JR-1, Rarity-1. SEGS graded AU-50. The surfaces are lightly rough, and the coin is toned a dull gray.

Estimated Value $160-180

- 499 1838. Large stars. AU-58. Nearly mint state, and well preserved. The reverse has a bisecting die crack running up vertically from the bottom. A choice coin for the grade.

Estimated Value $150-200

Rare 1843 Proof Dime

Enlarged

- 500 1843. NGC graded Proof 64. Deep gray toning on both sides with lighter gold on the devices. The fields show trivial hairlines, and these are not important. After all, perhaps 10 were struck, and few come up for sale. We note the diagnostic die chip on the rim near the second star, which is seen on all known proofs. This coin can be identified by a tiny tick mark in the field between the first two stars, and another couple of ticks near Liberty's arm above her elbow in the left obverse field. A worthy coin to add to the most advanced portfolio. NGC reports only 3 graded this high, with 3 graded higher.

Estimated Value $10,000-13,000

From Bowers and Merena Sale January, 2000:116 and prior from Bowers and Merena's Sale, August, 1998:107.

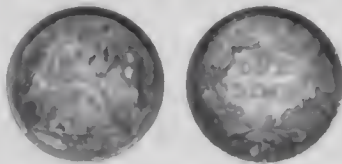

Rare Toned Gem Proof 1857 Dime

- 501 1857. NGC graded Proof 65. Although the exact mintage is unknown, it is thought that about 70 were struck in Proof in 1857 (this estimate is from the PCGS Population Report), of which precious few survive in gem condition. This one is a beauty which boasts deep gray and blue tones on both sides, and a large "fin" or raised knife rim around the right side of the obverse. One toning spot below the 1 of DIME. The recent NGC Population Report shows only 14 graded this high, with 8 graded higher. In NGC holder #343377-013. Color photo.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Dimes

- 02 1857-O, NGC graded MS-67. Here is one of the finest known of the date. The surfaces are pristine and show virtually no signs of handling or abuse. Toned with magnificent blues and golds on both sides, with darker shades at the periphery, and light at the centers. Curiously, the toning is in flakes, and is not evenly distributed, and there may be traces of a fingerprint on the obverse, as some of the toning appears in lines. Boldly struck, with complete details on the stars, Liberty and the wreath. Only 6 graded this high according to the recent NGC Population Report, with a single coin graded higher.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 03 1858, NGC graded Proof 65. An early issue that is truly rare in Proof grade, with an estimated mintage of only 100 pieces, very few of which remain in full gem condition today. This one is mostly white in color, with a bit of peripheral gold toning. Note a few hairlines in the fields, but few signs of handling beyond that aside from a very light intermittent scrape from the shield to Liberty's pole and arm. Deeply frosted devices and quite appealing overall. The recent NGC Population Report shows only 12 graded this high with 8 graded higher.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 04 1859, PCGS graded MS-64. This one is white, without any signs of toning and we note that the luster is a bit dull. Complete definition on the devices, and a nice piece for the type collector.

Estimated Value $700-800

- 05 1860-S, ANACS graded AU-50. This is a scarce coin in any grade, especially in this superb state of preservation. Only a dozen or so are known in full mint state and high quality circulated examples are seldom seen. This piece is nicely struck and boasts luster in the fields and a lovely coppery-gold color on both sides. Minor handling marks from circulation and otherwise problem-free. An opportunity for the date specialist.

Estimated Value $250-350

- 06 1863, PCGS graded Proof 65. A totally white gem. Only 460 proofs made for this scarce low mintage date.

Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 507 1870-S, SEGS graded AU-50 Polished Retoned. Only 50,000 were struck, and most circulated to lower grades. This one has been polished long ago and retoned with dark gray and blue shades. No ticks or marks worthy of note, and quite satisfying despite the old polishing. Minor weakness on the denomination, as always according to Breen.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 508 1871, NGC graded Proof 65. This one is deeply toned with magnificent colors including blues, greens and magentas on both sides. Boldly struck and scarce, especially in full gem condition.

Estimated Value $900-1,000

Radiant 1874 Proof Dime With Arrows

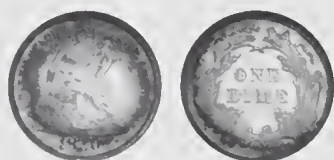

Enlarged

- 509 1874, Arrows, PCGS graded Proof 66. One of the finest graded of this important two year type coin, PCGS has only graded 8 this high, with a single coin graded higher. This one boasts spectacular toning, deep blue around the periphery and vibrant rose at the center of the obverse, on the reverse the toning is overall blue, with some pinkish hues on the left side. Abundant mint frost on the devices, and if you love toned coins, then this is the one for you. Color photo.

Estimated Value $7,000-9,000

Dimes

- 510 1880. NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. The Cameo designation is rarely used by NGC, in fact only 5 coins have been awarded this, with a single coin achieving the "Ultra Cameo" designation. For regular proofs, NGC has graded 194 in all grades, showing how the cameo coins represent just three percent of those graded. The toning on this one is superb, deep blues and greens at the rims and fading to yellow beneath the letters. Frosty white at the centers. A few faint scuffs in the fields, but they are minimal, keeping this coin in the PF-66 class. If you love cameo separation and superb surfaces and color, then this is the coin for you.

Estimated Value $1,500-1,800

- 511 1880. NGC graded MS-66. A frosty white gem that boasts mile high frost on the devices and reflective fields. Blast white with no toning whatsoever and we note a couple of tiny chatter marks from handling visible with a glass. NGC has graded 24 this high, with a meager 6 graded higher.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 512 1883. PCGS graded Proof 65. Bright white and untuned currently, with a few minor fritzies in the fields. The devices are very well frosted, and stand well apart from the reflective mirrors surrounding them. In the old green insert PCGS holder.

Estimated Value $900-1,000

- 513 1884. PCGS graded Proof 65. Bright white and untuned, this one is curious. It appears that the Mint used a bit too much "frosting" on the dies, as Liberty is a bit moth eaten in appearance. This was caused by the Mint using a mild acid to eat into the dies (which creates the roughness and hence the "frosted" devices) then the die is polished on a flat polishing machine, so only the fields are brought back to perfect as glass smoothness. On this particular coin, the devices are a bit too frosted, and some of the definition is lost, as made at the Mint. Well struck and preserved.

Estimated Value $850-950

- 514 1888. PCGS graded Proof 65. Mostly white, with some gold toning on the obverse and a bit more on the reverse. Well struck and with clean fields and devices. One of 31 so graded, with 15 graded higher.

Estimated Value $850-950

- 515 1889. PCGS graded Proof 66. One of the finest graded of this date, PCGS has given just 13 coins a grade this high, with 3 coins graded higher. In particular, this piece is bright white and untuned, with flashy mirror fields and resplendent frost on the devices.

Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

Barber Dimes

- 516 1892. MS-60 or better. A beautiful coin that boasts delicate gold toning around the periphery and a good strike.

Estimated Value $70-80

- 517 1892-O. NGC graded MS-64. Beautiful gold and yellow toning on both sides and well struck. Excellent surfaces for the grade, and worth a strong bid.

Estimated Value $350-400

- 518 1895. PCGS graded Proof 65. Cloudy toning just starting to settle in, and well struck throughout. Probably in the top ten percent of those coined condition wise. A sparkler.

Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 519 1896. PCGS graded Proof 66. This gem boasts clean surfaces and well frosted devices. Light hazy toning but nearly white overall. One of 39 graded as such by PCGS, with just 7 graded higher.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 520 1901. Proof 63. Deep gray toning, especially in the fields, and a bit lighter on the devices. Pretty shades for the collector.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 521 1901. AU-55. Nearly Mint State.

Estimated Value $40-50

- 522 1909. PCGS graded MS-63. Creamy white and slightly reflective. In a green PCGS holder.

Estimated Value $100-120

- 523 1916 and 1916-S. Both grade MS-60. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $125-150

Mercury Head Dimes

- 24 Partial Mercury Dime Set, 1916-1945. This set grades from AU to UNC. This partial set does not include the 1916-D, 1921 PD or other key dates, but does include the 1942, 2/1 although that coin was cleaned. Mounted in a Library of Coins album, many of the pieces are quite nice and inspection is urged. Some duplicates are included too. Lot of 74 coins.
Estimated Value $750-UP
- 25 1916 and 1916-S. Both pieces grade MS-60. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $50-60

Lovely Full Bands 1916-D Mercury Dime

Enlarged

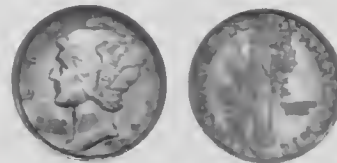

- 526 1916-D. PCGS graded MS-64 Full Bands. This coin came to us from an old time collection and we sent it in for grading just prior to the sale. Examination of the surfaces will show very few signs of contact marks or hairlines, and the coin is certainly very nice for the grade. We note choice antique toning on both sides over lustrous fields, and the strike is complete, with full bands at the center of the fascies. If you want a splendid example for your date set, then take a look at this coin.
Estimated Value $8,000-9,000

- 7 1916-D. AU-58 Full Bands. This coin has been cleaned, but not too harshly, just enough to give it minor hairlines in the fields and on the devices. With a bit of toning, this well struck coin would blend perfectly in a high grade date set.
Estimated Value $2,700-3,500
- 8 1916-D. NGC graded Almost Good-3. Problem-free for the grade.
Estimated Value $100-350

- 529 1917-D. MS-63. Deep golden toning on both sides and with a decent strike, although weak on the central reverse.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 530 1917-S. MS-63 Full Bands. Boldly struck, with full bands on the reverse. One old scrape before Liberty's face, hidden by the toning.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 531 1918-D. MS-63. Lightly toned over lustrous fields and pleasant. Weak at the central reverse, as usual.
Estimated Value $125-175

- 532 1919-D. NGC graded MS-65. An attractive, evenly toned specimen exhibiting a natural blend of grey-blue and violet. A decidedly rare coin in this high state of preservation.
Estimated Value $900-1,000

- 533 1920-S. NGC graded MS-63 Full Bands. Bright white and fresh, with a full strike on the central bands on the reverse. Scarce this nice, and worth a strong bid.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 534 1921. PCGS graded MS-64 Full Bands. One faint scuff on Liberty's cheek that slightly disturbs the toning probably kept this from an even higher grade. Toned with antique gold and blue shades, but abundant luster and pristine surfaces are the rule here. Boldly struck by the dies, and this is a truly rare date in this condition, and especially hard (and expensive) to locate in higher grades. Make your own evaluation, as this coin has been off the market for decades and was recently brought to us and submitted to PCGS just prior to the sale.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 535 1921-D. MS-60+. This one has been cleaned a bit, and we note minor hairlines in the fields. The strike is bold with split bands, but not quite full. Most collectors need an example of this rare date. Starting to retone around the periphery.
Estimated Value $700-900
- 536 1924. PCGS graded MS-66 Full Bands. Superb surfaces and blast white color. PCGS shows 41 graded this higher, with 4 graded higher.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 537 1924-S. MS-60+, Full Bands. This one is toned with hints of blue and gold on both the obverse and reverse. Sharply impressed for this date, with full bands on the reverse.
Estimated Value $200-250

Dimes and Twenty Cent Pieces

- 538 1925-D. PCGS graded MS-65 Full Bands. Bright white luster and well struck, especially at the centers. Peripheral weakness at the tops of the lettering as usual. One of 20 graded this high with 20 graded higher with full bands.
Estimated Value $2,300-2,600

- 539 1925-S. MS-63. Well struck by the dies, but the central bands are not quite fully rounded. Delicate gray and gold toning throughout.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 540 1926-D. PCGS graded MS-64 Full Bands. There are some scuffs on the obverse, one in the motto, another between LI of LIBERTY and a couple hidden ones on Liberty's head. Glowing luster and well struck, and scarce this nice.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 541 1926-D. MS-63 Full Bands. While the centers are well struck, the peripheral details are weak, especially the rim and part of the Mintmark. Good luster and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 542 1926-S. MS-60+. This one has been cleaned, and we note the ever-present hairlines in the fields. Nice luster and a decent strike, although the central bands are not quite full.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 543 1927-S. NGC graded MS-66. Hazy gold toning on both sides, and sharply struck, but not quite full on the bands. One of the finest graded, just 7 seen by NGC this high, with none grade higher.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 544 1927-S. PCGS graded MS-62. Lightly toned and choice for the grade.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 545 1939. PCGS graded Proof 66. Blazing and original, the surfaces are mint fresh and untoned. About as nice as one could expect.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 546 Group of 10 PCGS Graded "Full Band" Mercury Dimes. 1940-S (2 pieces) MS-66 Full Bands; 1942-S MS-65 Full Bands; and 1945-S (7 pieces) MS-65 Full Bands. Total of 10 pieces.
Estimated Value $750-850

- 547 Two Complete Roosevelt Dime Sets, 1946 through 1961. Both sets grade BU. One set is mounted in a Whitman blue album, the other in a Library of Coins album.
Estimated Value $150-200

Twenty Cent Pieces

- 548 1875-S. NGC graded MS-66. Satiny luster in the fields with highly appealing color. The obverse has light gray toning and the reverse some light blotches of color and tiny specks hither and yon. Liberty and the eagle are well struck as are most of the obverse stars. One of the finest graded, the recent NGC Population Report shows just 24 graded this high, with 3 graded higher. Always popular with type collectors as this unusual denomination lasted only a few years, and very few were saved in high grade.
Estimated Value $7,000-7,500

- 549 1875-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Stone white on the obverse, with light toning on the upper reverse. Double "S" mintmark on the reverse as noted in Breen. Clean surfaces for the grade, but a touch dull.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 550 1875-S. NGC graded MS-62. This is the double "S" Mintmark variety and we note the dies were severely lapped when this one was coined, weakening the reverse peripheral letters. Satiny luster and one spot has been removed left of the date.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 551 1875-S. MS-60. Golden toning around the periphery and minor handling marks and hairlines are noted.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 552 1876. PCGS graded Proof 64. Gun metal gray toning and well preserved. The fields and devices show no handling marks and this coin is graded conservatively. In an old small style PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 553 1876. ANACS graded Proof 62. Hazy gray toning on both sides and scarce as a date. Minor hairlines in the fields.
Estimated Value $750-850

Twenty Cent Pieces and Quarters

- 54 1878. PCGS graded Proof 64. This is a proof only date, and the present coin is toned with deep gray shades that reflect rich colors back when held under a light. Fully struck and outstanding for the grade. In an old small style PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $3,300-4,000

- 55 1878. NGC graded Proof 64. Deep old gray toning on both sides, with hints of colors too. Free of distracting marks as far as we can tell and only minor hairlines.
Estimated Value $3,300-4,000

Quarters

Resplendent Toned Gem 1815 Quarter

Enlarged

- 556 1815, Browning-1, Rarity-1. NGC graded MS-66. A magnificent coin that is a no nonsense gem at a glance, with stunning royal gold toning fading to darker blue at the rims. Bright luster in the fields, and free of all but the most trivial hairlines. Deeper shades on the reverse, with blazing sunset shades at the centers, and deep regal blues at the edges. One rim tap above the IC of AMERICA is noted for accuracy. Only 4 graded this high by NGC, and one other this high by PCGS, with a single coin graded higher by both services. Therefore, this is certainly one of the finest known of the date, and no doubt one of the most beautiful too. Bid accordingly. Color photo
Estimated Value $15,000-17,000

- 557 1834 PC1 graded F-15 scratched and 1835 VF-35 PC1 graded VF-35 Cleaned. The 1834 is pretty nice, and the scratches scarcely warrant mention. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $75,000

- 558 1837 Browning-2, Rarity-1. AU-50. Cleaned and starting to retone, with nice details on the devices.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 559 Seated Quarter Lot. This includes 1842-O Large Date, PCI graded VF-35; 1847 Doubled Die Reverse, repunched 47, PCI graded F-15 with Environmental Damage and 1876-S Breen-4085 ANACS graded EF-45. Each should be inspected, the 1847 is noted as "very rare" in Breen, and the 1876-S has some spots on the reverse. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-120

Blazing White 1853 No Arrows Quarter

Enlarged

- 560 1853. Recut date, no arrows or rays. NGC graded MS-67. Bright white and lustrous with abundant mint flash throughout. The fields and surfaces show virtually no signs of handling, and this is a certainty as there is no toning for marks and ticks to hide behind. One tiny gold spot above the R in QUAR on the reverse. Boldly struck by the dies, with full radial lines on the stars, and deep folds on Liberty's drapery. NGC has only graded 2 coins this high, with a single coin graded higher. Long known as a rare date, a small hoard of mint state coins traces back to Harold Newlin, before 1883, and this may have come from that group. A superb example of the No Arrows variety, which shows the recut 53 clearly.
Estimated Value $10,000-UP

Ultra Rare 1853 Proof Arrows and Rays Quarter

Enlarged

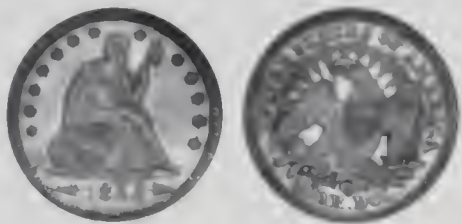

- 561 1853. Arrows and rays. PCGS graded Proof 63. Here is an extreme rarity which is of inestimable importance. Breen guesses that 5 were struck in proof, on March 3, 1854, of those PCGS has graded 3 coins, this one as PR-63, and 2 higher. This coin is easily identifiable by a minor scratch below the date, and the mottled gray and gold tones on each side. The strike is amazing, the devices so full and complete the dies must nearly have shattered when striking this piece.
A foremost opportunity for the specialist, this coin has added desirability because it is a one year type coin. Therefore, any collector who demands first year of issue, or is collecting type coins must have an example of this date. With so few struck, and even fewer known today, there simply aren't enough to go around. An historic offering that should bring a strong price.
Estimated Value $27,500-UP

Ex: Stack's Auction '80, August, 1980; 1184.

- 562 1853. Arrows and rays. AU-50. Light hairlines from a cleaning, but the surfaces are pretty nice.
Estimated Value $150-200

Quarters

- 563 1853-O. Arrows and rays. NGC graded MS-61. Deep gray toning on both sides and well struck. There are several minor die cracks on the obverse, one from the base of the 1 in the date through the lower arrowhead to the rim, another just left of the rock, from the rim to the center of the rock, a small one through the first four stars, another from her head to the star above, to the cap. On the reverse there is a tiny rim cud over the third T. Minor handling marks, mostly in the fields, as expected for the grade. This is a really rare date in mint state, this is the only graded as such by NGC, with just 6 graded higher.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Proof 1854 Quarter With Arrows

Enlarged

- 564 1854. Arrows. NGC graded Proof 64. Deep gray in color and obviously a long treasured coin that has been shown off for many decades. The fields have minor hairlines and we see no other problems worthy of note. NGC has graded just 3 this high, with 5 graded higher. Perhaps a dozen or so were struck, and they are rarely offered for sale. This one is in NGC holder #335173-004.
Estimated Value $12,000-15,000

- 565 1856. PCGS graded MS-62. Weakly struck on the upper portion of Liberty, and on the reverse Pearl grey and with some luster in the fields, and generally untoned.
Estimated Value $200-250

Toned Gem Proof 1857 Quarter

- 566 1857. NGC graded Proof 66. Perhaps 40 were coined, of which maybe 20 survive in various proof grades. This one is one of the very best, it has deep blue and gray toning throughout with clean fields and devices. A few minor hairlines can barely be seen in the fields. NGC reports that only 3 have been graded this high, with none graded higher. PCGS has not graded any proofs this high, and only a single coin as PF-65. A superb coin for the early proof specialist, and an important early Philadelphia proof issue.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

- 567 1857. NGC graded MS-64. Bright mint luster and with a nice cameo contrast from the fields to the frosted devices. Boldly struck and nearly a gem. Minor ever-present hairlines and faint ticks in the fields, but this is a very nice coin overall.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 568 1861. NGC graded MS-67. Presenting a wonder coin for your bidding pleasure! The surfaces are immaculate on the obverse, with only the faintest drift lines visible, and on the reverse a couple of very small ticks can be seen in the open fields above the eagle. What sets this coin apart is the magnificent rich toning that enhances the design. Deep blues and reds combine to set off the devices from the fields, and mint luster still shines forth from the fields beneath the colors. One of the finest graded by either service, with only 4 graded this high by NGC and 2 more by PCGS, neither has graded any higher. The strike is sharp and bold, and most of the stars show their radial lines. A coin not to be missed, so bid accordingly.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

Quarters

- 569 1863. PCGS graded Proof 63. A choice, totally white proof example.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 570 1864. NGC graded Proof 65. Steel gray toning on both sides with darker colors around the periphery. Rare in proof, this Civil War issue is seldom found this nice. Minor hairlines in the fields are all that limit the grade of this gem.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 571 1866. With motto. PCGS graded Proof 65. Deep gunmetal blue and gray toning on both sides and perfectly struck, with needle sharpness on the stars and Liberty. This is the first year of issue with the reverse motto, and few are found in full gem condition today. This is the exception. The coin has excellent color and surfaces, although we do note trivial hairlines. PCGS has graded just 10 this high, with a single coin graded higher, so don't expect to locate a better one! Bid accordingly.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

- 572 1867. PCGS graded Proof 65. Superb blue color around the periphery and much lighter silvery-gray at the centers. Excellent surfaces, with minor hairlines keeping this from an even higher grade. If you love toned coins, take a look at this low mintage gem! A delight to behold.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

- 573 1868. PCGS graded Proof 65. Resplendent toning on this one that ranges from deep blue-green around the periphery, and rich deep rose red at the centers (the same colors on both sides). Excellent surfaces and the only signs of handling are faint hairlines.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

- 574 1872. PCGS graded Proof 64. Bright white throughout, this one has excellent frost on the devices which contrast well against the mirror fields.
Estimated Value $550-650

The Eliasberg 1873 Proof Quarter

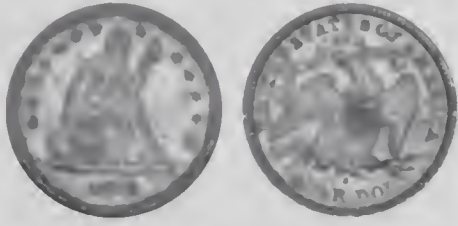

Enlarged

- 575 1873. Arrows. NGC graded Proof 67 Eliasberg. This is one of the finest known examples of this date! Further, it is from the Eliasberg Collection Sale in 1997, which pedigrees back to John Clapp most likely. The coin is stunning, it boasts a delicate arc of blue toning on the left obverse and gold all around, similar on the reverse. As to the centers, they are frosty and white. NGC has only graded 3 this high, and none graded higher, similar at PCGS where they have graded one as PR-67, and none higher. Thus, it is virtually certain that this is one of the finest known of the date! Just 540 were struck, and few survive in top grades. If you demand the absolute finest, then take a look at this quarter.
Estimated Value $12,000-15,000

From Bowers and Merena's Eliasberg Sale, 4/97:1504.

Quarters

- 576 1876-S. PCGS graded MS-65. The stunning toning adds greatly to its appeal featuring a uniform turquoise with hints of magenta on both sides. Housed in a first generation PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

- 577 1877. NGC graded MS-64. Deep blue, red and gold toning on both sides, with just minor handling marks in the fields. Well struck, but weak on some of the stars.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 578 1877. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright and untoned, with a minor staple scratch on the upper left reverse and the area surrounding it has been smoothed. Flashy luster and still appealing.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 579 1878-CC. ICG graded MS-65. We note some marks in the right obverse field. Frosty with a touch of light toning.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,000

- 580 1880. PCGS graded Proof 66. Blazing white frost on the devices and with deeply mirrored fields. A superb coin, just 25 have been graded this high by PCGS, with 16 graded higher. Further, this is a very rare coin, it employs the reverse used in 1872 (Type I, see Breen's Encyclopedia) and is quickly identified by the cut in the shield on the left side. Few survive with the Type I reverse, and perhaps a specialist would be interested in this magnificent gem.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

- 581 1883. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the finest graded of the date, PCGS has awarded just 3 coins of this date MS-66, and there are none graded higher. The toning is deep and old, with steel gray at the centers which fades to deep blue around the periphery, balanced on both sides. Fully struck on the devices, with each star bold. A low mintage date, boasting 14,400 struck for commerce, this certainly one of the very top half dozen survivors. If you demand the finest, take a look at this superb coin.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,800

- 582 1885. MS-63. Deep blue-gray toning on both sides, and weak on the right obverse stars, only at the centers. A scarce date in this grade.
Estimated Value $600-750

- 583 1886. PCGS graded Proof 66. Magnificent toning on the obverse, with deep blue and gold fading to brilliant white at the centers, the reverse more evenly toned with dusty rose hues. Highly reflective fields and with great cameo contrast. One of just 25 graded this high and 11 graded higher by PCGS. The fields and color are not disturbed by handling, making this a truly desirable coin.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

- 584 1886. PCGS graded Proof 65. Deep blue toning on the obverse, especially on Liberty and more red colors on the reverse, with the same deep blue around the periphery. A gem example of this scarce date.
Estimated Value $1,300-1,600

- 585 1891. MS-60 Plus. Luster in the fields and with minor handling marks, especially on the obverse. Toned with lovely colors around the reverse periphery.
Estimated Value $200-250

Quarters

Barber Quarters

- 586 1892. NGC graded MS-66. This one has lovely dark toning shades of gold, blue and green, with frosty luster beneath. Liberty's cheek is clean and fresh, with sparkling mint surfaces. An exceptional coin for the toning buff.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 587 1892. PCGS graded MS-65. A blazing white gem on the obverse, with just a bit of gold toning near the date and around the rims. The reverse has more toning. This one appears to be a higher grade, as the surfaces are quite clean and the coin is very appealing.
Estimated Value $800-900
- 588 1892. Proof 63. Bright white and untoned with minor hairlines in the fields.
Estimated Value $375-425
- 589 1892. AU-55. Nice for the grade, with untoned surfaces and quite a bit of luster. Well struck and with just a whisper of wear on the high points.
Estimated Value $80-90
- 590 1892-O. MS-63. Frosty and white, with no signs of toning on either side. Well struck from clashed and worn dies. A rare date, but overshadowed by the 1892-S.
Estimated Value $275-325
- 591 1892-O. EF-45. Lightly cleaned with resulting hairlines, but nicely retoned around the periphery with gold shades.
Estimated Value $50-60

The Finest Graded 1898 Quarter

- 592 1898. NGC graded MS-68. A resplendent example of this date which boasts electric blue tones around the periphery and reddish gold at the centers. Boldly struck by the dies with no signs of weakness anywhere to be found. The reverse has even darker toning and the luster dances beneath in the fields. These are the attributes required to make the finest graded 1898 quarter. It is alone as the sole MS 68 seen by NGC and none have been graded this high at PCGS. If you demand the finest, then here it is.
Estimated Value $5,000-UP

- 593 1898. NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. If you need just one type coin of the Barber quarter series for your set, then this is one to consider. The toning is superb, with deep gold and rose hues with the devices highly frosted. While the "cameo" designation is reserved for the coins that have the most mint frost and deepest mirror fields, this one is even further enhanced by the deep toning which increases the effect. Further, it is an 1898, one of the years that Philadelphia really got it right, and this is an example of their finest hour. Only 3 have been graded this high, with 11 graded higher by NGC. PCGS does not differentiate between the regular and cameo issues. A pristine example for the quality conscious numismatist.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,800
- 594 1898-O. ANACS graded MS-62. Subdued luster and with minor handling marks and hairlines. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $400-450

- 595 1899. PCGS graded Proof 66. This gem is toned with smoky gray tones and hints of blue in the fields. The mirror fields are quite fresh, and show none of the usual handling marks. PCGS has graded 20 this high, with 8 graded higher. If you love toned proofs, then look at this coin.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900
- 596 1901. NGC graded Proof 65. Intense gold toning over gleaming fields and the only flaw worth mentioning are the usual faint hairlines.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

Quarters

597 1901, MS-60 Plus. Mostly white with just a hint of toning. Moderate hairlines and handling marks.
Estimated Value $100-125

598 1901 ANACS graded AU-55 and 1916-D EF-45. The 1901 is nice for a lightly circulated coin while the 1916-D has some surface corrosion on the reverse. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $90-110

599 1903, PCGS graded Proof 66. A sparkling gem that has light rose toning on the obverse, and mostly untoned on the reverse. Superb in every way and worth a strong bid.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900

600 1905, NGC graded Proof 65. Mottled blue and green splashes of toning on both sides. Clean surfaces throughout and scarce.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

601 1906, PCGS graded Proof 64. Well mirrored on the fields and with minor hairlines. Untoned and problem-free.
Estimated Value $550-600

602 1909, Proof 63. Lightly toned on the obverse, but very dark on the reverse with the central areas particularly so.
Estimated Value $350-450

603 1909, PCGS graded MS-63. A frosty white example and quite choice for the grade.
Estimated Value $150-200

604 1910, PCGS graded Proof 65. Mottled toning in the fields of deep gold flecks, but Liberty's face is satiny and quite frosty. Minor hairlines in the right obverse field, and a couple of trivial specks before Liberty's face. Sharp.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

605 1911, NGC graded Proof 65. A frosty white proof that has strong contrast and clean surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $950-1,100

606 1912-S, MS-60+. Yellow to gold toning on both sides, mostly around the periphery.
Estimated Value $300-400

607 1916 and 1916-D Barber Quarters. Both grade MS-60, but have been cleaned with resulting hairlines. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300

Standing Liberty Quarters

Mint State 1916 Standing Liberty Quarter

608 1916, PCGS graded MS-62 Premium Quality. The rarest date of the series, the Philadelphia Mint squeezed off just 52,000 at the tail end of the year and few were saved in Mint State. This is a pleasant white example. The strike is typical with weakness noted on the top of Liberty's head. Decent luster and clean surfaces make this an appealing coin for the grade. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

Quarters

- 609 1916. SEGS graded MS-61 "Cleaned and Smoothed". The surfaces have been cleaned and smoothed to remove either spots or light marks, and this process has slightly weakened the devices. A few spots still exist on the coin, but they are small and unimportant. A rare and popular date, only a few were coined, and most entered circulation before they could be saved. This one should be inspected by prospective buyers, as it would fit into a date set.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 610 1916. PCGS graded AU-55. A bright and untuned coin that retains some of the satiny luster in the fields. One trivial tick mark located to the left of Liberty on the upper stars, but nothing else worth noting. Typical strike for the date, with Liberty's head not well defined, but sharp at the centers. Rare and always in high demand.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 611 1917. Type 1. NGC graded MS-67 Full Head. A stunning gem example, creamy white in appearance with a hint of golden tone. All of the rivets in the shield are sharp and fully defined.
Estimated Value $2,500-2,750
- 612 1917. Type 1. PCGS graded MS-62 Full Head. Well struck by the dies and still quite lustrous. One dark arc through STA on the reverse. Excellent pebbly surfaces curious to this date and period on silver coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 613 1917-D. Type 1 and 1917 Type 11. Both grade AU to Unc. The first has been cleaned, the second may have been dipped too, but they are still nice coins for the grade. Mounted in a small Capital Plastics holder. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 614 1917-D. Type 1. PCGS graded MS-62 Full Head. A magnificent example of this visionary coin. Hints of golden toning are starting to form, and the surfaces are very nice for the moderate grade assigned. Well struck, of course, with excellent details on Liberty's head and shield. In an old PCGS green insert holder.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 615 1917-S. Type 1. PCGS graded MS-63 Full Head. Light golden toning is starting to form, and well struck on the shield. In an old PCGS green insert holder.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 616 1917. Type 2. PCGS graded MS-65. This one is well struck, but does not have a full head. Nice gold toning around the periphery, with strong luster and clean surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 617 1917 PDS Type 2. These all grade AU-55 to MS-60. Each is untuned and lustrous, and would add three pretty coins to a date set. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 618 1917. Type 2. MS-64. Well struck, but not quite a full head or shield. Satiny luster throughout and no signs of toning.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 619 1917. Type 2. PCGS graded MS-63 Full Head. Lightly toned with flecks of medium gold adhering to the devices. Abundant luster in the fields and highly appealing if you like original toned coins. Boldly struck. In an old style small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 620 1917-D. Type 2. NGC graded MS-65. Delicate violet toning graces the surfaces of both sides, all of which further enhances its appearance.
Estimated Value $600-700
- 621 1918. PCGS graded MS-63 Full Head. Bright and lustrous throughout, with some minor weakness on the lower quadrant of the obverse, but full on Liberty's head. Scarce and desirable, with a few stray marks on the eagle.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 622 1918-D. MS-60. Bright from a recent dipping and still lustrous. Fairly well struck with most of Liberty's head present.
Estimated Value $140-170
- 623 1918-S. Normal date. AU-58. Lightly cleaned.
Estimated Value $70-90

Full Head 1918/7-S Rarity

Enlarged

- 24 1918-S. 8 over 7. NGC graded MS-64 Full Head. Seldom offered, this precious rarity was first noticed by collectors around 1937. At that time, one of the few mint state coins was offered in a Bluestone Auction (12/4/37:741) which realized the astronomical price of $26.25 (Breen). Collectors everywhere began searching through change and carefully examining their Standing Quarter collections. Few have been found, and this popular overdate remains one of the most sought-after coins of the 20th Century. The combined NGC and PCGS population reports show about 520 graded in all, not many when one considers how many collectors need one.
- Note the frosty luster in the fields, and the coin remains silvery white in color. No signs of toning have formed, and this is a beautiful example of this premier rarity.
- Turning to the population, this coin is tied for the finest graded by NGC and PCGS with the full head feature. NGC has graded only 4 this high and PCGS just 6 coins. Fine separation is noted on the three leaves in Liberty's crown, and parts of her ear and a few bosses on the shield are slightly weak. Note the diagnostic clash marks (from the eagle's wing) below TR of FRUST and the microscopic die dot between the right toes on Liberty's foot and the last star, just in the field near the base. These confirm the genuineness of the coin and are diagnostic to this single die pair. A famous rarity that will no doubt bring a strong price from an advanced Standing Liberty Quarter specialist.
- Estimated Value $60,000-70,000

Gem 1918/7-S Quarter

Enlarged

- 625 1918-S. 8 over 7. NGC graded MS-65. One of the finest graded of this classic rarity, this one has delicate gold toning around the periphery with hints of greens and blues around the eagle and lettering on the reverse. Flashy luster and well struck, with most of the head present, but not quite enough to qualify as full. We must note that this date is nearly impossible to locate with a full head, although a very choice one is offered in this sale. The surfaces remain quite clean, with just a couple of tick marks hidden on Liberty.
- This is one of the great rarities of the last century. Few overdates were created, and all are eagerly sought by collectors. Perhaps one thousand of these exist, the grading services have seen just a few over 500 in all grades, and it is likely that more are out there in coin land still sitting in albums, having been put away decades ago. This one has the minute diagnostics noted in the Breen Encyclopedia. The overdate feature is plain with a glass. Apparently in the rush to get dies prepared, one 1918 die received a blow from the 1917 master hub, then the hub was switched to the 1918 hub, and the die was struck again. No one noticed the overdate, and the die was shipped and put into production at the San Francisco Mint much to the delight of collectors.
- This is one of the finest graded. NGC has only graded 3 as such, with 2 graded higher, and PCGS has graded 5 as MS-65, and 2 higher. Certainly in the top dozen known and worthy of a strong bid. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $40,000-50,000

Nice Mint State 1918/7-S Quarter

Enlarged

- 626 1918-S. 8 over 7. PCGS graded MS-62. A nice example of this very rare overdate. Fresh mint luster in the fields, and no bagmarks worthy of description. The head has a pretty fair strike for this die, with the 3 leaves visible in Liberty's crown, but weakness behind her eye. PCGS has graded just 62 coins in mint state (of those 9 have full heads) so keep that in mind when formulating a bid. This is a very rare coin in any grade, and the overdate feature is quite clear on this mint state coin.
Estimated Value $12,500-UP

- 627 1919. MS-64. Clean surfaces for the grade and an excellent strike. Untoned and still very white.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 628 1919-D. PCGS graded MS-63. Sharply struck, but not quite a full head. Untoned and lustrous, with clean surfaces throughout. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 629 1919-S. MS-60+. This one has been dipped and there is a shiny spot on the reverse under NIT where something has probably been removed. Without toning and with a typical soft strike on Liberty's head.
Estimated Value $500-700

- 630 1920. MS-61+. Nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $90-110

- 631 1920-D. PCGS graded MS-63 Full Head. Nice for the grade, the surfaces are quite clean and the luster is fresh and bright. Untoned and utterly white.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,400

- 632 1920-S. MS-64. Bright and fresh mint luster throughout, with just a bit of gold color. Decent strike here, but not quite full head as the area around Liberty's ear shows prescribed weakness.
Estimated Value $800-1,200

- 633 1921. MS-60. This one has some minor cleaning lines and is still quite bright. Partial head on Liberty.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 634 1923. MS-60. Nice luster and surfaces for the grade, typical weak strike on Liberty's head.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 635 1923-S. MS-60. This one has some scattered handling marks as expected for the grade, gold toning is starting on the upper obverse, and delicate haze on the reverse.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 636 1924. MS-63. Nearly a full head but not quite. Flashy luster and bright.
Estimated Value $120-140

Quarters

1924-D, NGC graded MS-66. Superb surfaces and toning on this one, the obverse has a patch of reddish brown at the center, with lovely green-gold around the periphery. The reverse has flecks of gold around the rim. Not quite a full head, but with strong details there. Check this one out if you need the date, we think it you will love it.

Estimated Value $450-550

1924-D, PCGS graded MS-64. With a partial head on Liberty and flashy luster throughout. Light golden toning starting to form on both sides, but mostly white.

Estimated Value $150-175

1924-S, AU-58. Dipped, and completely without toning, but very well struck, including Liberty's elusive head.

Estimated Value $125-150

1925, PCGS graded MS-65 Full Head. The dies were modified a bit in 1925 to sink the date a little deeper, so it wouldn't wear away quite so quickly after brief circulation. Reflective with excellent luster and a touch of deep gold toning flecks around the rims. A true full head, with complete details on Liberty, the only weakness is on the usual two bosses on the shield, which are a bit mushy. Examination with a glass will note a couple of ticks, but they are minor and not distracting. One of only 80 graded as such by PCGS, with a mere 31 graded higher with a full head.

Estimated Value $500-600

1925, MS-64 Full Head. With some dark toning around the rims and edges, brighter at the centers. Bright luster elsewhere, with a good head on Liberty.

Estimated Value $200-250

1925, MS-64. This one nearly has a full head, clean surfaces and completely without toning.

Estimated Value $150-200

1926, PCGS graded MS-66. Sunset gold toning which is very light in color on both sides over abundant luster. Well struck, but not a full head or shield, as usual. PCGS notes 16 graded this high, with 1 graded higher

Estimated Value $500-550

1926, MS-63. Bright and untuned, with clean surfaces and flashy luster

Estimated Value $100-120

1926-D, NGC graded MS-65. Flashy and bright luster throughout, with no signs of toning on either side. Typical strike on the head of Liberty, with weak details there as usual. As a date, about 1 out of 4 graded is a full head example

Estimated Value $275-350

646 1926-D, NGC graded MS-64. Toned deep silvery-gray with greenish and yellow highlights. Some weakness in the strike, as always seen. Clean surfaces beneath the color

Estimated Value $150-175

647 1926-D, MS-63. Minor weakness in the strike around the periphery, but lustrous and clean surfaces. Bright and untuned

Estimated Value $100-125

One of the Finest Known 1926-S Full Head Quarters

Enlarged

648 1926-S, PCGS graded MS-66 Full Head. This is one of the finest graded 1926-S quarters in existence. PCGS has graded 8 this high, with none graded higher in Full Head. There are none graded higher without the full head either. Flashy mint luster on both sides and just a couple of tick marks worth noting, as this is such an important coin. First, there is a small stain on the top left star on the obverse, a tiny tick mark right of her belly button, and on the reverse there is a carefully hidden mark on the right wing of the eagle, right in the middle of it. Simply put, this coin is nearly perfect, the strike is bold on Liberty's head, with details on each of the 3 leaves in her crown, and the shield has a touch of weakness as always seen. An impossible date to locate in high grade, this stellar example belongs in the finest quarter set in the land. Study it carefully and see if it's the coin for your collection.

Estimated Value $22,000-27,000

Quarters

- 649 1926-S. PCGS graded MS-63. A blazing white coin that has most of the head well struck. The surfaces are extremely nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $500-550
- 650 1927. ANACS graded MS-63. Deeply toned with some lighter silver on the higher devices. Typical weakness in the strike.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 651 1927. ANACS graded MS-61. This coin really stretches the imagination to consider it mint state. Satiny luster and lightly toned.
Estimated Value $80-90
- 652 1927. AU-53. This one has been dipped to an unnatural brightness.
Estimated Value $40-50
- 653 1927-D. PCGS graded MS-64. A near gem example of this date that boasts excellent luster and mint fresh surfaces. With a partial head on Liberty, and not lacking too much from full given more recent standards. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $200-235

- 654 1927-S. PCGS graded AU-58. A rarity in this grade, and seldom offered. This date boasts a mintage of 396,000 in all, quite a bit smaller than the 1909 S. V.D.B. cent! Note the lustrous white fields and pleasing appearance. Certainly worthy of a mint state collection and worth considering. Trivial wear on the high points, and with about half of Liberty's head showing, including a couple of the leaves in her crown, but weak on her ear. This is a downright impossible date to locate much better, and far more expensive if you do! An opportunity.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 655 1927-S. ANACS graded AU-50. One of the key dates to the series and one that is seldom found in high grade. Light golden toning on the upper obverse. Nice color and surfaces overall, with minor hairlines from circulation and just a bit of wear on the high points.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,200
- 656 1928. MS-63. Minor hairlines and probably cleaned, but still quite nice for the moderate grade.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 657 1928. MS-60 Plus. Silvery-white luster on both sides and sharply struck although the head is not quite full.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 658 1928-D. NGC graded MS-64. Toned with greenish-yellow haze on both sides, other areas a bit gray. Luster beneath and well preserved.
Estimated Value $150-170
- 659 1928-D. MS-64. Blazing white luster and without any signs of toning. Some weakness on the head, as usual.
Estimated Value $150-170

- 660 1928-S. NGC graded MS-66 Full Head. This one has blazing fresh luster on both sides and is graced by shadowy gold toning around the periphery. A few minor die cracks can be seen with a glass, and the strike is better than usually seen, although there is very slight weakness on Liberty's head on her ear. A recent NGC Population Report shows 31 graded this high, with 5 graded higher.
Estimated Value $800-1,100
- 661 1928-S. PCGS graded MS-66. This one has delicate gold and amber toning on both sides over very lustrous fields. Note the sharpness in the strike, the head is not quite full, although all 3 leaves on Liberty's crown are sharp. Superb surfaces throughout, and highly appealing. One of 75 graded as such, with 5 graded higher by PCGS (without a full head).
Estimated Value $500-600
- 662 1928-S. PCGS graded MS-63 Premium Quality. Mint fresh luster and very nice for the grade. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 663 1929. PCGS graded MS-65. Silver-white luster with tawny yellow toning on the lower obverse, and a bit more toning on the reverse. Well struck, but not quite full on the head.
Estimated Value $350-375
- 664 1929. PCGS graded MS-63 Full Head. Premium Quality. Satiny white luster and untoned. This is in an old green insert holder and could grade higher we think.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 665 1929. ANACS graded MS-62 Full Head. Well struck and basically untoned. Inspection recommended.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 666 1929-D. MS-64. A bright, untoned coin that has nice surfaces and a partial head.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 667 1929-D. ANACS graded MS-63. Minor handling marks and generally well struck, but not quite a full head. A touch weak near the date.
Estimated Value $140-150
- 668 1929-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Untoned and quite brilliant with fistfulls of luster.
Estimated Value $150-170
- 669 1929-S. NGC graded MS-64. Good luster and lightly toned with flecks of color around the periphery.
Estimated Value $150-170

- 670 1930. NGC graded MS-67 Full Head. Blast white luster and boldly struck, with sharp details on Liberty's head. Two tiny weak dots on the shield. This is one of the finest graded by NGC, with 5 seen this high and none graded higher. If you demand a monster coin for your set, here it is.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Quarters

1930. ANACS graded MS-65. Full luster and well struck, but not the head, as usual. Lightly toned around the periphery.
Estimated Value $300-350

1930. PCGS graded MS-62. Graded rather severely as there really are no problems, this one has nice luster and just a few scattered ticks. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $120-140

1930. ANACS graded MS-64 Full Head. Toned a deep brown to gold on both sides, and well struck.
Estimated Value $100-125

1930-S, MS-60. Some stacking marks on the high points, untoned and white.
Estimated Value $70-80

Washington Head Quarters

1932, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937 and 1937-D. These grade MS-63 or better. Mostly fresh white luster, some with a bit of haze. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $125-150

1932-D, 1932-S and 1936-S. These grade AU-58. We note the 1932 D and S both show some hairlines, probably from a cleaning in the past. All would fit well into a mint state album collection. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $400-500

1932-D, EF-45. Light circulated, and needed by most collectors.
Estimated Value $100-125

1932-S, Accugrade graded MS-63. Light mottled gold in color and with lots of frosty luster. FEB on the insert means Full Eagle's Beak we're told by the consignor. One of the key dates to the Washington quarter series.
Estimated Value $700-800

1932-S, MS-60 Plus. Nicely toned and presentable, but there is a long scratch from the eagle's neck out his left wing, which is hard to see, but present. Scarce.
Estimated Value $300-400

Washington Quarter group. The following are included, 1932-S ANACS graded AU-50, deeply toned; 1934 Double Die Obverse 1 and Double Die Reverse 1, ANACS graded VG-10 and 1950-S/S PCI graded EF-45. The 1932-S may be artificially retoned, the 1934 has minor green verdigris on the reverse and the 1950 S/S is not the same variety as noted under Breen-4350, but the S shows very slight recutting. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-UP

1932-S, ANACS graded AU-50.
Estimated Value $80-100

1934-D and 1935-D. Both grade MS-60 to MS-63. Frosty and white. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

1935-S, MS-65. A true gem with excellent color and surfaces, virtually as struck with full luster and undiminished by bag-marks or other detractors.
Estimated Value $200-250

684 1936-D, PCGS graded MS-65. Normally on a gem coin we see a few ticks and handling marks. This one is really a cut above, as the devices and fields are exceptional for the grade. Hazy toning over fresh mint luster, and plucked from an old date set just before the sale and submitted to PCGS for their opinion.
Estimated Value $500-700

685 1937-S, MS-64. Strong luster and a decent strike.
Estimated Value $100-150

686 1938 and 1938-S, Both grade MS-63. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $120-150

687 1939 PDS and 1940 PDS. These are mostly MS-63. Most are bright and flashy, and untoned. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

688 1939-D, PCGS graded MS-66. Toned with several different colors on the obverse, including red, blue and gold. The reverse shows light gold, mostly around the lower portion. Clean surfaces and perfect for the date collector who demands a high end toned coin.
Estimated Value $125-150

689 Washington Quarter partial set 1941 to 1961-D. A nice set that grades MS-60 or better and is mounted in a Library of Coins album. Mostly untoned, but a few are golden. Lot of 63 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

690 Washington Quarter Silver Set, 1932 to 1964-D complete. The set grades AU to BU, with most grading BU. This set is from Superior Galleries Jerry Buss Sale, January 1985 and is mounted in two large black Capital Plastics holders. The 1932-D has been harshly cleaned. Lot of 83 coins plus an extra one to show the reverse.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

Half Dollars

- 691 1794 Overton-101a, Rarity-3. PCGS graded Fine-15. Steel gray and problem free for this issue. We note some minor adjustment marks on the reverse, but they are light. This is the popular first year of issue and few are found in moderate grades. These 1794 half dollars are very popular with collectors, and always bring strong prices, which are well deserved. Don't miss this one if you need this date for your set. Later die state with the crack through the F of OF too.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 692 1795 Overton-104, Rarity-4. PCGS graded EF-40. One of the finest examples known, behind the NGC Mint State-61 example sold by Stack's in October of 1997, and another pair of EF-45 examples sold in 1998 and 1996. This particular coin has outstanding even silvery-gray color, with hints of luster near the devices. Liberty's hair detail is strong, the curls show excellent separation throughout. Further, this one is quite problem-free, the obverse has only one tiny mark before her neck, which requires magnification to see, no rim bumps or bruises, and light antique gold around the periphery. On the reverse, we note minor adjustment marks most visible around the eagle's tail, and a planchet flaw located between the right wing and tail feathers. Planchet flaws are not unusual on early coinage, as the Mint's rolling equipment was primitive, and exacting standards were hard to achieve. Frequently, planchet flaws or heavy planchets were produced, and many silver and gold coins of the period had to be filed a bit to bring the planchet weight down to the proper level before the coin was struck. This coin is probably in the middle of the Condition Census of half a dozen coins, and a beautiful example it is of this die pairing.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 693 1795 Overton-104, Rarity-4. Sharpness of EF-40 but burnished. This coin has been worked on quite a bit, it shows evidence of burnishing and some scratches on the eagle. Still a lot of detail, and it has been retoned to look more natural.
Estimated Value $700-900

- 694 1795 Overton-104, Rarity-4. Fine-15. Choice color and surfaces, but there is a planchet flaw from Liberty's eye up to the Y of LIBERTY. There is also another planchet flaw or scrape in the right obverse field, and a scrape between LI. Toned with lovely peripheral colors and very appealing. Perfect for the type collector who wants a medium grade coin.
Estimated Value $500-700

Half Dollars

Rare 1797 Half Dollar in Fine

Enlarged

- 695 1797, 15 stars, Overton-101a, Rarity-5. PCGS graded Fine-12. Nice and original, but weak on the right obverse stars. We also note minor adjustment marks hidden in the hair. The obverse die has a crack through the second star into Liberty's hair, and the reverse is shattered through STA. One of the lowest mintages of all regular issue silver coins, and downright hard to find in any decent grade. It is believed that 3,918 of the 1796 and 1797 half dollars were struck, then the design was changed to the heraldic eagle reverse. Of all the small eagle silver coins (half dime, dime, quarter, half dollar and silver dollar) this was the only one with the denomination displayed below the wreath on the reverse. This coin appears to be original, with steel gray toning and clean surfaces for the grade. In an old style green label PCGS holder, and truly rare in any grade.
Estimated Value $16,000-18,000

- 696 1801 Overton-102, Rarity-4. Fine-12. Steel gray in color but there are some light surface scratches and an old one through the second T of STATES.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 697 1806, Pointed 6, stem not through claw, O-109A, Rarity-4. NGC graded AU-58. A beautiful toned coin that retains most of the original luster in the fields. The devices have a special glow from careful preservation. All is toned a deep gray and well struck throughout. The reverse die was rusted when this one was struck. Perfect for the type collector.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Half Dollars

Gem 1808 Half Dollar

- 698 1808 Overton-107a, Rarity-2. PCGS graded MS-65. One of the nicest coins of this date seen, with superb surfaces underneath speckled green and gold toning on both sides. A couple of minor ticks including a shallow mark out from Liberty's neck and a couple of tiny ones on her face are all we could locate. Flashy luster and well struck, including each stars central lines. PCGS has graded 5 this high and 4 graded higher. Several light die cracks add interest and didn't challenge the strike in any way.
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

- 699 1814. E over A in "STATES", Overton-108a, Rarity-1. Acugrade graded AU-50. This is a very late die state with a die crack through the 4 in the date to Liberty's lower curl, and heavy and extensive clash marks on both sides. Medium silver-gray in color, with darker colors on the high points of both sides. The E over A is clear, despite the late die state, and this is quite popular with collectors.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 700 1823. Normal, O-105, R-1. AU-50. Flashy and lustrous, with minor hairlines from old cleaning. Appealing with delicate gold toning around the periphery, and silver white at the centers.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 701 1826 Overton-120a, Rarity-3. PC1 graded AU-50. Here is a nice coin for the grade, the surfaces show minor hairlines (always seen on bust half dollars) and no appreciable marks on either side. Substantial luster remains and the coin is well struck from a late reverse die state. Note the cracks through the legends on the reverse. A scarce variety, and a coin most collectors will appreciate.
Estimated Value $170-190

- 702 1828. Curl base, no knob 2, O-102, R-2. ICG graded MS-64. A choice mint state coin that is silvery white on the obverse with delicate toning, on the reverse we note some darker areas above the eagle. Mint frost in most of the fields. Well struck and scarce in this grade.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900

- 703 1829 O-113a, Rarity-2. ICG graded AU-58. Minor hairlines as always, but steel gray in color and well struck. The final A in AMERICA is filled.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 704 1831. PCGS graded MS-65. A gem example of this date, the surfaces are pristine and we note that the strike is also bold. Toned with lovely steel gray around the periphery, lighter at the centers. The fields are aglow with golden luster. PCGS has graded 33 this high, with a single coin graded higher, making this one of the very best available of this date.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,000

- 705 1831 Overton-103, Rarity-1. MS-60+. Semi Prooflike. Flecks of gold toning around the periphery and well struck. Notable luster in the fields, and minor hairlines.
Estimated Value $500-UP
- 706 1831 O-105, Rarity-3. PCGS graded AU-53. A scarce variety, this one has decent surfaces but there is a dull scratch touching the back side of the 1 in the date down to the rim. Sharply impressed by the dies, the only weakness is on the lower part of the first T in STATES.
Estimated Value $175-200

- 707 1832 Overton-110, Rarity-1. MS-60+. This one is very flashy and bright, with blazing white luster throughout. Free of toning and almost certainly dipped, as no silver coin of this age could possibly be so bright otherwise. Problem free surfaces, and well preserved.
Estimated Value $500-550
- 708 1832. Normal, O-107, Rarity-2. PCGS graded AU-50. Silvery white in color with a hint of gold toning on both sides. Some luster remains and this is a well struck example of the date.
Estimated Value $150-175

Half Dollars

- 09 1837. PCGS graded MS-64 Premium Quality. This coin has a great appearance, it boasts hot mint luster in the fields and is toned with a delicate golden gray throughout. Examination will note some minor hairlines in the fields and stacking evidence on the high points. Struck by the new powerful steam press at the Philadelphia Mint, and after years of inconsistent strikes, coins could finally be kept to uniform standards, rather than the mood swings of horses and mankind.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 10 1838. PCGS graded MS-64. Flashy mint luster in the fields and very well struck by the dies. We note delicate golden brown toning around the periphery, while the centers are untuned. An impressive example that will certainly please the fastidious collector who demands quality surfaces and toning. PCGS has graded 13 this high, with just 6 higher.
Estimated Value $3,700-4,000

- 1 1839-O. PCGS graded MS-64. This is one of the finest graded of this important rarity. PCGS has seen just 8 this high, with a single coin graded higher (MS-66), making this one of the very finest known of this rare 2 year type coin. One of the most important features is also the bold obverse O Mintmark above the date. The obverse mintmark was used for just a couple of years before people complained that it was too obvious, and hence it was soon (1840) moved to the reverse. As we now know, the various branch mintmarks stayed on the reverse until 1909 when the obverse mintmarks appeared on cents and double eagles (1908), and 1916 when they appeared on the obverse again on quarters and half dollars.
This particular coin is blazing white with luster and completely without toning. There is a minor reeding mark on Liberty's cheek, but the surfaces are truly clean for the grade. Several die cracks are noted around the periphery of the obverse and reverse and this is the normal die state seen. The strike is full and complete with no signs of weakness.
Estimated Value $8,000-9,500

- 712 A group of 7 Seated Half dollars. This group is all ANACS graded as indicated with the variety information included on the ANACS insert: 1840 Sm. Letters, F-15; 1843 Breen-4765 EF-45; 1854 Breen-4846 EF-45; 1860-O WB-104 EF details, net VF-30 cleaned; 1861-O Breen-4905, AU details net EF-40 cleaned; 1871 Repunched Date, EF-40 and 1871-S Breen-4960 EF-40. Some rare coins are included, but many have problems so inspection mandatory. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 713 1844-O. Double date. PCGS graded EF-45. This is simply a splendid example of this immensely popular Mint error. The double date feature is one of the most dramatic recuttings seen, and this is a clear statement of upheaval at the Mint. Breen speculates that the series of mispunched dates that began in 1844 was a direct result of the power struggles within the Philadelphia Mint. Longacre got himself appointed the Mint Engraver by Senator John C. Calhoun. Mint insiders were outraged, and Breen speculates that either Longacre was forced to punch in the dates in the dies or the Mint employees did their best to make "mistakes" such as this obviously mispunched date. Perhaps such "mistakes" were to get rid of Longacre, or Longacre's own disgust at having to do the mental task of engraving dates on dies, something that should be beneath the Mint Engraver.

Whatever the cause, this is a superb coin that will excite even the most advanced collector. The surfaces are pearl gray with minor handling marks and lines in the fields. Well struck, and the overdate feature is bold. Listed for decades in the Red Book, and always in feverish demand. PCGS lists just 5 graded this high, with 2 graded AU-50 above, and 2 graded in mint state. Precious few to go around! Don't miss this coin if you've been searching for a high grade, lightly circulated example.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,000

The Finest Known 1846 Over Lazy 6 Half

Enlarged

- 714 1846 over horizontal 6 (error) The Finest Known. NGC graded MS-65. This important die variety was discovered many years ago and has been widely published. Over the span of decades, only a few have turned up in Mint State, perhaps a half dozen. Of those, only a single coin, this coin, has been graded MS-65. There are none graded higher. NGC has graded a single coin in MS-62, 63 and 64 below. PCGS has graded 2 coins as high as MS-62, and none higher. Toned with deep blues and fiery reds in the fields, the strike is bold and complete. The recut date feature is sharp, and the "lazy 6" is plain to the unaided eye. As with most seen, there are two small rim breaks below the date, a faint crack connecting the stars on the left, and on the reverse cracks through UNIT and HALF to the rims above.
- How did this "error" occur. Many have speculated that the mispunchings began soon after Gobrecht died in 1844. Mint officials did not want to replace him, and would instead work with friendly outsiders like Charles Cushing Wright, when some engraving need arose. With modern automation, the process of making dies was fairly simple, and only the date punches needed to be done by hand. The Philadelphia Mint was dominated by a group of old line cronies, the Peale's, Eckfeldts, Pattersons and DuBois families were lord and masters of the institution. Nevertheless, James Barton Longacre used his political influence to buy his way into the Mint via then Senator John C. Calhoun, who gave him the Mint engravership. This appointment rocked the boat, and during this turmoil many overdates, mispunched dates and the like were produced. Perhaps these were by Longacre himself, or by the engraving department to use as excuses to oust Longacre. The feud continued, and Longacre held on using his considerable political influence. Eventually Longacre outlived most of his adversaries, and certainly provided many colorful stories and wonderful coins for today's numismatists to treasure. Color photo.

Toned Proof 1847 Half Dollar

Enlarged

- 715 1847. NGC graded Proof 64. An extreme rarity in Proof, perhaps a dozen were struck, and this is certainly one of the best to survive. Toned with mottled brushes of rich blue and gold on both sides, with highly reflective mirror fields beneath. Identifiable by a tiny planchet flake above the 1 of HALF. We note some trivial hairlines in the fields, but they are toned over and barely show. One of the finer ones to survive, and a few of the others known are nicked or badly cleaned. A superb opportunity for the specialist. NGC has graded 2 this high, with 2 graded higher, while PCGS has only graded 1 coin this high and none higher.
- Estimated Value $17,500-UP

- 716 1848 Closed 4 variety, Breen-4808. AU-53. Described as "very rare" in Breen, the 4 in the date is obviously repunched and the crosslet portion nearly touches the bottom serif, hence the "closed" portion. This is a nice coin for the grade, silvery gray in color with peripheral gold toning.

Branch Mint Proof 1852-O Half Dollar

Enlarged

- 717 1852-O. NGC graded Proof 62. It is not known why the New Orleans Mint decided to coin 3 proofs in 1852, but they did. Here is one of them, it has clean surfaces for the grade, and the coin is toned a radiant golden color, with extremely sharp device detail throughout. Liberty's foot is not supported, as noted in Breen, and the die file marks are visible below UNIT to the eagle's wing. We note a small tick mark in the reverse field left of the point of the eagle's beak, and this should help in tracing the pedigree. The first and third stripes in the shield show areas of weakness, at the top and bottom respectively, again confirming this coins status as a proof. A single coin has been graded by NGC, none by PCGS. Breen notes all 3 were "poorly cleaned".

All branch mint proof issues are extremely rare. They were coined sporadically apparently for special occasions. Perhaps these were coined as the last of their kind before the planchet weight was changed, and arrows added to the dies in 1853. Whatever the reason, here is a beautiful example of this extremely rare proof issue.

Estimated Value $20,000-UP

- 718 1853. Arrows and rays, 1854 Arrows and 1873 Arrows. Each grades EF-45 but has been cleaned and is starting to retone naturally. Lot of 3 coins.

Estimated Value $350-450

- 719 1853. Arrows and rays. PCGS graded AU-50. Choice for the grade, with delicate blue shades around the periphery and light silver at the centers. Nicely struck and well preserved in every way.

Estimated Value $350-400

This lot includes an old envelope from B. Max Mehl, lot 675 at a cost of $3.48.

Half Dollars

- 720 1854-O. Arrows. PCGS graded MS-65 Arrows. By 1850, the massive flows of gold from California had depressed the prices of that metal, and made silver more valuable by comparison. Hence, all silver coins disappeared from circulation as they were worth more than face value. Depositors gave little silver to the mints for coinage, and there were no denominations in circulation between the cent and gold dollar. Something had to be done, so in 1853 Congress reduced the amount of silver for minor denominations, in order to reflect the market value of silver as compared to gold. On the half dollar, the weight was reduced from 206.25 grains to 192 grains, and Mint Director George Eckert ordered quick changes to the dies so the entire design did not have to be changed. Arrows were added at the date, and on the reverse, rays were added surrounding the eagle. These design changes caused a problem, the dies cracked and broke to pieces much faster with the arrows and rays. In fact, die life fell to one-third normal, and dies had to be replaced rapidly. When Col. James Ross Snowden took as Mint Director in 1853, he immediately ordered the rays removed starting in 1854, both to extend die life and because so little of the heavier pre arrows coinage was in circulation by then. The arrows were later dropped starting in 1856.

This particular coin boasts mint-fresh luster in the fields, well struck stars and devices, with just a bit of weakness here and there, and delightfully clean surfaces. Locating a gem of this date is always a challenge for the advanced numismatist. PCGS has graded 9 coins this high, with 11 graded a notch higher, and just one coin as MS-67 at the top. Don't miss out on this one.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

The Pittman 1855-O Arrows Half in Gem

- 721 1855-O. Arrows. NGC graded MS-66 Pittman. This is one of the very finest graded of this date and important type coin. NGC notes that only 3 have been graded this high, with none graded higher! Deep gray toning with hints of blue near the stars. The strike is full and complete on both sides, and the coin is certainly one of the finest of the date. If you love toned coins that have superb surfaces, then check this one out. Color photo
Estimated Value $10,000-12,500

From the John J. Pittman Collection sale

- 722 1858. NGC graded MS-65. Light antique gray toning on both sides of this gem, with one lighter patch on the upper right side of the obverse. Excellent luster in the fields and the surfaces are extremely nice for the grade. NGC has only graded 5 this high, with 1 graded higher (unless this coin was just submitted and not yet in the published population report). One of the best to come down to us of this so-called common date, but as we noted, this date is certainly downright rare in gem grades. Well struck although a few stars show minor central weakness, the central devices are strong.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 723 1858. NGC graded MS-65. This gem has gorgeous original toning around the periphery, with deep blue and red through the stars and edges, while the centers are frosty and white. Further, this is a scarce variety, WB-105, which is extremely rare in any mint state grade. The 5 has two projections on the right side, these are from an inverted 1 mispunched in that location. NGC has only graded 5 this high, with a single coin graded higher. Note there is a small planchet flaw near the arm in the field between the first couple of stars.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500
- 724 1858-O. AU-55. Deep gold and gray toning over clean surfaces. Nice and appealing.
Estimated Value $125-175

- 725 1863. PCGS graded Proof 64. A totally white example and very choice. A mere 460 proofs were coined.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

Half Dollars

- 726 1867. NGC graded Proof 65. Only 625 were coined in Proof, and few remain in gem. This one is toned deep smoky shades with sunset yellow at the centers. Some of the gold toning is mottled on both sides and the effect is quite beautiful. Examination will note a few minor hairlines, and die polishing lines in the fields. NGC has graded 24 this high, with just 10 graded higher.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 727 1871. MS-63. Minor hairlines but lovely color around the periphery.
Estimated Value $650-750

Near Gem 1873-CC No Arrows Half

Enlarged

- 728 1873-CC. No arrows. PCGS graded MS-64. Here is an extremely rare coin has a suspect mintage. Breen notes that 122,500 were struck early in the year of 1873, then the weight was changed and arrows added at the date, so many of these were melted. Somehow, this one escaped, not only escaped the rough and tumble times, but also the painful depression of 1873. Escaped and survived in pristine condition! The surfaces are snowy white with superb surfaces throughout. No signs of the usual annoying hairlines, just acres of mint fresh luster and the slightest hint of toning around a couple of the obverse stars and the arrow heads on the reverse. PCGS has graded 3 this high, with just 2 coins graded higher (both MS-66!) and NGC similar, with none graded as such, but one graded higher as MS-66 also. Quite frankly, any specialist would do well to bid on this coin, it will be sold without reserve and presents a foremost opportunity to the advanced numismatist to purchase one of the top half dozen of this rare date to survive.
Estimated Value $35,000-UP

Half Dollars

- 29 1874-S. Arrows. PCGS graded EF-45. Steel gray in color and with hints of luster in the lettering on the reverse. A scarce issue that is seldom offered in high grades.
Estimated Value $250-270

- 30 1876. AU-58. Medium gray toning throughout and quite beautiful. As nice as one could expect for the grade. Sharply struck and desirable.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 31 1877-CC. PCGS graded MS-64. Satiny luster and lightly toned on both sides, with clean surfaces throughout. Well struck for this Mint, with the curls on Liberty's head present. PCGS reports just 27 graded as such, with 16 graded higher.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 32 1887. PCGS graded MS-65. Blazing white luster on the obverse and well struck, the reverse with light golden toning around the periphery, bright at the centers. This is one of the low-mintage dates where all the silver available was being coined into silver dollars at the various mints. Precious few half dollars were made and very few remain in gem condition. A look at the PCGS Population Report shows 17 graded this high and just 13 graded higher. Not many to go around.
Estimated Value $2,200-2,700

- 33 1887. MS-63. Bright white with blazing luster and well struck devices. Perfect for the date collector who needs this issue. One light scratch on Liberty's head.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 734 1889. NGC graded Proof 66. Deep blue and gold toning on both sides, with the devices well offset from the mirror fields. Only a couple of faint hairlines in the fields from perfection, and one of the low mintage dates from the 1880s. NGC has graded just 14 this high, with 12 graded higher. An impressive coin for the connoisseur.
Estimated Value $2,800-3,200

Barber Half Dollars

- 735 1894. PCGS graded Proof 65. A gem proof that is mostly untuned save for an arc at the top of the obverse. Boldly impressed and perfect for the investor who needs this date or type.
Estimated Value $2,200-2,500

- 736 1894. NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. This is a special coin because of the cameo designation. Only 4 have been graded as such by NGC with the cameo designation, while this would be somewhat common if it were just a regular proof issue in this grade. Mostly untuned, with mountain high frost on the devices and well mirrored fields. Examination will scarcely find a mark on this coin, and the fields are very nice indeed for the grade assigned. If you want a really beautiful example of this date, examine this to see if it's the coin for your collection.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

- 737 1897. MS-64. Toned with a menagerie of colors, sea green, yellow and gold shades predominate. Well struck, but slightly weak on Liberty's chin where we note a small void (a lamination?).
Estimated Value $700-800

- 738 1897. PCGS graded Proof 64. Smoky gold toning on both sides over reflective surfaces.
Estimated Value $700-800

Half Dollars

- 739 1898. PCGS graded MS-64. Deep smoky gray toning on both sides. Clean surfaces beneath, with few signs of handling. Well struck with no signs of weakness on either side.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 740 1901. MS-60 Plus. Satiny luster and just a few minor handling marks. Nicely struck overall too.
Estimated Value $275-325

- 741 1901-O. PCGS graded MS-65. This is a scarce date in gem mint state, PCGS has graded 4 this high, with only 2 coins graded higher. Note the delicate gold peripheral toning and the mint-fresh luster in the fields. New Orleans did not strike this one fully, there is some weakness on the lower obverse stars and more so on the reverse devices. Liberty's cheek is clean and shows faint horizontal lines from the original planchet rolling process. A rarity that is seldom offered in such high grade, and worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

- 742 1902. NGC graded Proof 64. We note trivial hairlines on the surfaces. Struck in the all mirror style as was employed during this year. Light gold around the rims.
Estimated Value $750-850

- 743 1908-D. PCGS graded MS-64. Clean and untoned for the coin, with a touch of haziness over the luster. Minor hairlines account for the grade, with a very clean cheek on Liberty and a good strike.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 744 1908-D. AU-58. Minor handling marks, but great color.
Estimated Value $225-275

- 745 1909. PCGS graded MS-64. A totally white, frosty mint beauty. A very choice example.
Estimated Value $750-850

- 746 1911. NGC graded MS-65. Boldly struck throughout and loaded with mint luster. A common date, but still scarce in full gem condition. Untoned and frosty, with the appearance of a Morgan dollar that has just been pulled from a mint bag. NGC has graded 12 this high, with 7 graded higher.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 747 1914. PCGS graded Proof 66. Deep mirror fields that are remarkably free of contact, and Liberty's face too, which shows just light hairlines. Cloudy haze over stone white surfaces. Certainly one of the finest graded, with just 8 seen this high by PCGS, with 10 graded higher (all PR67). A bright, shiny coin for the date specialist.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 748 1914. PCGS graded MS-62. This is the lowest mintage date of the entire series, and a coin that is seldom found in full uncirculated condition. Silvery luster is overlaid with gold toning around the edges. Minor hairlines on both sides, accounting for the grade. Still and all, appealing enough for the collector, and well struck too.
Estimated Value $800-900

Half Dollars

- 49 1915-S. NGC graded MS-65. Probably from a small hoard of 5 rolls of this date that turned up many years ago. This one is well struck, completely untoned and still quite flashy. NGC has graded 28 as such, with 13 graded higher for this final year of issue of the Barber half dollar. Minor hairlines in the fields and a nice coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 755 1917-S. Mint mark on reverse. NGC graded MS-65 Pittman. Well struck throughout and only minor weakness on the high points, the fields with the familiar satiny luster seen on these early issues. This one has smoky gray toning on both sides, with colorful flecks near the rims. Tied with a small group for the best seen by NGC, only 13 have been graded this high, with none graded higher. Further enhanced by the Pittman pedigree.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

Liberty Walking Half Dollars

- 50 1916. SEGS graded MS-65. Minor hairlines which have been covered over a bit by toning, and still lustrous beneath. We note slide marks on the high points of Liberty, where this coin was probably stored in an album for some time in the past. Decent surfaces otherwise.
Estimated Value $450-550

- 51 1916. MS-63. Flashy luster and untoned, with a couple of ticks and a broken scrape in the eagle's wing.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 52 1916-D. MS-60. Probably cleaned in the past but not to its detriment. Subdued luster and well struck for this first year of issue. A moderate priced coin for the real collector.
Estimated Value $150-250

- 53 1916-S. AU-55. Fresh and bright, without a whisper of toning. This one is nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 756 1919. NGC graded MS-65. Lovely surfaces with a hint of bluish and gray toning over the blazing luster in the fields. Note the strong strike, with good separation on Liberty's thumb and strong feathers on the eagle. Pristine fields and devices that show few marks, and only light toning. The recent NGC Population Report shows 22 graded this high, with only 12 graded higher of this key date. Don't miss out, as these gems are rarely offered and worth strong bids whenever they appear.
Estimated Value $2,800-3,200

- 54 1917. PCGS graded MS-65. Blazing white luster throughout and well struck. Highly appealing and worth a strong bid.
Estimated Value $500-550

Well Struck Gem 1919-S Half Dollar

- 757 1919-S. NGC graded MS-65. A foremost coin that boasts a strong strike on Liberty and flashy white luster throughout. Long known as one of the key dates to the series, the 1919-S is rarely found with a sharp strike, and is a true rarity in gem condition. To locate a gem that is well struck is something extraordinary. Further, this is the plate coin from Anthony Swiatek's Walking Liberty book for the date. Frosty luster in the fields and toned with just a hint of gold around the periphery. One tiny scrape is noted above the Sun in the field, but there are no other handling marks worthy of note.

As to the rarity, NGC has graded 13 this high, with a scant 4 graded higher. If you want a well struck example, then be sure to examine this one closely because it has details you simply won't see on most others, even if they are the same grade. Quality such as this is never cheap, so calculate your bid carefully. Currently in NGC holder #337709-003.

Estimated Value $10,000-UP

- 758 1920-S. NGC graded MS-66 Pittman. One of the finest seen of this rare date, note the strong strike on Liberty, including her hand and head which normally show less definition than seen here. Toned with delicate flecks of gold color streaked across the obverse and similar on the reverse. Examination notes a few widely scattered tick marks from handling, but the fields and devices are far better than average. NGC has graded 7 this high, with a single coin graded higher.

Estimated Value $8,000-11,000

From the John J. Pittman collection.

- 759 1934. PCGS graded MS-65. Frosty white luster throughout with a small faint fingerprint in the left obverse field.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 760 1934 Accugrade MS-63 and 1944-S Mercury Dime PCGS graded MS-65. The half dollar has some minor hairlines, but nice rainbow tones around the edge and the 1944-S dime has lovely blue streak toning on both sides. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $70-80

- 761 1934-D. PCGS graded MS-65. Blazing luster throughout, with a whisper of hazy toning on both sides. Scarce this nice especially to be well struck on Liberty's thumb.

Estimated Value $450-550

- 762 1935. PCGS graded MS-65. Bright mint luster and well struck for this date. Clean surfaces and no problems whatsoever.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 763 1935. PCGS graded MS-65. Sharply struck and well preserved with abundant luster throughout.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 764 1937-D. PCGS graded MS-66. Bright white luster and fresh from a roll, this super coin is problem free. Just a couple of minor handling ticks from perfection.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 765 1937-S. PCGS graded MS-66. Blazing white and well struck.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 766 1937-S. NGC graded MS-65. Flashy luster in the fields and free of the usual bagmarks, keeping this in the gem class.

Estimated Value $225-250

- 767 1938. NGC graded MS-67. A satiny white mark-free gem.

Estimated Value $1,900-2,100

- 768 1938. PCGS graded MS-66. Light sunset gold toning at the center, bright white luster throughout. Well struck, and exceptional surfaces for this high end gem.

Estimated Value $250-300

Half Dollars

9 1938-D. PCGS graded MS-65. The mintage of this date is 491,600, about the same as the famed 1909 S VDB cent. Here is a gem example that boasts full luster, clean surfaces and a strong strike. A couple of minor specks starting to form toning, mostly on the reverse.
Estimated Value $500-600

0 1938-D. PCGS graded MS-64. This scarce date is tough in high grades. We note a couple of tiny specks on both sides, mostly on the high points of the devices. Flashy luster and a decent strike.
Estimated Value $350-400

1 1939-D. PCGS graded MS-66. A beautiful example of this popular design, the Walking Liberty design was employed from 1916 through 1947, spanning two world wars, and the Great Depression. In an old style PCGS holder, with the green insert, and quite impressive.
Estimated Value $160-190

2 1941. NGC graded Proof 66. A blazing white gem that has near perfect surfaces. In an old NGC holder.
Estimated Value $300-350

3 1941-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Bright and untoned, this date is traditionally one of scarce issues of the 1940s, and has always brought a premium for a nice gem example. This one has the usual weak strike on Liberty's hand, but good details on her head, and most of her skirt lines show.
Estimated Value $700-800

4 1941-S. SEGS graded MS-65. Bright and untoned except for a touch by the date. This one looks like it was just pulled from a roll
Estimated Value $400-500

5 1941-S. Accugrade graded MS-65 our grade MS-64+. Flashy and untoned, with blazing luster. Typical weakness in the strike, nearly always seen on this date.
Estimated Value $150-200

6 1942. NGC graded Proof 65. An area of tone rests between Liberty's head and outstretched hand
Estimated Value $300-325

7 1942-D. PCGS graded MS-66. A high end gem that has strong luster, the strike is average, with minor weakness on Liberty's hand. The Denver Mint did a better job at striking these than San Francisco, and Denver coins, like this one, tend to have most of the skirt lines and some details on Liberty's hand
Estimated Value $160-180

778 1942-D. PCGS graded MS-66. Hazy toning on both sides with typical striking characteristics
Estimated Value $160-180

779 1942-D. PCGS graded MS-65. A boldly struck gem that has great luster and surfaces. There are some small trivial rust colored stains on the right side of the reverse
Estimated Value $110-130

780 1942-S. PCGS graded MS-66. This one has a sharper strike than usually seen, although Liberty's hand is not full. Strong luster and a hint of gold toning starting to form on each side. One of just 94 graded by PCGS, with none graded higher! An opportunity.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

781 1942-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Premium Quality. Blast white luster and fairly well struck, minor weakness on the eagle's thigh.
Estimated Value $300-400

782 1942-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Flaming white and untoned, with minor weakness at the center of the obverse, as always for this year. A gem by any standards.
Estimated Value $300-350

783 1942-S. PCGS graded MS-65. White and untoned, with abundant luster.
Estimated Value $300-350

784 1943 (Roll of 20). A lovely totally Brilliant Uncirculated roll of halves.
Estimated Value $500-550

785 1943-S. NGC graded MS-66. Flashy with golden sunset hues on the reverse.
Estimated Value $350-400

786 1943-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Typical San Francisco strike with central weakness noted, but good luster and nice surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $180-220

787 1943-S. PCGS graded MS-65. White luster and well struck, although the hand on Liberty is weak. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $180-220

788 1944. PCGS graded MS-65. With a hint of toning starting to form, a gem.
Estimated Value $75-100

789 1944-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Mint fresh and clean, with gleaming luster and snow white fields.
Estimated Value $300-350

790 1944-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Crackly gold toning on both sides, flashy luster beneath and with the typical whumpy "S" Mint strike of the period
Estimated Value $275-325

791 1945. PCGS graded MS-65. Flashy white luster and untoned
Estimated Value $60-70

Half Dollars and Proof Sets

- 792 1945. PCGS graded MS-65. Blazing mint luster, fresh and white, and a good strike.
Estimated Value $60-70
- 793 1945-D. PCGS graded MS-66. Fresh mint luster with a touch of toning on the lower reverse.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 794 1946-D. PCGS graded MS-66. Well struck for the date, with good separation on most of the skirt lines, and abundant luster throughout.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 795 1946-D. NGC graded MS-66. Hot white luster with just a hint of toning.
Estimated Value $110-130

Franklin Half Dollars

- 796 Franklin Half Dollar set 1948-1962. This set grades Choice BU. Missing only the 1963 PD coins, and mounted in a Library of Coins blue album. Lot of 33 coins.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 797 1958-D. ICG graded MS-67. Deep and spectacular toning on the obverse, with red and gold shades predominating on the right side and spreading across the obverse. The reverse is lighter, with peripheral toning of the same shades, but tucked in amongst the lettering. A couple of ticks from perfection, but very nice for the specialist in these popular half dollars.
Estimated Value $800-1,000
- 798 A lot of Walking Liberty and Franklin Half Dollars. This group includes 20 Walking Liberty half dollars grading EF-AU and 20 Franklin half dollars grading Proof, all common dates, 1957-1963. Lot of 40 coins.
Estimated Value $100-120

Proof Sets

- 799 1937. Proof set. All the raw coins are cleaned with resulting hairlines in the fields, the dime however, is NGC graded PF-65 and shows mottled toning. A popular early proof set. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700
- 800 1942 Proof Set with both nickels. The set has been third party graded as follows: cent NGC graded PF-64 Red; Type I nickel, ANACS graded PF-65; Type II nickel NGC graded PF-65; dime NGC graded PF-65; quarter NGC graded PF-65 and half dollar NGC graded PF-65. The cent, Type II nickel and quarter have some toning, the rest are bright and all are well preserved. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $600-650

- 801 1942 Proof set. Both nickels are included, the coins are untoned and unspotted, a gem set all around. A 6 piece set.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 802 1942 Proof set. A few of the silver coins show minor toning or spotting, but this is still a gem quality set. A 5 piece set.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 803 1950 Proof set. A lovely set overall, the cent is toned a bit, especially on the reverse.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 804 1950 Proof set. A choice set, the cent is toned though.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 805 1951. Here is a choice set that was taken from an original mint box of issue and put into a small Capital Plastics holder. The silver coins all have light toning, and the nickel too, while the cent is untoned. A few minor hairlines, but very nice for this early date set. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 806 1951. This is a lovely set that is mostly untoned, with each silver coin bright and flashy. The cent is also untoned and free of spots, which often mar these early sets. Minor hairlines on some of the coins. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 807 1951 Proof set. Delicate toning on the silver issues, the cent and nickel are bright and free of spots.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 808 1951 Proof set. Delicate toning on the silver issues, the cent and nickel show light toning.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 809 1952. If you have been wanting a choice set from this year then take a look at this one. Excellent surfaces on each coin, and most have just a bit of toning. The cent is problem free. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 810 1952. An original set that was recently taken from the original mint box of issue. The coins have very light gold toning around the edges, the quarter is a bit cloudy while the dime, nickel and cent are all pristine. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 811 1952 Proof set. This is a nice set, a couple of the coins have light toning, but all are gems.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 812 1952 Proof set. Light toning on the silver issues. A gem set, although the cent is toned.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 813 1953. A lovely original set that has nice cameo frost on the devices and clean surfaces. Problem free, even on the cent, and worth a strong premium as such. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 814 1953. Nice color and surfaces on this original set, the cent does have some minor carbon flecks on both sides. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 815 1953 Proof set. A gem set that most collectors will love.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 816 1953 Proof set. A gem set, all the coins are bright.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 817 1954. An original and choice set, mounted in a custom Capital Plastics blue holder. The cent is choice, with no toning spots or problems. The silver coins have faint hazy toning, but are really nice. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $80-120

Proof Sets and Mint Sets

- 8 1954 Proof set. A gem set, all the coins show light toning.
Estimated Value $80-120
- 9 1954 Proof set. A gem set, each coin has some toning.
Estimated Value $80-120
- 10 1954 Proof set. A gem quality set, with the cent untoned and all coins well preserved. The nickel has some toning on both sides, others a bit hazy at most. Mounted in a Capital Plastics style holder.
Estimated Value $75-85
- 11 Proof sets 1955 to 1964. The following United States Proof Sets are included: 1955 (2); 1956 (2); 1957 (3); 1958 (2); 1959 (2); 1960 (2); 1961 (4); 1962 (9); 1963 (5) and 1964 (5) sets. All in the original government yellow envelopes. Lot of 36 sets.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 12 1955. There is a fingerprint on Ben's head, and a couple of areas show light toning. The cent is choice, and free of spots or toning. Mounted in a Capital Plastics blue holder. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 13 1955. A choice and original set, each coin has delicate hazy toning, and is problem free. Not a put together set, but one from an original mint box, and mounted in a Whitman plastic holder now. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 834 A lot of miscellaneous United States Coins. This lot includes the following stuff: Indian Cents, 1864 CN, 1866; 1867 (2 pieces); 1868; 1874 (3 pieces) and 1875 (6 pieces); 1876 and 1879 (2 pieces), and these grade AG to Good. Next we have Washington Quarters as follows: 1932 (2 pieces); 1935; 1936 (3 pieces) 1939 (2 pieces); 1940 (2 pieces); 1940-S (3 pieces); 1941 (2 pieces); 1941-S (12 pieces); 1943-S (7 pieces) 1944 (2 pieces) and 1944-D, these Washingtons all grade AU to slider uncirculated. Next Franklin Half Dollars (are you still with me?), 1949 (48 pieces) and all grade Extremely Fine; 1950 (24 pieces) and these grade from AU to Unc.; and last of all Kennedy Half Dollars, 1974-S (17 pieces), all grade Proof. Too many pieces to count, but enough for the hoarder to enjoy.
Estimated Value $300-UP
- 835 A large lot of miscellaneous promotion coins. This lot includes various type coins in small plastic holders and an album of coins. These are the type of sets that have been promoted for years on TV commercials and newspaper advertising. Where else can you purchase a 1979 3 coin set of SBA dollars in a cute plastic holder? We also note a date set of Walking Liberty half dollars in a blue coin album, only one coin of each date, well worn, but each coin is polished to a high gloss. Several promotional sets included and perfect for distribution back to the eager buyers out there. Inspection recommended and we anticipate there is some money to be made on this lot, if sufficient time is taken to break it up.
Estimated Value $250-UP
- 836 The scrapings and leavings of a coin collection lot. This grand miscellaneous lot includes the following sparkling jewels for the numismatist to study: 200 Wheat cents; 111 1943 Steel cents; 10 Indian cents; 1865 Two cent piece, poor; 3 Liberty nickels; 10 Buffalo nickels, most no date; 19 Jefferson silver war nickels; 2 Barber dimes; $5.60 face in silver dimes; 2 Standing Liberty quarters; $18.50 face in silver quarters; 1 Barber half dollar; $30.00 face in silver half dollars; $15.50 face in clad half dollars; 6 pre-1921 Morgan dollars; 6 1921 Morgan dollars; 6 Peace dollars; 9 Ike dollars; 49 piece group of tokens and medals; 9 buttons, mostly Nixon; 4 foreign notes; a 1923 Silver Certificate, good condition and a 1902 Series $5 note, Boston Massachusetts, good condition. Grades range all over the map, so inspection recommended.
Estimated Value $250-UP
- 837 Miscellaneous lot of silver coins. This lot includes the following, 1836 lettered edge Bust half dollar; 1860-O Seated dollar; 1876-S Trade dollar and 1878-S Trade dollar, these grade Fair to VG, and a couple are cleaned. Some are better than the grade described. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $150-250
- 838 A fine box of remainders of a coin collection. This U. S. coin collection includes the remaining portion of a large estate, it includes some type coins and even large size notes, small size notes and fractional currency. A roll of silver dollars is tossed in, 4 Library of Coin albums, with type pieces and some very partial sets, plus a couple of loose coins. Obviously this lot should be examined to properly determine its value and the amount of time to take to liquidate it. Take the time to figure it, it might go cheap.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP

Hawaii Coins and Patterns

- 9 5 piece Hawaiian coin set. The set grades VF to AU. We note that the 1847 cent grades F1-45, and the 1883 dollar grades VF-30. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $800-900

Choice Proof 1883 "Hapawalu" Rarity

Enlarged

- 840 1883 Hawaiian Eighth Dollar, PCGS graded Proof 63. This is an extremely rare example of the Hapawalu, or Eighth Dollar (one "bit", or half a quarter = 12 1/2¢). Only 20 were struck as pattern issues for the Hawaiian Government from a single pair of dies prepared at the Philadelphia Mint. Curiously, the other pattern issues for Hawaiian coinage were prepared and coins struck at the San Francisco Mint. These dies were prepared by Charles E. Barber and or George T. Morgan. Claus Spreckels, the sugar king, used his influence to have the coins made for the Hawaiian Government.
We note faint hairlines in the fields, accounting for the grade, and the devices are all sharply struck. Toned a bit with hazy gold around the edge, and with a minor streak in the left obverse field, with a tiny mint made flaw within the streak below the first A of KALAKAUA near the King's neck. Apparently struck in silver (as well as other metals) with a reeded edge, which is visible in the PCGS holder. Long known as a classic rarity, and certain to be the highlight of any specialized Hawaiian collection.
Soon after the dies were prepared, and a few coins struck, the Hawaiian Government decided to change the denomination from a 12 1/2¢ coin to a dime, sealing the fate of this curious issue. The original dies were defaced and now reside in the Hawaiian state archives. Few auction records are recorded for these, they simply don't turn up often with so few minted. The last one we noted was offered in Superior's February 1999 auction, lot 1509, but it was only PCGS PR-61.
A recent PCGS Population Report notes only 3 graded as such, with 2 coins graded higher, both PR-66 (same coin submitted twice?), and a few graded lower than PR-63.
Estimated Value $20,000-UP

- 841 1891 Hawaiian Pattern Silver Dollar, Queen Liliuokalani Gould-90. Proof 65. This silver medal was made to order by a wealthy London collector named Reginald Huth, and produced by Messrs. Pinches & Co., die sinkers and medallists of London. Note the tiny date 18 93 on the two surrounding stars by the denomination on the reverse. The portrait of Queen Liliuokalani, the sister of King Kalakaua, is quite becoming. Only 50 were struck in silver, and one in gold using a different reverse. This is clearly one of the finest to exist, with superb surfaces and even more magnificent deep blue toning than words can describe. Make sure to view this beauty before the sale to see the stunning surfaces and color. The only signs of handling we found were minor light hairlines in the mirror fields.
Estimated Value $2,500-UP

Purchased from Abner Kreisberg many years ago for $950.

- 842 1883 Hawaiian coinage group. This lot includes the 1883 Hawaiian dollar; half dollar; quarter and dime (3 pieces). Grades range from Good to Very Fine. Most have been cleaned, but good for distribution on ebay! Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300

Lots 843 to 1723

Silver Dollars

Early Dollars

Extremely Rare 1795 Bolender-10

843 1795. Two leaves beneath each wing, Bolender-10, Rarity-7. PCGS graded VF-35. Here is a foremost rarity in any grade, and this is one of the better coins seen of the variety. For many years, collectors have mistakenly believed that this was rarity-6 or lower, but a recent in depth study published in the John Reich Journal (January 2001) by world famous numismatist W. David Perkins confirmed that this is a true rarity-7 variety. The present coin was not listed in that study, and was likely tucked away in various type collections for the last several decades. It came to us without an attribution, so the owner was likely not aware of its significance as a variety.

The coin itself has a dark arc of toning through LIBERTY and a couple of stars on the right, and is silvery gray on the rest of the obverse, the reverse is the opposite, dark tones ranging through greens, golds and dark gray on the lower eighty percent, lighter at the top. Identifiable by a small nick on the right side of the eagle's neck, and a tiny ding over the 1 in AMERICA. There is a small field mark above the highest curl on the back of Liberty's head and a tiny dig in the lower right obverse field. In the PCGS holder it is hard to see if the rims are clean, but they certainly have no significant bumps or bruises. In PCGS holder #3653761.

As a variety, this one is often overlooked. It shares the common obverse seen on the Bolender-1 variety with the weak curl third from the bottom. The reverse is similar to the B-1 also, but the B-1 has 10 berries on the right branch, while the B-10 has just 9 berries. In addition, the B-10 has a die lump just below the right ribbon end. This obverse die was also paired with another reverse to make the ultra rare B-16, of which just 2 coins are presently known.

This cataloger has owned 3 different examples of this variety over the last 20 years, and this is certainly one of the better ones known. The Condition Census would presently read as follows: MS60, 1949 ANA, Stack's Bareford 10/81, Stack's 400 sale, 1/88; EF40, east coast collection ex: NERCG 79 ANA sale; VF35 recently discovered and sold by J.J. Teaparty privately; VF35 the present example; VF30 Bowers Brooks Sale 6/89; VF20 ex: Bolender; VF20 O.K. Rumbel 1951; F-12 Heritage ANA 82, misattributed as B-1, scratches obverse field. The only recent sale we know of was the other VF35 coin which traded hands privately in the high four figures over a year ago. The last one of these offered at public auction was the Roland Willasch coin in 1990! With the prices of rare bust dollars dramatically increasing the past few years, we would not be surprised to see this coin bring a runaway price, which it heartily deserves.

Estimated Value $5,000-UP

1795. Three leaves beneath each wing. Bolender-5, Rarity-1. PCGS graded EF-45 Premium Quality. This coin has a dark arc of toning on the left side of the obverse through most of the stars, while the balance is toned a silvery gray color. Well struck for the variety, with good separation on Liberty's curls. Especially pleasing on the reverse, with most of the wing feathers present, and some breast feathers too. Some luster in the fields and typical handling marks for the grade. Perfect for the type collector.

Estimated Value $4,000-6,000

845 1797. 9 stars left, 7 right, large letters, Bolender-1. Steel gray and pleasing, but the coin has been holed and plugged at 12 o'clock on the obverse, and minor surface scratches are noted where the plug was filled. One tiny edge cut is noted above the R in AMERICA.

Estimated Value $400-500

Silver Dollars

- 846 1797. 10 stars left, 6 right, Bolender-3. PCGS graded VF-30 Premium Quality. A beautiful coin for the grade, medium silvery-gray in color with some luster hidden near the stars. Typical soft strike, but very appealing for its clean surfaces and defect free rims, fields and devices. It would be hard to improve on this coin for the grade.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 847 1798. Small eagle reverse, 15 stars on obverse, Bolender-2, Rarity-3. PCGS graded Fine-15. Lovely steel gray in color on the obverse, with darker hues in the fields, and some sunset tones around the lower periphery. The reverse is weakly struck, as always, and we note minor adjustment marks around the rims. Remember, this reverse die was used every year from 1795 through 1798, with seven different obverse dies, and this was its final usage. It is apparent that the reverse die had been ground down by the Mint to remove clash marks or perhaps light die cracks, and thus the devices are very shallow. Clean rims and surfaces for the grade, and perfect for the type collector.

Estimated Value $1,700-2,200

- 848 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, large eagle, 10 arrows, Bolender-14a, Rarity-3. PCGS graded EF-45 Premium Quality. This coin has some dark toning at the centers which may have been carefully removed. Toned with lovely colors around the edges, with some luster near the devices. The dies were lapped before this one was produced so the devices are not as sharp as on early die states. Further, this is one of the scarce "star cross" pattern reverses, where the stars over the eagle's head are arranged in straight lines rather than arcs as normally seen. The straight line arrangement is truer to the Great Seal of the United States, but doesn't "fit" well under the arc of clouds. Typical scrapes and nicks from circulation, but still a nice example of this variety.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,500

- 849 1799. Normal date, Bolender-5, Rarity-3. AU-58. This one is very high grade, but we note a long rubber band burn on the upper obverse from the rim through IB of LIBERTY and out the rim through stars eight and nine, another streak is noted below. The coin was also cleaned, with full flashy luster elsewhere, and remains untuned. One small disturbance above the left corner of the shield. A coin to be inspected, as all high grade bust dollars are rare, and worth a good price despite its problems.

Estimated Value $4,000-6,000

Silver Dollars

- 50 1799. Normal date, Bolender-7a, Rarity-5. AU-58. This is a scarce variety in higher grades, especially with the encircling die cracks on the reverse. Nice surfaces that show moderate handling marks, and the coin is toned a glowing rose shade on both sides. Well struck and preserved, free of problems on the rims and fields, with no signs of adjustment marks. An opportunity for the dollar specialist to nab one of the more difficult 1799 varieties.
Estimated Value $4,000-6,000

- 51 1799. Normal date, Bolender-12a, Rarity-4. PCGS graded AU-53. A fairly common variety but this one is well preserved and remains in very high grade. Note the light silver devices and mottled flecks of toning in the fields. Examination with a glass will note a very thin scratch from Liberty's neck out to the tenth star, and a couple of ticks on the eagle's breast and the field nearby. Toned around the upper reverse, but mostly silver white in color. Excellent rims and fields otherwise, and free of adjustment marks or other problems. This is a coin most collectors will love for its interesting die cracks through the date, and clean unmolested surfaces.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 2 1799. Normal date, Bolender-10, BB-163, Rarity-2. SEGS graded AU-55. This coin should be examined by prospective buyers; it obviously has been cleaned, and many areas have been scratched. Probable PVC residue on the reverse, where green remnants are noted in the devices. Several letters and devices have tiny pin scratches where something has been carefully removed. The toning is mottled, mostly on the reverse.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 853 1799. Normal date, Bolender-5, Rarity-3. EF-45. This one was lightly cleaned and is toned a steel gray on the obverse, the reverse much darker, with deep toning around the periphery and lighter at the centers. There are some minor rim ticks and marks in Liberty's hair as well as light pin scratches in the field before her face. Not the best preserved example, but a decent coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,800

- 854 1799. Normal date, Bolender-14, Rarity-3. PCGS graded EF-40. One of the scarcer varieties of the year, this one has steel gray tones with darker brown in the devices. The reverse has especially nice color, with hints of gold near the devices, silver gray elsewhere, and deeper shades around the periphery. A nice example for the variety specialist.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 855 Silver dollar type set. This type set includes the following dollars and grades: 1799 B-19 Bust dollar AG-3, cleaned; 1873 Seated Liberty dollar, VF-20; 1877 Trade dollar, damaged; 1886 Morgan Dollar, AU-55; 1924 Peace dollar EF-45; 1973-S Ike dollar, proof, but with corrosion on both sides; 1976-S Ike dollar MS-63; 1981-S SBA dollar, Proof. Mounted in a Capital Plastics holder. Lot of 8 coins.
Estimated Value $200-225

Silver Dollars

- 856 1800. "Dotted date" from die breaks, Bolender-14, Rarity-3. PCGS graded EF-45 Premium Quality. A choice example of this popular variety, the coin has delicious blue, gold and green toning around the periphery, silvery-white on the stars and devices, and even more intense color on the reverse. The surfaces show the usual tiny handling marks, but they are small, unimportant and seen on all circulated silver of the period. This is an early die state, and the die lumps in the date are smaller than seen on later strikes. The hair on Liberty is sharp and shows good separation, and this coin could easily be called a grade higher in terms of wear and abundant eye appeal. Popular as a Redbook coin and with variety collectors, this one should realize a strong price.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 857 1800. Only 12 arrows, Bolender-17, Rarity-2. PCGS graded EF-45 Premium Quality. This coin is obviously from an old album collection as it has identical toning to the 1800 dotted date in this sale. The obverse has peripheral toning of blues, golds and greens, while the reverse has the same colors but covering the entire side. Frosty mint luster in the fields, this one with a bit more wear on the upper curls. The strike is a bit weak on the left obverse stars, and the rims and fields show no evidence of bumps or adjustment marks. Although a common variety, this coin is exceptional for its eye appeal and quality for the grade.
Bolender had trouble back in 1950 when he wrote his book on Bust Dollars. At that time clash marks were not understood, and were called "suction" marks, or sometimes "die breaks" to describe the familiar arc break through OF into the clouds on the reverse. These are from the dies clashing together without a planchet between them and are the outline of Liberty's bust and drapery. Above Liberty's chest is a curious raised area, this is also a clash mark from the upper wing where it joins the cloud, and appears on several die varieties.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 858 1802. Narrow normal date, Bolender-6, Rarity-1. MS-60 Plus. This one has been darkly toned artificially, and the surfaces are fairly clean, but some ticks are noted on Liberty. We note minor horizontal adjustment marks on the reverse through ST and the clouds, but they are light. Well struck on most of the stars, with a few showing weakness, but most bold. Excellent details on Liberty, with high curls and problem free for the most part. A common variety which is often purchased by type collectors as it can be found in high grade.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

- 859 1802 Bolender-6. Fine-15. A common die variety. This one is steel gray in color and nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $550-650

- 860 1803. Large 3, Bolender-6, Rarity-2. AU-53. This coin has been cleaned and nicely retone, it is dull and without luster now, but the color looks appealing enough. Medium gray and with pinkish highlights in the devices. Well struck by the dies, with strong details throughout. Minor adjustment marks down through Liberty and out the rim. The surfaces are much cleaner than one would expect for the grade, and few handling marks can be found even with a glass, and the rims are excellent.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Silver Dollars

Gem Toned 1839 Gobrecht

- 861 1839 Pattern Silver Dollar, Judd-104, Pollock-116, Rarity-3. Silver, reeded edge, NGC graded Proof 65. This important pattern issue is often collected with the Seated Dollars, so we placed it there instead of with the pattern issues. The obverse is by Christian Gobrecht with the seated Liberty design, the reverse is an eagle in full flight with the legend UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and ONE DOLLAR around. The strike is as crisp as a Minnesota Winter morning, and the toning must be seen to be appreciated. Deep shades of charcoal gray throughout, with nary a mark to found on the surfaces. Hints of blue and yellow can be seen in the colors, but gray predominates. NGC has graded 6 this high, with none graded higher! Die alignment IV (Pollock), when the coin is turned like a medal, the eagle is flying level. This is the more common die alignment, and these are believed to be restrikes circa 1858 or later during the "high" flying Robert Coulton Davis years of free flowing laudenum for Mint employees, who supplied Mr. Davis with various delicacies from the Mint's die library. We should praise these early indiscretions at the Mint, for many of our most popular coins were made to order during the free wheeling days before the various scandals broke, and the "restrikes" were brought under control, at least for awhile. Today, we seem to be getting errors made to order, penny-dimes, dollar/quarter combinations etc... People don't seem to change, and manage to take advantage of any situation. Color photo.
Estimated Value $30,000-40,000

Rare Choice Proof 1845 Silver Dollar

- 863 1845. NGC graded Proof 64. Light silvery gray in color with gorgeous blue and gold toning around the periphery. Of course the devices are all boldly struck, including the stars and fine details on Liberty. Similar on the reverse, which has smoky gold around the rims, and hazy gray at the centers. Identifiable by a couple of minor spots, one located in the right obverse field near Liberty's knee, and another on the rim below the 1 in the date. Examination with a loupe will note a minor disturbance in the delicate mirror field on the left side of the obverse, near the first couple of stars, and decidedly few signs of handling elsewhere. Liberty is well frosted by the dies, and shows up with excellent contrast for an early proof issue. As to the rarity, is it estimated that 15 survive of this extremely rare early proof, of those NGC has graded 8 coins, three of which as PF-64, the other 5 are graded higher. PCGS reports they have graded 6 coins, the best of which is PR-64, and the rest in lower grades, including two mishandled specimens. The date is clearly repunched on this coin, with the 84 showing below the final punching as seen on most of the known survivors in proof. Over the decades these early proof issues (struck prior to 1858) are seldom seen. Collectors search for decades to locate an example of a particular date, and it is highly unusual to find one in very choice condition as offered here. What few are found are usually offered when famous name collections are sold, and many years can pass before certain dates are seen. This is a rare opportunity to purchase a coin worthy of a kings collection, in choice proof condition.
Estimated Value $30,000-UP

- 2 1843. PCGS graded AU-58. The fields retain some prooflike reflectiveness from the dies, and this coin is appealing overall. We note minor surface hairlines and scattered handling marks on both sides, and there is a small planchet lamination touching the O of OF on the reverse. Faint gold toning around the extreme rims of both the obverse and reverse. Nicely struck by the dies and very little wear on the upper devices.
Estimated Value $500-600

Silver Dollars

Rare 1846 Proof Dollar

- 864 1846. NGC graded Proof 64. This coin has been dipped as the surfaces are untuned and look a touch hazy now. Without question, this is a proof as the date is strongly recut low (Breen-1) and the strike is needle sharp even on the highest devices. Note the frost on the devices and smooth, mirror fields surrounding. We see minor hairlines in the fields, as always seen on these early proofs, but these do not detract significantly from the grade. NGC has graded 9 this high in proof, and just a single coin higher. Currently in NGC holder #1295024-004.
Estimated Value $30,000-35,000

- 865 1847. PCGS graded AU-53. Medium silver in color, with two dark spots on the right side of the obverse, and a curious line of lighter colors at the top of the reverse. Minor circulation hairlines.
Estimated Value $400-500

Rare Mid Century Proof 1850 Dollar

- 866 1850. PCGS graded Proof 62. As the Nineteenth Century reached its midpoint, about 20 silver dollars were coined in proof. Breen notes that two obverse dies were used to coin them, this one has the repunched base of the 0 in the date (Breen-3), but does not have the die crack through the base of the date. This one has several tiny handling ticks on both sides, and minor hairlines, accounting for the grade. The coin is generally untuned save for a beautiful band of album toning around the periphery of the obverse and reverse. PGCS has graded 1 coin as such, with 7 graded higher (all PR-64) some of which may attempt at upgrades, but we don't know for sure.
Estimated Value $15,000-17,500

One of the Finest 1860-O Dollars

- 867 1860-O. NGC graded MS-66 Pittman. One of the finest graded dollars of the entire year, and with glorious colors surrounding the periphery. Cartwheel luster cascades about the fields and the surfaces are stunning for such a large coin. The only marks worthy of note are a short series of scratches near Liberty's upper right arm, which scarcely show. Toned with deep blue around the obverse edge, and russet at the center, the reverse is less organized with speckled gold toning evenly distributed there. As to the strike, it is sharp and shows few signs of weakness on the design elements. Trivial hairlines can be seen beneath the toning, but they are shallow and obscure. The NGC Population Report shows only 3 graded this high, with none graded higher, while PCGS has not graded any higher than MS-65. An exceptional coin for the advanced numismatist. Color photo.
Estimated Value $35,000-UP

Silver Dollars

Gem Proof 1862 Dollar

- 868 1862. NGC graded Proof 65. The Philadelphia Mint coined 550 pieces in proof, and precious few survive in grades even approaching this magnificent, stunning gem. Deep charcoal gray around the periphery, and lighter inside the stars towards a gunmetal gray, the reverse lighter with mottled peripheral toning and steel gray for the balance. Well struck on Liberty's tiny head curls, and similar on the eagle's claws, which show fine definition from the dies. Scrutiny finds minor hairlines in the fields, and one long thin line across the eagles wings and shield can be found when the coin is examined with a strong glass and light. A beautiful coin that will impress most collectors. NGC has graded 14 this high with just 6 graded higher.
Estimated Value $9,000-11,000

- 869 1863. PCGS graded Proof 62. A brilliant totally white coin with some scattered light hairlines and faint marks in the left obverse field, some of which were present when made. A premium quality coin for the grade. Only 460 proofs were made.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

The Eliasberg 1865 Proof Dollar

- 870 1865. ICG graded Proof 66 Cameo, Eliasberg. This coin has simply stunning surfaces. The deep mirror are highly reflective and the highly frosted. On the reverse, the devices are especially rough in appearance, which was apparently some mint process used to make them contrast more with the mirrored fields. Delicate champagne and light golden toning.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

Ex: Edm. R. Wolcott Collection, Edouard Frossard, May 17, 1901; J. M. Clapp to Louis Eliasberg, 1942, Bowers and Merena Auctions, April 1997:2236.

- 871 1866. With motto. PCGS graded Proof 63. A scarce date in proof that is hard to locate this nice. We suspect that this one has been carefully cleaned at some time in the past as the surfaces are a bit dull and there are hairlines in the fields. No real surface problems, and this is still a choice coin. This is the first year of issue with the Motto on the reverse, and 725 were struck.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900

Silver Dollars

- 872 1866. With motto. Proof 60 plus. The reverse edge has been lightly filed, and there are hairlines in the fields. Well frosted on the devices, and this is the first year of the with motto on the reverse.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 873 1867. AU-58. The fields are prooflike and quite reflective, and the devices are well struck. We note minor hairlines from limited circulation and this coin remains mostly white, with a touch of peripheral toning.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 874 1870. PCGS graded Proof 64. Deep smoky gray tones over mirror fields with lighter areas on the lower half of the obverse. We note additional colors when the coin is viewed under a strong light, and the surfaces remain very nice for the grade. Only 1,000 were struck in proof, and this is certainly in the top twenty percent of those.
Estimated Value $3,200-3,800

- 875 1870-CC. NGC graded AU-55. This is the closed space mint-mark variety. Steel gray in color and evenly toned. The surfaces are quite clean for the grade, and especially so for a CC coin this large. Rarely encountered in high grade, this one will certainly be worth a strong bid from the specialist who has long waited to find a nice high grade example. NGC has graded just this coin as AU-55, with 5 graded higher. Well struck and pleasing in every way.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 876 1871. ANACS graded MS-64. Well struck and preserved, with white luster in the fields. Completely untoned, and most likely dipped recently as silver simply does not look this bright unless it was just coined, especially after 130 years. One for the type collector.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000
- 877 1871. NGC graded AU-53. Frosty and bright in color, with minor handling marks on both sides. Well struck and a common date.
Estimated Value $400-450

Silver Dollars

Deeply Toned 1872 Proof Gem

- 78 1872. PCGS graded Proof 65. Deep charcoal gray toning on both sides of this well made proof. Hints of blue shades can also be seen in the fields, and all is perfectly struck. As nice as this date is usually found, PCGS has graded 15 this high, with one single coin higher. This one is in an old green insert PCGS holder, so its been graded for a long while.
Estimated Value $8,000-9,000

1873. Proof 60 plus. Minor hairlines from a higher grade and toned a medium to dark steel gray color. Still an appealing coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

Trade Dollars

1873. VF-30. Attractively toned, particularly so on the obverse. Some marks appear around the borders.
Estimated Value $75-100

- 1873-CC. EF-40. A problem-free example for the grade.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 1873-S. AU-50. Enough mint luster remains to justify the grade.
Estimated Value $150-200

1874. PCGS graded AU-55. Toned
Estimated Value $150-200

- 1874-CC. EF-45 plus. Well struck, with some light mottled toning.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 1874-S. AU-50.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 886 1875. NGC graded EF-40. Lightly toned
Estimated Value $250-300

- 887 1875-CC. VF-20. Toned and with a few marks around the rims
Estimated Value $80-100

- 888 1875-S. EF-40. Lightly cleaned at one time.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 889 1876. VF-25.
Estimated Value $70-80

- 890 1876-CC. VF-30. Signs of old cleaning, now retoned
Estimated Value $125-150

- 891 1876-S. Sharpness of AU-50 but whizzed. The cleaning is pretty harsh, and the coin remains untuned. Well struck and could be made to look a lot more appealing.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 892 1876-S. VF-30. Lightly cleaned at one time.
Estimated Value $75-85

- 893 1877. MS-60 Plus. Dusky gray toning on both sides with the devices lighter against the stormy fields. Nice luster and clean surfaces for the grade. If you like toned coins, take a look at this one.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 894 1877. EF-40. Attractive old toning.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 895 1877-CC. EF-45. Some dark toning spots appear around the rims. This coin might be improved if properly "dipped".
Estimated Value $250-300

- 896 1877-S. EF-45. Lightly cleaned and still lustrous, with silvery white surfaces. Nicely struck.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 897 1877-S. VF-25.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 898 1877-S. Fine-15. A "Box Dollar" made into a locket
Estimated Value $50-75

- 899 1878. PCGS graded Proof 64. Deep uniform iridescent toning adds to this coin's appeal.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Silver Dollars

- 900 1878-CC. Sharpness of VF-25. Signs of old cleaning can be detected. We also note a few marks and light bumps about the rims. One of the key dates to the series.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 901 1878-S. NGC graded MS-62 Premium Quality. Flashy luster in the fields with some minor specks of toning starting to form. We do note hairlines and these probably limited the grade.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 902 1878-S. VF-30. Darkly toned and problem-free for the grade.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 903 1879. NGC graded Proof 64. Excellent contrast, especially on the reverse. Minor hairlines but no real problems, and untoned. An impressive coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

- 904 1879. NGC graded Proof 63. Attractive natural russet toning surrounds the borders.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 905 1880. PCGS graded Proof 64. A choice toned coin that boasts a delicate arc of gold around the obverse, and well frosted on the devices. On the reverse, we note more advanced blue toning and other colors interspersed. Typical hairlines in the mirror fields.
Estimated Value $2,300-2,600

- 906 1880. NGC graded Proof 61. Toned with violet centers deepening to electric blue around the borders. Most of the hairlines are well concealed by the natural toning.
Estimated Value $800-900

- 907 1880. Proof 60. Cleaned to an unnatural brightness, with resulting hairlines as all too often seen.
Estimated Value $700-800

Silver Dollars

8 1881. Proof 63. A rather pleasing proof specimen with excellent contrast between the brilliant fields and frosted devices. The fields are void of hairlines to the naked eye and a light film of russet tone is starting to form.

Estimated Value $1,300-1,600

9 1882. Sharpness of VF-30. Cleaned to death, what a shame! Here is a coin that is begging to be toned. In spite of its grade, a very collectible date due to its proof-only status.

Estimated Value $400-500

0 1883. PCGS graded Proof 64. Deep gray toning on both sides, but well preserved otherwise. Only 979 struck in Proof, none for circulation.

Estimated Value $2,300-2,600

1 1883. Proof 50. A brilliant but impaired proof specimen.

Estimated Value $500-600

Morgan Dollars

2 1878. Clear doubled tail feathers. NGC graded MS-63. Light golden toning on the rims, bright luster otherwise and well struck.

Estimated Value $120-130

3 1878-CC. NGC graded MS-66. A frosty white gem with just a hint of a tone starting to form.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

914 1878-CC. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the finest graded of this scarce date, PCGS has awarded MS-66 to 93 coins, with just 2 graded higher. This one is blast white, without a hint of toning, and looks like it was just pulled from an original bag. For a truly superb collection.

Estimated Value $2,200-2,600

915 1878-CC. PCGS graded MS-65 Prooflike. Nice cameo appearance with the frosted devices against the reflective fields. A gem that has superb bright white frost and clean fields and devices. Rarely encountered this nice.

Estimated Value $850-900

916 1878-S. PCGS graded MS-66. Great cartwheel luster and well struck for this first year of issue. A beautiful coin that remains untuned and superb in every way.

Estimated Value $550-650

917 1878-S. PCGS graded MS-66. Blazing white luster and gleaming surfaces.

Estimated Value $550-650

918 1879. PCGS graded MS-66. Flashy and white, with two minor toned spots on the eagle's wings on the reverse, otherwise bright and fresh.

Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

From the "Ray Cassano Collection" according to the PCGS insert

Silver Dollars

- 919 1879. SEGS graded MS-64 Deep Mirror Prooflike. Lovely white at the centers, with a fine ring of deep gold around the edge of both the obverse and reverse. Minimal handling marks on the delicate mirror fields.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 920 1879-S. Third reverse. PCGS graded MS-66. With irregular multicolored toning on the obverse, bright white on the reverse. Well struck, and wonderfully preserved.
Estimated Value $500-UP
- 921 1879-S. Third reverse. PCGS graded MS-65. A flashy gem that is untoned.
Estimated Value $60-70

- 922 1880-CC. 80 over 79, second reverse. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the finest graded by PCGS, only 22 have been graded this high, with none graded higher. Note that this coin has no toning whatsoever, and the luster is particularly fresh and bright. Liberty's ample cheek is clean, without more than a couple of faint ticks, and the surrounding fields are quite superb. In an old green insert PCGS holder, from years ago.
Estimated Value $3,800-4,200
- 923 1880-CC. MS-60 Plus. In the original GSA holder with card and box. Nice color and surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 924 1880-S. PCGS graded MS-68. Here is one of the finest graded of this common date, PCGS reports only 91 have been graded this high, with 5 graded higher. As to the quality, it should be studied by interested numismatists to see how close to perfection this one is. Scarcely a tick mark to be found, and its hard to believe this coin was ever in a bag! Completely untoned and with blazing frost and luster in the fields. If you demand the finest, then take a look at this lot.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 925 1880-S. PCGS graded MS-67. This coin has deep multicolored tones splashed about the obverse, while the reverse is white and untoned. Further, the surfaces are superb, and show virtually no signs of contact. Well struck and about as perfect as these are found, with a few graded higher, and most graded much lower. Take a peek at this one. In an old "green" PCGS holder from years ago.
Estimated Value $750-UP
- 926 1880-S group of 50 coins. These pieces grade MS-63. Most are white, but at least one is toned on the obverse. Lot of 50 coins.
Estimated Value $650-UP
- 927 1880-S. PCGS graded MS-66. Deep royal blue toning on the obverse, with some areas of rose shades too. Superb surfaces, and extremely tough to locate in this high end gem grade. White and fresh on the reverse. An impressive example.
Estimated Value $250-UP
- 928 1880-S. PCGS graded MS-65. This coin has wild toning on both the obverse and reverse. The fields are reflective, and show very few signs of handling marks. If you love multicolored Morgans, take a look at this gem.
Estimated Value $150-UP
- 929 1880-S NGC graded MS-65 and 1888 NGC graded MS-64. Both have deep toning on the obverse, much less on the reverse. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-120

- 930 1881. PCGS graded Proof 66. Deeply and colorfully toned on both sides. The obverse ranges through deep blue, green and yellow with some flecks and spotted areas, on the reverse we note fiery red and gold against the reflective mirrors. One of only 18 graded this high by PCGS, with a scant 9 graded higher for this early Morgan dollar proof.
Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

Silver Dollars

1 1881-CC, NGC graded MS-66. A satiny white gem.
Estimated Value $650-750

2 1881-CC, MS-60 Plus. Fresh from the GSA hoard released years ago and still in the large plastic holder. Who would have known how well these plastic holders would catch on? Nixon was really on to something back then. Fresh white luster with normal handling marks on both sides, and untoned.
Estimated Value $200-225

3 1881-CC, MS-60 Plus. Mint white in color with flashy luster. In the original GSA box and holder.
Estimated Value $200-225

4 1881-O, PCGS graded MS-65 Premium Quality. A scarce date in this grade, this one has full blazing luster throughout, with untoned surfaces and rims. The recent PCGS Population Report shows 178 graded this high, with just 5 graded higher, making this one of the finest available. If you want untoned coins, take a look at this sparkler.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

5 1881-O and 1890, Both grade MS-63. We note each has deep gold toning and nice surfaces. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $50-75

6 1881-S, NGC graded MS-66. This one has deep red hues on the obverse, broken by some spots scattered about the surfaces. On the reverse, we note a light dusting of gold around the extreme periphery. Excellent surfaces that show decidedly few marks.
Estimated Value $200-UP

7 1881-S, PCGS graded MS-65. Deep green and yellow tones on the obverse, with an arc of lighter yellow extending well above the date, but centered there. The reverse is lighter, with yellow-gold toning around the periphery only, the centers bright.
Estimated Value $150-UP

8 1881-S, NGC graded MS-65. This one is toned deep blue in the fields, with lighter rose colors on Liberty, similar on the reverse, with most of the blue shades on the lower half, lighter at the top. A deeply toned gem.
Estimated Value $150-UP

939 1881-S, NGC graded MS-66. Deep rose, gold and blue on the obverse, untuned on the reverse. Sharply struck and excellent quality.
Estimated Value $140-175

940 1881-S PCGS graded MS-63 and 1883 PCGS graded MS-64. The first has wild blue, red and gold toning on the obverse, the second deep burgandy on the obverse and reverse. A pair for the lover of toned coins. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $60-80

941 1881-S and 1887, both ICG graded MS-63. Both are toned nicely. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $40-50

942 1882-CC, PCGS graded MS-66 Deep Mirror Prooflike. Here is one of the finest graded of this date and high up in the census for the deep mirror prooflikes. PCGS has graded just 42 coins this high, with a single coin graded higher. Superb surfaces for the grade and the only disturbance worthy of note is on the T of UNITED where something has been carelessly removed. This one has fantastic cameo appearance on both sides.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

943 1882-CC, PCGS graded MS-66. One on the nicer coins to come down to us from this popular date and Mint. This one is flashy and white, with just a hint of hazy toning on both sides. Liberty's cheek is clean and the surrounding fields are also superb. PCGS has graded 350 this high (aside from the Prooflikes) and 22 are graded higher.
Estimated Value $750-850

944 1882-CC; 1883-CC and 1884-CC in GSA holders. These grade from MS-60 to MS-60+. A three coin lot of these popular Morgan Dollars from the historic mining town of Carson City. Each has average marks, and is white, save for the lower obverse of the 1884-CC, which has some pretty sunset gold at the bottom. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $240-270

945 1882-CC, MS-63. Frosty and choice, with loads of luster and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $70-80

Silver Dollars

- 946 1882-CC. MS-60 Plus. A lovely coin that has a spot of toning on the lower reverse, otherwise untuned. In the GSA holder and box.
Estimated Value $60-80
- 947 1882-O. PCGS graded MS-65 Premium Quality. A gem example of this date, the surfaces are quite clean and this one is in the old style green insert PCGS holder. Liberty's cheek is very nice.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 948 1883. Proof 60 plus. This one has artificial toning which tries to cover the hairlines in the fields, which are still visible. Reflective and still desirable.
Estimated Value $600-800
- 949 1883. PCGS graded MS-66. Fully struck on the eagle's breast and even on the minute curls over Liberty's ear. With delicate hazy toning on both sides.
Estimated Value $175-225
- 950 1883-CC. PCGS graded MS-66. Flaming white luster on both sides, with pristine surfaces that show few marks from handling. One tiny stain near the first A of AMERICA. Less than a bag graded this high, and 60 graded higher by PCGS.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 951 1883-CC. PCGS graded MS-66. Snowy-white luster and boldly struck, this coin is untuned save for a spot at the center of the O in DOLLAR, which has a dark speck in it. If you demand top notch quality, then take a gander at this one.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 952 1883-CC. PCGS graded MS-65. Sharply struck by the dies, and well preserved with full luster throughout.
Estimated Value $175-225
- 953 1883-CC and 1884-CC. Both grade MS-60. We note golden toning at the lower reverse. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-160
- 954 1883-CC. MS-63. Snowy-white and sharp, with clean devices and fields.
Estimated Value $70-80

- 955 1883-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Sharply struck for this date, with full breast feathers and good separation on Liberty's ear curls. Delicate toning starting to form around the periphery. A recent PCGS Population Report shows just 206 graded this high, with 14 graded higher, making this certainly one of the best around, and a worthy acquisition for the astute collector.
Estimated Value $2,400-2,800

- 956 1883-S. ICG graded MS-64. Nice color and surfaces, with a touch of toning around the extreme edge.
Estimated Value $2,200-2,600
- 957 1883-S. PCGS graded MS-61. Moderate handling marks expected for the grade, but a tough date to find in any grade or Mint State. Flashy and white.
Estimated Value $400-450

- 958 1884-CC. PCGS graded MS-66. Exceptionally clean surfaces on this example which are required to achieve a grade like this MS-66 is reserved for truly special coins, and seldom seen on even common dates. This one is delicately toned over the bright luster. Superb surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 959 1884-O. PCGS graded MS-67. One of the finest seen of this date, PCGS has only graded 35 this high, with 2 coins graded higher. Full unbroken luster over pristine fields, make this coin highly desirable. If you want superb surfaces, then take a look at this coin.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Silver Dollars

- 50 1884-S. AU-58 Prooflike. Gorgeous toning on this one, with some blue around the periphery and brown-gold elsewhere. The fields are reflective and this would make a handsome addition to a date set.

Estimated Value $1,000-UP

- 51 1884-S. PCGS graded AU-58. The usual grade for this date, this one untoned and still lustrous. Nearly mint state.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 52 1884-S. NGC graded AU-50. Scarce in high grade, this one has the usual handling marks.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 53 1884-S. NGC graded AU-53. Some luster in the fields and minor wear on the high points of the design. Untoned, with silvery white surfaces and color throughout. A rare date any better, and many are available in this grade or close to it.

Estimated Value $150-250

- 54 1884-S (4 pieces). These grade VF to EF. Some are cleaned, but this is a popular date. Lot of 4 pieces.

Estimated Value $70-90

- 965 1885. PCGS graded MS-65 Deep Mirror Prooflike. This is a magnificent toned example that has wild deep fuchsia and aqua marine on the obverse, untuned on the reverse. Further, the fields are pristine and show virtually no marks or hairlines on the delicate mirror surfaces. A few scuffs are noted before Liberty's face, but they are toned over and don't make their presence known readily. Perfect for the Morgan specialist who wants a colorful example in gem condition. In an old small PCGS holder.

Estimated Value $250-UP

- 966 1885. PCGS graded MS-65 Deep Mirror Prooflike. The obverse is splayed with vivid tones of gold, violet and electric blue while the reverse is creamy white. A gorgeous Deep Mirror Proof-Like example and worthy of a premium bid. Housed in a first generation PCGS holder.

Estimated Value $250-UP

- 967 1885-CC. PCGS graded MS-65. Fresh white luster and well struck. Untoned and perfect for the date collector.

Estimated Value $500-550

- 968 1885-CC. ANACS graded MS-65. This one has the obvious bar of the 7 protruding from the base of the second 8 in the date. Bright and flashy with a bit of toning on the upper obverse.

Estimated Value $225-300

- 969 1885-CC. MS-60 Plus. Nice surfaces and mint fresh luster throughout, with untuned snowy white color. In the GSA black government holder.

Estimated Value $225-250

- 970 1885-CC. MS-60 Plus. Untoned surfaces and with a couple of minor scuffs. In the GSA holder and box.

Estimated Value $225-250

- 971 1885-O. PCGS graded MS-65. Slightly reflective and lightly toned on the obverse.

Estimated Value $60-70

Silver Dollars

- 972 1886. PCGS graded MS-67. With rainbow toning on the obverse in curious lines which may be from an old coin envelope where the internal folds were placed. High end gem surfaces, with no bag problems or other value harming incidents.
Estimated Value $600-UP
- 973 1886. PCGS graded MS-65. Toned with deep blue and gold colors on both sides. A touch soft on the eagle's breast, but a beauty for its colors.
Estimated Value $100-UP
- 974 1886. NGC graded MS-64 Deep Prooflike. Deeply reflective in the fields and offset by snow-deep frost on the devices. Scattered handling marks, but nothing deep or annoying.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 975 1886. NGC graded MS-65. This coin has an arc of blue and gold toning on the upper half of the obverse, while the reverse is untuned save for light gold at the extreme edge. Nice surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $60-70
- 976 1886. PCGS graded MS-65. Perfect for the grade, with a clean cheek on Liberty and excellent fields around. In an old green insert holder.
Estimated Value $60-70

- 977 1886-O. PCGS graded MS-63. Here is a rare date which is almost never found in mint state grades. This one boasts nice luster and clean surfaces for the moderate grade. Nearly impossible to find better, so this coin makes an excellent choice for the collector.
Estimated Value $1,600-1,800

- 978 1886-O. ICG graded MS-63. Nice, white and frosty with full breast feathers.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700
- 979 1886-O. MS-60 Plus. The surfaces appear to have been carefully cleaned, and a couple of minor hairlines can be seen. A scarce date that is always in demand.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 980 1886-O. MS-60. Nicely toned over lustrous fields. A good strike on this scarce date coin.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 981 Lot of "O" Mint dollars. This group includes 1886-O (2 pieces); 1896-O (3 pieces) and 1897-O (3 pieces) and they grade from VF to EF. Some are cleaned. Lot of 8 coins.
Estimated Value $80-110
- 982 1887. NGC graded MS-63. Deep blue toning on the left side of the obverse, fading to red and gold on the right side. On the reverse, there is a much lighter toning, mostly around the periphery. Well struck and for the lover of toned Morgans.
Estimated Value $150-UP
- 983 1887. PCGS graded MS-64 Prooflike. Nice surfaces for the grade, and very reflective in the fields. Untoned.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 984 1887-O. PCGS graded MS-64. Few are known in full gem condition, so this flashy white MS-64 saves not only quite a bit of money, but provides a near gem coin for the specialist to enjoy at a fraction of the cost of an MS-65. Well struck by the die and without significant handling marks.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 985 1888. NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. A rare date to locate in a cameo proof, only 1 has been graded as such by NGC, with graded higher. The cameo proofs are special, they have abundant frost on the devices and deeply mirrored fields. This one has a whisper of gold toning around the periphery and problem free surfaces. We do note minor hairlines in the fields, as always seen on these proof coins of the period.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

Silver Dollars

1889-CC, PCGS graded AU-55. This coin is untoned and natural in appearance. The surfaces retain some luster and we note very little wear. Moderate handling marks expected from handling, and this example would fit nicely in a mint state collection. Apparently most of the mintage was melted, and Breen estimates that between 1,000 and 3,000 were found in the Treasury hoard which was released in the 1960s. If you are a collector, then you will like this coin.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

1889-CC, VF-25. Nice for the grade, this classic rarity is seldom offered in high grades, even in circulated grades! This one has decent steel gray toning and a couple of colorful spots near the right obverse stars. A bit of wear from new, but better than the conservative grade noted.
Estimated Value $375-425

1889-CC, Sharpness of VF-30 but damaged. This one has some minor damage around UNITED on the reverse and has been harshly cleaned and worked on in that area. Inspection recommended, and there are surface scratches too. A rare date that is seldom encountered
Estimated Value $350-400

1889-O, MS-64. Golden sunset toning on the obverse, while the reverse is much deeper in the toning department, with bluish gray colors brushed about. A rare date in high grade
Estimated Value $300-400

1889-O, MS-64. Lightly toned on the obverse, much darker on the reverse. A sharp strike and worth a bid
Estimated Value $300-400

991 1889-O, PCGS graded MS-64. Flashy white luster and well struck. A scarce date, even in this grade
Estimated Value $300-400

992 1889-S, MS-60. This one is deeply and nicely toned on both sides with colorful shades of red, gold and orange
Estimated Value $70-90

993 1890, SEGS graded MS-65. This one has splashes of gold toning on both sides. One minor tick above Liberty's eye
Estimated Value $600-800

994 1890-O, MS-64. Hazy toning on both sides, mostly white overall. Scarce.
Estimated Value $70-90

995 1890-S, MS-65. Frosty white luster throughout and well struck. Liberty's cheek is clean as are the surrounding fields. A rare date which is hard to locate in gem mint state grades.
Estimated Value $600-700

996 1890-S, PCGS graded MS-64. Blazing white luster and untuned. Scarce any better, and perfect for the date collector.
Estimated Value $100-125

997 1891, NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. One of the finest to survive from the entire coinage of proofs from 1891. When Philadelphia prepares the dies for each year, the first few have especially strong cameo contrast, as seen on this coin. The fields are deep-space black, while the devices are frosty and white. Over the decades, this coin has toned around the periphery with gold. The surfaces remain pristine, without the usual problem hairlines and virtually no signs of handling. NGC has graded just 2 this high in the Cameo, with 3 graded higher, including just 1 coin as Ultra Cameo.
Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

998 1891, PCGS graded MS-65. Here is one of the finest known of this date. PCGS has graded just 43 this high with a single coin graded higher. Any serious collector should avail themselves of this opportunity to purchase a true gem. Clean fields and face on Liberty, and a good strike too. Keep this one in the gem class, when most others fall well below
Estimated Value $5,000-5,500

999 1891-O, MS-63. Nice surfaces and luster on this scarce date.
Estimated Value $150-170

Silver Dollars

- 1000 1891-S. SEGS graded MS-64 Deep Mirror Prooflike. Well struck by the dies, but we note that the dies are very shallow on the reverse, with the tops of UNITED weak from die polishing and lapping. Frosty white on the devices and untoned. More handling marks than one would expect for the grade, which are magnified by the mirror fields.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 1001 1892. PCGS graded MS-65. Flashy and white, untuned and pleasing. PCGS has graded 108 this high, with a single coin graded higher.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1002 1892. NGC graded MS-65. A totally white frosty mint specimen.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600
- 1003 1892. PCGS graded MS-64. Clean for the grade, with smooth fields and a clean cheek on Liberty. Untoned and with abundant luster.
Estimated Value $375-425

- 1004 1892-CC. MS-63 Plus, Deep Mirror Prooflike. A rare coin in mint state, this lovely deep mirror prooflike has clean surfaces, no toning, and excellent frost on the devices. Liberty's cheek is particularly clean, and the fields have few signs of handling on their delicate mirror surfaces. Worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $2,000-UP

- 1005 1892-S. SEGS graded AU-58. A rare date, but it has been brushed according to SEGS, which effectively means it was cleaned with resulting hairlines. Delicate gold toning around the periphery and not bad in appearance.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500
- 1006 Morgan dollar better date lot. This group includes 1892-S; 1894-O; 1897-O and 1899, grading VG to AU. Only the 1894-O is low grade, the others are nice, high grade examples of their respective scarce dates. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 1007 1893. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright white and untuned, with well struck hair over Liberty's ear and excellent detail on the breast feathers. The surfaces are quite nice on this near gem with a fresh cheek on Liberty and excellent surrounding fields.
Estimated Value $800-900
- 1008 1893. EF-45. Decent surfaces for a lightly circulated coin.
Estimated Value $100-130

- 1009 1893-CC. EF-40. Lightly cleaned long ago, this one has some minor ticks around the rim from limited circulation. One of the rare dates in the Morgan dollar series, and worth a bid from the date collector.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 1010 1893-O. VF-30. Probably cleaned long ago, but steel gray now and with nice surfaces.
Estimated Value $90-110

Silver Dollars

- 1 1893-S, VF-25. The Queen of the Morgans, the 1893-S is one of the true rarities in this most popular series. With all the millions of dollars held over the years, no bags of this date turned up, and hence few were saved. During 1893, the United States economy suffered a sharp downturn, many people could not afford to save such a coin, and virtually all were spent. This one is no exception, the surfaces show normal handling marks for a circulated coin, but none are deep or distracting. Only 100,000 were coined, and most were melted under the Pittman Act in 1918. It is probable that only 3,000 to 4,000 exist, if the Population Reports are any guide, from the original mintage. Finding a nice circulated example is a real challenge for most collectors.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,700

- 2 1894, PCGS graded MS-64. Fresh from a bag, this one is untoned and well preserved. Fully struck on the eagle and Liberty's ear.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500
- 3 1894-O (3 pieces), These grade VF to EF. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 4 1894-S, EF-45. Lightly cleaned long ago but very nice for the grade. There are some scrapes on the lower digits of the date.
Estimated Value $75-85
- 5 1895-O, EF-40. This one was cleaned long ago, but should recover if given a chance.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 6 1895-O, VF-35. An important date, and perfect for a date set. This one was lightly cleaned long ago, mostly on the obverse.
Estimated Value $100-135
- 7 1895-S, VF-30. Cleaned long ago and now retoning.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 8 1896-O, AU-58. Light gold and gray toning and well struck. A scarce date in high grade.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 9 1896-O, AU-55. A beautiful example of this date, toned with deep gray around the device and well preserved. Semi proof-like in the fields.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 1020 1896-S (3 pieces) and 1903-S. These four grade from I-VI. Some are cleaned, but most decent for the grade. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $75-100

- 1021 1897-O, NGC graded MS-64. This one is very well struck for the date, with full breast feathers and details in the curls over Liberty's ear. Probably in the top 50 known of the date, which is truly rare in any grade of mint state. Flashy luster and no signs of toning yet.
Estimated Value $7,000-7,500

- 1022 1897-O, PCGS graded MS-63. As a date, 1897-O is rare in any mint state grade, in fact, PCGS in their Population Report has graded just 96 this high, with 27 higher. This one has minor weakness at the centers, as usual for this date, and a touch of toning starting.
Estimated Value $2,400-2,800
- 1023 1897-O, AU-55. Toned a deep gray with hints of colors in the fields. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $900-110

- 1024 1897-S, PCGS graded MS-66. A fine example for the advanced numismatist, this one has blazing luster and full white frost throughout. We note a tiny area of toning on the lower left reverse. Fully struck on the breast and Liberty, so don't miss out if you've been waiting for a truly wonderful example of this date. PCGS has graded 134 this high, with 20 graded higher.
Estimated Value $1,100-1,200
- 1025 1898-O and 1900-O. Both grade MS-63 to 64. Some toning on each coin. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $60-70

Silver Dollars

- 1026 1898-S. NGC graded MS-66. A superb example of this rare date, few of which can even approach this grade. Note the delicate peripheral gold toning and abundant mint luster in the fields. Liberty's cheek is especially clean, with none of the usual distracting marks or blemishes. The NGC Population Report shows that only 3 have been so graded, with an additional single coin graded prooflike, and one other coin graded higher. Bid accordingly, as you are not likely to be offered a better coin.

Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 1027 1899. PCGS graded MS-65. Toning free and choice for the grade.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 1028 1899-O. PCGS graded MS-67. With light gold toning around the rims, bright white elsewhere. Perfectly preserved, with just a few handling ticks. In an old green insert PCGS holder.

Estimated Value $1,100-1,300

- 1029 1900. Proof 60. Moderate hairlines in the fields and retoned to a deep steel gray color. Boldly struck and still presentable as a rare proof Morgan dollar.

Estimated Value $500-750

- 1030 1900-O; 1901-O and 1902-O. Each grades MS-64. The 1900-O is bright, while the other two are toned. Lot of 3 coins.

Estimated Value $90-100

- 1031 1900-O. O over CC. PCGS graded MS-66. The overmintmark is quite strong and can clearly be seen with a glass. Blazing white in color, with mint fresh luster and excellent surfaces throughout. Popular with collectors, and a coin everyone can appreciate. PCGS has graded 33 this high, with just 2 higher. Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 1032 1900-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Satiny white luster and well struck, the only signs of handling are faint hairlines, mostly on the reverse. A sparkling jewel that will please any collector.

Estimated Value $950-1,050

- 1033 1900-S. MS-63. Bright luster and untoned. Sharply impressed by the dies.

Estimated Value $140-160

- 1034 1901. NGC graded MS-60. Nice for the grade with a clean cheek on Liberty and well struck devices. Adequate luster and surface quality to keep this one in the Mint State class.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 1035 1901. Proof 55 But impaired. This coin has been cleaned to a dull gray. We also note a minor rubber band burn through the left obverse field, and moderate hairlines. All Proof Morgan Dollars are rare, and this would be an inexpensive way of obtaining one.

Estimated Value $450-550

- 1036 1901 (3 pieces). These grade from VF to EF and all are cleaned. A scarce date. Lot of 3 coins.

Estimated Value $60-80

Silver Dollars

- 037 1902. Proof 60 plus. This one has some rather heavy hairlines in the fields and a couple of tiny handling marks. Toned with gunmetal blues and gray colors on both sides.
Estimated Value $600-800
- 038 1902-O. PCGS graded MS-65. A beautiful gem coin that has fresh luster and delicate toning on the reverse.
Estimated Value $85-95
- 039 1903-O. MS-63. Lightly toned.
Estimated Value $175-200
- 040 1903-O. MS-63. This used to be a classic rarity prior to the Treasury release in the early 1960s, only a few were known in mint state, and prices exceeded $1,000 forty years ago! This one has frosty luster and light toning.
Estimated Value $175-200
- 041 1903-S. EF-45. A tough date to find in high grade, this one has nice surfaces for the grade, steel gray color and a good strike.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 042 1921 Zerbe. PCGS graded Proof 65. These Zerbe proofs have long been popular with collectors, few were carefully preserved, and most show signs of mishandling. Not so here, the surfaces are pristine with few signs of handling. Delicate peripheral toning is noted on both sides, and the fields are highly reflective. A recent PCGS Population Report notes 13 have been graded as such, with only 5 graded higher.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000
- 043 1921 (100 pieces) all NGC graded MS-63. Here is a lot for the dealer, 100 certified Morgan Dollars, all 1921 Philadelphia issues. Lot of 100 coins.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,650

- 044 1921-D. PCGS graded MS-66. A satiny smooth white gem.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 1045 1921-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Hazy toning over lustrous fields and well struck. One minor tick on the B of PLURIBUS. A gem of this scarce date.
Estimated Value $900-1,000
- 1046 Silver dollar lot. This lot includes 22 pre-1921 Morgan dollars, 1 1921 Morgan dollar; 4 sets of 1921 PDS Morgan dollars and 3 Peace dollars. Most of these grade XF. Lot of 38 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1047 Partial Set of Morgan Dollars, 61 different dates. These grade from VG to Brilliant Uncirculated. Several tough dates are included, as well as some CC Mints. As a bonus, 2 Eisenhower and a 1965 Kennedy half are included. Mounted in Harco coin albums, which cause PVC damage, so please remove them promptly and have someone remove the PVC that has formed on some of the coins. Lot of 64 coins.
Estimated Value $650-700

Peace Dollars

- 1048 1921. MS-64. Delicate gold toning on the lower obverse rim and fairly well struck with most of the curls on Liberty's head sharp save for the little ones over her ear. The consignor believes the reverse is rotated, which it might be, but its very slight. Perfect for a date set.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1049 1921. MS-61. Well struck for this high relief date, but there is a faint rubber band burn across the obverse touching the back of Liberty's neck into her hair. Untoned and decent for the grade.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 1050 1921. AU-50. This one was lightly cleaned, but is well struck at the centers.
Estimated Value $70-80
- 1051 1922, 1924, 1926, 1927 and 1934. Each grades MS-60 to 63. Most are white, but a couple have light gold toning. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 1052 Partial Peace Dollar set. This partial set includes the following dates: 1922 P.D.S; 1923 P.D.S; 1924 P.S; 1925; 1926-S; 1928-S and 1935 P.S. These grade from EF to BU. A nice way to put together a set with most of the common ones out of the way with this group. Lot of 13 coins.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 1053 1922-S. ICG graded MS-64. Mostly untuned and white, but with a scattering of tiny toning specks starting to form on both sides and hazy gold shades starting to settle in.
Estimated Value $100-125

Silver Dollars

- 1054 1922-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Light gold toning on both sides, but highly lustrous. Clean fields and devices.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 1055 1923 and 1925. Both grade MS-65. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 1056 1925. PCGS graded MS-66. A satiny white gem.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 1057 1926-D. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the finest graded of this date, just 71 awarded this grade, with 7 graded higher. Blazing white luster and about as nice as one could hope to find.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
- 1058 1926-S. PCGS graded MS-65. This one is frosty and bright, with light hazy toning starting to form. In an old small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $500-550
- 1059 1927-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Hazy white luster on both sides, and untuned. Standard lazy "S" Mint strike.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1060 1928. AU-55. Satiny luster and with a touch of rub on the high points. Hard to find this nice.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 1061 1928-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Hazy gold toning on both sides, but mostly white luster, and some dark areas on the reverse rim.
Estimated Value $600-650

- 1062 1934-S. MS-60 Plus. Cleaned on the obverse with resulting hailines expected for the grade assigned. Nice luster and well struck, this important date is rare in full Mint State. Light golden toning on the obverse and reverse. An impressive example for the date specialist.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
- 1063 1935. MS-64. Nice cartwheel luster on this date, with clean surfaces too.
Estimated Value $70-90

Eisenhower Dollars

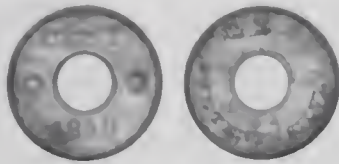

- 1064 Ike Dollar Set, including the Proof issues. This historic set includes the rare and popular Proof only issues. The collection is mounted in a custom Dansco brown coin album, and the grade range Mint State to Proof, dates from 1971 through 1978-S. Lot of 32 coins.
Estimated Value $130-150
- 1065 Ike Dollar Set, including the Proof issues. This historic set includes the rare and popular Proof only issues. The collection is mounted in a custom Dansco brown coin album, and the grade range Mint State to Proof, dates from 1971 through 1978-S. Lot of 32 coins.
Estimated Value $130-150

- 1066 1974-S. Gem Proof. Here is one of the most magnificently toned Ike dollars you are likely to ever see. The obverse is toned wild blues, yellows and greens, similar on the reverse with a deep blue and magenta in perfectly formed rings around the periphery. Further, this coin still resides in the official government holder of issue, with the familiar brown box too. If you demand toned coins, and want something truly unusual, then take a look-see at this wonder Ike dollar, and bring a fist full of cash if you want to take home this worthy numismatic and artistic prize.
Estimated Value $1,000-UL

Patterns

- 67 1850 Pattern cent, Judd-116, Pollock-134, Rarity-6. Biflon, with perforation. PCCS graded Proof 63 Original. Plain edge. For a coin with 90 percent copper and only 10 percent silver, the color and surfaces sure look like silver. One side says CENT and 1850, with two flowers in between, and the other side U.S.A. and ONE TENTH SILVER below. Scarce and always popular with pattern collectors.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

From a B. Max Mehl Sale, unknown date, number 1565 with his original yellow envelope included.

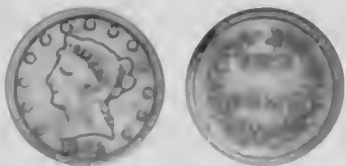

- 68 1851 Pattern cent, Judd-127, Pollock-149, Rarity-6. Original, billon, plain edge. PCCS graded MS-65. Lovely original toning on both sides, with antique gray shades and hints of luster beneath. Sharply struck, and a rare example of this curious perforated pattern issue. Only 3 have been graded this high, with none graded higher!

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 69 1852 Pattern Gold Dollar, Judd-138, Pollock-165, Rarity-7. Silver, plain edge. NGC graded Proof 65. This is an extremely rare pattern issue, and although there isn't much to this coin, what is present is in gem condition. Toned with deep gray shades and free of distractions. We note that this was struck over a half dime, and you can just make out the flattened letters of UNITED STATES in the left obverse field between the date and U.S.A. The large hole at the center has been the subject of derisive comments by certain dealers, and such things just add more color to our little industry. One of the finest graded by NGC, only 4 awarded MS-65 and none graded higher, only 1 this grade seen by PCGS, also none higher from that service.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 70 1853, Pattern Cent, Judd-149, Pollock-178, Rarity 5. German Silver, reeded edge. NGC graded Proof 30. This piece has been circulated as it was probably "passed off" as a Quarter Eagle as the regular die obverse of the $2.50 Liberty was used for this experimental piece. A problem-free example for the grade.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 1071 1854 Pattern Cent, Judd-160, Pollock-187, Rarity-4, copper or bronze, plain edge. NGC graded Proof 65 Brown. This is very similar to the regular issue large cent of 1854, except there are no obverse stars and the diameter is a bit smaller. Toned a medium brown on both sides with very clean surfaces. NGC has graded 8 this high, with 2 graded higher in Brown, and 3 graded as PF-65 RB too, according to a recent NGC report.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1072 1854 Electrotpe. Pattern cent, Judd-161, Pollock-187. A decent electrotpe of this popular pattern issue, the surfaces have been lightly cleaned and show minor hairlines, and hints of lead show through around the edges from its manufacture. Electrotypes have long been used by collectors who were unable to obtain the originals, and are today highly collectible in their own right.

Estimated Value $50-100

- 1073 1855 Pattern cent, Judd-168, Pollock-193, Rarity-4, Original, copper or bronze, plain edge. PCCS graded Proof 64 Brown. The alloy of this issue has been determined to be 89.7 % copper; 5.9 % tin; 2.4 % zinc and the balance trace elements. Perhaps this curious combination of elements produces the wood grain toning familiar on many pattern issues with similar metallic composition. The obverse is about one third dark brown, with the balance a pinkish tan, darker on the reverse, with the toning a bit more even. Clash marks are noted on the obverse. Boldly struck and well preserved, with clean surfaces and no signs of abuse.

Estimated Value $800-1,200

- 1074 1855 Pattern cent, Judd-168, Pollock-193, Rarity-4. Copper or bronze, plain edge. PCCS graded Proof 63 Brown. This one is somewhat weakly struck on the high points of the eagle, and at the central reverse on the denomination. We note one tick mark below the eagle, and another on his tail, but the surfaces are pretty nice considering the moderate grade. Lovely mahogany color on both sides. Scarce in all grades.

Estimated Value $800-1,000

Patterns

- 1075 1855 Pattern Cent, Judd-172, Pollock-198, Rarity-7. Copper or bronze, plain edge. NGC graded Proof 64 Brown. Boldly struck for this die pairing with full details on the eagle's breast, tail and wing feathers. The toning ranges from a muddy brown to a streaky dark brown in places, as usually seen on copper patterns of the period. Only a few have been graded, and coin remains as a rarity-7 variety. Nearly a gem, and worth a strong bid from pattern specialists.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

- 1076 1859 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-237, Pollock-293, Rarity-4. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. A fairly common pattern issue, as such things go, but this is one of the finer ones to survive time and torment. Only 7 graded as PR-64 by PCGS, with 4 graded higher. Delicate gold toning around the edges, minor hairlines in the fields, and boldly struck, with a clean cheek on Liberty. A lovely early pattern coin.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Purchased many years ago at a cost of $125, on the old paper envelope.

- 1077 1859 Pattern half dollar, Judd-240, Pollock-296, Rarity-5. Copper, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 65 Red. Magnificent color on this scarce pattern issue, which ranges from full red in the fields to radiant orange-red on the devices. One thin scratch below the first S of STATES (very tiny) and a minor cheek nick keep this from utter perfection. Free of spots or other detriments, and faint hairlines can be seen in the fields. According to PCGS, this is the only Red example graded of Judd-240, and none are graded higher in either Brown or Red Brown.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 1078 1838 Pattern half dollar, Judd-255, Pollock-81, Rarity-8. Copper, reeded edge. NGC graded Proof 62 Brown. Struck from very rusted dies, especially on the reverse, with numerous raised pits in the fields. Weakly struck at the centers notably on the lower obverse, with some of the curls weak, as made. Pollock notes only 2 are known, and just a single coin has been recorded in the NGC and PCGS Population reports, this coin (graded MS-62 at each). Deep brown in color, with reddish highlights on the reverse. If you want to own a complete pattern set, you must buy this coin, as perhaps two are known, hardly an opportunity to pass up.
Estimated Value $5,000-UI

- 1079 1862 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-295, Pollock-353, Rarity-6. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 62. Nice for the grade, the coin is toned a medium gray in color, with decent fields that show minor hairlines. We note some minor encrustation from jewels rouge or some other cleaning solvent adhering to the devices and lettering. Most of this issue is found in similar grades, and none have been graded higher than PR-64. Boldly struck throughout with the motto GOD OUR TRUST above the eagle. Seldom offered. Identifiable by a small planchet flake below and inside of the inner point of the second star.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Purchased from Abe Kosoff's California State Numismatic Association Sale, October-November, 1968, lot 1140, with envelope included.

Patterns

1862 Pattern Eagle, Judd-298, Pollock-357, Rarity-6, Copper, reeded edge, PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown. This is one of the finest graded by PCGS, with only one other coin graded this high by that service. Toned a deep mahogany red on both sides, as always seen. A few trivial small spots are noted. Clean for the grade, without handling marks or other impairments. As a pattern issue, the only change from the regular dies was the addition of the motto "GOD OUR TRUST" above the eagle on the reverse, and the planchet choice of copper instead of gold. Put away some time ago, as the paper envelope that this came with states the price of $60.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

With a small paper envelope with the price $60, from some decades back.

1863 Pattern Two cent piece, Judd-305, Pollock-370, Rarity-4. Copper or bronze, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64 Red. This coin has even brick red color and was likely cleaned many years ago, and has mellowed to a more natural appearance today. As to the surfaces, they are free of all but minute specks and show few signs of toning back. Minor hairlines are noted in the fields. According to Lester Merkin, this one weighs 87.3 grs. Boldly struck on both sides and quite pleasing. One minor lint mark in the field above and left of the left obverse star.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

From Lester Merkin's famed September 1968 Sale, lot 415, with original envelope included.

1863 Pattern two cent piece, Judd-312, Pollock-377, Rarity-4. Copper or bronze, plain edge, PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown. Deep mahogany brown in color and very lovely. We note a couple of very small old spots on both sides, and these should be addressed at some point, and the sooner the better. Clean surfaces throughout and boldly struck. Only 2 have been graded higher in the various color combinations, making this about as good as there are ever found.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

With an old Alton Krenberg envelope with the price $135 noted.

1083 1863 Pattern dime, Judd-328, Pollock-398, Rarity-7. Postage currency, Aluminum, reeded edge, PCGS graded Proof 64. An extremely rare postage currency issue, this one has lovely surfaces and fields, with just a hint of hazy toning. Only 2 coins graded by PCGS, one a bit better, and this example, so don't wait until you can pick from several, they probably don't exist! Simple design elements in keeping with the crisis during the Civil War years, the need for small change was very great, and any solution was examined with interest by Congress.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

With an old paper envelope with the price $110

1084 1863 Pattern dime, Judd-331, Pollock-402, Rarity-7. Nickel or silver-nickel alloy, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. The obverse of this curious pattern is the regular issue seated dime, but without the date. On the reverse, the design is plain and simple, and states POSTAGE CURRENCY; 10 CENTS 1863; ACT JULY 1862. Apparently this is the only example of this pattern graded by PCGS, and naturally it is the finest, as well as the worst, graded. Obviously, this is a very rare issue, which is seldom encountered. Hazy gray toning on both sides, clean surfaces and fields, with a small speck near Liberty's face.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

With a small white envelope with the price $90, from many years ago.

1085 1863 Pattern quarter dollar, Judd-336, Pollock-408, Rarity-7. NGC graded Proof 65 Brown. Of the 8 graded by both PCGS and NGC, this is tied for the finest technical grade, although others have more original mint red to varying degrees. This particular coin is deeply toned with dark amber in the fields and deep blue on the devices. Spot free and clean surfaces for the grade, with no handling ticks worth noting.

Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

Patterns

- 1086 1863 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-340, Pollock-412, High rarity-6. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. The obverse design is the regular Seated Liberty design as used on coinage, the reverse employs the motto "GOD OUR TRUST" above the reverse eagle, on what otherwise is the regular reverse die for seated coinage too. This coin is silvery white with just a bit of gold toning around the periphery. As to the planchet, it shows heavy streaking in the form of countless fine vertical lines, which still show in the mirror fields. Only scattered hairlines, and no problems otherwise. Over a dozen have been graded, which tips this one out of the rarity-7 category. Curiously, most grade PR-64, with 11 so graded by PCGS and NGC, but just a single coin graded higher. Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Purchased from Kosoff's California State Numismatic Association Sale, October-November, 1968, lot 1143, with envelope included.

- 1087 1866 Pattern nickel, Judd-461, Pollock-535, Rarity-6. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. One of the finest graded of this important and popular Washington nickel pattern. The recent PCGS Population Report shows just 4 graded this high with none graded higher! The surfaces are untuned with only the most minute signs of specks on the obverse, and one tiny speck on the lower reverse edge. Free of hairlines or other problems. The planchet is a bit rough when examined with a glass, as made, perhaps the Mint was having trouble working with the various alloys used, and tiny pits can be seen on both sides of the coin. Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1088 1866 Pattern nickel, Judd-486, Pollock-575, High rarity-6. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. The popular Lincoln obverse, and a very rare coin indeed. Only 6 have been graded by NGC and PCGS, this one is tied with 4 others as the best seen, and one coin is graded a notch below. With the assassination of President Lincoln, there was a ground swell of patriotism, patterns of both George Washington and Abraham Lincoln were struck, but not enough pressure was brought to have either become the standard for circulation. This one has a nice portrait of Lincoln, with simple motifs. Minor flakes in the planchet, but no problems worthy of note. Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1089 1867 Pattern nickel, Judd-570, Pollock-638, High rarity-5. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. This coin appears to be a bit better than the grade awarded, as there are no hairlines or problems whatsoever. Perhaps there is something on the cheek, but its very minor, and shouldn't keep this from the gem class. Nevertheless, here it is, with deeply frosted devices and well mirrored fields. One of 5 so graded by PCGS, with just 5 graded higher (all PR65) by that service. Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

With an old yellow coin envelope with the price $100, obviously from some time ago.

- 1090 1868 Pattern nickel, Judd-623, Pollock-692, High rarity-5. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. A sparkling jewel that boasts mint fresh frost on the devices and clean reflective fields. The planchet show some light roughness, which is visible on the devices only. Free of hairlines or handling marks, and apparently the only true gem yet graded. PCGS has seen 8 graded a notch lower, and this lone coin as PR-65. Carefully preserved since its day of issue, and last sold in 1968. Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Purchased from Abe Kosoff's October 1968 California State Numismatic Association, lot #1150, with white envelope included.

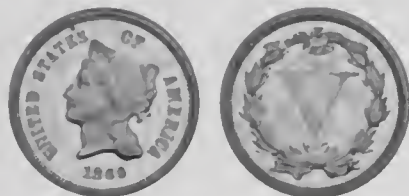

- 1091 1869 Pattern cent, Judd-666, Pollock-743, Rarity-6. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. Nicely frosted on the devices and boldly struck. The mirror fields show several lines either from die polishing or planchet preparation, but these are as made, and not hairlines. On the reverse is a planchet pit left of the 1 in the denomination. One of 7 graded as such by PCGS with just 2 graded higher. Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

With an old B. Max Mehl envelope, unknown date, lot 1571 stamped in green ink.

Patterns

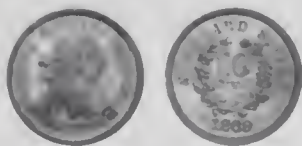

- 92 1869 Pattern cent; Judd-666, Pollock-743, Rarity-6. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 58. This one may have been a pocket piece for a brief time, as the reverse fields show a few minor circulation ticks, as well as some scattered green specks. One of only 31 graded, this at the low end currently.
Estimated Value $300-500

- 93 1869 Pattern nickel, Judd-684, Pollock-763, Rarity-5. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. This one has a few trivial and small flyspecks on each side. Deeply frosted devices and nicely mirrored fields. The fields show some hazy toning, but this coin is still quite bright and fresh. Scarce, even in this grade.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 94 1869 Pattern dime, Judd-696, Pollock-775, Rarity-5, Standard silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 63. Excellent surfaces for the grade which show only faint hairlines and lovely tawny toning on both sides. Boldly struck and well preserved. One small lint mark is noted on the back of Liberty's head, as made.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 95 1869 Pattern dime, Judd-703, Pollock-782, High rarity-6. Standard silver, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. Lilac gray in color with medium gray overtones. Minor surface hairlines in the fields, but Liberty's face is clean and fresh. Nice for the grade. Perhaps 15 are known, this one of the nicer ones, although there are three graded higher in the recent PCGS Population Report.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 1096 1869 Pattern dime, Judd-708, Pollock-787, Rarity-5. Standard silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. Toned a deep gray shade on both sides from long storage in an envelope or similar paper coin album. Hints of blue are noted near the edge. Splendid surfaces which show no hairlines or problems whatsoever. One of the more beautiful pattern issues of the period.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

From Superior Stamp & Coin's September, 1970 sale, lot 598

- 1097 1869 Pattern quarter, Judd-721, Pollock-802, Rarity-5. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. With deep, and not all the beautiful mottled toning on both sides. Only 1 graded higher, with 7 graded as PR-64 in the recent PCGS Population Report. Well struck, and inspection recommended.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

With an old envelope from Abner Kreisberg noting the price of $65 from many years ago.

- 1098 1869 Pattern Quarter, Judd-723, Pollock-804, Rarity-6. Copper, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64 Brown. One of the popular Standard Silver issues that is struck in copper. The surfaces are clean for the grade and we note quite a bit of original mint color shining up from beneath the layer of toning. Clean fields and devices, and this is certainly a near gem coin that pushes the assigned grade. Only 5 example have been graded by PCGS, one as PR-63, the others all PR-64, in various degrees of red to brown. NGC has only graded a single specimen, PR-65 Red. Perhaps this issue should be a low rarity-7, as precious few have turned up, at least at the grading services. Keep that in mind when formulating your bid.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

With an old paper envelope that notes the price of $42.50 for this coin

- 1099 1869 Pattern Quarter, Judd-729, Pollock-810, Rarity-7, Copper, reeded edge. NGC graded Proof 66 Brown. This coin is highly appealing for its rich mahogany toning and boldly struck design elements. One could not imagine a more beautiful example, unless it was full red! In this pristine state of preservation, the surfaces are of course nearly perfect, with resplendent spot-free fields and devices. No signs of handling or abuse whatsoever. Hints of original red on the reverse. NGC has graded 2 this high, with none graded higher. PCGS hasn't graded any higher than PF-65. Each service has graded 3 examples, so this is likely mid range rarity-7, with perhaps 8 known in all, this tied for the finest with one other. Certain to be a highlight of an advanced pattern collection.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1100 1869 Pattern Quarter, Judd-732, Pollock-813, Rarity-7, Aluminum, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 63. Another Standard Silver issue, this one struck in the experimental metal aluminum. Boldly struck on the devices, but we note minor haze in the fields and a scattering of tiny black specks. Only 8 have been graded in all by NGC and PCGS, this at the low end of the census currently. Only faint hairlines in the fields, and problem free for this moderate grade.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
Purchased from Leo A. Young many years ago, with an old envelope included.

- 1101 1869 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-754, Pollock-838, High rarity-6. PCGS graded Proof 62. A nice example of the Standard Silver issue, this one has some jeweler's rouge encrusting the lettering and devices from an old cleaning, and the fields show the usual hairlines. Well struck on the upper devices, and decent for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500
From Kosoff's CSNA Sale, October-November, 1968, Lot 1155 with envelope included.

- 1102 1869 Pattern half dollar, Judd-756, Pollock-840, Rarity-7, Copper, reeded edge. NGC graded Proof 67 Red and Brown. This is the finest example graded by either NGC or PCGS and the combined population reports show just 8 graded in all, keeping this coin solidly in the rarity-7 category. The devices are all boldly struck and the color ranges from delicate red hues through bluish-gold shades. Free of problems or serious spots, this magnificent copper half dollar would certainly be a highlight in any advanced pattern collection.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 1103 1870 Pattern dime, Judd-845, Pollock-944, Rarity-7, Copper, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 66 Brown. This is far and away the finest graded of this extremely rare issue, the best otherwise is PR-64! Note that over ten percent of the original red is present, with the balance a natural tan color. All is perfectly struck and preserved, with just a trace of lines in the right obverse field. If you demand the best, then here it is.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Purchased from Abner Kreisberg many years ago.

- 1104 1870 Pattern quarter dollar, Judd-894, Pollock-1001, High rarity-5. Silver, reeded edge. NGC graded Proof 64. A fully struck example of this popular Standard Silver series issue. The toning is stunning, with deep blue and gold hues around the periphery, bright at the centers, probably from long storage in an album. There are some minor hairlines in the fields and trivial handling marks, accounting for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Patterns

- 05 1870 Pattern Quarter, Judd-901, Pollock-1016, Rarity-7. Standard silver, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. A frosty delight that has highly reflective fields and splendid frost on the devices. Further, this is a rare issue, with 15 to 20 known (PCGS has graded 11 currently and NGC just 3, with possible duplication). PCGS has only graded 3 this high, with a single coin graded higher, making this one of the very best known of this tiny issue. The Standard Silver issues were struck to solve the problem of the lack of coins in circulation. Metal prices had fluctuated, and small silver pieces disappeared from circulation. Instead, tired rags of fractional currency were the primary change methods for merchants. The die engraving on this particular issue is quite appealing, the devices are sunk deep into the dies, and produce a three dimensional effect with the frosted devices and mirror fields. Similar on the reverse, with the appealing corn, cotton and wheat wreath in glorious execution. A fine pattern issue for the specialist to enjoy, in gem condition and a rarity to boot.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Purchased from Abe Kosoff's 1968 California State Numismatic Association Sale, October-November, 1968, lot 1163 (with envelope) and held in a collection since that time.

- 6 1870 Pattern Quarter, Judd-913, Pollock-1013, Rarity-7. Standard silver, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. Lilac and gray toning on both sides and boldly struck. These Standard Silver issues tend to be well made from highly polished dies that show excellent contrast between the devices and the fields. This one is nearly a gem, save for faint hairlines in the fields. The PCGS Population Report combined with the NGC Population report shows: PR-62 1; PR-63 2; PR-64 2; and PR-65 3. Thus a total of 8 coins are reflected in the combined population reports.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 1107 1870 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-939, Pollock-1066, High rarity-6. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. Here is a beautiful Standard Silver issue pattern, the surfaces are highly reflective, and the devices well frosted. Minor hairlines account for the grade, and the coin has abundant eye appeal. Note the alluring gold peripheral toning on both the obverse and reverse. The design elements are on the upper end of the coiner's art, with Liberty facing left, and well executed, and on the reverse, the wreath is of corn, cotton and wheat with the denomination at the center. The combined NGC and PCGS Population Reports show 5 graded this high, with just 2 graded higher. A rare issue that is seldom offered and certain to please the specialist.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

From Kosoff's CSNA Sale, October-November 1968, lot 1172, with paper envelope included.

- 1108 1870 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-951, Pollock-1094, High rarity-5. PCGS graded Proof 63. There is slight weakness on the high points of the design and a minor scratch down Liberty's face (visible with a glass). Tawny gold toning around the periphery. A scarce and desirable issue.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

With an old envelope describing the coin at a cost of $75

- 1109 1870 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-957, Pollock-1108, Rarity-6. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 63. Frosty and bright, with just a bit of toning around the edges. Not quite fully struck on Liberty's headband. Minor hairlines and otherwise defect-free. One of 5 so graded by PCGS, with 7 graded higher.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Purchased from Abner Kreisberg Corp. at a cost of $95 some decades back

- 1110 1870 Pattern Half Dollar, Judd-964, Pollock-1060, Rarity-7. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. This is an extremely rare pattern issue, only 4 have been graded by PCGS, none by NGC. Of those, this is the finest graded, and possibly the finest known! Another of the Standard Silver issues, this one boasts a beautiful rendering of Liberty, with a curious floppy cap with the back folded over her head, and two large stars as a crown. Ribbons and mottos flap lazily in the breeze, and on the reverse a large wreath of oak and laurel, with the date below and denomination at the center. Excellent contrast between the frosted devices and the mirror fields, and free of all but minute signs of handling.

Several of these pattern coins came to us in an old collection, they were assembled in the 1960s and have been off the market since that time. Our own Larry Goldberg sent them to PCGS for grading, and we just got them back in time to include in this sale. In other words, these are fresh, and have not been subjected to the marketing changes that have swept through the numismatic community the last 30 years.

Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

From Kosoff's California State Numismatic Association Sale, October-November, 1968, Lot 1166 with paper envelope included.

- 1111 1870 Pattern half dollar, Judd-981, Pollock-1101, Rarity-7. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. Although called Rarity-8 in the recent Pollock reference, the PCGS Population Report shows 5 graded, this being the finest of the 5. We will assume they are different coins, as well as different grades and lower the rarity rating a notch. This is a gorgeous, deeply toned example of this rare Standard Silver issue. Liberty is well struck, and the surfaces are superb. Dark blue in the fields, with lighter red hues at the centers. A problem free example, and apparently the finest known, of this important pattern issue.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1112 1871 Pattern nickel, Judd-1050, Pollock-1184, Rarity-6. Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. One of the finest graded of this rare pattern issue, the recent PCGS Population Report shows just 4 graded this high, with 1 graded higher. Examination notes that the surfaces are fresh and well preserved, and show no detriments. Further, the V in the denomination is backwards, the thick side should be on the left rather than the right, and its appearance is awkward. Microscopic examination finds the remnant of a letters serif well above the C of CENTS, perhaps the engraver was going to start the word CENTS well above where it was eventually placed. The 7 in the date also has projections out both sides, and we're not sure what was going on with the engraver there.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1113 1871 Pattern half dime, Judd-1065, Pollock-1200, High rarity-6. Standard Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. This is the finest of only 5 graded by PCGS, and alone as PR-65. Choice tawny-gold toning throughout and well preserved. No signs of the usual hairlines or handling marks, keeping this coin in the coveted gem class. Note the deep engraving on the dies, which must have been hard to strike up fully. The coin appears somewhat medallion in its dimensions. A fabulous coin for the advanced pattern collector to pursue.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

From Abe Kosoff's October-November, 1968 California State Numismatic Association Sale, lot 1181, with envelope included.

CAPTIVATING 1873 JUDD-1272 COPPER HALF DOLLAR

- 1114 1873 Pattern Half dollar. Judd-1272, Pollock-1414, Rarity-7. Copper, reeded edge. NGC graded Proof 66 Red and Brown. This is an extremely rare pattern issue, only 4 have been graded in all, and this is one of the finest. The hues of toning are magnificent and quite appealing. Deep reddish shades with overlays of royal blue are seen when viewed under a light, and the surfaces are pristine throughout. All devices are well frosted and the fields retain their mirror polish. If one must find fault, we note trivial hairlines in the fields. A simply stunning coin that will captivate anyone who takes the time to view it.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

- 5 1873 Pattern trade dollar, Judd-1273, Pollock-1435, Rarity-4. Silver, reeded edge, Proof 60. The obverse design is similar to that adapted for the Trade Dollar, Liberty sits on her beach ball globe of the world, surrounded by a bale of cotton, a sheaf of wheat and the handles of a plow. At her feet the vast ocean enjoys her sultry gaze. On the reverse, the eagle stands on a rock with his wings outstretched and holds a shield in one claw, in his beak the motto waves proudly on a long banner. Minor hairlines in the fields and untuned. The devices are nicely frosted and this is an appealing proof coin for the collector. There is a rim irregularity on the left side of the reverse, the appears to be mint caused as concentric planchet lines continue both above, through and below this irregular area.
Estimated Value $800-1,200

- 1116 1879 Pattern Silver Dollar, Judd-1618, Pollock-1813, Rarity-3. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. This is the famous William Barber design of the Metric dollar. Needless to say, our Government has been trying to get us citizens to adopt this useful measuring system for well over 120 years, with no more success today than in 1879! This one is toned a light and natural steel gray, with very clean fields and devices. Free of the usual problems, and nearly a gem. The rarity rating must be a typographical error in the Pollock book, as only 9 coins have been graded by both NGC and PCGS, hardly what we would expect for a "common" coin that rates rarity-3. Perhaps high Rarity-6 is more in keeping with reality. Of those graded, this is tied with 2 others as the finest seen by the two grading services.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Purchased from B. Max Mehl, with an old envelope included

- 1117 1879 Pattern Silver Dollar, Judd-1627, Pollock-1823, Rarity-3. Silver, reeded edge. PCGS graded Proof 65. This one is tied for the finest graded in a recent PCGS Population Report. Toned with lovely antique gray and gold tones throughout, with faint evidence of hairlines and no other problems. Fully struck at the centers, which is unusual for this issue, and one of the most popular patterns, the Goloid Metric Dollar was examined by many members of Congress before being passed over in favor of continuing the Morgan Dollar then in production. Nevertheless, Congress liked the coin enough that the Philadelphia Mint struck off a few more in early 1880 to fill the demand. An opportunity for the pattern specialist.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Patterns and Territorial Gold Coins

- 1118 1896 Pattern nickel, Judd-1770, Pollock-1787, Rarity-6. Plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 64. The alloy is either German silver or nickel-copper. Fresh white surfaces with just a single speck over the 8 in the date, and another below the last A in AMERICA. Well engraved dies, with pretty elements, but not adapted. Only 20 graded by PCGS in various grades, this in the middle of those.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1119 "1792" Dickeson Pattern, eagle on half shield. MS-60 + Brown. These were struck from a die which was obtained by Dr. Montroville Wilson Dickeson in the late 1850s. The die was likely from Adam Eckfeldt's rejected dies from his revenue stamp embossing, and were likely sold as scrap metal by the Mint. Dr. Dickeson thought they might have been part of the 1792 provisional coinage group. Dr. Dickeson had a reverse die engraved TRIAL PIECE DESIGNED FOR UNITED STATES CENT 1792 and struck a few pieces. As the obverse die shows growing rust on the few pieces known, it is likely that these were struck over an extended time period. The original die turned up in the 1950s, but then hasn't been seen since. Decidedly rare and seldom offered.
This piece is very choice, the surfaces are a nice medium brown with hints of original red near the lettering with some prooflike reflectivity in the fields. Listed as Breen #1378 in his Encyclopedia.

Territorial Gold Coins

- 1120 Christopher Bechtler, $2.50 CAROLINA, 67 gr. 21 carats, Kagin-10, Rarity-5. Sharpness of EF-40 but cleaned long ago. This one is very sharply struck and well preserved. It has been cleaned long ago, with the usual resulting hairlines in the fields. Rare and seldom offered, these territorial gold coins should find happy new homes after being off the market for decades.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1121 Christopher Bechtler, 5 DOLLARS CAROLINA, 134 gr. 21 carats, with star, Kagin-20, Rarity-4. PCGS graded AU-55. Struck circa 1837-42, this one has lovely coppery red toning in the lettering and devices, and is well struck on a clean planchet. Only 7 graded this high, with a single coin graded a notch higher by PCGS, and none seen yet in Mint State. An important opportunity for the specialist.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

- 1122 August Bechtler, 1 DOLLAR CAROLINA, 27 gr. 21 carats, Kagin-24, Rarity-3. PCGS graded AU-55. One of the more common issues from August Bechtler, the surfaces are well preserved and show only minor surface ticks. Mint luster survives near the lettering. About as nice as these are usually found, they are available in mint state, but for a much bigger price! It is important for the territorial collector to purchase a nice example of this type coin, such as the one offered here.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1123 August Bechtler, 1 DOLLAR CAROLINA, 27 gr. 21 carats, Kagin-24, Rarity-3. Sharpness of VF-20 but bent and scratched. This one has been bent and partially straightened and the surfaces have dull scratches on both sides. Well struck and better than we make it sound, but inspection mandatory.
Estimated Value $400-600

Territorial Gold Coins

- 4 August Bechtler, 5 DOLLARS CAROLINA, 141 gr. 20 carats, Kagin-29, Rarity-7. Sharpness of EF-40 but tooled, filed and harshly cleaned. This one has been cleaned with an erasure to hide various tooling marks and the rims are filed. Nevertheless, it is a rare coin, and only a few have been graded. The strike is strong, and the details are sharp. A coin to be inspected, as it is truly rare and seldom encountered in any grade, even with some damage.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Purchased decades ago for $500.

Rare Norris, Gregg & Norris $5 Gold

Enlarged

- 125 1849 Norris, Gregg & Norris (San Francisco) $5 Gold. Reeded edge, Kagin-3, Rarity-6. PCGS graded AU-58. Here is one of the finest known of this rare issue. PCGS has only awarded this grade to 3 coins, with 2 graded in the lower range of Mint State above. Moderate handling marks in the fields, with a small planchet crack left of the date near the rim, continuing through the coin to the opposite side. Well struck, with the large 5 on the shield visible. As this is one of the early territorial issues, most of those coined were remelted into "current" gold coinage during the ensuing years, and precious few remain for collectors today.
Estimated Value $8,000-12,000

- 1126 1849 Moffat & Co. (San Francisco) $5 Gold, Kagin-4, Rarity-5. PCGS graded AU-55. A choice coin for the grade with mint fresh luster and outstanding surfaces that are alive with a golden glow. Boldly struck by the dies, and the eagle and Liberty's curls show crisp definition. One of only 9 graded this high, with 12 graded higher. Remember, these early Territorial coins were generally not on board the S. S. Central America, so the population will remain low. An impressive example that has excellent surfaces and color throughout.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Purchased years ago from B. Max Mehl, lot number (?) 3215 from an unknown sale, as "VF+" (that plus goes a long way!)

- 1127 1851 U.S. Assay Office $50 "slug", 880 THOUS. Lettered edge, no 50 on reverse. PCGS graded EF-45. Kagin-2, Rarity-5. Another rare early Gold Rush issue, this one is well struck by the dies, with crisp details on the eagle and nicely formed corners. The surfaces show minor handling marks, including a small identifying dig above the eagle's head. Only 83 have been graded of this issue, with about two thirds of those in lower grades, according to a recent PCGS Population Report.
Estimated Value $10,000-15,000

Territorial Gold Coins

- 1128 1851 U.S. Assay Office $50 "slug", 887 THOUS. Reeded edge. PCGS graded VF-25. This is an unusual coin, it has two small counterstamped letters on the obverse, a "C" in the field below the tip of the eagle's left wing, and an upside down or backwards "D" under the tip of the right wing. If these were random counterstamps they would likely be placed together, rather than spread apart. What is curious is that C and D were used to signify CENTS and DOLLARS as abbreviations on issues from this territorial mint. These counterstamped letters are very small, and were almost certainly added after the coin left the dies. As the coin clearly states FIFTY DOLLS on the lower obverse, it would be unnecessary to hand punch in the denomination below the wings, or anywhere else. Further, why was the "D" counterstamp upside down or backwards relative to the coin or the "C" counterstamp?

We may never know, but this is an interesting coin which may be worth researching. We asked our friend and noted Territorial gold specialist, Don Kagin about the counterstamp, and he said that he didn't recall seeing other examples.

The surfaces show moderate handling marks, and a few rim bumps expected for the grade. The bumps are located on the corners, as usual. An impressive example of this popular issue. Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Nice AU 1852 Assay $50 900 Thous

- 1129 1852 U.S. Assay Office $50 Gold, 900 THOUS, Kagin-14, Rarity-5. PCGS graded AU-50. A handsome "slug" that boasts even yellow gold color throughout, and decent rims and corners. These heavy gold slugs received quite a bit of abuse in their day and most are seen with banged up rims and corners. Demand for gold coins was extremely high in 1852, and most of these were shipped back east and remelted, or were tossed into the melting pot once the San Francisco Mint opened up in 1854. Only 23,800 were struck of this issue in early 1853, and these are dog-gone rare in high grades! A recent PCGS Population Report shows 7 graded this high, with 10 graded higher, and quite a few in lower grades, for a total of 46 pieces. Estimated Value $12,000-15,000

- 1130 1852 U.S. Assay Office $10 Gold, 884 THOUS. Accugrade graded AU-55. We note that this coin has been cleaned and we would grade the coin Sharpness of Extremely Fine-45. Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 1131 1852 U.S. Assay Office $10 Gold, 884 THOUS, Kagin-10, Rarity-5. Sharpness of AU-50 but the obverse fields are tooled. The fields show some signs of tooling, probably to remove marks or other detriment. Struck from rusted dies and still a decent example of this popular territorial issue. Estimated Value $1,200-1,700

Territorial Gold Coins

- 32 1852 U.S. Assay Office $10 Gold, 884 THOUS, Kagin-12a, Rarity-5, Sharpness of EF-40 but cleaned. The surfaces appear to have been cleaned at some time in the past. Moderate handling marks from limited circulation gives the device a satiny appearance. Most of the handling marks are small in nature, and don't detract, but there are quite a number of them for the grade. Remember, these early gold coins weren't going to the opera every night, they were bouncing around in saddle bags and being tossed about in saloons and constantly being hidden from thieves and politicians. Hence, few are found with nice surfaces.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 33 1853 U.S. Assay Office $20 Gold, 900 THOUS. PCGS graded AU-50. Here is a beautiful, original (we think so at least) and pleasing example of this fairly common Territorial issue. The United States Assay Office of Gold in San Francisco was the primary mint for the tons of gold coming out of the Sierra Mountains and surrounding foothills and streams. Early in the Gold Rush, miners were paid far less than their gold was worth elsewhere (New York for instance) as the business and banking infrastructure were not yet capable of handling the massive gold flows in the California area. Private minters and semi-government assayers helped bring the costs down within a few years, and soon miners were receiving prices closer to the spot price of gold for their dust and nuggets. By 1853, when this coin was struck, a total of 2,500,000 similar coins were made from over 30 different dies. This particular coin has no upper crossbar on the I of UNITED and the serifs on the letter E come and go at will. Despite the huge mintage, these are still scarce, and PCGS has only graded a total of 210 pieces or so, most of which are in high grades, or even mint state. As stated, this is a wonderful, high grade example of this issue, there are two minor rim bumps, one near the left wing tip on the obverse, the other on the reverse at about 10:00, but these are the only problems we noticed.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

1849 Miners' Bank $10 Gold

Enlarged

- 1134 1849 Miners' Bank (San Francisco) $10 Gold. PCGS graded AU-53. Plain Border. Even though this circulated to some extent, it's just a wonderful memento of "pioneer gold" made in early 'Frisco and obviously used among the miners and merchants of its day. Why wonderful? The color, which is a deep orange gold, indicating it retains the same look it had back when it was used for money. The strike, too, is sharp throughout the eagle's feathers, and shows the bird's rounded eye and deadly sharp beak. The surfaces are pocked by tiny abrasions only, indicative of genuine use. The rims are clean and unblemished: nobody threw this one against a wall in a drunken stupor at some Barbary Coast drinking emporium! All in all, a joy for the collector who appreciates originality in a coin handled by real people in an exciting and forever-lost time in America's past. A Gold Rush classic!

PCGS has graded one piece MS-61, another 4 as AU-58, 3 in AU-55 and 5 in AU-53. This is a new AU-53 bringing that number to 6. However, a total of only 25 coins have been reviewed in all grades.

Rare High Grade 1855 Wass, Molitor & Co Small Head $20

- 1135 1855 Wass, Molitor & Co. (San Francisco) $20 Gold. Small head, Kagin-7, High rarity-5. PCGS graded EF-45. This one has excellent definition in the head of Liberty, while the reverse is a touch weak as always seen on the eagle's wings and neck. Nice rims and fields, which show only moderate handling marks. Remember, these were just "money" back when there wasn't much money around, and all coins in the Gold Rush areas circulated hard. The soft gold surfaces were prone to handling marks, and all examples have them to some degree. Luster survives in the protected areas, and this is one of the best to survive. The recent PCGS Population Report notes only 3 graded this high, with just 2 graded higher of the type! Only 11 have been graded in all, so don't expect a boatload to be available at the next auction.
Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

- 1136 1855 Kellogg & Co. (San Francisco) $20 Gold, Kagin-3, Rarity-4. PCGS graded AU-53. Abundant eye-appeal greets the viewer when this coin is examined. The surfaces are a rich, yellow gold with coppery highlights, obviously from an old collection. Bright mint luster abounds, and the strike is strong on both sides. A few trivial handling marks to be expected on these large heavy coins, but they are not distracting or disfiguring. As to the rims, they are clean and without the usual profusion of bumps. PCGS reports only 2 graded as AU-53, with 10 graded higher.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

This one is apparently from an old B. Max Mehl sale, date unknown, lot 1916.

- 1137 1849 Mormon $5 Gold, Kagin-2, Rarity-5. PCGS graded Fine-15. Weakly struck by the dies, and with moderate wear on both sides. The right side of the obverse has some of the lettering worn down, but the central elements of the eye and hat (actually, the all seeing eye of Jehovah and the Phrygian cap, which is the emblem of Mormon priesthood) are clear. Stronger details on the reverse, with all the lettering clear and defined, while the clasped hands are outlined, but show little definition. On the obverse there are some dark areas, most of which appear to be on top of the surface, one above the cap is deeper, and it may have been caused by impurities in the metal. As noted in the Kagin reference, these are always weak at the clasped hands and parts of eye. Probably less than 100 exist in all grades, and this is about average for the grade usually seen.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Rare High Grade 1860 Mormon Gold $5

Enlarged

- 1138 1860 Mormon $5 Gold, Kagin-6, High rarity-5. PCGS graded AU-50. Struck under the authority of the Deseret Assay Office and issued by the authority of the Mormon Church in Utah. Only 9 have been graded this high, with 14 graded higher for this date. Well struck for the issue, with full details on most of the lion and the bee hive on the reverse. Only a bit of wear on the high points, and this coin may be undergraded. Mormon gold is especially popular for its design motifs and is widely collected along with the California issues and others. An impressive coin that will no doubt please any collector.

Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

Purchased from Abner Kreisberg as "Unc. a gem".

Enlarged

- 1139 1860 Clark, Gruber & Co. (Denver, Colorado) $2.50 Gold. NGC graded MS-62. One of the few mint state pieces known, this one is well struck with full curls on Liberty and similar sharpness to the knobby claws on the eagle's feet. We note a tiny bonk on the inner two points of the ninth star, and some minor handling marks on Liberty's proud jaw. On the reverse there are some very light pin scratches or hairlines, but they are not distracting. NGC has graded this coin alone as MS 62 and 2 higher. Similar at PCGS where 5 have been graded MS 62 with 5 graded higher. An important and historical territorial issue. Color photo.

Estimated Value $7,500-8,500

- 1140 1860 Clark, Gruber & Co. (Denver, Colorado) $5 Gold, Kagin-2, Rarity-4. Sharpness of VF-35 but polished. There are some light scratches in the fields and the coin has been polished to reduce the usual surface marks. Well struck, and probably could be improved by experts in such matters.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

Purchased from Abe Kosoff's Alex Shuford Collection Sale date unknown, lot 2546

- 1141 1861 Clark, Gruber & Co. (Denver, Colorado) $2.50 Gold, Kagin-5, Rarity-4. PCGS graded AU-53. Satiny gold in color with some minor lines from brief circulation. Well balanced and struck, with clear devices on each side. Less than 100 probably survived in all grades, and this is one of the better ones which makes it perfect for the collector.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Purchased from Abner Kreisberg many years ago.

Territorial Gold Coins

1861 Clark, Gruber & Co $10 in AU

Enlarged

- 1142 1861 Clark, Gruber & Co. (Denver, Colorado) $10 Gold, Kagin-3, Rarity-5. PCGS graded AU-53. With some luster hidden in the lettering, and well struck from cracked dies. Typical handling marks for the issue, with no other problems worthy of note. Scarce this nice, with perhaps 100 known in all grades, this in the top twenty percent or so. Additional die cracks not noted in Kagin as follows; rim through E and bases of EAK in PEAK, and an arc from the rim through the D of GOLD through the edge of the mountain, to the rim below. Nice rims and surfaces.
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

Purchased from Abner Kreisberg many years ago.

- 1143 1861 Clark, Gruber & Co. (Denver, Colorado) $10 Gold, Kagin-7, Rarity-4. PCGS graded AU-53. While not uncommon in AU grades, none have yet been graded as Mint State according to PCGS. This one boasts satiny luster near the devices, and is well struck. Liberty's headband retains enough definition to clearly read PIKES PEAK. A few minor circulation marks, including one on the outer ball of the 6 in the date will serve to identify this specimen.
Estimated Value $4,000-6,000

Rare High Grade 1861 Clark, Gruber & Co. $20 Gold

- 1144 1861 Clark, Gruber & Co. (Denver, Colorado) $20 Gold, Kagin-8, High rarity-5. PCGS graded EF-45. Here is an extremely rare coin, only 15 have been graded by PCGS, with this in the mid range of 5 graded as such by PCGS, and 5 are graded higher (best is AU-55). The surfaces of this piece are quite pleasing for the grade, there are some minor hairlines from circulation, and a shallow scratch behind Liberty's head. On the reverse, we note minor weakness in the strike on the upper left corner of the shield. Many collectors have never even seen one of these, and the opportunity to purchase one is often measured in years. Examine this one closely and see if it would fill the bill for your collection.
Estimated Value $12,000-16,000

No provenance information included, but likely purchased in the 1950s or 1960s with the balance of this collection.

Territorial Gold Coins

- 45 1861 Clark, Gruber & Co. (Denver, Colorado) Copper Pattern for the $20 Gold. PCGS graded EF-45. Kagin-12c, Rarity-6, Copper, reeded edge. A scarce issue, PCGS has graded 17 in various grades, including a handful of nice mint state pieces. This one has medium chocolate brown toning on both sides, with darker areas near the devices. Not boldly struck up, but enough so on the obverse to read Liberty's crown. On the reverse, the eagle lacks most of the details. Minor rim ticks and surface marks. Rare and seldom encountered.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP

1850 California Gold Mines Token, double eagle size, Low Rarity-7.

- 1146 1850 California Gold Mines Token, double eagle size, Low Rarity-7. Sharpness of EF-40. The coin itself has been polished, which may have been done at the time the gold plating or gilding took place. There is little known about the history of this piece, it is believed to have been engraved by William Lemme, an early San Francisco die cutter and the workmanship is far above average quality for the time period. The obverse displays two rampant bears sparring and is surrounded by CALIFORNIA GOLD MINES, A.D. 1850. On the reverse, a large eagle with outstretched wings and a shield clutches a sheaf of wheat, with CALIFORNIA GOLD MINES, 1850 and 5 stars surrounding. It is not known if this was some sort of proposed double eagle, or more likely a gaming token from one of the numerous gambling halls near the gold mining areas. All known examples are struck in some base metal and later gold plated. Perhaps a dozen are known in all, and this fanciful design has always been popular with collectors for the rampant bears.
We note a rim bruise below the A. of A.D. on the obverse and another larger rim bruise on the lower right side of the reverse. Other handling marks seem to have been gilded over, and it appears that this coin was used for some time before the gilding took place, as the host coin shows some wear, but not the gilding. The only other recent sale we could locate was the Garrett Sale II, by Bowers and Ruddy, March 1980 lot 884 where that specimen realized $6,000 in the quietude of the gold and coin frenzy.
The coin does not state a denomination, but is the same size as a double eagle of the period. This issue is listed in Private Gold Coinage and Patterns of the United States by Donald H. Kagin on page 373 and is noted as being a low rarity-7 piece. He further states that all known pieces are gold plated. Certainly this is a rare opportunity to purchase an historical relic from the California Gold Rush period, and such chances only occur when great collections are sold.

California Fractional Gold

Enlarged

- 1147 1853, BG-435, High Rarity-5. Round liberty half dollar. The State Arms of California. PCGS graded MS-62. One of the classic rarities of the Fractional gold series, the State Arms of California is coupled with the Humbert style reverse of the eagle with outstretched wings and a long scroll in its beak. These were struck by an unknown maker, and have been extremely popular with collectors ever since. PCGS in their recent Population Report notes 5 graded this high with 20 graded higher. Color photo.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1148 1853, BG-418, High rarity-7. Round Liberty Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. This the finest graded of 6 seen by PCGS, there are none tied. Thus, it is reasonable to assume this coin is the finest known of this die variety. Flashy luster throughout with no signs of toning. The central reverse is a touch weak, as always, but the date can be seen and read. Certainly a coin for the advanced collector, with superb surfaces and of the highest rarity and desirability.

- 1149 1853 BG-302, Rarity-5. The Peacock Reverse. Octagonal Liberty Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-62. This variety was coined by Frontier & Deviercy in limited quantities. The eagle on the reverse incorporated the "with rays" designs then current on the quarter and half dollars of 1853, and as only a partial field of rays were used, they give the eagle the appearance of a peacock with its tail spread wide open. Always popular with collectors, this coin has a very distinctive design and is seldom found in decent mint state grades. We note minor hazy toning around the devices, with copper highlights in the fields. An impressive, well struck example of this highly important issue.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Enlarged

- 1150 1853, BG-421, Rarity-5. Round Liberty Half Dollar. AU-50. Nicely struck and with light coppery toning on both sides. This one is from an old collection that has been off the market for many decades.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1151 1853, "Eureka" gold fantasy piece. MS-60. Struck some time after the date 1853, the obverse die is a rather crudely engraved scene that resembles the state seal, on the reverse is a wreath and "CALIFORNIA GOLD with the date 1853. Prooflike surfaces.
Estimated Value $50-75

Extremely Rare Period One Gold Dollar 1854 BG-605

Enlarged

- 1152 1854 BG-605, Rarity-7. Round Liberty Dollar. PCGS graded AU-50. This rarity was made by Frontier & Deviercy for G.L. in 1854. All period one dollars are rare, they have been sought-after by collectors for over a century, and always bring strong prices from avid collectors. This one is well struck, there may be a small planchet crack through the star behind Liberty's bust point near her curls, and the only weakness is noted on the wreath. As to the number graded, PCGS has seen 5 so far, 2 in AU-50, 2 in AU-53, and 1 in AU-58. That's it. There are none seen in mint state. A foremost rarity which is seldom seen, and almost never offered for sale.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

California Fractional Gold

Enlarged

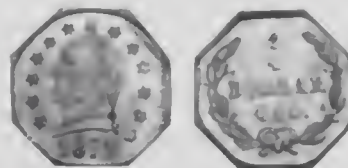

- 53 1854, BG-504, Rarity-6. Octagonal Liberty Dollar. PCGS graded AU-58 Premium Quality. One of the most popular designs in the entire California Fractional Gold series, the reverse copies the famous $50 slug by Humbert. Many of these circulated at the time of issue, the need for small change was very great at the time, and the San Francisco Mint was still getting started. Few are found today, just 6 have been graded this high with 13 graded higher. Light copper toning in the fields and quite well struck. No distracting handling marks or problems worthy of note. Later die state with the cracks. Color photo.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 54 Three coin damaged Fractional gold group. This lot includes the following: 1859 Octagonal Liberty Half Dollar with a hole; 1873 Octagonal Liberty Half Dollar mounted on the reverse and cleaned and 1869 Octagonal Liberty Dollar with a large hole. As each coin is damaged, no grade is given. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

Enlarged

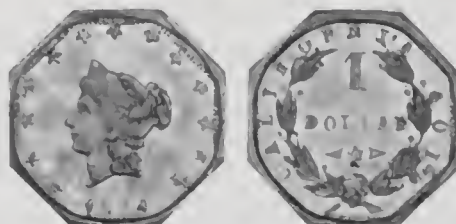

- 55 1865, BG-802, Rarity-6. Round Liberty Quarter Dollar. MS-65. A rare variety that has been turning up the last few decades as the PCGS Population Report notes that 31 have been graded. Even with some duplication, the rarity rating should be reduced to R-6 from R-7. Flashy luster and well preserved for this crudely made issue.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 56 1867, BG-825, Rarity-5. Round Liberty Quarter Dollar. VF-20. There are some shallow scratches on the obverse and reverse.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 57 1871, BG-924, Rarity-4. Octagonal Liberty Half Dollar, EF-40. The rim appears to have been filed on the right side of the reverse. Light cleaning lines throughout.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 58 1871-G, BG-1027, Rarity-4. Round Liberty Half Dollar. EF-40. This one lightly circulated, and good for the type collector.
Estimated Value $100-150

Enlarged

- 1159 1872 BG-723, Rarity-6. The Washington Head. Octagonal Quarter Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64 W.H. Bass. One of the classic rarities of the fractional gold series, this is one of the scarcer varieties of the Washington Head obverse dies. Further, it is greatly enhanced by the illustrious "H. W. Bass" Collection (note the holder says W.H. Bass). Splendid gold color and untoned. The only complaint is a fine, thin scratch down Washington's face. This is one of the two finest graded by PCGS, with none graded higher of this rare variety. Don't miss this opportunity.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Extremely Rare 1874 BG-1110 in AU

Enlarged

- 1160 1874 BG-1110, Rarity-8. Octagonal Liberty Dollar. PCGS graded AU-55. This rare issue is by California Jewelry Company (Levison Brothers) and only a few exist. PCGS has graded 3 coins, this one as AU-55, one as AU-58 and the last MS-62. There may not be any others, and this is reported as a borderline rarity-8 in the Breen-Gillio reference work. The color is quite nice and ranges from antique gold on the obverse, to light copper toning on the devices on the reverse. Examination will note minor hairlines, but the coin is well struck and free of distracting handling marks or other problems. A foremost rarity in any grade, and certain to one of the highlights of an advanced collection. Color photo
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Enlarged

- 1161 1875, BG-1126, Rarity-6. Octagonal Indian Dollar, EF-40. One small edge pinch on the upper right obverse and corresponding edge of the reverse. Light coppery toning and still scarce, though not nearly the R 8 that Breen-Gillio estimated when their reference work was published.
Estimated Value $250-350

California Fractional Gold and Silver & Gold Bars

- 1162 1880 BG-799X. MS-60. Frosty and bright, with a couple of handling marks and a wavy planchet.
Estimated Value $100-115
- 1163 1862 (1910) Alaska 2 Too Wah token in gold. MS-60. These curious tokens were supposedly struck for the Alaska-Yukon Exposition of 1909, and the reverse is dated 1910. The design motifs include an eskimo on the obverse and a dog sled on the reverse with two tusks.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1164 1862 (1910) Alaska 2 Too Wah token. EF-40. These curious tokens were supposedly struck for the Alaska-Yukon Exposition of 1909, and the reverse is dated 1910. This particular coin is a restrike in gold alloyed with copper or some other base metal combination.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 1165 1909 Alaska gold token, 1/4 D.W.T., or one Quarter Pinch. Well struck on both sides, with the familiar miner and pick on the obverse, wreath reverse.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 1166 1904 Louisiana Purchase Exposition Quarter Dollar and Half Dollar in gold. These both grade MS-60 and are proof-like in the fields. The obverse shows a large Fleur de Lis with the initials LPE on each end. On the reverse, is the denomination in a fraction form and the words LOUISIANA GOLD surrounding. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 1167 1904 Louisiana Purchase Exposition Half Dollar in gold. MS-60. The obverse shows a large Fleur de Lis with the initials LPE on each end. On the reverse, is the denomination 1/2 in a fraction form and the words LOUISIANA GOLD surrounding.
Estimated Value $100-150
- 1168 1898 Maine Battleship Spanish America War token in gold. EF-40. With a loop at the top for suspension, and obviously meant to be worn. A treasured memento with "Old Glory" on the obverse, and the Battleship "Maine" on the reverse. Octagonal shape and scarce.
Estimated Value $50-75
- 1169 Merrill Lynch, Pierce Fenner & Smith Gold Bar, 10 ounces. This 10 ounce bar is stamped 999.9 fine and has the familiar "bull" symbol used by that brokerage firm. Nice surfaces, and this cataloguer doesn't recall seeing this type of bar before. Probably from the late 1970s when gold became a hot investment item. In a small black cardboard box of issue.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,400
- 1170 Merrill Lynch, Pierce Fenner & Smith Gold Bar, 5 ounces. This 5 ounce bar is stamped 999.9 fine and has the familiar "bull" symbol used by that brokerage firm. Nice surfaces, and this cataloguer doesn't recall seeing this type of bar before. Probably from the late 1970s when gold became a hot investment item. In a small black cardboard box of issue.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
- 1171 Credit Suisse 100 gr. gold bar, 999.9 fine. A hunk of gold for the bug. As issued.
Estimated Value $675-725
- 1172 N.M. Rothschild & Sons gold ingot. This ingot weighs 58.2 grains and is 996 fine. It is a curious square shape and the stamps are all quite clear on the top.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 1173 Englehard gold ingot. This ingot weighs 1.608 ounces and is 999.9 fine, it is the shape of a loaf of bread. Stamped number 3680 above the name.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 1174 Engelhard 1 ounce gold bar 999.9 fine, serial number 008882. Perfect for the gold bug.
Estimated Value $225-250

- 1175 1946 Philadelphia Mint silver bar, 8.80 ounces. A nice bar stamped on the back 1946, 999. fine, bar number 151, 8.80 ounces. On one edge is stamped 10. The Philadelphia Mint stamp is nice, but somewhat crudely executed, when compared with current coinage of that year.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 1176 1956 Silver San Francisco Mint Bar, 22.23 ounces. A Swiss Cheese style bar with a few holes at the centers as cast at the San Francisco Mint. Dated 1956 in their seal at the top, the bar is 999.75 fine and is stamped 249 on the side. 22.23 ounces of good 'ole American silver. A great paper weight or doorstop and not all that valuable, but highly collectible.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 1177 A San Francisco Mint silver bar, 5.89 Ounces. 999.5 fine silver, and nice surfaces and stamps from the Mint. Popular and seldom seen these days.
Estimated Value $200-300

Silver Bars and Miscellaneous

- 8 An Eagle Mining Silver Bar, $6.48 value, 5.03 ounces and stamped bar #377. The bar is pretty much as made, nice color and surfaces. Popular with collectors of Western mining memories.
Estimated Value $100-150
- 9 Three miscellaneous silver bars. This group includes 6.6 tael (7.7 g) 900 fine bar from the Irrawaddy Counting House at Rangoon; a 10 ounce .999 fine Imperial R & S Works bar and last a 50 grammes 999 fine bar from Dena Bank, Bombay, India. An interesting group of silver bars for the collector.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 30 1992-S Proof Silver eagle. ICG graded Proof 69 Cameo. Glorious reds, golds and blues from careful storage. A stunning multihued gem.
Estimated Value $100-UP

Gem 1849 Gold Dollar

Enlarged

- 1181 1849. Open wreath No "L" on neck. PCGS graded MS-65. A sparkling gem that boasts ample luster in the fields and the now familiar copper gold color attesting to its gem status. Fully struck by the dies, with all details sharp. This one is in an old PCGS holder with the green insert tag.
Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

Enlarged

- 1182 1849. Open wreath. SEGS graded MS-64. No L. A frosty bright specimen that has good color and a sharp strike on the devices.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500
- 1183 1849. Open wreath. EF-40. A nice circulated example.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 1184 1849. Closed wreath and 1853. Both grade AU-58 to MS-60 +. The 1853 has a scratch on the obverse. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 1185 1849. Closed wreath, heavy date. EF-40. A few light lines from handling or circulation, nevertheless, this one retains some luster and has a nice appearance.
Estimated Value $125-150

Enlarged

- 1186 1851. NGC graded MS-66. One of the finest graded by NGC where we note just 10 have been seen this high with 2 graded higher. Blazing luster in the fields and well struck from lapped dies. The surfaces show minor ticks which can hardly be seen even with a strong glass.
Estimated Value $5,000-5,500

- 1187 Small group of gold dollars. 1851 VF-30; 1852 EF-40; 1853 EF-40 and 1854 damaged on obverse. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 1188 1851. MS-60. There is a small obverse flaw on Liberty's cheek; the balance of the coin is nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 1189 1851-O. NGC graded MS-61. Well struck by the dies, with no weakness noted. A couple of scrapes in the fields account for the grade.
Estimated Value $550-650
- 1190 1851-O. MS-61. Nice surfaces that show just a few handling ticks.
Estimated Value $550-650
- 1191 1851-O. VF-25. A bit weak at the centers.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 1192 1852. VF-30. There is an unfortunate thin pin scratch on both the obverse and reverse.
Estimated Value $100-110

Enlarged

- 1193 1853. NGC graded MS-64. Great color and surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $700-800
- 1194 1853. PCGS graded MS-63. Nice luster and color, with clean surfaces for the moderate grade. There is a curious die line through Liberty's neck out her truncation below.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 1195 1853 (2 pieces). A pair of this date, one grades EF-40, the other EF-45. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1196 1853. EF-40. Coppery toning and original.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 1197 1853. VF-30. Fresh and original.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 1198 1853-O. EF-40. A few minor scrapes on the extreme rim of the obverse.
Estimated Value $125-150

Enlarged

- 1199 1854. PCGS graded MS-65. A brilliant, blazing gem of this relatively common date. Full luster in the fields, and free of anything but tiny signs of contact. Boldly impressed and well preserved. One for the gem collector.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Gold Dollars

Enlarged

1854-S. PCGS graded MS-64. A bright, fresh coin that boasts blazing luster and only the faintest signs of handling. One hidden tick on Liberty's cheek, and this one is boldly struck from lightly clashed dies. The March 2001 PCGS Population Report shows only 9 graded this high, with a scant 2 graded higher. Color photo.

Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

$1 Indian

Gem 1854 Type II Dollar

Enlarged

1854 Type 2. PCGS graded MS-65. One of the American classics when it comes to rarity on this short-lived type coin. The Type II Indian gold coin has always been in feverish demand the past three decades by type and date collectors. Note the overlay of luster spread across the coin, with a seductive satiny reddish tint of colors that promote contrast between the flatness of the fields to the raised lettering and devices. On the obverse, the coin boasts a golden yellow hue which reflects back the harsh light used for critical examination. Turning to the reverse, we see similar satiny yellow fields with crisply struck devices, and surrounding the wreath is a lilac-orange-red-green combination of colors that dance when examined in the light with a youthfulness that belies the passage of 147 years since this one was struck.

As always, the dies show clash marks on both the obverse and reverse, as many times the dies came together without a planchet as the feeding machinery frequently jammed on these tiny planchets. The vast majority of these show clash marks. Scrutiny finds little to fault, sure there are some hidden hairlines and ticks which blend into luster, but this is clearly one of the few gems that have been graded during the past 15 years since PCGS began grading coins. The March 2001 PCGS Population Report shows only 34 graded as MS-65, with a scant 8 graded higher for this date. Certainly not many to go around to all the eager collectors out there attempting to put together gem type collections. Color photo.

Estimated Value $30,000-35,000

Enlarged

1202 1854 Type 2. NGC graded MS-61. Bright luster and good yellow-gold color on both sides. Struck from clashed dies as are most, and this is an important type coin. Precious few marks to account for the grade.

Estimated Value $2,700-3,000

1203 1854 Type 2. VF-30. There are some faint scratches on the upper obverse in the fields, perhaps where an erasure was lightly used. Scarce.

Estimated Value $200-250

Enlarged

1204 1855. PCGS graded MS-63. Appealing sunset gold luster near the devices while the open fields are more straight yellow in color. Note how few handling marks or hairlines can be seen, and this coin appears better than the grade assigned. The strike is a bit weak, as usual, with a lack of definition on the upper right maple leaves on reverse. On the obverse, some of the peripheral lettering is weak, especially IC of AMERICA. Struck from clashed dies, and with the familiar slanting 55 in the date. Only 204 graded as MS-63 by PCGS, with 163 graded higher.

Estimated Value $8,000-9,000

Enlarged

1205 1855. NGC graded MS-62. Nice luster and surfaces, struck from clashed dies, as are most. Typical strike for this issue, with the 1 L of DOLLAR and the 8 in the date a bit weak, otherwise sharp. Copper spot on the R of DOLLAR and a toned area on the upper right wreath.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

1206 1855. EF-40. Nice color and clean surfaces.

Estimated Value $250-300

1207 1856. Large head, upright 5. NGC graded MS-61. Sporadic weakness on both sides on a few letters and the date, but overall nice color and clean surfaces.

Estimated Value $300-400

1208 1856. Large head, slant 5 (3 pieces). A triplet of these grading from VF-25 to VF-30. Lot of 3 coins.

Estimated Value $300-400

Gold Dollars

- 1209 1856. Large head, slant 5. EF-40. Nice surfaces.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 1210 1857. AU-50. One shallow scrape in the lower left obverse field.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 1211 1857. EF-45. A few stray hairlines over lustrous fields.
Estimated Value $140-160

Enlarged

- 1212 1857-C. Sharpness of EF-40 but may have been repaired. This one may have been repaired at twelve o'clock on the obverse as the rim is slightly irregular in that area. There is also a tiny planchet flake over the R of AMERICA on the rim. Well struck, and really a decent coin for the grade. We note that the surfaces may simply as struck, as the Charlotte Mint didn't have the finest equipment, and hence many coins are not the quality of the Philadelphia Mint, for instance.
Estimated Value $500-600

Enlarged

- 1213 1859-D. NGC graded MS-62. This is an extremely rare coin in full mint state, in fact NGC has only graded 5 coins of this date as MS-62, with just 4 coins graded higher. A trickle of 4,952 were struck, and most show evidence of clashed dies and are poorly struck up on the high points, as we see here. Untoned and with fresh luster in the fields. A specialist's coin that is seldom offered and rarely available.
Estimated Value $7,000-10,000

Enlarged

- 1214 1859-D. PCGS graded AU-58. A rare coin in this grade, the 1859-D was struck as the Civil War was about to unfold. Virtually the entire issue was spent, and most were lost or melted in the next few decades. PCGS has graded 21 in various mint state grades, with just 11 graded this high. Well struck throughout, the dies were hastily prepared and some of the reverse letters are filled. Nice luster and average surfaces, with just a bit of wear.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Enlarged

- 1215 1860-D. PC1 graded EF-40 Cleaned. The surfaces are slightly pebbly from the cleaning and have a satin appearance. A truly rare date in every way, and few are encountered in grades like this. Well struck for the most part, but weak on the UNITED and the upper left wreath, near the rim. This coin could be improved.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,800
- 1216 1862. ANACS graded MS-63. A few hairlines and stacking marks from a higher grade. Nice luster in the fields.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 1217 1862. AU-50. Nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $150-175

Enlarged

- 1218 1870. PCGS graded MS-64. Hazy toning on both sides over lustrous fields. Nicely struck.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Enlarged

- 1219 1878. PCGS graded Proof 65 Ex: Trompeter. Tied for the finest graded of this date, only 20 were coined in Proof, and PCGS has graded 6 this high, with none graded higher. A superb example for the advanced collector. The fields and devices show excellent contrast and the surfaces are pristine. Delicate copper toning and as nice as a collector could hope for.
Estimated Value $10,000-13,000

Gold Dollars

Enlarged

20 1881. NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. Philadelphia coined 87 proof gold dollars dated 1881, of these very few remain in gem condition. NGC has only graded 3 coins as such, with a single coin graded higher for the date. Note the lovely coppery-red tones on both sides that have settled into the fields, while the devices remain piled high with snowy frost. Truly, the fields appear icy in their smoothness, and the devices give one the thought that Liberty and her surrounding lettering could slide right off the coin, leaving the perfectly smooth fields behind. Examination notes a few trivial hairlines and handling ticks, none of consequence. Color photo.

Estimated Value $7,000-9,000

Enlarged

1 1881. PCGS graded MS-64. Prooflike in the obverse fields, satiny on the reverse. Faint handling marks from full gem, but fresh and original throughout.

Estimated Value $600-800

Enlarged

2 1883. PCGS graded Proof 65. 1883 saw America in a period of growth. The Civil War was now a generation old, and the current youth reflected high energy and enjoyed the excellent prospects not seen in decades. Gold dollar proof orders were high in 1883, up from prior years to a total of 207 coins. Of these, only 5 have been graded as PR-65 by PCGS, with 10 graded higher. That puts this coin in the top ten percent of those coined, and one of the prettiest frosted proofs you're likely to find.

Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

Enlarged

1223 1883. NGC graded MS-67. One of the finest graded of this date, with 44 graded as such by NGC, with a single coin graded higher. Note the superb surfaces and color. Nothing to complain about, no value impairing marks to describe, no unsightly hairlines or digs, bumps or bangs. Just millimeters of pristine surfaces. Perfect for the perfectionist.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Enlarged

1224 1884. PCGS graded MS-65. Nice luster in the fields and struck from lightly clashed dies. In an old green insert PCGS holder.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

Enlarged

1225 1885. PCGS graded Proof 66. The boom of the 1880s continued, and Philadelphia sold 1,105 Proof gold dollars to collectors. Quality stepped up a notch too, with the chief corner at the Mint perfecting the process that textures the smooth fields with an orange peel surface. This process is quite beautiful, and when the coin is examined using a strong light one can see the texture imparted to the fields by the dies. Further, the acid used bring out the frost on the devices also found just the right mix, and proof coinage from 1884 to 1901 is decidedly a cut above coins produced before or after. Hence, the cameo effect is strong, and the coin possesses a quality that is easy to appreciate. PCGS has only graded 23 as such, with just 3 coins graded higher for the date.

Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

Enlarged

1226 1886. NGC graded MS-66. Virtually as struck, the luster complete and unbroken and the strike is also bold. A few faint hairlines in the mirrored fields, and no other signs of handling.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

1227 1888. MS-62. A couple of marks on the cheek, otherwise fresh and nice.
Estimated Value $300-400

The R. L. Miles 1796 No Stars Quarter Eagle

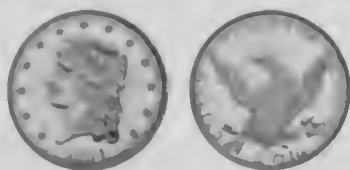

Enlarged

1228 1796. No stars on obverse. NGC graded AU-58. Here is a classic rarity in high grade, this is the Miles coin from the Stack's sale in 1968, and prior to that in the Grant Pierce sale. This particular coin is exceptionally well struck, including the E of LIBERTY which is almost always found weakly struck (being behind the eagle's tail feathers). The reverse stars are exceptional too, each boldly executed and preserved. The Philadelphia Mint struck only 963 of these, and most entered circulation or were eventually lost or remelted. The no stars obverse design lasted less than a year, and stars were added late in 1796, making this one of the rarest and shortest lived type coins produced at the Philadelphia Mint. NGC has graded 18 this high with just 11 graded higher. As to the surfaces, they show minimal handling marks and this coin is clean for the grade. In the color department it is untuned, no sign of the copper shades frequently seen these days, just rich yellow gold. We note some trivial adjustment marks on the upper right side of the shield, but they are not deep or problematic. If you have been looking for a truly superb example of this date, and one of the only ones known this well struck, then take a look and study this one during lot viewing. You will see a splendid example of our first Quarter Eagle, wonderfully preserved and worthy of an aggressive bid. Color photo.

Estimated Value $75,000-UP

- 229 1834. No motto. PCGS graded MS-63. Well struck and with loads of luster in the fields. This is a rare coin that is perfect for the type collector who needs a choice example. One of 34 graded, with 39 graded higher by PCGS. Minor handling marks on each side, none of consequence or distracting.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500
- 230 1835. VF-25. A few trivial circulation marks, as expected for the grade
Estimated Value $200-250

Satiny 1836 Reich-Kneass Classic Head

Enlarged

- 1231 1836. Script 8. NGC graded MS-64. One of a small group that has been graded this high, as precious few were saved from the ravages of time and circulation. Critical examination will note a few scattered hairlines, but virtually no signs on handling on the soft gold surfaces. Experienced collectors know how unusual this state of affairs is, as virtually every gold coin from the 1830s is heavily abraded, even if the devices show little or no wear, the coins are almost always nicked and bagmarked. Not so here, the surfaces are pristine and show satiny mint frost throughout. As to the strike, it is full and complete, with every tiny radial line crisp on each star, and the design elements are perfectly presented. A fine die crack extends through the sixth star through Liberty down to the rim between the last two stars, and another fine crack extends down her cheek from above her ear into the field below her jaw. The 3 was cut into the die a bit low, and the 6 used in the date was too large, and extends well above the other digits. As to the rarity, the recent NGC Population Report shows just 19 graded this high, with a single coin graded higher. Color photo
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

- 1232 1836. Script 8. NGC graded MS-63. A choice coin with frosty luster in the fields and well struck devices. Note the die crack through star six down through Liberty's head which ends near the last two stars. Clean surfaces which show only minor handling marks in the fields while Liberty's cheek is still nice. An excellent choice for the type collector.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500
- 1233 1836. Script 8. VF-20. Nice and original throughout. One tiny rim mark above the fifth star, and a die crack from the rim through the sixth star down towards Liberty's ear. Coppery toning on both sides.
Estimated Value $200-250

Glowing 1839 Proof Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

1234 1839 Ultra Rare Proof. PCGS graded Proof 62. Breen, when he originally wrote his epic Encyclopedia of United States And Colonial Proof Coins 1722-1977 stated that quarter eagles in proof were "unknown". A few years later, when Breen's Encyclopedia of United States Coins was published he noted that 3 were known of this date in proof. NGC hasn't graded any of this date in proof yet, and PCGS has graded 2 coins, both as PR62. Examination with a glass fails to locate distracting ticks or bumps, and the surfaces are very nice for the grade assigned. Perhaps the moderate hairlines discounted the grade to its rather moderate level. The coin is toned a rich gold color, and Liberty's face and cheek are especially nice. The die diagnostics are the 839 all show mispunching or repunching, the eighth star shows heavy recutting, others very light, and a large centering dot is noted left of Liberty's ear, hidden a bit by the curl. On the reverse, we note a lump between the leaves where most of the branch or another leaf has virtually been lapped away, and a centering dot is located near the top of the shield on the second horizontal line.

Needless to say, this is an exceptionally rare coin in Proof, and this opportunity may not present itself for decades to come.

Estimated Value $65,000-UP

No provenance information included, but we could find no record of this being offered in the last 5 years. Previously in the Ed Trompeter collection and sold privately.

Impressive 1839-C Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

1235 1839-C. NGC graded AU-58. Charlotte coined 18,140 during 1839. Most of those struck show extensive die cracks on both sides, as the dies broke early, but held together long enough to coin the number noted. This one is well struck on Liberty, but the stars lack their central points. On the reverse, a hint of luster remains in the lettering, and the eagle and surrounding letters are sharp enough, despite the die cracks through the denomination and around the eagle. NGC has only graded 32 this high, with 6 graded in various mint state grades. Popular for the obverse Mintmark above the date.

Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

1236 1839-C. NGC graded AU-55. Moderate handling marks from limited circulation and well preserved from this Southern Mint. Struck from cracked dies, as are most of this issue, with cracks through the 3 in the date, second star and ninth star towards the center. Similar on the reverse, with heavy breaks through the first 2 in the denomination, above the left wing and through the eagle's beak into the field above. Nicer than most, and even popular for the obverse mintmark above the date. Well struck by the dies, and pleasing for what it is.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

$2.50 Liberty

- 137 1841-D, NGC graded AU-58. This is one of the finest certified examples of this date known. Similar to coin offered in the recent Harry Bass Jr sale (part II) but this is a different specimen. Flashy yellow gold in color with minor surface ticks from brief handling. The strike is full and complete, which is probably unusual as this issue is normally weak and well worn in grade. Further, this is an extreme condition rarity, only 4,164 were struck, and few are seen above VF grades. NGC has graded this coin and a single coin higher above AU-55. PCGS has graded none in AU-58, but 2 higher. Therefore, this is likely in the top half dozen known for the date! Fully struck stars, curls and claws, everything is sharp.

We note a faint die crack from near the third star through Liberty's nose into her cheek, and on the reverse through the tops of OF to the wing and further. An important coin and worthy of a strong bid.

Estimated Value $8,000-9,000

- 138 1841-D, Sharpness of VF-30 but lightly burnished above the eagle. A rare date, only 4,164 were struck and few remain for date collectors. This one has been lightly burnished above the eagle on the reverse, and moderate circulation marks can be seen on both sides. Nice rims and decent for the grade.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 139 1842, NGC graded AU-58. An extreme rarity in high grade, only 2,823 were struck as demand apparently was very low that year. Only 2 coins are reported in the NGC and PCGS Population Reports, each grades MS-62 (the same coin?) and even in AU, this is an extremely rare coin. NGC reports only 2 have been graded this high, while PCGS has graded 2 a notch below, but none as AU-58 from that service. As a date collector, experience will no doubt show that very few are offered, and most collectors fail to locate an example of this extremely rare date. No signs of die cracks or wear, as not enough were struck. An important offering for the specialist who demands the finest available

Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

Choice AU 1842-D Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

- 1240 1842-D, PCGS graded AU-55. With a mintage trickle of 4,643 coinage stopped for the year. This is one of the top 20 known, with none yet graded as full Mint State by either PCGS or NGC. Boldly struck for this Mint, with full device detail throughout. We note minor handling marks on the surfaces, and delicate coppery tones on the few worn curl tips. Luster in the fields, and a choice coin for the advanced specialist. The PCGS Population Report shows 6 graded this high, with a scant 4 graded in AU-58, and again, none higher.

Estimated Value $9,000-11,000

The Finest Known 1843-C Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

- 1241 1843-C. Large date, plain 4. PCGS graded MS-64. This coin is simply stunning, the surfaces are very choice for the grade and the luster is unbroken. Examination will note a few trivial ticks here and there, but none deep or worth describing. This is the finest graded example yet seen, it previously was offered in Heritage's February 1999 sale where it was NGC graded MS-64. When this piece came to us, we sent it to PCGS to cross it over into their holder, which they did without hesitation. We note this coin is far better than those offered in the massive Harry Bass Jr., auctions by Bowers and Merena the last few years, and therefore we can only conclude that this particular coin is the Finest Known of the date. Initially the Charlotte Mint struck small date coins, only 2,988 were delivered in April, 1843. Then the large date dies were delivered to Charlotte and coinage began again. The large date pieces were delivered from June 30 through December 30. Only 23,076 were struck and most circulated. Only a couple have been graded as mint state, and this is far and away the finest seen. A foremost opportunity for the advanced numismatist.
Estimated Value $40,000-UP

- 1242 1843-D. Sharpness of AU-50 but carefully repaired on the face and neck. The face and neck of Liberty have been carefully repaired, probably to remove circulation marks. This can scarcely be detected, and a glass and careful examination is needed to see the work done. Still a rare date, and seldom offered in any grade. Well struck.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

Condition Rarity 1844-C

Enlarged

- 1243 1844-C. PCGS graded AU-58. One of the finest graded of this date, 11,662 were struck and few survive in high grades. This one is well struck by the dies, with full details on Liberty and minor weakness on the lower eagle. Yellow gold in color and with the usual and expected handling ticks. PCGS has graded 4 this high, with just 3 graded higher.
Estimated Value $6,000-8,000

The Great Charlotte Robbery Year, 1844-C

Enlarged

- 1244 1844-C. PCGS graded AU-58. Mintage of only 11,662 as the Charlotte Mint was burglarized on July 27, 1844 and the Mint was burned down as a cover. It took two years to get the Mint rebuilt and coining again. Needless to say, coinage was interrupted abruptly by this event. We note minor weakness in the strike, with the fine details soft on Liberty and the eagle. Nice luster near the devices, and the usual minor hairlines and handling ticks from even brief circulation. Liberty has some faint scratches on her face and others in the fields, but these are scarcely worthy of note. Downright rare this nice and virtually unobtainable better. PCGS has graded 5 this high, with only 3 higher. NGC has graded only 1 as AU-58, with none higher. That makes this coin well up in the top dozen known for the date.

Estimated Value $6,000-8,000

Nice Mint State 1846-C

Enlarged

- 1245 1846-C. PCGS graded MS-62. One of the finest graded of this rare date, only 4,808 were struck and this is well within the top half dozen known. Struck from rusted dies with small lumps noted around the date and upper obverse, similar on the reverse with rust noted in the fields. This die state is identical to the Eliasberg-Bass coin offered in 1999, which is PCGS graded MS-64. Only 2 coins grade higher than this particular example, and just 2 have been graded MS-62 by PCGS. Struck with clash marks on the reverse, above the eagle, and with generally clean fields and devices for the moderate grade assigned. An important opportunity for the specialist.

Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

- 1246 1846-D. NGC graded AU-58. This is one of the scarce "double D" Mintmark examples discovered by Harry Bass some years ago. The Mintmark was cut into the die far to the left, then moved way to the right where it was firmly punched in place. Sharply struck from dies that exhibit clash marks and a light die crack through the reverse legends. We note a curious mark on the rim between stars four and five, which appears to be part of a large 8.

As a variety, this is a very rare coin and one of the top grades found, and almost certainly well up in the Condition Census for the variety. Tied with the finest offered in the recent Bass Sale, and a worthy coin for the specialist.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1247 1847-C. VF-25. This one was likely cleaned in the distant past and the surfaces have the usual circulation marks. Scarce and desirable from this mint, with a low issue of 23,226.
Estimated Value $350-450

From the ANA sale by Leo Young, August 26-29, 1959, lot 455 with envelope.

One of the Finest Known 1848 Quarter Eagles

Enlarged

- 1248 1848. PCGS graded MS-63. This is an overlooked coin because of the 1848 "CAL." issue. Nevertheless, this is one of the 3 finest graded by PCGS, with none graded higher! Choice original luster in the fields and well struck by the dies, with sharp stars around Liberty, and even her tiny curls are bold. Similar on the reverse, with fine details on the eagle and few signs of weakness anywhere to be found. A condition rarity that is seldom found in grades even approaching this.
Estimated Value $12,000-15,000

- 1249 1848. NGC graded MS-61. Back in 1958 "J. F. Bell" circulated a want list for this date. No dealers could locate an example, and the hunt was on (Breen). Despite a mintage of 7,497, few are found today. Breen notes this date is "Ex. rare AU" and doesn't even mention mint state coins. Similar readings from the grading services, NGC has only graded 3 this high, with 7 graded higher. Not many coins to satisfy a country full of date collectors! Orange-gold toning and minimal hairlines and surface problems, despite the rather moderate grade.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Condition Census 1848-D in Mint State

Enlarged

- 1250 1848-D. PCGS graded MS-62. Here is a nice coin for the grade, only 13,771 were struck, and this is one of the very nicest to come down through the ages to today's collector. We note a couple of minor ticks, one on the obverse in the field behind Liberty's lowest curl, on the reverse there is a scrape on the AM of AMERICA. Liberty's cheek, and the field nearby is quite nice and has the appearance of a higher grade. PCGS has graded 5 this high, with just a single coin graded higher, so this is clearly one of the best of the issue.
The date logotype is punched in a bit left, with the top of the 1 touching Liberty's truncation, and just missing the denticle below. Both the obverse and reverse dies appear to be dishd or basined, as seen on the Harry Bass example of this date.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

- 1251 1850. VF-25. Minor handling marks on both sides, but still decent coin for the moderate grade assigned.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 1252 1850. VF-25. Fresh from circulation and undiminished since then.
Estimated Value $120-140

Uncirculated 1850-C

Enlarged

- 1253 1850-C. NGC graded MS-60. As the Nineteenth century crossed its midpoint, the Charlotte Mint coined 9,148 of these. The economy was in good shape at that time, and most entered circulation and worked hard. A few were saved for various reasons, and not spent repeatedly. Here is such a coin, the surfaces have minor handling ticks and we note trivial roughness on the upper devices, perhaps from when the planchet was rolled or due to die rust and wear. NGC has graded 3 as such, with 6 more graded as MS-61, and a single coin as MS-63 above. Another rare and desirable coin for the specialist. Color photo.
Estimated Value $10,000-13,000

- 54 1850-C. NGC graded AU-55. A sputtering 9,148 were coined in 1850 from the Charlotte Mint, not many survive today. This one has decent surfaces which retain the usual and customary ticks and light scratches that are always attracted to the soft gold coins of the era. Well struck, from heavily clashed dies. We note 4 eagle's wings in the right obverse field behind Liberty's ear, as the reverse die clashed and rotated a bit during the coining of these. NGC has awarded this grade to 12 coins, with 21 graded higher, most of those as AU-58.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500
- 55 1852 (2 pieces). One grades VF-30, the other EF-40. One has deep coppery toning while the other may have been lightly cleaned. Lot of 2 coins
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1256 1852-C. NGC graded AU-58. Another example of this scarce date in high grade, this one has some luster in the fields and moderate handling ticks. Fairly well struck for Mint, but minor softness is noted on the eagle. One thin scratch down through Liberty can be seen with a glass. NGC has graded 10 this high, with only 3 graded higher.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1257 1852-C. NGC graded AU-58. Bright yellow gold and untoned, examination will note average surface marks and the usual softness in the strike. One of just 10 so graded by NGC, with 3 graded higher. This one of the best of those offered in this sale, which contains a small hoard of high grade examples of this date.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1258 1852-C. PCGS graded AU-55. Well struck for this date, which is often found weak at the centers. We do note some faint surface scratches in the fields, and the devices seem to have a graininess a bit more than one would expect for the grade. PCGS has graded 7 this high, with 3 graded in AU-58 and just 3 more graded in various MS grades.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1259 1853. VF-30. Decent surfaces.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 1260 1854-C. NGC graded AU-55. While the mintage of 7,295 was decimated by its tiny brother from San Francisco (mintage 246) this one deserves attention in its own right. Sharp on the stars and Liberty, minor weakness on the eagle's fine feathers. One small nick on Liberty's cheek, and another near the rim at the top of the obverse. Luster in the fields, and typical handling marks elsewhere. One of 9 graded by NGC this high, with 24 graded above.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Rare 1855-D

Enlarged

- 1261 1855-D. PCGS graded AU-55. A rarity in any grade, Dahlonega ticked off just 1,123 when the counter stopped for the year. Here is one of the finest, with nice surfaces and pleasing color on both sides. Quickly identifiable by planchet laminations and a crack on the upper obverse, not affecting the design or stars, but close. PCGS has graded 11 this high, with one in AU-58 above, and 3 more as MS-60. There are none graded higher by PCGS or NGC. One for the specialist.
Estimated Value $14,000-17,000

- 1262 1856. NGC graded MS-62. Well struck on the devices and the fields retain flashy mint luster. Scarce in any mint state grade, this would make an excellent type coin in this affordable grade.
Estimated Value $500-700

- 1263 1856-O. PCGS graded AU-58 Bass. Nicely struck by the dies, with good definition on the stars and rounded curls on Liberty. Minor flatness on the eagle and trouble free wear for the brief time in circulation. Nicer surfaces than usually seen on early mintmarked gold of the era. PCGS has graded just 6 this high, with only 2 graded higher, making this one of the finest to survive.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

From Bowers and Merena's Harry Bass II Sale.

- 1264 1856-S. NGC graded MS-61. The digit 6 in the date is a bit bigger than the surrounding digits. Well struck and preserved with few signs of handling. We note one minor scrape in the field near the second to the last star inner point, and on the reverse we note just the usual ticks in the open field areas. Sharply struck on the obverse, with each star complete and even the small curls on Liberty nicely rounded. A bit weaker on the high points of the reverse, where softness is visible on the high points. One of 4 graded as such by NGC, with 9 graded higher.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000
- 1265 1857-O. VF-25. There is a pin scratch in the lower left obverse field.
Estimated Value $150-175

Rare Mint State 1852-C

Enlarged

- 1266 1858-C. PCGS graded MS-62. One of the top graded pieces of this scarce date, PCGS has awarded this grade to just 10 coins, with a single coin graded higher. As noted in the Harry Bass Sale (part 2) under lot 501, the various grading service population reports are becoming more and more skewed as the same coins are resubmitted many times, making rarities appear to be "common" by virtue of the high numbers recorded as the same coin is sent in over and over until the desired grade is achieved. It is possible that there are 10 different MS-62 specimens out there in PCGS holders, but there may be far fewer, we just don't know. This coin is identifiable by a small tick mark under the forward tip of Liberty's bust, and a small rim scrape above ST of STATE in the denticles.
Estimated Value $10,000-15,000

- 267 1859 Type 1 Reverse. NGC graded MS-61. This old style reverse is scarcer than the updated one used from midyear onward. NGC has graded 9 as such, with 7 graded higher. A nice coin for the grade, with clean surfaces and only minor ticks.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

- 268 1860-C. NGC graded AU-58. Moderate circulation marks on the surfaces, but still lustrous and well preserved. A touch of friction on the upper curls of Liberty, and on the eagles feathers too. We note minor die rust on the reverse, which gives the appearance of planchet laminations around the eagle. Rare in this grade, NGC has graded 7 as such, with 7 graded higher.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 269 1861. NGC graded MS-62. Yellow-gold luster in the fields and well struck, we note a light haze of toning over the luster. Scarce this nice.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 270 1861. MS-60. Clean surfaces and lustrous.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 271 1861-S. PCGS graded AU-55. Just 24,000 struck and few were saved. This one boasts a strong strike and clean surfaces for the grade. PCGS has graded only 8 as such, with 9 graded higher.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

- 272 1861-S. PCGS graded AU-55 Bass. Choice color and surfaces throughout, although the coin may have been very lightly wiped at some point in the past. Boldly struck for a San Francisco product, with full details on all the high points. One of 8 so graded by PCGS, with 7 graded a notch higher, and 2 graded in various MS grades.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

From Bowser and Merenda's Harry Bass II Sale

Overdate 1862/1 in Mint State

Enlarged

- 1273 1862. 2 over 1. PCGS graded MS-62. One of the very finest known of this rare overdate issue, PCGS has graded just 2 coins this high, with none graded higher. When Walter Breen wrote his Encyclopedia (published in 1988), he noted about this date "Possibly 12 known, none Unc." Today, a few more have turned up, but this is certainly amongst the best! The surfaces are highly lustrous and the bagmarks are typical for the grade. As to the overdate, it is clear with the aid of a glass. Discovered by Aubrey E. Bebee in 1962, it took 100 years since the date of issue to notice this curious feature. Certainly a foremost opportunity to purchase a very rare coin. Identifiable by a minor surface mark in the field above the last two stars and a copper spot below the denomination on the reverse. Color photo.
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

High Grade 1862/1 Overdate

Enlarged

- 1274 1862. 2 over 1. PCGS graded MS-62. Wonder of wonders, here are the two known MS-62 1862/1 quarter eagles in the same auction. These are interesting times. This one has flashy luster and clean surfaces for the grade, and the overdate feature is clear with the aid of a glass. The 1 was partially effaced at the Mint, and does show when examined. This one is identifiable by a small edge nick above the fourth star. Nice luster and surfaces, and well struck.

Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

Important 1865 High Grade Rarity

Enlarged

- 1277 1865. NGC graded AU-58. This is one of the finest graded by NGC, with a total of 5 graded as such. Struck from polished dies which tend to magnify every tiny tick mark in the fields, even after brief circulation. There are two marks that need mentioning here, a short scratch on Liberty's bust, and a couple of scrapes below her bust point near the first star. Sharply struck and scarce in this grade as only 1,520 were struck, and just a handful survived in all grades.

Estimated Value $15,000-UP

- 1275 1862-S. NGC graded AU-58. Tied for the finest seen by NGC, this important coin grades in a tight cluster of 21 pieces which just miss the mint state qualifications of NGC. Better than average surfaces and a good strike add to the appeal of this scarce coin. 8,000 were struck and just a handful remain in high grade.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 1276 1863-S. NGC graded AU-58. Mint luster near the stars and well struck by the dies. We note a minor tick mark or two on Liberty's cheek, but it blends in nicely with the surrounding surfaces. Note the strong curls on Liberty's head, and also sharp on the reverse eagle, with just a few signs of weakness on the thigh. As a date, this is very difficult to obtain better than this, in fact NGC reports they have graded 8 this high, with just 4 graded higher. PCGS is similar, they have graded 6 as AU-58, and 2 higher. Keep that thought when calculating a bid.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1278 1866. PCGS graded AU-53. A condition rarity in this grade only 3 have been graded as AU-53 by PCGS, with 3 graded AU-55. Above that grade, we see 2 graded MS-64. Breen notes this date is "prohibitively rare above EF", to which we concur. This one is well struck on the obverse, and on the reverse we note a weak area below the eagle's tail extending into the denomination, this appears to be as struck and perhaps the dies were clogged with grease, or the planchet wasn't properly prepared. An important offering that will no doubt command a strong price.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 1279 1866-S. NGC graded AU-53. Frosty luster in the fields near the devices which seems to outline them a bit more in these protected areas. Ever present handling marks in the fields and on the devices, and both dies show signs of clashing. Well struck and a rare coin in high grades. NGC in their population report notes 3 grades this high with 10 graded higher.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 180 1867-S. PCGS graded MS-61. Well struck for this era, but the eighth star is weak on the obverse, as is the eagle's thigh. Liberty's cheek has some minor ticks on it, expected for the grade, but this coin has nice color and surfaces better than average. PCGS has graded 3 this high, with just 3 graded higher. Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

*One of the Finest Known
1876-S Quarter Eagles*

- 1281 1876-S. PCGS graded MS-63. Mintage of just 5,000 coins, all from one pair of dies for 1876-S. There is a short "bar" on Liberty's neck, as seen on all original coins of this date and mint. Mint fresh luster in the fields, and with a lovely yellow-gold color throughout. One scrape above the first star in the field, and with the usual softness on Liberty's curls and especially on the eagle, as seen on the few high grade examples known. PCGS has graded 4 this high, with none graded higher. NGC hasn't graded any as high as MS-64, and none higher. Therefore, this is high in the condition census, and is tied for the finest known of the date. Estimated Value $7,000-9,000

- 82 1878 (2 pieces). Both grade VF-30. A nice original copper toned pair. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 83 1878-S (2 pieces). Both grade EF-40. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 84 1880. PCGS graded MS-63 "Bass". Mintage of 2,960 in all, with just 6 graded by PCGS and 8 graded higher. Well struck by the dies, and from the important Harry Bass Jr. sale recently. Minor staining on the obverse from past storage. Estimated Value $2,700-3,000

Ex Bowers and Merena's Harry Bass Jr. Sale

Cameo Proof 1883 Gem

Enlarged

- 1285 1883. NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. A magnificent gem proof for the numismatist to covet and enjoy. The devices are deeply frosted and have earned the "cameo" designation from the graders at NGC. Just 82 were coined, and most fall into the choice or below category. NGC reports 7 graded this high with 4 graded higher of this date. To identify this coin, note there is a tiny mark on Liberty's cheek just below and behind her mouth, she also has some coppery toning on her eye, and another tiny tick mark on her neck above the left side of the first 8 in the date. On the reverse we note a tiny planchet flake near the left upright serif of the U of UNITED. As a type coin, this would make a superb choice for its color and abundant eye-appeal. Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

Gem Proof 1891 Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

- 1286 1891. PCGS graded Proof 65. As 1891 unfolded, orders for proof coins were fairly low. Just 80 pieces were ordered and struck. This is one of the better ones to come down to us. Well mirrored fields which boast the curious orange-peel texture and nicely frosted devices. Boldly struck on every tiny detail, as the Philadelphia Mint was showing off what a top quality coin should look like. Despite their best efforts, most of these proofs were mishandled over the years, some were carelessly cleaned, others dropped or even spent as the various depressions rolled across the land. Thus, to find a "gem" proof is quite a feat, and decidedly few qualify at that level today. PCGS has graded 10 this high, with a single coin graded higher. This one shows faint hairlines in the fields and the toning is a bit cloudy. As noted in Breen's Encyclopedia, most of the proofs show recut digits on the 891 in the date at the base. Color photo.
Estimated Value $9,000-10,000

- 1287 1895. MS-63 or better. Abundant luster and well struck for this date, the surfaces are quite beautiful. The only minor problem we note are faint hairlines, especially on the obverse, but these can only be seen when tilted in a light, which confirms how truly faint they are.
Estimated Value $400-500

The Finest PCGS Proof 1903

Enlarged

- 1288 1903. PCGS graded Proof 67. Simply put, this is one of the finest graded 1903 quarter eagles. The surfaces approach perfection, and the mirror fields and devices show virtually no contact marks or hairlines. Effectively, this coin is as nice as the day it was coined. Of the 197 struck, this is the only example graded this high by PCGS. NGC has graded a single coin as PR-67 too, but there are no others higher. Therefore, if you want the best, you should buy this coin. Deep gold in color and perfectly struck. Unimprovable quality is seldom offered, and always commands a premium. Color photo.
Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

- 1289 1903. PCGS graded MS-64. A frosty near-gem that boasts great luster and color. In the old style small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $500-550
- 1290 1903. MS-60. Nice color and surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1291 1903. AU-58. This one has just a hint of wear.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 1292 1905. MS-64. Fresh mint luster and just a couple of tiny hairlines visible with a glass. Boldly struck by the dies and perfect for the date set or type collection.
Estimated Value $500-550
- 1293 1905. MS-60. One dark toning area near the right wing of the eagle.
Estimated Value $225-250
- 1294 1905. AU-58. A few handling marks and light hairlines from new.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 1295 1907 (2 pieces). Both grade MS-60. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 1296 1907. Sharpness of MS-60. The edge is irregular and mishandled.
Estimated Value $150-200

$2.50 Indian

- 97 1908. PCGS graded MS-65. The surfaces on this one are really nice for a change. Typically we see abraded fields and devices, not so here, all is fresh and clean, with a gentle overlay of copper tones. Seldom found in full gem condition, the first year of issue would make an excellent type coin or start of a date collection.

Estimated Value $1,800-2,000

- 98 1908. PCGS graded MS-65. Satiny and bright, this untuned coin has excellent fields and clean devices. One minor scuff over the eagle's head and another in the field before the forehead of Liberty.

Estimated Value $1,800-2,000

- 99 1908. PCGS graded MS-63. Excellent surfaces for the grade, but with slight weakness on the eagle's wing as usual for the date.

Estimated Value $450-550

- 100 1908. PCGS graded AU-58 Premium Quality. We note very little wear on this one, just a bit on the eagle's upper wingtip. Nice gold color and clean surfaces.

Estimated Value $200-UP

- 101 1909. PCGS graded MS-65. Golden toning and loads of luster. Well struck and a slightly better date.

Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

- 102 1909. PCGS graded MS-63. A few trivial hairlines and scuffs, but a very choice piece overall. Nice color and surfaces.

Estimated Value $600-700

- 103 1909. PCGS graded MS-62. Light gold toning on both sides and decent surfaces for the moderate grade.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 104 1909. PCGS graded MS-62. Bright and lustrous with mint fresh luster.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 1305 1910. PCGS graded MS-62. This one is in the old green insert PCGS holder, nice luster and color.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 1306 1911. PCGS graded MS-64.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,150

- 1307 1911, 1914-D, 1915 and 1927. These grade AU-50 to 55. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 1308 1911. PCGS graded MS-62. Minor scuffs and handling marks, but nice luster and color.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 1309 1911. AU-50.

Estimated Value $125-150

- 1310 1912. PCGS graded MS-62. Some of the usual stacking marks, nice luster in the fields.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 1311 1913. ICG graded MS-65. Some stacking marks on the upper devices, and with fresh luster throughout.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 1312 1913. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright luster and well struck.

Estimated Value $700-750

- 1313 1913. PCGS graded MS-62. Some stacking marks, and fairly typical of the grade standard of PCGS.

Estimated Value $225-250

- 1314 1914 and 1914-D. One grades EF-40, the other EF-45. The 1914-D has a weak mintmark. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $275-325

- 1315 1914-D. PCGS graded MS-63. One of the scarcer dates in mint state, this one boasts excellent surfaces and color.

Estimated Value $800-900

- 1316 1914-D. PCGS graded AU-58. A touch of handling on both sides, and with a bit of wear on the high points.

Estimated Value $140-150

- 1317 1915. ICG graded MS-65. Mint fresh luster and well struck, we note some faint hairlines in the reverse fields, but no contact mark problems.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,100

- 1318 1925-D and 1926. Both grade MS-60 or better. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $375-425

- 1319 1925-D. PCGS graded MS-62. A few thin hairlines on the reverse, nice luster.
Estimated Value $225-250

Indian Quarter Eagle Set

- 1320 Indian Quarter Eagle Set, 1908 to 1929. This set grades AU to MS-60+. It is mounted in black Capital Plastics holder, and the coins are well matched. The 1911-D is a normal "D" mintmark, not the weak D variety. Always popular with collectors, this is one of the few affordable gold sets that can be completed. Lot of 15 coins.
Estimated Value $3,000-UP

Indian Quarter Eagle Set

- 1321 Complete Indian quarter eagle set, 1908 through 1929. This set grades EF to AU. The 1911-D grades AU-58. A few of the coins may have been cleaned, mounted in a Capital Plastics holder. Lot of 15 coins.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 1322 1929. PCGS graded MS-63. Fresh luster and clean surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 1323 1929. MS-60. Nice original color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $175-200

$3 Gold

- 1324 1854. EF-45. Well struck on the devices but minor hairline noted from circulation.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 1325 1854. EF-45. This coin is from an old time collection and was obviously put away years ago. The surfaces are quite original and totally problem free.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 1326 1854. EF-40. Nice color and surfaces for the date collector.
Estimated Value $450-550

- 1327 1854-O. NGC graded EF-45. A scant 24,000 were coined and most circulated into lower grades. This one has a few stray hairline scratches, and other typical handling marks expected for the grade. The strike is average for the date and nearly all luster was worn away by circulation.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

- 1328 1856-S. NGC graded AU-58. Nearly impossible to locate in full mint state, this lovely AU-58 example should find many potential bidders. Minor scrapes and handling marks on both sides, well struck throughout and will show some luster in the field. One of 29 graded this high by NGC, with just 4 graded higher, making this one of the finest available for collectors.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 1329 1859. AU-55. Not quite mint state, although most of the luster is present and the coin is appealing. An important date, struck 100 years before this cataloguer was born.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 130 1860-S. PCGS graded AU-53. During 1860, San Francisco experienced some production problems and many of the Three Dollar gold pieces struck were light in weight. It was later decided to melt them down, thus reducing the net number coined to 4,408. The surfaces of this coin are prooflike but do show moderate lines from brief circulation. Further, someone has scratched off something between the IC of AMERICA, but this is minor. This is a fully struck example of this rare date and should find a welcome place in an advanced collection.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 31 1862. PCGS graded MS-63. One of just 7 graded this high by PCGS, with only 7 graded higher. Lovely surfaces and luster, and from an old time collection which recently surfaced. Fully struck throughout, and an important Civil War issue.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Choice AU 1873 Closed 3

- 1332 1873. Closed 3. NGC graded AU-58. A rare coin in high grades, only a couple are known in various mint state grades. This one has minor handling marks scattered about, a good, strong strike on the devices, and delicate copper toning. NGC has graded 9 this high, with just 4 graded higher. Don't miss out if you need this date.

Estimated Value $7,500-10,000

- 33 1874. EF-45. A fresh and original lightly circulated example.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 4 1874. EF-45. Minor hairlines, with some copper toning around the edges. Nicely struck.

Estimated Value $450-550

Rare 1878 Proof Three Dollar Gold

Enlarged

- 1335 1878. PCGS graded Proof 64. An extremely rare coin in proof, the Philadelphia Mint reports just 20 were coined! This one is probably in the top ten known of the date, with PCGS reporting 6 graded as such with 4 graded higher. Fewer at NGC, they report a single coin graded as PF-64, with 2 graded higher. This one has excellent surfaces but the fields do show hairlines when examined with a glass. As to the coin it boasts lovely mint frost on the devices and the fields show few tick marks from handling, even under the scrutiny of a strong glass. Identifiable by a tiny mark left of the base of the 1 in the date. With the familiar and beautiful "orange peel" fields that have a crackled appearance from some special process used during the period. In an old green insert PCGS holder and a wonderful coin in every way.

Estimated Value $18,000-20,000

- 1336 1878. PCGS graded AU-58 Premium Quality. This one is problem free for the grade and would make an excellent type coin for this unusual denomination.

Estimated Value $700-800

- 1337 1878. PCGS graded AU-58. Nearly mint state and with just a hint of rub on the high points of the devices. Nice color and surfaces.

Estimated Value $700-800

- 1338 1878. AU-50. With two spots of green on the reverse. Nice luster and good color.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 1339 1880. MS-60. Slightly prooflike with mirror fields and only minor handling marks. Well struck by the dies, and downright rare as a date. Just 1,000 were struck.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

One of 800 Coined and Still a Gem

Enlarged

- 1340 1885. NGC graded MS-65. This is one of the finest coins of this date graded by NGC. Only 4 have been graded as MS-65, with none graded higher. PCGS has seen a few more, grading 9 as MS-65 and 5 a grade higher. Check out the mintage of this date, 800 coins! 800 struck for circulation, and somehow quite a few were saved as this curious denomination dwindled down to its end. We note minor handling marks in the fields, and identifiable by a spot below the U of UNITED, and another on the reverse above the outside leaf point on the left side of the wreath. Well struck and preserved, with blazing luster and a clean cheek on Liberty.
Estimated Value $12,000-15,000

Lovely Cameo Proof 1886

Enlarged

- 1341 1886. NGC graded Proof 64 Cameo. The Philadelphia Mint reports 142 were struck in Proof, of those the best retain a cameo appearance from the dies. To obtain the cameo appearance, the dies were first dipped in a light acid, which etches the surfaces, then the dies were cleaned and dried, and the high points (the fields) were then polished to a mirror smoothness. Thus, when a coin is struck, the fields are reflective and smooth, while the devices show tiny raised areas, with a pebbly appearance, which give the devices a frosted appearance from the brief acid bath. The cameo effect is quite beautiful, and when done well as offered here, makes a proof coin quite stunning in appearance. Identifiable by a tiny mark in the field below the I of AMERICA and another centered in the field under Liberty. NGC has graded 31 this high, with 18 graded higher.
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

Lovely Gem Proof 1887 $3

Enlarged

- 1342 1887. PCGS graded Proof 65. A lovely gem example of this rare date. Philadelphia coined 160 in proof for the year, of which PCGS in their recent Population Report note only 14 graded this high, with 9 graded higher (all PR-66). The devices show abundant frost while the mirror fields are clean, and show no handling marks aside from very light hairlines. If you love pristine coins, then take a look at this gem.
Estimated Value $16,000-18,000

Gem Proof 1888

Enlarged

- 1343 1888. PCGS graded Proof 65. Mintages peaked out in 1888 from proof $3s, a total of 291 were coined and this is one of the few gems to survive. Frosty devices provide good contrast with the mirror fields, and all are well preserved. Minor hairlines and a couple of tick marks from perfection. We note some minor roughness in the die (as struck) on the last A of AMERICA. PCGS has graded 31 this high, with just 18 graded higher (all PR 66). In an old small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $16,000-18,000

- 1344 1888. MS-60+, Bright and lustrous, with minor hairlines from a much higher grade. Delicate gold toning on both sides.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,800

- 1345 1795. Small eagle, Miller-9, Rarity-4, VF-20. Cleaned long ago and nice today for the grade. The surfaces show no other problems, and the wear is smooth and even. This is an important first year of issue type, and the first year the denomination was coined. Clean rims and generally problem free for the grade, aside from the minor cleaning.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

Near Mint State 1796/5 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1346 1796. Small eagle, 6 over 5, Miller-16, Rarity-5. PCGS graded AU-55. Here is a very rare coin that has been off the market for quite some time. The surfaces are better than average for the grade, but not quite choice, as minimal handling marks can be seen with the aid of a glass. Note the fine engraving of both the obverse and reverse, each star is full, and great care was taken in the placement of each so that no point overlapped the neighboring star, and the tenth star just touches Liberty's cap. Similar on the lettering, some touch, others just miss each other. The engraver had some trouble with AME, and the serifs of the M overlap both surrounding letters as there simply was not enough space to squeeze all three in without overlapping the eagle's wing. As to the overdate, it is clear with the aid of magnification, with the large 5 partially hidden beneath the 6. Free of adjustment marks or other problems, just minor handling ticks from brief circulation. Identifiable by a small tick between the second star and Liberty's curl, and another vertical mark in her drapery above the 7. On the reverse, we note a dull mark at the top of the F in OF. Most of the breast feathers are present on the eagle, and the coin shows complete detail throughout.
Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

Purchased from Abner Kreisberg many years ago, a few blocks up the street from our offices on Beverly Drive.

$5 Gold

- 147 1798. Large eagle, large 8, 13 star reverse, Miller-31, Rarity-5, EF-45. This is a later die state, which is very rare, note the reverse die crack between S and OF and another extending down to the eagle's head. The star cross pattern in the stars over the eagle's head is very unusual, and makes for quick identification. Probably cleaned long ago as the fields are too reflective. Red and copper toning around the date, and well struck by the dies.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Choice Mint State 1806 Pointed 6 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1348 1806. Pointed top 6, Miller-79, Rarity-6, 8 X 5 stars. PCGS graded MS-63. This is an important type coin which is downright hard to find in mint state grades. Frosty luster abounds in the fields, and the surfaces are generally clean, keeping this in the choice category. This one is even free of the usual annoying adjustment marks, which are common on these early half eagles. An excellent coin to study, as the surfaces have no toning and each diagnostic is clear. Struck late in the reverse dies life, with a retained cud over the T in UNITED. PCGS has graded 16 this high, with just 3 graded higher, making this one of the best around.

Estimated Value $14,000-18,000

- 1349 1806. Round top 6, Miller-84, Rarity-2. PCGS graded AU-58. One thin scratch on Liberty's bust and well struck by the dies. Nice luster in the fields and well preserved. One of the most common half eagles, but still scarce.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 1350 1808 Miller-107, Rarity-3. PCGS graded AU-55. Nice luster and a decent strike on this one. No signs of adjustment mark or other problems, the rims, devices and fields are all clean for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

The Finest Graded 1818 5D Over 50

Enlarged

- 1351 1818. 5D over 50, Miller-125, Rarity-6. PCGS graded MS-65. This is the Finest Graded by either service! The surfaces of this magnificent gem are toned with hazy yellow hues that surround and enhance the devices. Each star and curl are fully struck on the obverse, and similar on the reverse where there is slight weakness on the eagle's craggy claws. Close examination notes a few trivial ticks on both sides, mostly in the fields, with the most notable behind the eagle's neck in the field. Liberty's face is quite clean. A curious die error, the engraver first cut the denomination as "50" instead of 5 D. perhaps thinking he was engraving a half dollar reverse instead of a half eagle die. The error was noticed, and the appropriate D. (for Dollars) was engraved over the errant 0. This is the only coin graded this high by PCGS of the variety, and there are none graded higher, making this likely the finest known, and certainly the finest graded. Color photo.
Estimated Value $125,000-175,000

Mint State 1818 5D Over 50

Enlarged

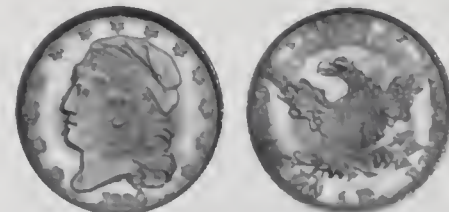

- 1352 1818. 5D over 50, Miller-125, Rarity-6, NGC graded MS-61. With typical bagmarks expected for the grade and well struck by the dies. The mispunched denomination is quite sharp, and the O sticks out on the left side of the proper D. Obviously the engraver was thinking half dollar, and not half eagle, when this reverse die was engraved! A popular error and well worth a good price. NGC has graded just 1 as such, with 6 graded higher.
Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

Gem 1830 Large 5D Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1353 1830. Large 5D, Miller-158, High rarity-6. NGC graded MS-65. This stunning coin boasts lovely copper toning near the devices over lustrous fields. Liberty has a satiny appearance and shows no blemishes despite her age. Her broad cheek is shows no bagmarks or heavy scuffs. If one must find fault, the fields have minor hairlines, but not enough to keep this out of the gem class. Similar on the reverse, the proud eagle shows all feathers proudly, and the surfaces and fields show faint signs of handling. The toning on this coin is outstanding. As to the strike, it is full and complete, without weakness even on the upper curls of Liberty. This is an early die state, and fine die polishing lines can be seen, as well as recutting on stars eight, nine and twelve. Similar on the reverse, where recut letters can be seen and the D in the denomination has recutting noted on the inside upper curve, and on the upper post, just below the serif.

Without question, this is a very rare coin in any grade. NGC has graded just 5 of this variety. PCGS has graded only 11 of this date (PCGS does not differentiate between the Large 5D and Small 5D). Of the entire group of 16 coins graded, this one is the Finest, and almost certainly the Finest Known. PCGS has graded two 1830 half eagles as high as MS-64, the next level down for NGC is MS-63. Therefore, if you want clearly the finest, then here is the coin for you. Obviously most were melted or lost from the original mintage of 126,351.

Identifiable by a tiny planchet flake on and below the second leaf from the top on the reverse, and currently in NGC holder #380363-011. Color photo.

Estimated Value

$100,000+UP

Near Gem 1834 Half Eagle

- 1354 1834. Plain 4. NGC graded MS-64. As a type coin this is an important and available date, even in this delightful state of preservation. Note the mint fresh luster in the fields and satiny face on Liberty. Well struck too, with full radial lines on each star, but some trivial central weakness is noted on Liberty's curls and the reverse shield and feather tips. Unlike most examples of this date, the fields and devices show very few signs of handling, normally these are found pretty baggy, and to obtain a near gem is well worth the premium over lower grades. NGC has graded 44 this high, with 5 graded higher. Hence, this is about as high a grade as one could expect to find, a notch higher and the price goes way up, and far fewer are known. Take time to view this lovely golden jewel and see if its the coin for you.

Estimated Value $9,000-11,000

- 1355 1834. Plain 4. PCGS graded AU-55. A beautiful example for the type collector, the surfaces are clean for the grade and some luster resides near the lettering and devices. Boldly struck with crisp details on the stars and curls. We note minor hairlines from circulation or handling.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 1356 1834. Plain 4 and 1836. PCGS graded AU-53. The 1834 grades VF-25, the 1836 grades VF-30. There is a die crack from the rim near the fifth star down through Liberty's ear. Both are average for the grade. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 1357 1835. MS-60 Plus. Light cleaning hairlines as always seen on coins of this grade, but the surfaces are better than many. Nice gold color and relatively free of handling marks. Well struck and preserved, and perfect for the type collector.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Lustrous 1839 Half Eagle

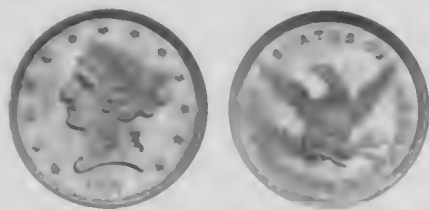

Enlarged

- 1358 1839. NGC graded MS-64. One of the finest graded of the date, with none graded higher by either grading service (NGC or PCGS). The fields show flashy mint luster and the devices are frosty. Minor handling marks are present, but none are deep or problematic. Sharply struck on all but a single star. Mellow gold in color, with a minor copper speck on the reverse. An impressive example of this first year of issue of the new type. NGC has graded only 6 this high, while PCGS has only graded a single coin this high. Breen notes two rust pits on Liberty's neck, one behind her love lock, the other at the base of her neck above the S.

Estimated Value $25,000-35,000

- 1359 1839. PCGS graded MS-62. This is the first year of issue of this long-running type. Design by Christian Gobrecht, the obverse after Benjamin West, reverse after John Reich and William Kneass. The engravers for the dies were Christian Gobrecht and James Barton Longacre. Here is one of the finest to survive of this date, PCGS has graded 5 as such, with 5 others graded a notch higher, and a single coin above that. As to the surfaces, they are flashy, with most of the luster retained despite minor hairlines from the past. Examination with a loupe notes just a few handling ticks, with Liberty's cheek and neck fresh and clean. Boldly struck at the centers, with minor weakness noted in the denticles on the edge. Perfect for the type collector who needs this first year date.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Rare Mint State 1839-C

Enlarged

- 1360 1839-C. NGC graded MS-60. Mintage for the year came in at 17,205. For a brief time the branch mints placed their mintmarks on the obverse, just above the date as seen here. Within a brief time the mintmarks were moved to the reverse, where they stayed for the rest of the century. This particular coin has nice surfaces, although there are extensive handling ticks to be expected for the grade. The strike is full at the centers and just a few stars are radial line challenged. Luster resides near the devices, and the coin has a pleasing appearance. One tiny planchet flaw below the 83 in the date will serve to identify this coin. NGC has graded 2 as such, with 5 graded higher. In NGC holder #289289-012.
Estimated Value $15,000-17,000

- 1361 1839-C. Sharpness of VF-30 but repaired on the edge at noon. This one has been lightly repaired on the edge at 12 o'clock. Well struck and with decent surfaces. We note a radial die line from Liberty's nose to the second star. Always in demand for the obverse mintmark.
Estimated Value $15,000-17,000

- 1362 1840. AU-50. This half eagle has a hidden scratch on Liberty's neck near her love lock, and another above the eagle in the field. Typical handling marks for a lightly circulated coin. Luster near the devices and well struck throughout. A scarce early issue of this popular type coin.
Estimated Value $700-800

Nearly Mint State 1840-C

Enlarged

- 1363 1840-C. NGC graded AU-58. This one is nicely struck for the date, with good center details even on the obverse, which is normally weak. Toned with lovely yellow-gold colors, especially around the periphery, and these mask several unimportant low-areas between the rim and stars. These low areas are similar to those seen on large cents of the era, and are a striking phenomenon. Although 18,956 were coined, most entered circulation and became quite worn, not so here, this one was plucked out of change and preserved for reasons unknown, and carefully passed down to us today. Quite rare this nice, NGC has graded just 5 this high, with only 3 graded higher. Don't wait for a better one, it might not turn up. An opportunity for the specialist.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

- 1364 1842. Small letters. PCGS graded AU-55. An extremely rare coin above EF in grade, this lovely AU-55 piece will certainly attract attention from knowledgeable numismatists. Minor handling marks throughout, none deep. A touch of wear on the high points, and there is a dull scrape on the 2 in the date. This issue is believed to have been the first struck and delivered on April 30, 1842, with a total mintage of 12,682. A delight for the specialist. The recent PCGS Population Report shows only 2 have been graded this high, with a single coin graded higher, none have been graded in Mint State according to that service.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

Rare Mint State 1842 Large Letters

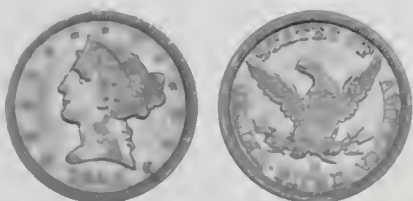

Enlarged

- 1365 1842. Large letters. PCGS graded MS-61. This is one of the finest known of the date, only a single coin has been graded higher (MS-63) by PCGS, and this coin is alone as MS-61. NGC hasn't graded any higher than AU-58. The surfaces are reflective, but the fields show numerous fine fritzies, or tiny handling marks which disturb the original surface. Near the devices, the reflective surface remains. There is some slight weakness on the lower right horizontal shield lines. Only 14,986 struck, and this is probably the second finest to survive of the entire mintage! An opportunity for the specialist to buy a true condition rarity.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

- 1366 1842-O. PCGS graded EF-45. Rare in high grade, most of these circulated down to much lower grades before being saved, or worse yet, melted! We note some minor circulation marks on Liberty and in the nearby field from the rough and tumble days in New Orleans. PCGS reports just 9 graded this high, with 7 graded higher.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

- 1367 1843-D. VF-20. Clean surfaces and appealing yellow-gold in color. We note a tiny die lump above the 3 touching Liberty's neck.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 1368 1843-D. VF-20. Average surfaces for a circulated gold coin of the period, but nice color and less wear than one would expect.
Estimated Value $400-500

Nearly Choice 1843-O

Enlarged

- 1369 1843-O. Large letters. NGC graded MS-62. Flashy and bright, with abundant luster in the fields and nicely frosted devices. The surfaces show moderate handling marks, but far fewer than one usually sees on these early half eagles. We note coppery toning on the high points of Liberty's curls and facial features. NGC in their recent Population Report shows only 3 graded as such, with 4 coins graded higher.
Estimated Value $10,000-15,000

- 1370 1844-C. NGC graded AU-58. Despite the mintage being interrupted on July 27, 1844 by a burglar, who burned down the Mint which halted production for a few years, a total of 23,631 were coined. Few survived in grades above EF, and this nearly mint state example is no doubt high in the condition census for the date. Well struck by the dies, and there are minimal handling marks on the coin. Some luster resides near the devices. NGC reports only 6 graded this high, with 4 coins graded higher.
Estimated Value $8,000-10,000
- 1371 1844-O. VF-30. Nice surfaces for the grade, with minimal handling lines on both sides.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 1372 1845-D. NGC graded AU-58. One of the more common dates from this mint, but downright hard to find in Mint State. This particular one is well struck and boasts mint fresh luster in the protected areas of the fields. Clean surfaces for the grade, with just a few minor handling ticks and not the heavy barrage often seen. One of 35 so graded by NGC, with a dozen graded higher. Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1373 1846. NGC graded MS-60. This is the small date version of the year. Typical handling marks in the fields, but with most of the luster and mint surfaces intact. Scarce in full mint state, and very few have been graded this high. NGC reports two graded higher, and this coin is alone as the only MS-60 graded of the small date variety. Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

Condition Census 1846-D Over D Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1374 1846-D. High second D over D. NGC graded MS-63. This coin is high in the Condition Census for variety, with only two coins graded higher by both NGC and PCGS. Boldly struck on the devices and with clean surfaces for the grade. The D over D feature is bold, and easily visible on the reverse. One of the top examples known of this widely published and highly collected variety, and an exciting coin for the specialist. Color photo. Estimated Value $18,000-20,000

- 1375 1846-D. High second D over D. PCGS graded AU-55. Boldly struck by the dies with complete definition on even the highest design elements, including Liberty's rounded curls and the eagle's craggy claws. The all important surfaces show minor handling marks, but are better than average even for this high grade. The mispunched D Mintmark is bold, and can clearly be seen with a glass. A recent PCGS Population Report notes just 8 graded this high, with 15 graded higher. Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1376 1847. NGC graded MS-61. Reflective in the fields, with some minor hairlines noted there. The reverse die was rotated about 30 degrees counter-clockwise when this one was coined. Scarce in mint state. Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Flashy Mint State 1847-C

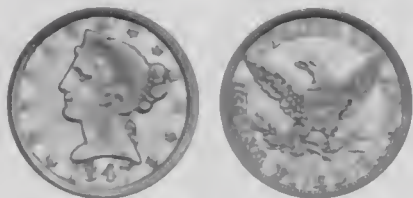

Enlarged

- 1377 1847-C. NGC graded MS-61. One of the finest of this date which is extremely rare in mint state grades. Delicate coppery toning around the periphery, and slightly reflective where the fields are undisturbed. Identifiable by a knock on the fourth star which extends to the field above. The NGC Population report notes 5 graded this high, with just 2 graded higher. Minor coppery tones also noted on the high points of the devices. Estimated Value $10,000-13,000

1378 No Lot

- 1379 1847-C, VG-8. There are some circulation marks on Liberty's face and in the right obverse field.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 1380 1847-O, PCGS graded AU-53. A small quantity of 12,000 were coined for the year, and few can even approach the quality offered here. This coin has soft gold tones over hazy and original appearing surfaces. Boldly struck, with each star complete at the center. One of only 6 graded this high by PCGS, with only 2 graded higher. This is a coin that a collector will love.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,500
- 1381 1849, VF-20. We note some faint scratches in the obverse fields.
Estimated Value $140-160

Choice Mint State 1849-C Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1382 1849-C, NGC graded MS-63. This is an extremely rare coin in full mint state according to Breen, and this has been confirmed by the NGC Population Report, only 2 have been graded this high, with 3 graded higher. The surfaces show minor hairlines and we note a small dig on Liberty's neck, along the truncation line above the 4 in the date. Flashy luster in the fields, and the devices are all boldly brought up by the dies. Delicate coppery toning can be seen at certain angles when the coin is examined. A rare opportunity to buy one of the very best examples extant from this important southern mint. Color photo.
Estimated Value $20,000-25,000

Delightful 1849-D in Mint State

Enlarged

- 1383 1849-D. NGC graded MS-62. One of the very finest known from the original mintage of 39,036. This one has yellow-gold color throughout and is untoned. Deeply and well struck by the dies, with crisp details even on the upper design elements. The bagmarks are at a minimum for a half eagle, and this is an impressive example for the specialist. A recent NGC Population Report shows only 4 graded this high, with none graded higher. Similar at PCGS, where they have graded 7 as MS-62, with a single coin graded a notch higher. Seldom offered.
Estimated Value $10,000-13,000

Choice Eye-Appealing 1850-C

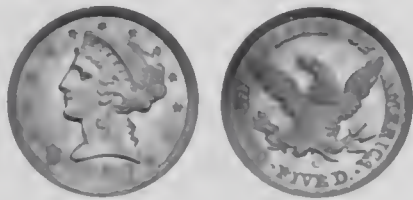

Enlarged

- 1384 1850-C. NGC graded MS-63. Bright and flashy with abundant mint luster throughout. The surfaces show only a few minor scrapes, and not usual profusion of bagmarks often encountered. Sharply struck and very appealing. NGC reports just 3 graded this high, with a single coin graded higher. Similar at PCGS, which reports just 1 graded this high and 1 higher. Color photo.
Estimated Value $20,000-25,000

Highly Desirable 1850-C in Mint State

- 1385 1850-C, PCGS graded MS-61. One for the date collector who demands quality and value for their collecting dollar. The surfaces show nice mint luster in the fields, and the stars, curls and feathers are all well struck. Critical examination with a loupe shows minor hairlines and trivial handling marks, but Liberty's face and the fields are better than you might expect for the moderate grade assigned. The coin counter stopped at 63,591 for the year, making this one of the more available dates from the popular Charlotte Mint. As to the Population Report, PCGS has graded 2 as such, with 3 graded a notch higher, and 2 more above that. A rarity in this grade, and this is not one of the "sea water" uncirculated coins found some years ago, and these have lightly etched (porous) surfaces. Estimated Value $9,000-11,000

- 1386 1851-C, PCGS graded AU-55. A high grade example of this rare date, PCGS has graded just 6 this high, with a single coin graded a notch higher, and 4 more examples in various mint state grades. One hidden scrape is noted in the field before Liberty's chin. Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

- 1387 1851-D, NGC graded AU-58. Hazy toning on both sides, with some darker flecks clinging to the devices. The surfaces are clean for the grade, and show few signs of handling. There is one small scuff near the forward point of Liberty's bust. In the NGC Population Report we see that 10 have been so graded, and just 5 coins graded higher. Estimated Value $5,000-7,000

- 1388 1851-O, Sharpness of AU-50 but cleaned. This one was cleaned long ago and still is a bit too bright. As we know, this date has proven itself to be rare for many years, and few are available in high grades. Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1389 1851-O, NGC graded EF-40. Moderate handling marks on both sides, one long mark hidden below Liberty's jaw on her neck into the field. Nice color and average surfaces for the grade. Nicely struck and a decent piece for the money. Estimated Value $650-750

Important 1854-C in Mint State

Enlarged

1390 1854-C. NGC graded MS-61. A premier rarity in mint state, with this coin certainly well within the condition census. The surfaces show extensive luster in the fields, and a few minor hairlines from handling over the last 146 years. Delightful copper toning has started to form in the lower reverse lettering while the obverse is still untoned. Boldly struck and with definition on all but the small curls over Liberty's ear. As with most seen of the date, the mintmark is weak, but clearly present above the VE of FIVE on the reverse. The reverse die had clashed with the obverse when this one was struck, thus Liberty has the eagle's wing protruding from her mouth into the left field, with the upper outline of the wing extends from her throat. Curious indeed.

Identifiable by a minor tick mark that lies at a 45 degree angle down on the right horizontal shield stripes, and currently in NGC holder #569252-040. An opportunity for the advanced numismatist who needs a high end example of this date. Color photo.

Estimated Value $7,000-9,000

Mint State 1854-D

Enlarged

1391 1854-D. NGC graded MS-62. This is the open 5 version of the date, with the 54 nearly touching. Strongly struck and well preserved, with only minor handling ticks. NGC reports 15 graded this high, with only 3 graded higher of the date.

Estimated Value $7,000-9,000

1392 1855. PCGS graded MS-63. Nice mint luster in the fields and with mint-fresh eye appeal. Well struck and although a common date, few were retained in Mint State. PCGS reports on 5 have been in Mint State 63, with 3 graded higher.

Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

1856-O in Mint State

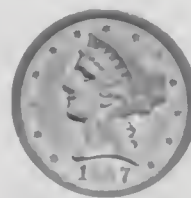

Enlarged

- 1393 1856-O. NGC graded MS-60. An extreme rarity in Mint State, NGC has only graded 2 coins this high, with 3 graded higher, while PCGS has only graded a single coin as MS-61 in their Population Report. What we are trying to say is; don't expect to find a gem! This lustrous coin is about as nice as this date is found, so one must live with the usual bagmarks that are always present. Slightly reflective in the fields near the devices. Sharp on all but the first few stars, which show central weakness, well struck elsewhere.

Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

- 1394 1857-O. PCGS graded AU-58. A condition rarity in this grade! The surfaces show moderate handling marks from circulation, while some of the luster adheres near the devices. Fully struck by the dies, with a mintage of 13,000 very few are found today in high grade. Breen notes in his Encyclopedia that this date is "prohibitively rare above EF", which is confirmed by the NGC and PCGS Population Reports. We note PCGS has graded 3 coins as AU-58, with 2 graded higher. NGC has graded 4 as AU-58, with 3 higher. Well up in the condition census for the date, and a specialists delight for its nice surfaces, good strike and pleasing gold color.

Estimated Value $5,000-7,000

- 1395 1859-S. PCGS graded AU-58. Minor handling marks in the fields, and a rare date in high grade. Only 2 have been graded by PCGS as such, with just 2 coins graded higher (both MS-62). Well struck and seldom encountered above EF, and perfect for the date collector.

Estimated Value $7,000-10,000

- 1396 1859-S. PCGS graded AU-55. Mintages fell to 13,220 for the year, and this is one of the best to survive. Nice surfaces on both sides, with lovely coppery color. Hints of luster near the stars and devices. A recent PCGS Population Report shows 3 graded this high with 4 graded higher.

Estimated Value $5,000-7,000

- 1397 1860-D. PCGS graded AU-58. H. W. Bass Jr. Coll. A choice coin that shows few signs of handling although there are minor hairlines. One drift mark through the 18 of the date and extending left into the field. An impressive example of this scarce date, which boasts well struck devices and eye appealing surfaces. The recent PCGS Population Report shows only 14 graded this high, with 10 graded higher.

Estimated Value $5,000-7,000

Classic 1860-S Rarity in High Grade

- 1398 1860-S. PCGS graded AU-58. One of the finest of this rare date, although the mintage shows 21,200 struck, most were apparently melted or lost over the years. This one has nice luster and over the slightly reflective fields. As to the strike, it is a bit weak on Liberty's love lock which cascades down her neck, but the small curls behind her face are sharp, as are the feathers and fine details of the reverse design. Trivial hairlines and minimal handling marks for this piece, and desirable in every way. PCGS has graded only 1 coin as such, with one graded higher (MS-62), placing this coin high in the condition census for the date.
- Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

- 1399 1860-S. PCGS graded AU-53. Well struck with minimal wear on the high points of the design. Typical circulation marks on the coin, and identifiable by a mark over the 0 in the date. Rare in this grade, PCGS has graded 2 as such, with 2 more graded a notch higher and a single coin above those as MS-62. A rare opportunity for the specialist.
- Estimated Value $6,000-8,000
- 1400 1861. EF-40. Typical circulation marks.
- Estimated Value $150-175

- 1401 1861-C. NGC graded AU-53. An important issue struck during the cusp of the outbreak of the Civil War. In fact, this may have been struck by the Confederate States of America just after hostilities became formalized by the respective governments, as it shows the light die crack through the tops of AMERICA noted in the Breen Encyclopedia as possibly being struck after CSA soldiers seized the Charlotte Mint. Moderate handling marks are noted on both sides and the surfaces still retain some luster. The strike is decent, with most of the stars showing radial lines. An important rarity in this grade, and one of just 6 graded as such by NGC, with 26 graded higher, of which only 3 have been graded as Mint State.
- Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 1402 1861-S. NGC graded AU-58. A vastly underrated date that despite its mintage of 18,000 coins, virtually all disappeared. In fact, neither grading service has graded one as Mint State yet, but there is a small cluster of 11 graded AU-58 by NGC, and none have been graded higher than AU-53 by PCGS. This particular coin has moderate handling marks scattered about the surfaces, but none deserve particular description. Coppery toner around the periphery, and a rarity in this grade.
- Estimated Value $7,000-9,000

One of the Finest Known 1862-S Half Eagles

Enlarged

- 1403 1862-S. PCGS graded AU-53. Here is a true condition rarity. The finest seen by either grading service is AU-58, and this coin is just a hair below that level at AU-53. Certainly high up in the Condition Census for the date, which is exceedingly rare above Extremely Fine grade. This particular coin has delicate orange-gold toning throughout both sides and typical light handling marks throughout. Remnants of original pinkish gold luster adheres near the devices and lettering, where these small surface areas are undisturbed by circulation. Sharply impressed, with each star showing full radial lines and the minute feathers of the eagle separated on the eagle. A foremost rarity in any grade, to offer one of the very finest known is truly a pleasure for the collector. The recent March 2001 PCGS Population Report shows only 2 graded this high, with 2 graded in AU-58 and none graded higher by either service.
- Estimated Value $12,500-15,000

- 1404 1862-S, PCGS graded AU-50. A magnificent coin of this extremely rare date, only 9,500 were coined, but virtually all disappeared. None are known above AU-55 according to the NGC and PCGS Population Reports. Only 6 have been graded this high by PCGS, with 4 graded higher. Orange-gold color and well struck by the dies, the surfaces show average marks for the grade, and there is a small bump on Liberty's jaw. A rare opportunity for the date specialist.

Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

Mint State 1865 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1405 1865, NGC graded MS-60. One of the very finest known of this date, with just 2 so graded by NGC, and 3 graded a notch higher. None have been graded as Mint State by PCGS. Therefore, this is likely one of the finest known of the date. Only 1,270 were coined, and most were spent as the country breathed a sigh of relief that the long war was finally over. Typical bagmarks in the fields and on the devices, with one small bump between stars ten and eleven. An important opportunity for the date specialist.

Estimated Value $12,000-17,000

- 1406 1865-S, NGC graded AU-58. Nice luster and well struck by the dies, but with typical bag marks that are common on gold coins of the period. Liberty's curls are especially well struck. NGC has graded 18 this high with 4 graded higher (all MS-61).

Estimated Value $6,500-7,500

The Finest Graded 1866 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1407 1866, With motto, NGC graded MS-61. This coin is perhaps the Finest Known of the date. It is currently the finest graded by either grading service, and the only one in its grade category. Further, it is better than the AU-55 offered in the recent Harry Bass II sale, and the only coin that is close is an MS-60 also graded by NGC. As expected, there are some handling marks in the fields and on the devices, but this is still an appealing coin for the advanced collector who demands the finest. Identifiable by a small scrape on the twelfth star, and in NGC holder #289360-009.

Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

- 1408 1867-S. PCGS graded EF-45. Ignore the mintage of 29,000 on this date, as very few are known in high circulated grades. PCGS has only graded 10 as such, with 7 graded in various AU grades, and none graded in Mint State. The surfaces have just enough wear to subdue the handling marks, giving the coin a smooth and pleasant appearance overall. Sharply impressed by the dies, and a worthy coin for the specialist.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1409 1868. NGC graded AU-55. As often seen, this one has rather heavy ticks from handling. Nice luster and color, with a good strike from the dies. Just 5,700 were coined, and any example of this date is rare. This is one of the higher grade coins, with NGC reporting 5 graded this high and 11 higher.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

One of Only Two Mint State 1869 Half Eagles

Enlarged

- 1410 1869. NGC graded MS-61. This is apparently the second finest known of the date, with a single coin graded MS-64 above in the recent Harry Bass II Sale, this coin now offered is the only other mint state example graded by either grading service. Satiny luster on both sides, with clean surfaces that show minimal handling. Identifiable by a small planchet drift mark above the date and into the numerals, and a spot on the edge near the outer point of the eleventh star. In NGC holder #289360-016.
Estimated Value $12,000-15,000

1411 1870-S. PCGS graded AU-55. An extreme rarity in high grade, this one of the very finest known of the date. None have been graded as Mint State by either service, and only a single coin has been graded as AU-58 by NGC, none that high by PCGS. In this grade, AU-55, PCGS has graded 6 this high while NGC has only awarded AU-55 to a single coin. Orange-gold toning especially on the reverse. As to the strike, it is full and complete, every star and notch on the eagle's craggy claws are bold and defined. An impressive example of this rarity. Don't miss it.

Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

Condition Rarity 1871 in Mint State

Enlarged

1412 1871. PCGS graded MS-60. Demand for gold coinage sank as the 1870s unfolded. By 1871, only 3,200 half eagles were struck, and virtually all entered circulation. This one was saved, somehow, by someone for all the ensuing years. The surfaces have a few scrapes and scuffs from bag handling, but the curls and high points don't show signs of wear. As so few were struck, the fields remain prooflike, as the dies never had a chance to wear away the polish used to dress up the die after engraving. This is the finest graded by PCGS, and alone as MS-60 by that service. NGC has also graded a single coin as MS-60, with another as MS-61. This date almost certainly does not exist in higher grade. There is a bit of hazy toning on the reverse, surrounding the eagle.

Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

*One of the Finest Known
1873 Closed 3 Half Eagles*

Enlarged

- 1413 1873. Closed 3. PCGS graded MS-65. This is certainly one of the very finest known of the date, in fact, PCGS has only graded two coins this high, with none graded higher! Mint fresh luster throughout, with fully struck stars and minute feather details on the eagle. Slight weakness is noted on Liberty's love lock curl over her neck, and on the arrows and claws on the reverse. The fields show light scuffs and nicks, but this is obviously a gem example of this rare date. If your collection demands the finest examples then here is a special coin to add. Color photo.
Estimated Value $20,000-UP

Previously in our Brady Bloch Collection Sale, September 1999, Lot 1766 as NGC MS-65.

Classic 1873 Proof Rarity

- 1414 1873. Closed 3. PCGS graded Proof 58. This is probably the coin offered in our September 1999 Brady Bloch Collection Sale, lot 1765. The surfaces show minor handling marks, probably from a brief time in circulation during the sharp depression of 1873 or later in the 1930s. Many proof gold coins were spent during those periods as families needed necessities, and luxuries like this rare proof half eagle found few buyers. Only 25 were coined in 1873, about half of which probably survive today in various grades. This is the only coin graded as such by PCGS, although 13 have been graded higher. This is a classic American rarity that is seldom offered and is well worth a respectable bid despite the slightly impaired status.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 1415 1874-CC. VF-25. Original color, but there is a bad scrape the left side of the branch into the fields.
Estimated Value $600-7

- 1416 1874-S. NGC graded AU-55. One of the very finest graded this tough date, only 16,000 were coined and none appeared as nice as this coin. As to the surfaces, they show minimal marks, none are deep or distracting, and the strike is sharp at the centers, as well as the periphery. The NGC Population Report notes only 3 graded as AU-55, with 2 graded notch higher. A condition rarity for the specialist in half eagle.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1417 1874-S. NGC graded AU-50. This is the weak "S" variety and although not designated so on the holder, this coin should be re-submitted as such. The NGC population report lists a sole EF-45 example, although a small handful of others with no designation also exist in this high grade. Very rare.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,700

Lovely 1876 in Very Choice Mint State

Enlarged

- 1418 1876. PCGS graded MS-64. As a year, 1876 is overshadowed by its big brother, the 1875, but 1876 deserves attention in its own right. 1,432 were struck for circulation, and most are found in circulated grades. This particular coin was struck from the proof dies, as noted in the Breen Encyclopedia, with a small die lump on Liberty's neck, just below her jaw. The fields are also prooflike, and the devices wonderfully frosted. As to the strike, it is strong, but not quite full on the eagle's neck, arrow feathers and on Liberty's love lock on her neck. Two tiny planchet flakes are visible, one at the outer point of star six, the other near the rim just above the last star. Now that years of speculation about populations has begun to be laid to rest by the stark data reported by the grading services in their Population Reports, we now know that only 2 have been graded higher by PCGS, and none higher by NGC. In this particular grade, only 3 coins have been graded this high by PCGS. This is not the October 1999 Harry Bass coin, also PCGS MS-64, which realized $19,550 at that delightful sale. This represents an opportunity for the specialist who demands outstanding quality and rarity.
Estimated Value $15,000-L.P.

Choice Mint State 1876 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1419 1876. PCGS graded MS-63. With a mintage of only 1,432 one can assume this date is seldom offered in any grade. To find one in choice mint state is truly a chore, and especially one with such lovely golden-yellow toning on each side. There are scattered handling marks, to be expected for the grade. Fully struck on the stars and on all but the centers of the devices, which show normal weakness. The March 2001 PCGS Population Report shows only 2 graded MS-63 with 4 graded higher. Color photo.

Estimated Value $10,000-15,000

- 1420 1876. NGC graded AU-58. This one has bright luster in the fields, and moderate handling marks throughout. We note a couple of scrapes in the left obverse field. Mintage dropped to 1,432 for the year, and of those NGC has graded 4 this high and notes 9 are graded higher. A condition rarity that is seldom offered in any grade, and is certainly rare in grades above EF.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 1421 1876-S. PCGS graded AU-55. San Francisco coined 4 half eagles in 1876, our country's centennial year. Light dling from circulation, but the fields and Liberty's cheek are nice as one could expect to find. PCGS has only graded 1 in grade, and 1 coin in AU-58 above, plus 1 more as MS-64. Do expect to find a better one! A rare, rare date which is seldom offered in any respectable grade.

Estimated Value $6,000-8,000

- 1422 1880 (2 pieces) and 1880-S. These grade from VF-20 to 30. Lot of 3 coins.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 1423 1880-S, 1881, 1885, 1898, 1898-S and 1899-S. These grade VF to EF. Several nice coins are included, and nice for the collector. Lot of 6 coins.

Estimated Value $600-800

- 1424 1880-S and 1882. Both grade AU-50. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $250-350

- 1425 1881. 1 over 0. PCGS graded MS-63. One of the finest of this rare overdate. PCGS has graded 8 this high, with none graded higher! Note the overdate feature, it can be seen with glass as many fragments of the 0 are visible around the left portions of the second 1. Also, note the second 8 of the date recut, with fragments visible below that digit. In an old PCGS holder with the green insert. Clean fields and plenty of bloom add to the appeal of this condition rarity.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 1426 1881 Double Date, Breen-6714. ANACS graded MS-61. The date on this coin is wildly recut to the left, and an example of this die error is nicely enlarged in the Breen Encyclopedia first photo under Breen-6714. Noted as rare, this kind of punching is seldom seen on any denomination. As to the coin itself, it is nicely toned with copper highlights around the periphery, decent luster and light handling marks. There are no hairlines, but no other problems.

Estimated Value $500-700

- 1427 1881 and 1893. Both grade MS-60. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 1428 1881. MS-60. Nice luster and surfaces.

Estimated Value $150-250

$5 Gold

- 1429 1882-CC. NGC graded AU-53. Flashy and well preserved, this coin lacks the normally seen profusion of tick marks. One for the date collector
Estimated Value $500-600
- 1430 1884-S. MS-60. Frosty luster and well struck, with typical bag handling marks.
Estimated Value $240-260
- 1431 1884-S and 1898-S. The 1884-S grades VF-20, the 1898-S grades VF-30. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1432 1885-S. PCGS graded MS-63. Bright yellow-gold luster and well preserved. Minor bag marks on both sides, none of which deserve special mention. In the old style green PCGS insert holder.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1433 1885-S. MS-60. A few hairlines on the obverse.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 1434 1886-S. PCGS graded MS-63. A choice coin that boasts flashy luster and a bit of hazy toning. Excellent surfaces that show scattered marks in the fields.
Estimated Value $550-650

- 1435 1891-CC. SEGS graded MS-62. Minor handling marks on both sides with faint hairlines visible with a glass.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
- 1436 1891-CC. EF-40. Cleaned and retoned with nice coppery shades near the devices.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1437 1893. PCGS graded MS-63. Hazy gold toning on both sides, with good luster underneath.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1438 1895. AU-50. Average surfaces for this lightly circulated coin.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 1439 1898-S and 1906-D Half Eagles. The 1898-S grades Fine 15, but is lightly polished and the 1906-D graded EF-40. Lot of 2 coins
Estimated Value $200-225
- 1440 1899; 1901 and 1908 Liberty half eagles. These grade from AU to Unc. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 1441 1900-S. NGC graded MS-64. Toned with coppery hues which make the surfaces appear really smooth and fresh. This one sports good luster and is well struck.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,800

Stunning 1902 Brilliant Proof $5.00

- 1442 1902. NGC graded Proof 64. A totally brilliant proof specimen with very few scattered hairlines, most of which in fact, appear to be on the holder. A tiny die chip appears next to the date and can be used to identify this little gem. Only 162 proofs struck, only a handful or so exist this choice.
Estimated Value $9,000-11,000

- 1443 1902, 1903-S, 1904 and 1906-D. Each grades EF-40 to AU-50. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 1444 1902-S. ANACS graded MS-62 Prooflike. As sometimes seen on these "S" Mint coins, the fields are prooflike. And, not unlike proofs, the fields magnify every tiny tick or mark that touches them. Hence the moderate grade. Well struck and appealing.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1445 1902-S. PCGS graded MS-62. Moderate handling ticks on both sides, but nice luster throughout.
Estimated Value $180-200

The Finest Known Cameo 1903 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1446 1903 The Finest Graded. NGC graded Proof 68 Cameo. Of the 154 half eagle proofs struck in 1903 this coin is the finest graded by either grading service. One other Proof-68 has been graded by NGC, but it is not a "Cameo" designation. Therefore, it is reasonable to conclude that this is the very finest 1903 Proof half eagle. And one can see why, the surfaces are nearly perfect in every way. Deep mirror fields show none of the usual problems or tick marks. On the reverse, there are some small copper toning specks which are the only signs of age on this coin, otherwise it appears as if it were struck yesterday and carefully handled from the moment it was struck.
- For the entire type, there are only 5 coins graded this high by NGC. PCGS has not awarded any half eagles of this type a grade of PF-68. So, if you want the very best, the most perfectly preserved coin of the date, which includes the desirable cameo designation, then you simply must purchase this lot. Once it sells, it may not again be offered in many years, perhaps decades! A superb example for the most advanced collector. Color photo.

Estimated Value $70,000-UP

- 1447 1906. NGC graded MS-66. One of the finest seen of this date, the surfaces are simply outstanding and the coin boasts brilliant luster and light coppery toning. A couple of faint marks on Liberty's chin and jaw, otherwise we note well struck devices and pristine fields. NGC has graded 11 this high, with 5 graded higher.
- Estimated Value $3,500-4,000
- 1448 1907. PCGS graded MS-63. Choice yellow gold luster and well preserved for the date.
- Estimated Value $350-400
- 1449 1907. PCGS graded MS-63. Frosty mint luster and with choice surfaces throughout.
- Estimated Value $350-400
- 1450 1907-D. PCGS graded MS-63. A high end coin for the grade, the surfaces show only minor handling ticks, while the luster remains bright and fresh.
- Estimated Value $350-400
- 1451 1907-D. MS-60 Plus. Clean for the grade and lustrous. We note some doubling around the reverse periphery in the lettering.
- Estimated Value $150-175
- 1452 1908. MS-60 Plus. Clean surfaces for the moderate grade and signed.
- Estimated Value $150-200

$5 Indian

- 1453 1908. MS-64. Clean surfaces and well struck by the dies. We seldom see fields this nice on any of these Indian half eagles and want to be sure that collectors take note. Hints of golden toning on both sides.
- Estimated Value $1,500-1,800
- 1454 1908-D. AU-55. Frosty luster and well struck, we note limited circulation on the upper devices.
- Estimated Value $175-200

- 1455 1909-D. PCGS graded MS-64. Mint fresh luster and well preserved, with some delicate toning starting to form.
- Estimated Value $1,600-1,800

$5 Gold and $10 Gold

1456 1909-D, AU-50.
Estimated Value

$160-190

1457 1909-O, VF-35. This is one of the key dates to the series, with a mintage of only 34,200 coins. The surfaces show minor circulation marks, but no problems. An original and pleasing example of this date.
Estimated Value $700-800

1458 1911 and 1914. Both grade EF-40. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $325-375

1459 1911 and 1911-S Half Eagles. Both grade VF-25, and the 1911-S is darkly toned. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

1460 1911-D, AU-55. A few minor hairlines from new, and better than many we see called Mint State. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $500-650

1461 1911-S, VF-20. Weak mintmark as usual for the date.
Estimated Value $150-175

1462 1914-S, ICG graded AU-55. Boldly struck and well preserved, this one just "misses" mint state. A problem-free example for the date collector.
Estimated Value $300-350

1463 1916-S 2 pieces. Both grade AU-50. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $400-450

$10 Gold

Lovely Mint State 1795 Eagle

Enlarged

Enlarged

1464 1795, 13 leaves below eagle, Taraszka-2, Breen-2A, NGC graded MS-62. A choice coin for the grade, the surfaces are a lovely yellow-gold color and free of toning or distracting marks. Both sides of the coin have minor adjustment marks, generally at the rim, but a few crossing the eagle's breast. The fields are reflective and retain much of their original mint shine, subdued by hairlines and minor handling marks, none of which are important or unexpected on a coin of this grade. The rims and fields show no bumps or other abuse, and this is a truly beautiful example of our first Eagle coin. Well struck throughout, with full curls on Liberty and stars on the obverse, and excellent detail on the wing and breast feathers. One of the better ones graded of this date, NGC has seen 21 graded this high, with 12 graded a notch higher and just 3 above that. An important type coin that always generates well-deserved collector attention any time one is available. Color photo.

Estimated Value

$40,000-50,000

Historic 1795 Eagle

Enlarged

- 1465 1795. 13 leaves below eagle, Taraszka-1:1-A, Rarity-3. NGC graded MS-60. An important type coin that is scarce in high grades, especially in Mint State. This one has been cleaned with the usual resulting hairlines in the fields and on the devices. However, this is the normal state of affairs for these large, early soft gold coins. Collectors have cherished these for centuries, and somewhere along the line, virtually all show some signs of cleaning or minor hairlines. Examination shows a few adjustment marks through Liberty's hair, and more on the reverse rim and a couple across the eagle's proud breast. Frosty luster in the fields, with only a few trivial handling marks. As to the strike, it is very bold and most of the fine details are present on this coin.

The Philadelphia Mint had to post an expensive bond in order to take precious metal consignments. The need for coinage was very great in the new country, and copper was the most available for coinage. Soon the silver and gold bond requirements were met, and in 1794 silver coinage began, and later in 1795 gold coinage too. This is one of the first gold coins produced at the Philadelphia Mint, and Breen notes that these were struck from September 27, 1795 until March 30, 1796. Further, some coins from this die pairing are believed to be presentation pieces, which likely confirms that this die pairing was the first struck. No doubt many important luminaries from American history were able to examine coins soon after they were struck, and think how proud they were to see the new coinage in gold, coming from their own Philadelphia Mint. Clearly, this is an important piece of American history and culture, and we know a true collector will always treasure this coin in the future, as it has been treasured in the past. Color photo.

Estimated Value $35,000-40,000

$10 Gold

- 1466 1795. 13 leaves below eagle, Taraszka-1:1-A. High Rarity-3. Sharpness of EF-45. This coin has been cleaned and burnished lightly to make it appear to be a higher grade, which is too bad as it truly is a high grade coin already. The surfaces show light swirl lines from the burnishing and the surfaces have a polished appearance on both sides. Nevertheless, this coin had very little wear from circulation and has no problems such as distracting handling marks or adjustment marks. On balance, this is a very appealing coin despite its cleaning problems, and we don't doubt that someone will appreciate its many attributes and ignore the minor faults.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

From a Coin Galleries Sale, October 31, 1957, lot 718.

- 1467 1799. Large obverse stars, Taraszka-22: 14-M, Rarity-3. Sharpness of EF-40. This coin was probably used as jewelry as the obverse has been entirely scrapped and burnished, and with similar abuse on the reverse. Nevertheless, the coin retains decent eye appeal. One to be inspected by bidders prior to the sale. Possibly mounted as the reeding is missing from the lower left edge relative to the obverse. All capped bust eagles are rare, and many are found with similar problems as seen on this coin.

Estimated Value $1,500-1,800

Choice 1801 Eagle

Enlarged

- 1468 1801 Taraszka-24:16-M, Rarity-5. NGC graded MS-63. Frosty mint luster in the fields which contrasts nicely with the devices. Moderate handling marks in the fields on both sides, which is to be expected on a coin 200 years old. Each star on the obverse is bold as are the minute details on Liberty's curls. On the reverse, the strike is also bold, the only weakness is on the two upper stars above the eagle's head, which are normally weak on this die pairing. Note how fresh the luster is on this coin, and if you need a high grade example, then be sure to bid on this coin. Color photo.

Estimated Value

$50,000-250,000

- 1469 1842. Small date. NGC graded MS-60. This is the small date, although it is not designated on the NGC insert. Minor weakness on the high points, but otherwise well struck by the dies. Rather extensive bagmarks from countless inventories and handling over the decades. Note the mint frost on the devices, which gives them contrast from the surrounding fields. According to the NGC Population Report, only 4 have been graded as such, with 2 coins graded higher by that service (finest MS-63). Early date eagles are very rare in mint state, so don't pass this one by.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

- 1470 1842-O. NGC graded AU-58. Luster in the fields and a bit baggy from handling. Still with a nice appearance though, the fields retain some of their prooflike characteristics and the coin has a pleasant glow seen on some of the better preserved coins of the era. Sharply struck and as Breen says "prohibitively rare AU". NGC has graded 9 this high, with 2 graded higher.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 1471 1842-O. PCGS graded AU-50. Nice surfaces that retain some mint luster and are generally clean for the grade. Minor handling ticks, but none are deep or distracting. Well struck by the dies, with full details on Liberty's curls and the eagle's feathers and claws.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

- 1472 1843-O. Sharpness of EF-45 but a mount has been removed. Examination of the rim shows some colored areas which are the result of a mount being removed. These are minor and the coin is pleasing despite this problem. Inspection mandatory.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1473 1844-O. VF-30. Nice surfaces and color, perfect for the quality conscious date collector.
Estimated Value $240-270

- 1474 No Lot

- 1475 1849. ANACS graded EF-40. Standard handling marks for the grade, with coppery toning around the edges.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1476 1851-O. Fine-15. A touch weaker on the upper obverse from wear, but decent surfaces overall.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 1477 1853. NGC graded MS-62. Most of the mint luster in and the strike is full and complete. Minor handling marks for a higher grade, mostly in the fields. A nice look to this one.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1478 1853. PCGS graded MS-61. Nice color and luster for the grade, with moderate handling marks on both sides. Boldly struck throughout. One of 10 graded this high, with 9 graded higher. This one is in the old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 1479 1853. NGC graded AU-58. Moderate handling marks on soft gold surfaces, but precious little wear.
Estimated Value $700-1,000

- 1480 1854-O. EF-45. A nice original coin from an old time collection, this is the large date variety, which is seldom found in high grades. There are no problems worthy of note, and most collectors will like this coin. Two die cracks on the obverse, through the 8 in the date, the other through the last star, both trending vertically upward.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 1481 1854-S. Sharpness of EF-40 but repaired. The obverse has been repaired in the left obverse field to remove scratches. Burnishing is noted there.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 1482 1858-S. PCGS graded AU-53. Slightly prooflike in the fields and well struck. We note a shallow pin scratch from Liberty's face below her eye to the rim above the fourth star, and a couple of other bagmarks as always seen on gold coins of the period. About as nice as these are found, with only 2 graded as such by PCGS, and 2 coins graded higher. That places this coin well up in the Condition Census for the date. Bid accordingly.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1483 1864. Sharpness of EF-45 but polished long ago. This one has been polished long ago, and could probably be made to look better by someone skilled in those areas. An extreme rarity, only 3,530 were struck in 1864, and just 30 have been graded by both PCGS and NGC in all grades! Perhaps 50 exist today from the original mintage. This is not a coin to dismiss because of the polishing, as so few exist. We note very little wear on the high points. Worth a look and as always, inspection mandatory.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

High Grade 1865-S Inverted Date Eagle

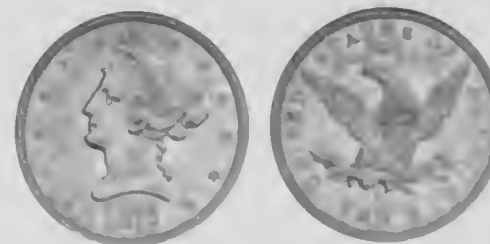

- 1484 1865-S. 865 over inverted 186. PCGS graded AU-50. High in the Condition Census for the date, this important Red Book coin is seldom available above Extremely Fine. The surfaces on this example show moderate signs of handling and wear, while Liberty's curls remain well defined and separated. Curiously, the "S" Mintmark is quite large, larger in fact than the surrounding letters. The inverted date feature is strong on this coin, with the 1 heavily sunk into the die underneath the 5, and much of the 8 is visible too spilling out from under the 6. When the dies were prepared, a 3 digit date logotype was punched into the die, and the final digit separately. The engraver (Longacre?) was having an off day, and the date was first punched in upside down, then corrected, much to the amusement of numismatists. The PCGS Population Report shows only 3 graded as AU-50, with 3 others graded higher in AU grades, and a single coin graded MS-64 at the top. An opportunity for the specialist to purchase a true conversation piece with the inverted date error.

Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

- 1485 1870-S. PCGS graded AU-50. This coin is really nice for the grade with clean surfaces, ample mint luster and well struck devices. Minor handling marks and well preserved. PCGS has graded 7 this high, with just 7 graded higher, only 1 of which is mint state. So don't expect to find a better one! Perfect for the date collector.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 1486 1872-S. NGC graded EF-45. Scarce in high grade. NGC has only graded 36 as such, with 24 graded higher. Average circulation marks and with little wear to note, giving the appearance of a higher grade. Another low mintage date, with just 10,000 made and most melted, lost or otherwise out of numismatic channels.

Estimated Value $600-700

Near Gem 1874 Eagle

- 1487 1874. PCGS graded MS-64. Here we have a very high end example of this slightly more common date from the 1870s. Examination with a strong glass fails to find more than just faint surface scuffs, and the fields and devices have the appearance of a higher grade. The color is quite beautiful too, with rose gold tones around the periphery and bright mint luster throughout. Struck from lightly clashed dies on the reverse. As a near-gem, this is one of the finest graded by PCGS, and their Population Report shows only 13 graded this high, with only 2 coins graded a notch higher. An exceptional coin for the advanced collector.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

- 1488 1874-CC. NGC graded AU-50. Mintage of 16,767 in all, most of which are long gone. Clean surfaces for the grade, with light handling marks in the fields and on the devices. Breen notes this date is prohibitively rare above VF. Always popular with Carson City collectors, few are found with nice surfaces and in high grade. Here is a pleasant exception that will please most collectors. One of 7 graded this high, with 10 graded higher.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1489 1876. SEGS graded AU-58. A classic rarity in any grade, this AU-58 example is certain to draw attention. Breen estimates that a dozen to 15 survive of the business strikes, and this is probably one of the higher grade ones. No mint state coins have been confirmed by NGC or PCGS in either of their population reports. As noted on the SEGS insert, there is a "tiny rim bump", which we presume is the bump which extends on the rim from star five to six. The surfaces are also noted as cleaned, and we see minute pin scratches around the periphery and some minor scrapes too. Rather bagmarked for the grade, as usual for large gold coins of the period. Nevertheless, with a coin of this magnitude in rarity, any specimens, especially high grade ones, should be obtained as another may not be offered for some time to come.
Estimated Value $9,000-10,000
- 1490 1878-S. VF-25. Moderate handling marks and lovely coppery toning near the devices.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 1491 1879. SEGS graded MS-64. Hazy toning to cover over the faint hairlines on both sides. Well struck by the dies, and note the surface quality, which is seldom found without a profusion of bagmarks.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000
- 1492 1879. VF-30. Some luster and average surfaces.
Estimated Value $130-150

- 1493 1879-CC. NGC graded EF-40. Nice surfaces for the grade, with smooth, even wear and nice color throughout. A rare date with a mintage of 1,762. Of those, NGC has graded 5 as such, with 10 graded higher. Don't skip over this lot if you need this date.
Estimated Value $6,500-7,500
- 1494 1880 and 1901-S. The 1880 grades VF-20, the 1901-S VF-30, but it has dark spots on both sides. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1495 1880-S. VF-30. Average surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $125-150

Lovely Gem Proof 1881 Eagle

Enlarged

- 1496 1881, NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. One of the nicest of the 42 proof eagles coined this year, the fields are very deep in their mirroring and the devices are all deep in golden frost. Examination with a strong glass will note few signs of handling, including some stray hairlines over the deep orange peel fields and a nick on Liberty's chin. NGC has only graded 4 this high, with a single coin graded higher for the date. PCGS has only graded one coin as high as PF-65.
A magnificent coin that represents the finest quality the Philadelphia Mint produced. Don't expect this one to be a bargain, quality always brings a strong price. Color photo
Estimated Value $30,000-40,000

- 1497 1881-O, SEGS graded MS-62. Only 8,350 struck and most of those circulated. Here is a decent Mint State example for the serious date collector. Moderate handling marks from bag shipping account for the grade. Well struck and with decent luster in the fields.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000
- 1498 1889-S, AU-55. Nice luster and only moderate handling marks.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 1499 1891-CC, VF-20. A couple of rim marks and general "CC" style spending habits prevail, in other words, the surfaces have moderate handling marks. Carson City coins tended to circulate very hard, and most show extensive handling.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1500 1892, NGC graded MS-65. Unusually nice, even for this date, with full mint bloom and pristine fields and devices. Examination will note some stray ticks, but this gem coin will satisfy most collectors with its flashy color and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $7,000-9,000
- 1501 1892-O, NGC graded MS-61. Good luster and untuned. Typical handling marks.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1502 1893 (2 pieces). Each grades AU-50. A nice pair, both have good luster and clean surfaces. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $275-325
- 1503 1894 and 1895. The 1894 grades AU-50 and the 1895 grades EF-40. A couple for the gold bug. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $260-300
- 1504 1894 Mint Error, Lamination Obverse. PCGS graded MS 62. All gold mint errors are rare, this coin has a long lamination from the 94 in the date up through Liberty's neck. The surfaces show typical marks for the grade, with medium yellow gold color and frosty luster throughout. Unusual to say the least, and error collectors will appreciate the size and location of this lamination. The PCGS insert notes Mint Error, and Minor Lamination Obv.
Estimated Value $250-350

$10 Gold

- 1505 1896-S. NGC graded MS-60. A rare date in Mint State, this one has moderate handling marks and dullness on the high points. The NGC Population Report shows that 8 have been so graded, with 9 graded one notch higher, and just 2 coins above that, both MS-62. Don't be fooled by the high mintage, this is a date that is very rare in full mint state as virtually the entire issue went into circulation, and precious few were saved.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 1506 1898 and 1907 Liberty. Both grade AU-50 to 55. The first is pretty nice, the second more baggy. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $275
- 1507 1899. MS-60. Rose gold in color and well struck.
Estimated Value $170

Choice Proof 1905 Eagle

Enlarged

- 1508 1905. PCGS graded Proof 64 Premium Quality. Here is a beautiful example of Proof gold from the Philadelphia Mint. The surfaces are very choice and show few signs of handling or hairlines. Examination finds no fault on the obverse, and nothing on the reverse save for an old spot on the N of TEN which will serve to identify this specimen. Note the glittering mirror fields and satiny devices. Just 86 were coined in 1905 in Proof, of those 7 have been graded this high, with 5 graded higher by PCGS. A premier rarity that is seldom offered and always admired.
Estimated Value $14,000-16,000

Indian Head

1509	1907. No periods. AU-55. Minor hairlines from a cleaning, but still lustrous and sharp Estimated Value	$250-300
1510	1908. No motto. AU-55. Luster in the fields. Estimated Value	$275-325
1511	1908-D. No motto. AU-55. Satiny luster in the fields and just a bit of rubbing. Estimated Value	$275-325
1512	1908. With motto. MS-60. Normal handling marks for the grade, good luster and strike Estimated Value	$300-350
1513	1908-D. With motto. AU-55. Well struck, with clean surfaces too. Estimated Value	$300-350
1514	1908-S. With motto. AU-50. Light handling marks on the eagle Estimated Value	$400-500
1515	1909. AU-58. Close to mint state Estimated Value	$290-300
1516	1909-D. AU-55. Nice color and surfaces for the grade Estimated Value	$290-300
1517	1909-S. MS-60. Nice luster with weakness on the high points Estimated Value	$400-450
1518	1910. AU-55. One for a date collector Estimated Value	$250-300
1519	1910-D. MS-60 Plus. Decent surfaces for this grade, with ample luster and no marks worthy of mention Estimated Value	$275-325
1520	1910-D. AU-50. Gentle wear. Estimated Value	$250-300
1521	1910-D. EF-45. Lightly circulated Estimated Value	$225-250
1522	1910-D. VF-30. A pleasant coin for the grade. Estimated Value	$200-250

Enlarged

- 1523 1910-S. NGC graded MS-65. One of the key dates to the Indian eagle series and nearly impossible to locate in gem condition. In fact, NGC has only graded a single coin as MS-65 and 1 coin above. Similar in the PCGS Population Report where we note just 2 have been graded as MS-65, and 2 graded higher. Frosty luster throughout, and an exceptional coin for the advanced date collector. There is a small disturbance before Liberty's mouth in the field, and a small mark above the eagle's head. A couple of hairlines are noted in the headdress. An opportunity
Estimated Value

$20,000-30,000

- 1524 1910-S. AU-50. Light wear on both sides.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1525 1911. AU-58. This is one of the old style "mint state with rubbing" grade coins. Sometimes called "commercial uncirculated". Bottom line, there is some wear on the high points.
Estimated Value $300-350

High Grade 1911-D Rarity

Enlarged

- 1526 1911-D. PCGS graded MS-64. This is the key date to the series, only 30,100 were coined and most entered circulation. For collectors, this is about the best you can hope to obtain, only 4 gems (all MS-65) have been graded by PCGS and NGC combined, and even in this grade, only 8 have qualified at PCGS, 7 more at NGC. Don't pussy foot around if you need this date, step up and buy it. Mint fresh luster and clean fields and surfaces on both sides. Note the reddish color on both sides, otherwise all is fresh and appears in order, just as made that day at the Denver Mint. Color photo.
Estimated Value $40,000-50,000

- 1527 1911-D. Sharpness of AU-50 but scratches on Liberty's face. There are several light scratches on Liberty's face, scarce issue.
Estimated Value $700-1,000

- 1528 1911-S. MS-60. One rim mark between the first two stars. No luster and surfaces for the grade, and a scarce issue.
Estimated Value $800-900
- 1529 1912. MS-60. Bright and fresh.
Estimated Value $325-350
- 1530 1912-S. EF-45. Lightly circulated and nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1531 1913. MS-60. Flashy mint luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $325-350
- 1532 1913. AU-58. Nearly new, with a tiny rim mark on the up reverse.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 1533 1913-S. EF-45. Cleaned, with resulting surface hairlines. Excellent luster still, and scarce.
Estimated Value $500-700
- 1534 1914. AU-58. Near mint state, and with nice color and surface.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1535 1914-D. AU-55. Mint fresh luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1536 1914-D. VF-20. Probably cleaned long ago, and there are so scattered scrapes and bumps on both sides.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1537 1914-S. MS-60. There is a small mark on Liberty's cheek, no luster.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1538 1915. AU-50. One small rim bump on the lower reverse.
Estimated Value $275-300

$10 Gold and $20 Gold

- 1539 1915-S, AU-55. One of just 59,000 minted, most of which were melted in the great gold call in of 1933 and later. Flashy luster and well struck, with minimal handling marks.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300
- 1540 1916-S, AU-55. Nearly new.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 1541 1916-S, EF-45. Nice color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1542 1926, MS-60 Plus. Normal bag quality.
Estimated Value $275-325
- 1543 1926, MS-60. Bright luster.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1544 1926, MS-60. Moderate handling marks.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1545 1926, MS-60. Nice surfaces and color, even with the usual bagmarks.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1546 1926, MS-60. Normal handling marks.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1547 1932, MS-60. Typical bagmarks.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1548 1932, AU-55. Nice luster but there is a long scrape on the reverse.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1549 1932, MS-60. This lot comes with a small gift box which holds an eagle on a felt pad with a small gray ribbon. The box is stamped Bogle Brothers, White River Junction, Vermont and is in fine condition. A few marks on the coin.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1550 1932, AU-58. One mark below the date, another on the eagle.
Estimated Value $225-275

$20 Gold

- 1551 1852, NGC graded AU-58. Clean for the grade, with most of the mint luster still present. Well struck and worth a strong bid.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 1552 1852, NGC graded AU-58. Well struck but we note minor hairlines in the fields. One spot by the second star in the denticles.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 1553 1852-O, PCGS graded AU-58. One of the nicer examples of this date to survive, the fields are prooflike and reflective, while the devices are mint fresh with frost. Fully struck on each star and central device and quite appealing. None of the typical heavy bagmarks here, just light tiny treks always seen. PCGS has graded 20 this high with just 7 graded higher. A scarce date when compared with the more common Philadelphia issues of the era, and worth a strong bid. Rarely are these large gold coins found so problem free.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

- 1554 1853, NGC graded AU-58. Some luster in the fields and well struck. We note minor paste in the lettering and devices.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 1555 1853-O. NGC graded AU-55. Well struck on the devices with the fields a bit prooflike. A popular example of an early mint-marked $20 for the date collector.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1556 1853-O. PCGS graded EF-45. Nice surfaces for the grade, with minor handling marks and nice color. Well struck, but missing a bit of the "O" Mintmark, which must have been weakly struck on the lower left. One for the collector.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 1557 1856-S. VF-30. Light wear but some luster in the fields and well struck. Original copper toning makes this an appealing coin.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 1558 1861. EF-40. Nice surfaces for the grade, although there are some trivial hairlines.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 1559 1861-S. PCGS graded AU-50. This one spent quite a bit of time in a bag being jostled about as the surfaces show a multitude of tiny marks. Mint luster near the devices and typical of the large but soft gold coins of the period.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 1560 1863-S. NGC graded MS-60. Flashy luster in the fields and we note that the handling marks are pretty minimal for the grade. Liberty has a nice check, without the usual gouges or deep cuts. Further, the strike is adequate, with strong details at the high points. This does not appear to be a sea water coin covered from the Brother Jonathan wreck, but we can't be certain. We are sure that this is a nice coin for the grade, and that most collectors would be quite proud of owning it.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1561 1863-S. EF-40. Nice for the grade, with fewer marks than usually encountered. Some luster in the fields and well struck.
Estimated Value $500-550

- 1562 1868-S. EF-40. Nice luster remains, but the surfaces have the usual hairlines and minor handling marks on both sides.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 1563 1869-S. EF-45. Flashy luster in the fields, but there are hairlines on the surfaces. We also note a small impurity on Liberty's neck which is white in color and appears to have caused when the planchet was rolled out. There are some ticks on Liberty's face too, but still a nice coin of this popular date and mint.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 1564 1872. EF-45. Bright and untoned, this coin boasts loads of mint luster, enough to make it appear AU in fact, but numerous small handling marks keep it down a bit. The reverse is very nice, and the strike is strong throughout.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 1565 1873-S. EF-45. Luster in the fields and well struck, minor handling marks for the grade.
Estimated Value $325-350

- 1566 1878-S Mint Error, Minor Lamin. Flap Obv. PCGS graded AU-55. Liberty has a nice long gold flap sticking up above her ear, like a trap door it invites the imagination into the center of the coin. Typical handling marks, and with abundant luster. Quite a story could be made up about this one.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 1567 1879-CC. SEGS graded AU-55. A rare date in high grade, only 10,708 were coined and precious few are found in high grade. This one has flashy luster and clean surfaces for the most part, but we must note a series of digs just below the eighth star into Liberty's head and a pretty good hit on the shield, hidden by the vertical lines there. With mint state coins downright rare, and almost always abraided, this coin should be considered one of the better ones known.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1568 1880. PCGS graded AU-58. A scarce date, 51,400 were struck, and this is one of the best around. PCGS has graded 10 this high, with 9 graded higher. Abundant flash and luster, but there are rather moderate bagmarks on the surfaces.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

- 1569 1884-S. PCGS graded MS-62. Good luster, but banged up a bit by bag handling, including on Liberty's chin and the field nearby.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 1570 1888 Double Die Reverse. PCGS graded MS-61. The reverse die is obviously doubled, with a slight shift visible on many of the letters. While not as dramatic as on the 1955 cent, double dies are scarce and seldom encountered on gold coins. The surfaces show light toning and the usual bagmarks from handling. Liberty's cheek has no deep gouges or other detractors though. This coin is in a PCGS Prestige holder, with the "Doubled Die Reverse" noted on the holder. Rare and not listed in most reference works.
Estimated Value $1,250-UP
- 1571 1891-S. VF-30. Lightly cleaned with minor hairlines in the fields, nice color though and still quite appealing.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1572 1892-S. ICG graded MS-63. Deep gold in color and well preserved fields and devices. Scarce any nicer.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300
- 1573 1894. ICG graded MS-63. As Ira notes "don't expect a cross-over on this one". Minor bagmarks on both sides, but nice luster.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1574 1894-S. MS-60 Plus. Moderate handling marks on the surfaces but with nice luster and color.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1575 1896. MS-60. Flashy luster but average bagmarks.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1576 1898-S. AU-55. Flashy luster and nice surfaces.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1577 1902-S Mint Error, Lamination On Obverse. PCGS graded MS-60. This coin has a significant planchet lamination (buckling) from Liberty's forehead up to the rim. Normal handling marks, but these are offset by the mint fresh luster and lovely gold color. All gold errors are rare, and laminations are seldom seen.
Estimated Value $400-500

Gorgeous 1903 Brilliant Proof $20.00

- 1578 1903. NGC graded Proof 63 Premium Quality. This totally brilliant proof example is remarkably clean for the grade and thus worthy of a premium bid. The surfaces are spot-free and void of hairlines that can be seen with the naked eye. Here is the ideal $20.00 Liberty for your proof set. Only 158 proofs struck.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,500

- 1579 1904. NGC graded MS-65. Gorgeous golden-orange mint bloom color. A perfect example for a high quality type set.
Estimated Value $1,600-1,800
- 1580 1904. MS-63. A very pretty coin for the collector.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 1581 1904. NGC graded MS-61. Typical bagmarks from handling scattered in lustrous fields.
Estimated Value $300-340
- 1582 1904. NGC graded MS-61. Nice luster.
Estimated Value $300-340
- 1583 1904. MS-60. This lot includes a small hand stitched leather pouch marked "Gold" in script lettering, and signed "Austin" above. The coin is slightly prooflike and has decent surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $300-340
- 1584 1904-S. MS-60 Plus. One serape behind Liberty's head, but still very presentable.
Estimated Value $300-350

$20 St. Gaudens

- 1585 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. PCGS graded MS-62. One of the most beautiful coins every produced in any country, the high relief St. Gaudens design should be one of the crowning achievements in any collector's collection. Most were saved from the time of issue, and the coin is as impressive today as the day it was made. Trivial handling marks in the fields, but this one has been off the market for many years and we recently submitted to PCGS for their opinion. For the grade, this specimen is quite nice, and this is a coin that any collector would be proud to own.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

- 1586 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. PCGS graded AU-58. This one shows just a tiny bit of wear on the high points. Perfect for the collector who wants all the pizzazz of a mint state coin at a large discount in the price.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1587 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. PCGS graded AU-58. This one has a whisper of wear on the highest points and retains most of the mint luster. A bargain for the grade which is boldly struck and very appealing.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1588 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. Sharpness of AU-55. Here is a coin for the collector of moderate means. The surfaces have been burnished lightly on both sides and the edge lettering has been filed down substantially in some areas, but is still readable. Liberty's face and microscopic details are all present, and this coin probably never circulated but was poorly cleaned. Undoubtedly this will sell at a nice discount to a more original example, and will thus allow a some collector to purchase an example of this enormously popular coin. Inspection mandatory.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1589 1908. No motto and 1908-D No motto. Both grade AU-50. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $550-600

- 1590 1908. No motto. MS-60. Bright luster.

Estimated Value $300-350

- 1591 1909. NGC graded MS-64. Well struck on the devices and with blazing luster. Here is a rare date in this grade, note the clean surfaces and satiny luster. This date is nearly impossible to locate in full gem, with one this close as good as these are ever found.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1592 1909. MS-60 Plus. A scarce date that has flashy luster and good color. Well struck too.

Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1593 1910-S. MS-60. Scattered bagmarks but this one retains mint luster.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 1594 1912. MS-60. Lower mintage than a common date, but not enough to command a premium. Nice luster and surface quality.

Estimated Value $350-400

Lovely Proof 1913 St. Gaudens

Enlarged

- 1595 1913. NGC graded Matte Proof 64. Philadelphia coined 58 of these in proof for the entire year of 1913. Perhaps that will give the buyer some idea of how few collectors were around back in 1913. If more were struck, they would have been melted as unsold. For a few years the world's mints used the dark matte finish which gave the coins a very different look than the usual shiny mirror fields. With the matte proofs, the entire surface is "matte", somewhat dull in appearance when compared with the earlier flashy proofs. However, because of their distinctive style, these proofs are highly coveted by numismatists today. NGC has graded just 8 this high, with 22 graded higher. Not many to go around.

Estimated Value $17,000-20,000

$20 Gold

- 1596 1915-S. MS-60 Plus. Nice luster and surfaces for the gold bug.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1597 1916-S 2 pieces. One grades EF-45, the other AU-55. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $600-650
- 1598 1920. MS-60. On the baggy side of the fence.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1599 1922. PCGS graded MS-64. This one has the usual orange-gold luster so often seen these days, with well struck devices and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 1600 1922. AU-58. Light wear on the high points.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1601 A lot of 6 Double Eagles each PCGS graded as Mint Errors with Laminations. Each of the following is graded by PCGS as noted, and each label notes these are "Mint Errors" with laminations noted on the obverse or reverse. The first coin is a 1923 AU-58 with a lamination through BERT and Liberty's head; second a 1924 MS-63 with a minor lamination on the reverse at RS of DOLLARS and above; third a 1924 graded MS-64, with a long obverse lamination above the right arm of Liberty; fourth we have a 1924 graded MS-62 with a long reverse lamination extending most of the length of the eagle in a horizontal direction from his neck past the center of his body; fifth we have a 1924 graded MS-64 with a reverse lamination that extends from the wing up to the rim just left of center; and last we have a 1927 graded MS-63 with a minor lamination at LI and below of LIBERTY. As each of these coins is PCGS graded, with the lamination noted on the insert, they would be highly saleable as such. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $2,000-UP
- 1602 1923 and 1924. Both grade AU-50, the first has been cleaned and the second polished. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $500-550

- 1603 1923-D. PCGS graded MS-66. A golden gem with the desirable orange-peel toning.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500
- 1604 1924. ICG graded MS-65. Deep golden luster and well struck. A gem by any standards.
Estimated Value $600-675
- 1605 1924. NGC graded MS-64. Flashy luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 1606 1924. MS-60. Good luster.
Estimated Value $275-325

- 1607 1924-S. PCGS graded MS-63. A pleasing frosty mint example of this very scarce date. Well struck and free from any serious marks.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000
- 1608 1926. NGC graded MS-64 Premium Quality. Mint fresh luster and well struck for this common date.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 1609 1926. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright and untoned, and well struck for this common date. Clean surfaces that show few marks on either side.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 1610 1927. MS-63. Good color and clean fields.
Estimated Value $325-350
- 1611 1927. ANACS graded AU-55 Cleaned. Lightly cleaned with a few resulting hairlines. Flashy luster still and not unattractive.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1612 1928. MS-60. This one has nice color and surfaces for this grade.
Estimated Value $300-350

Commemorative Silver Coins

- 1613 A lovely partial type set of Commemorative halves. This set grades MS-60 and better. The set lacks the following type coins: 1925 Ft. Vancouver, 1927 Vermont, 1928 Hawaii, 1935 Hudson and 1935 Spanish Trail. The balance of the set is mounted in a National Coin Album with the famous Wayne Raymond pages inside. Most of the coins have light toning, and this is truly an old time and style collection. Lot of 43 coins.
Estimated Value $4,000-UP

- 1614 A fabulous U.S. Commemorative Medallion Type Set struck in .999 Fine Silver. This set of replicas of the 50 most popular commemorative type coins was struck by The Highland Mint. Each coin is a frosted proof, with the word "COPY" applied somewhere on the reverse. There were struck in .999 fine silver and mounted in a custom blue album. Mintage of these replicas was limited to 5000 sets, and this is set number 2015.

Frankly, the quality of these replicas is outstanding. They are true to the original designs and have finely engraved details. One might think they were regular mint issues but for the fact that they are so wonderfully frosted on the devices and obviously proof fields surrounding.

As stated by Anthony Swiatek, purchasing a gem set of these (MS-65 or better) would cost in excess of $85,000, putting these out of the reach of most collectors. This is a pleasant alternative, with the designs carefully reproduced and finely engraved. Most show a touch of toning around the periphery from the album. These sets were sold a few years ago at a cost of $2,000 and they are truly a bargain at that price. Lot of 50 coins, and perfect for ebay.

Estimated Value $1,000-UP

- 1615 1925 Norse American Medals, both thick and thin. The thick grades MS-63 and the thin grades MS-60. Lot of 2 medals.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 1616 1893 Isabella Quarter Dollar. NGC graded MS-67. One of the finest graded of this important commemorative issue. The surfaces are toned a lovely yellow gold color with green hints. Of course the surfaces are nearly perfect in every way, with radiant mint luster. Boldly struck and extremely pleasing for the grade. This one must have been put away at the time of issue and carefully preserved to this day. If you demand top quality, then take a look at this piece. Note the nearly perfect fields and devices, which show pristine luster throughout, and virtually no signs of contact. This coin is essentially as issued, save for the delicate hues of toning which occurred naturally over the decades. NGC notes this is one of 22 graded this high, with 7 graded higher, making this certainly one of the finest in existence.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 1617 1893 Isabella Quarter Dollar. NGC graded MS-66. One of the finest to survive of this popular issue, this coin boasts deep satiny gray toning on both sides with deep blue rings and hints of ruby red. Fully struck by the dies, and with exceptional surfaces for this early commemorative issue. Close examination with a glass fails to find fault, there are no contact marks worthy of note and the color is quite magnificent. For the collector who loves toned coins in superb condition.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1618 1893 Isabella Quarter Dollar. Mint State 60. Nice surfaces and color, with original toning on both sides. Better than the grade implies.

Estimated Value $350-400

- 1619 1893 Isabella Quarter Dollar. MS-60. Light peripheral toning and very nice indeed.

Estimated Value $350-400

- 1620 1893 Isabella Quarter Dollar. AU-50. This coin has been lightly circulated, perhaps as a pocket piece, then dipped.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 1621 1921 Alabama Half Dollar, no 2 x 2. PCGS graded MS-66. A splendid gem specimen, nice and frosty with some russet toning resting within the protected areas of the devices. Seldom seen or offered this choice.

Estimated Value $4,000-UP

- 1622 1937 Antietam Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-67. A lightly toned gem.

Estimated Value $800-850

- 1623 Commemorative Half Lot. This lot includes the following all ANACS graded as indicated: 1892 Columbian Exposition MS-63; 1925 Lexington AU-58; 1936 S Bay Bridge MS-63; 1936 Long Island MS-62 and 1946 Iowa MS-65. Lot of 5 coins.

Estimated Value $275-350

Commemorative Silver Coins

- 1624 1936 PDS Arkansas Half Dollar Set with the original box of issue. This original set is all ICG graded as follows: 1936 MS-67, 1936-D MS-67 and 1936-S MS-66. The original black case of issue is included, the clasp is present and the case is in good condition. These original cases are seldom seen these days, and are very popular. Now that we are in the modern era, we have new grading service cases, but these old ones remind us of quaint days of yesteryear. The coins have bands of gold toning from the original case on the obverse, and are steel gray elsewhere.
Estimated Value $5,000-UP
- 1625 Eleven piece Commemorative half lot. The following are included: 1936 Arkansas; 1925 California; 1892 Columbian Exposition; 1893 Columbian Exposition; 1924 Huguenot; 1925 Lexington (2 pieces); 1923 Monroe (2 pieces); 1920 Pilgrim and 1952 Washington Carver. These grade MS-60 or better. Some have been cleaned and retoned. Lot of 11 coins.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 1626 1936 Arkansas Half Dollar. ICG graded MS-65. White and frosty, with just a couple of tiny ticks.
Estimated Value $100-115
- 1627 1937 PDS Arkansas Half Dollar set. This set grades MS-60 to 63. A nice set of these dates. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1628 1936-S Bay Bridge Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-66. Bright white and untuned, with abundant luster and clean surfaces. Fully struck and exceptional for the grade.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1629 A group of Commemorative Halves. The following are included: 1936-S Bay Bridge; 1925-S California; 1936 Cleveland; 1923-S Monroe and 1928 Stone Mountain, each grades MS-60. All are untuned and most have probably been dipped a time or two, as always, but retain most of the original luster. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1630 1935 PDS Boone Half Dollar set. This set grades MS-63. Light toning on some, and nice for the grade. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $175-225
- 1631 1935-D Boone Half Dollar and 1946 Booker T. Washington. Both grade MS 60 or better. Both are toned, the BTW especially so. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 1632 1935 Boone Half Dollar. Small 1934 on reverse. NGC graded MS-67. Hazy toning and very well struck on both sides. Excellent luster and superb surfaces, which show no significant marks anywhere.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400
- 1633 1936 Boone Half Dollar and 1936 Cleveland. Both are NGC graded MS-65. Both are bright and untuned. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 1634 1938-D Boone Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-66. Mill white tones with scattered blotches of color, mostly at the rim.
Estimated Value $700-750
- 1635 1936 Bridgeport Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Hazy toning on the obverse and reverse, with loads of mint luster and super clean surfaces. One of the better ones graded.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1636 1952 Carver-Washington Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. Bright and flashy throughout, untuned.
Estimated Value $25-30
- 1637 1953-S Carver-Washington Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. With splashes of golden toning on both sides, quite lovely and scarce in this grade. PCGS notes only 14 graded this high with none graded higher, making this perhaps one of the finest known! Don't miss out.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 1638 1892 Columbian Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-65. A gem that boasts beautiful gold and green peripheral toning and excellent luster in the fields. The strike is full, with definition of the sails.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1639 1892 Columbian Half Dollar (2 pieces). Both grade MS-60 or better. Further, both are nicely toned with deep gray highlights in the fields. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $50-75
- 1640 A group of Commemorative Halves. The following are included in this lot: 1893 Columbian; 1925 Lexington-Corcoran; 1936 Long Island; 1934 Texas; 1951 Booker T. Washington and 1954-S Washington-Carver. Each grades MS-63. Most are untuned and flashy. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 1641 1935 Connecticut Half Dollar. ANACS graded MS-66. Lightly toned on both sides with superb surface quality beneath.
Estimated Value $400-500

Commemorative Silver Coins

- 1642 1922 Grant Half Dollar, with star. NGC graded MS-65. Graced by lovely toning around the periphery and a touch of silvery shades at the centers. The with star variety is tough to find in gem condition, NGC has graded 135 as such, with 30 graded higher. An important coin for the commemorative specialist.

Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 1643 1922 Grant Half Dollar, no star. PCGS graded MS-67. As fresh and unhampered an example as you will ever see! Some natural mottled sunset toning rests upon the surfaces of both sides. A stunning gem specimen.

Estimated Value $2,500-UP

- 1644 A group of Commemorative Halves. This group includes a 1922 Grant, No Star grading AU-50; 1920 Maine grading VG; 1920 Pilgrim grading AU-55 and a 1926 Sesquicentennial grading EF, cleaned. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $100-125

- 1645 1928 Hawaiian Half Dollar. MS-60+. Hazy toning on both sides with iridescent hues around the periphery. A very nice example of this rare commemorative issue. Clean surfaces for the moderate grade

Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1646 1935 Hudson Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-67. Bluish and yellowish hazy toning over luster on both sides. Well struck and quite appealing if you like coins that have some toning, but not too much! Pristine surfaces that show just a few scattered ticks from handling over the decades. Note that only 11 have been graded this high by NGC, with none graded higher! Don't miss this opportunity.

Estimated Value $7,500-8,500

- 1647 1935 Hudson Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. Hazy milk toning on both sides and very clean for the grade. Well struck. From an old collection.

Estimated Value $450-550

- 1648 1924 Huguenot-Walloon Half Dollar NGC graded MS-64 and 1936 Long Island ICG graded MS-64. The first has dark gray toning on both sides, the second is untoned and flashy. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $150-175

- 1649 1918 Illinois Half Dollar (2 pieces). Both grade AU-50 to 55. One is nicely toned, the other dull gray. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $100-125

- 1650 1936 Lynchburg Half Dollar and 1934 Maryland. These grade MS-60 or better. The Lynchburg has light golden toning, while the Maryland is white and untoned. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 1651 1923 Monroe Doctrine Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64 Premium Quality. Satiny and white with decent luster on both sides. Minor handling ticks in the fields and with a typical strike for the issue.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 1652 1923 Monroe Doctrine Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. Satiny silver in color with nice luster and clean surfaces.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 1653 1936 Norfolk Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Clean surfaces, but there is one dark circle of toning on the right side of the obverse.

Estimated Value $275-325

- 1654 1928 Oregon Trail Half Dollar. MS-63. Nicely toned

Estimated Value $120-140

- 1655 1937-D Oregon Trail Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-68. One of the finest commemorative half dollars of any date. Check out the surfaces on this jewel, they are stunning and pristine. The upper obverse has a delicate band of toning in the shades of a rainbow, while the reverse has light peripheral green and gold toning too. Boldly struck and close enough to perfection to dazzle the eye long after the price is paid.

Estimated Value $1,500-UP

Commemorative Silver Coins

- 1656 1915 Panama-Pacific Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-65. Pearl gray in color and generally without toning. Well struck on the cherubs rump and oak leaves too. One of the most popular commemoratives for the delightful design elements, and seldom found in gem grades.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 1657 1920 Pilgrim Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. Fresh mint luster and untoned. The central reverse has a bit of weakness in the strike.
Estimated Value $275-300
- 1658 1921 Pilgrim Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. Sharply struck on the bold devices and well preserved for this issue. Strong luster and untoned. A gem and tough to find this nice.
Estimated Value $400-440
- 1659 1937 Roanoke Half Dollar. MS-63. Lightly toned around the rims with gold, the luster is nice and the surfaces clean for the grade.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 1660 1935-S San Diego Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. A well struck, untoned gem that has excellent luster.
Estimated Value $70-80

- 1661 1936-D San Diego Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-67. One of just 32 graded this high, with none graded higher by PCGS! Magnificent toning of sunset golds with radiant red and greens in colorful rings around the devices. Pristine surfaces.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,000
- 1662 1926 Sesquicentennial Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-64. Deep toning probably from the original paper holder from the Mint. Excellent surfaces underneath, from what we can see, but its hard to tell.
Estimated Value $175-200
- 1663 1935 Old Spanish Trail Half Dollar. MS-63. Clean surfaces and decent luster for this scarce Commemorative.
Estimated Value $550-650
- 1664 1925 Stone Mountain Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 1665 1938 Texas Half Dollar. MS-60 Plus. Untoned and with nice surfaces, although a touch dull.
Estimated Value $150-175
- 1666 1925 Fort Vancouver Half Dollar. MS-63. Bright from a recent dipping, and the edge shows flecks of dark toning.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1667 1927 Vermont Half Dollar. MS-64. A bit of hazy colorful toning on both sides, well struck and with most of the luster remaining.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1668 1927 Vermont Half Dollar. AU-50 Cleaned. A bit harsh cleaned with resulting hairlines.
Estimated Value $90-100

- 1669 1946 Booker T. Washington Half Dollar. ICG graded MS-67. Deep golden orange in color on both sides! If you demand a highly toned example for your commemorative collection then take a peek at the glowing gem.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1670 1936 Wisconsin Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-66. This one has some crusty toning areas mostly around the edge, deep gold on the obverse and lighter on the reverse.
Estimated Value $160-180
- 1671 No Lot.

- 1672 1900 Lafayette Dollar. MS-60. A decent coin for the grade from an old collection that has been off the market for a very long time.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1673 1900 Lafayette Dollar. AU-50. Lightly cleaned and with just a hint of rub.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 1674 1900 Lafayette Dollar. Accugrade graded AU-53 and one grade EF-45. This one has been cleaned and retoned to a dull gray color on both sides. Moderate handling marks, and perhaps a pocket piece for a time.
Estimated Value $175-200

Commemorative Gold Coins

Gold Norse American Centennial Medal in Gem

- 1675 1925, Norse American Centennial, Gold Medal, ICG graded Matte Proof 67. Certainly one of the very finest known of the issue, only 100 were coined, and apparently 53 were returned to the Mint as unsold. Struck in Matte Proof, the surfaces are virtually perfect and show no signs of handling or age, aside from a tiny speck located near the foot of the first N in CENTENNIAL. One tiny rim tick is noted on the lower right obverse. The lovely design is by James Earle Fraser with the obverse depicting a Viking with shield and sword, and the reverse with an early Viking ship under full sail and oar power. These were struck in 1925 at the request of Minnesota Congressman O. J. Kvale. Official records indicate that 47 were sold, and a single trial piece remained with John R. Sinnock, the Chief Mint Engraver.

For many years these impressive octagonal medals were collected along with the regular commemorative coinage and were struck in copper-bronze, thick and thin silver and gold. A rarity that is seldom offered and certainly not approaching this quality when occasionally found.
Estimated Value $12,500-UP

- 1676 11 piece Commemorative Gold set. These grade from EF to Uncirculated. The set contains several nice coins and they are mounted in a custom Capital Plastics holder. Worth taking a look to figure your bid, as the set could be broken up easily. Lot of 11 coins.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,500

Enlarged

- 1677 1922 Grant Dollar, with star. PCGS graded MS-66. A blazing gem that has full luster and superb surfaces throughout. High-end for the grade, with a good strike and virtually no handling marks.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

Enlarged

- 1678 1922 Grant Dollar, with star. PCGS graded MS-65. Held back from an even higher grade by a faint line on Grant's temple. Vibrant luster and well struck, and a gem in every regard. One almost expects to see Mrs. Grant waving from the cabin window in her apron with a fresh baked apple pie, the engraving is so fine.
Estimated Value $2,200-2,700
- 1679 1922 Grant Dollar, with star. PCGS graded MS-65. Here is a lovely gem that has a strong strike and excellent luster throughout. No toning and well preserved. Gems are scarce with the star on the obverse.
Estimated Value $2,200-2,700

Enlarged

- 1680 1922 Grant Dollar, no star. PCGS graded MS-64. A couple of tiny copper spots are all that note the passage of time on this one. Excellent surfaces and luster, and the strike is good too. Perfect for the collector who needs this important issue.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,000

Enlarged

- 1681 1922 Grant Dollar, no star. MS-60. This one has been cleaned and we note hairlines in the fields that have disturbed the luster. Well struck.
Estimated Value $800-900

Enlarged

- 1682 1904 Lewis and Clark Dollar, PCGS graded MS-64. A gem that boasts untuned luster and well struck devices. Clean for the grade.
Estimated Value $2,800-3,200

Commemorative Gold Coins

Enlarged

- 1683 1904 Lewis and Clark Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. Hazy toning in the fields with a few stray lines noted there. Nearly a gem. Both explorers have nice cheeks and display well struck devices.
Estimated Value $2,800-3,200

Enlarged

- 1684 1905 Lewis and Clark Dollar. PCGS graded MS-63. Bright and untoned with abundant luster. We note some minor surface marks in the left obverse field.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,700

Enlarged

- 1685 1905 Lewis and Clark Dollar. PCGS graded MS-63. A few hairlines from a higher grade, with decent luster and a good strike for this issue.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,700
- 1686 1905 Lewis and Clark Dollar. EF-45. Bummer, there are some pin scratches on both sides.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1687 1905 Lewis and Clark Dollar. Sharpness of AU-50 but used as jewelry. This one was used as jewelry, with some solder remaining.
Estimated Value $125-150

Enlarged

- 1688 1903 Louisiana Purchase-Jefferson Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. This is a beauty, well struck on the devices and without a flaw. An exciting example that must have just missed the full gem grade.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

Enlarged

- 1689 1903 Louisiana Purchase-Jefferson Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. This one has gem color and surfaces, and the only reason it did not receive a gem grade must be the microscopic line on Jefferson's cheek. Blazing color, luster and near gem surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $900-1,100
- 1690 1903 Louisiana Purchase-Jefferson Dollar. PCGS graded MS-62. Scattered tick marks on both sides, but fresh and original appearing. Popular with collectors.
Estimated Value $340-400
- 1691 1903 Louisiana Purchase-Jefferson Dollar. AU-55. Charming surfaces that are enhanced by coppery toning and some nicks.
Estimated Value $200-250

Enlarged

- 1692 1903 Louisiana Purchase-McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. A blazing gem uncirculated example which is untoned and well struck. The only tick mark we could locate is on the reeding above the TE of STATES, and a couple of shallow faint hairlines in the reverse fields.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

Enlarged

- 1693 1903 Louisiana Purchase-McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. We note some tiny copper spots on both sides over mint-fresh luster. Trivial handling ticks visible with a glass.
Estimated Value $950-1,000

Commemorative Gold Coins

Enlarged

- 1694 1903 Louisiana Purchase-McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. Sharply struck by the dies with strong details on McKinley's ear, bow tie and forehead. Bright luster and free of significant handling marks.
Estimated Value $950-1,050

Enlarged

- 1695 1903 Louisiana Purchase-McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. Deep reddish copper toning on both sides, and quite beautiful. Well struck for the date.
Estimated Value $950-1,050

- 1696 1903 Louisiana Purchase-McKinley Dollar. MS-63. Nice and original, but a touch weak in the strike on the upper reverse details.
Estimated Value $400-500

Enlarged

- 1697 1916 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. A few scattered ticks on McKinley, otherwise all is fresh and lustrous. Well struck and gem by today's standards.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,100

Enlarged

- 1698 1916 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. A well struck gem that has excellent surfaces and good luster. Clean on McKinley's face.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,100

Enlarged

- 1699 1916 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. Deep golden color with hazy shades mixed in on the devices. A gem in the old green insert holder.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,100

Enlarged

- 1700 1916 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. Bright and original, with loads of luster and only faint signs of handling. A gem by any standards, and worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,100

Enlarged

- 1701 1916 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. This little blazer has rich yellow-gold color on both sides and is well struck. Nearly a gem, with clean surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 1702 1916 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. There are some very faint marks in the left obverse field. Well struck and fresh.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 1703 1916 McKinley Dollar. AU-50. Lightly cleaned or perhaps just circulated a bit.
Estimated Value $175-225

Enlarged

- 1704 1917 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. Glowing luster and nearly a gem. An important offering for the commemorative gold specialist.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,800

Commemorative Gold Coins

- 1705 1917 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded MS-63. One tiny nick before McKinley's neck, bright and lustrous on both sides.
Estimated Value $550-650

Enlarged

- 1706 1917 McKinley Dollar. PCGS graded AU-58 Premium Quality. This one just "missed" mint state. Nice color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $250-350

Enlarged

- 1707 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the nicest of these we've seen, it came in the original envelope from the Exposition and went straight to PCGS. Note the delicate copper specks on both sides, and creamy luster in the fields. PCGS has graded 380 this high, with just 37 graded higher (all MS-67).
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500
- 1708 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. PCGS graded MS-62. Minor surface marks on the cap, but very lustrous elsewhere.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1709 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. MS-60+. Mint fresh luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1710 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. MS-60. A few hairlines on the cap of the digger on the obverse, otherwise mint fresh.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1711 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. Sharpness of AU-50. Lightly polished and a couple of scattered marks are present on the lower reverse. A beautiful commemorative gold coin for its intriguing design motifs.
Estimated Value $150-200

Enlarged

- 1712 1915-S Panama-Pacific $2.50. PCGS graded MS-65. Near perfect surfaces throughout, with mint-fresh luster and bold devices. Note the swirl lines in the fields from the original die polishing. These are present on all specimens seen, and are the result of the San Francisco Mint's die preparation process. One of the most beautiful designs employed in the entire commemorative series.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

Enlarged

- 1713 1915-S Panama-Pacific $2.50. PCGS graded MS-64. Satisfactory luster in the fields and untuned by time. A few minor handling marks on the high points, and Liberty's face is not as finely detailed as usual. One of the most popular commemorative coins for its superb design motifs and the importance of the Panama Canal.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

Enlarged

- 1714 1915-S Panama-Pacific $2.50. PCGS graded MS-63. A few minor handling marks from a higher grade, but nice luster and color.
Estimated Value $1,900-2,200

Enlarged

- 1715 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright and lustrous, with well struck devices and a hint of delicate copper toning. Nearly a gem! Check it out.
Estimated Value $650-700
- 1716 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. PCGS graded MS-64. Clean surfaces and good luster on this example. Most of the ticks on Liberty, as usual.
Estimated Value $650-700
- 1717 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. PCGS graded MS-64. This coin is far better than the "average" MS-64 in our opinion. Liberty is usually a bagmark magnet, but not so here, she is clean and undisturbed when compared with other coins of this grade. Further, the strike is nice and complete, and the luster unbroken. Let's see how this one does when it crosses the block.
Estimated Value $650-700
- 1718 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. NGC graded MS-64. These are always struck in shallow relief, similar to the Peace dollars of the era. Flashy gold luster and clean fields and devices.
Estimated Value $650-700
- 1719 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. MS-63. A few scattered ticks, nearly always seen on this issue. Flashy luster.
Estimated Value $350-400

Medals & Errors

1720 1859 Great Eastern Side Wheel Steamer Silver Medal. EF-40. This medal is the size of a half dollar and shows the magnificent side wheel steam ship blazing along through the waves, with the sails duly tucked away, the reverse states DESIGNED BY I.K. BRUNEL and BUILT BY SCOTT RUSSELL and further describes the length, depth and weight. No doubt the traveling public was afraid to get on these side wheel ships after the disastrous loss of the similar U.S.S. Central America in 1857. Light wear on the medal, with lovely antique silver-gray toning on both sides.

Estimated Value $75-UP

1721 1972. Set of 36 pieces from the Medallie Art Company to commemorate the National Parks. These lovely medals are struck in .999 silver and are silver dollar size. 36 parks are represented, from Sequoia to the Virgin Islands, even break wind cave is there. Perfect for marketing on ebay. Struck in a dull matte finish, the die engraving is quite interesting and many have animals or scenes from the various parks depicted. Lot of 36 silver medals.

Estimated Value $200-UP

1722 1983. Quarter. Off-struck 15%. Mint State 64.

Estimated Value $75-UP

1723 1993 Mint Error, this is a Cent struck over a previously struck Dime. NGC graded MS-64. Make no mistake about it, this is a rare error. First of all, this coin started out as a 1993 dime and was struck normally. Somehow it got mixed in with a batch of cent planchets and fed through the coining press again. Lincoln was stamped over Roosevelt and the obverse design of the dime clearly shows on the reverse of the cent. One mark in the cent obverse field before Lincoln's nose will serve to identify this wonderful error coin.

Estimated Value $350-450

The Majestic "Rainbow" Notes of 1869

- 1736 Set of 7 1869 Rainbow Notes - $1.00 thru $100.00. This most impressive set consists of the following notes: Fr. 18 $1.00, Choice Crisp Uncirculated; Fr. 42 $2.00 CGA graded Choice Uncirculated 63; Fr. 64 $5.00, CGA graded Gem Uncirculated 65; Fr. 96 $10.00, Crisp Uncirculated; Fr. 127 $20.00, Crisp Uncirculated; Fr. 151 $50.00, CGA graded Fine 15 Restored (the repair is in the upper right corner and is barely detectable); Fr. 168 $100.00, CGA graded Fine 15.

The Rainbow notes of 1869, marked "Treasury Notes", are actually Legal Tender issues under the congressional act of March 3, 1863. These uniquely colored notes were issued in an attempt to update the appearance of our currency in circulation at a time when dangerous counterfeits of the prior currency designs were prevalent. The newly formed Secret Service was engaged in tracking down counterfeiters and needed an inventive deterrent. The brilliant rainbow colors were difficult to duplicate, and once again the Treasury Department gained the upper hand with the appearance of these new notes.

The rarity of these notes has long been appreciated as only a handful of these 1869 issues were actually saved. As a general rule, the higher the denomination, the rarer the issue. The two keys to the set are the $50.00, of which only 49 are known (17 of which are permanently off the market), and the $100.00 note, of which only about 18 are known (half of which are also permanently off the market). This is a spectacular set that will delight the currency specialists for years to come.

- 1833 Rare Grinnell Paper Money Storage Book. A storage book that once housed Albert A. Grinnell's personal paper money collection. His notes were sold in the 1940s by Barney Blustone and have not been seen by the collecting public since that time. Many empty old celophane pages are intact, and one can only wonder where this famous collection resides, and imagine the fabulous notes that were housed in this very album for years and years, a treasure to be sure. A rare item that was recovered years ago after some forgotten deal was distributed and held aside as a treasured memento of the glory days of currency collecting. The binding is partially split in the front, but it would make a fine addition to an advanced collector's holdings.
Estimated Value $500-1000
- 1834 A Grinnell Style Paper Money Storage Book. This black book once housed paper money, and is identical to the book owned by Albert J. Grinnell (see similar lot in this sale). Estimated Value $100-150

- 2562 Central Italy(?), c. 4th-3rd century BC. AE Cockle Shell (75.1 g). The bronze semi-domed, with the curved top grooved to simulate the shell's ribbing. Base flat. Width: 40 mm. Cf. Hendin, W17, there as a weight of 5 shekels (73.8 g). With brown-black patina and touches of red and green, and with earthen highlights. Choice Very Fine. Scarce.
Estimated Value $650-700

These objects have been found often in Italy, and other parts of Eastern Europe, along with finds in the Near East, and especially Palestine. Those from Italy have frequently been found in association with the Italic Aes Rude. That they may be a form of bullion or currency has been expanded on by G. Fallani in, Numismatics: A Witness to History, IANP 8, pl. 6, 2-2c. Those from the Near East are usually considered to be a type of weight, e.g., Hendin, W17 (of similar weight). The patina on the above example suggests a findspot in the Near East.

Outstanding Thurium Distater

Possibly Unique Year 1 Large Bronze

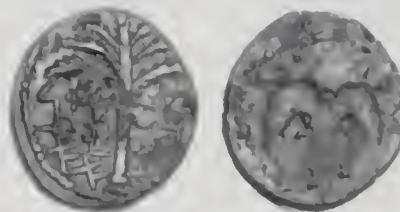

- 2655 Bar Kochba Revolt, 132-135 AD. AE Large Bronze (34 mm.), Year 1, struck 132/133 AD. Hebrew inscription in three lines ("Simon Prince of Israel"), within wreath; below, rectangular incuse counterstamp, with AA within. Reverse: Amphora with two handles; Hebrew inscription around ("Year one of the redemption of Israel"). Hendin 677; Meshorer 3b; Mildenerberger 1; for counterstamp, cf. Howgego 51, "Hadrian." Note a counterstamped Middle Bronze in Rosenberger IV, p. 82, no. 24. Pleasant dark brown-green patina with reddish-ocher highlights. Typical soft strike, although the counterstamping process may have added to the flatness. Pleasing, and nearly Very Fine. Very rare. Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

This is a most unusual variety to an already rare series -- in fact this being the first countermarked large Bar Kochba bronze that we've handled. The counterstamp would indicate that it was applied under the authority of Hadrian's administration, yet by its appearance the coin would seem to have endured an excessive amount of wear within a six year period. Although the striking of these coins can be notoriously uneven, perhaps, though, the coin was flattened or hammered to some extent in an attempt to deface it prior to being counterstamped. In any event, it remains a provocative item from this contentious era of Roman and Judean history.

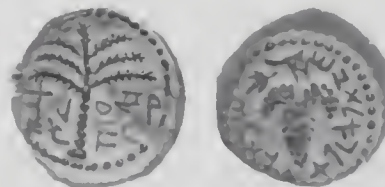

A Splendid Year 1 Middle Bronze

- 2656 Bar Kochba Revolt, 132-135 AD. AE Middle bronze (25 mm.), Year 1, struck 132/33 AD. Seven-branched palm tree, with two bunches of dates; Hebrew inscription across field ("Shim'on, Prince of Israel"). Reverse: Vine leaf on branch; Hebrew inscription around ("Year One of the Redemption of Israel"). Hendin 678; AJC II, p. 265, 5. Mild. 34. Beautifully centered and boldly struck, on slightly oval flan of good metal. Good dark gray-olive patina, with slight earthen highlights. Choice Extremely Fine. A superb example from what is perhaps the most stylish dies in this series. Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 2657 Bar Kochba Revolt, 132-135 AD. AE Middle Bronze (22 mm), Year 1, struck 132/133 AD. Estimated Value $250-300

The remarkable reverse of this aureus commemorates the role the Praetorian guard played in elevating Claudius to the office of emperor. Another feature of note is the treatment of the edges. The coin, although well circulated, had retained much of its desired weight, and it would seem that it had been prepared in antiquity to be overstruck by working the edges of the flan. A not too distant comparison to this can be found in the occasional Roman silver coin that appears on the market, and which was prepared for res striking by the rebels of the Bar Kochba War, but never made it. Note a silver drachm from Bostra in a sale catalog, Antiqua VIII, no. 84, where like the gold coin above, the flan had been rounded and the edges worked inward somewhat. The above aureus' current weight would be consistent with the gold issues of Domitian.

Gold Solidus (4.5 g), Constantinople mint. Helmeted, diademed, and cuirassed bust facing, holding Victory and shield. Reverse: Constantinopolis enthroned frontal, head right, holding spear and globus cruciger; officina Θ. SBC 345. Sharply struck, and fully lustrous. Extremely Fine.

Estimated Value $200-250

A Choice and Rare Lightweight Solidus of Tiberius II

Enlarged

- 2773 Tiberius II, 578-582 AD. Lightweight Gold Solidus (4.1 g), Theoupolis (Antioch) mint. Crowned and cuirassed bust facing, holding globus cruciger and shield. Reverse: Cross potent on four steps; in exergue, O, B, cross, and star; officina ΘS. D.O.C. 38; BMC 9; Tolstoi 12, 12a; MIB (Hahn) 5; Adelson 80-87; SBC 446. The lower face a trifle softly struck, but with much residual luster in fields. This issue tends to have a more satiny luster, rather than the glossy luster of the Constantinople issues. Superb Extremely Fine.

Estimated Value $500-UP

Authorities are divided as to whether the mint should be assigned to Constantinople or Antioch. Nevertheless, the coins remain very rare, with perhaps a dozen known specimens. This one acquired by the consignor over 35 years ago. Important and not to be missed.

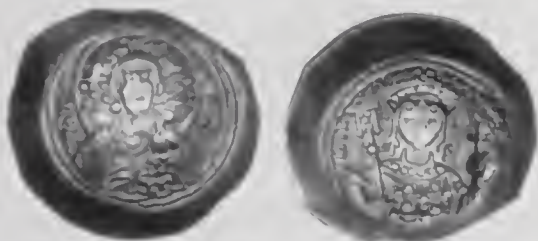

Ancient Coins & Antiquities

- 2774 Romanus III, 1028-1034. Gold Histamenon Nomisma (4.4 g), Constantinople mint. Christ enthroned facing, holding Gospels. Reverse: Romanus and the Virgin stand facing, while she crowns him at left. SBC 1819; D.O.C. 1b-d. Small die break at obverse edge. Nicely struck and lustrous. Extremely Fine.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 2775 Constantine IX, 1042-1055. Gold Tetarteron (4.0 gr). Bust of Christ facing, raising right hand in benediction and holding book of Gospels. Reverse: Bust of the emperor facing, bearded, wearing crown and holding sceptre and globe. Sear 1832. Extremely Fine. Rare, particularly this choice.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 2776 Michael VII, 1071-1078 AD. Electrum Histamenon Nomisma (4.4 g). Nimbate bust of Christ facing, holding Gospels with star pattern on cover. Reverse: Facing bust of Michael, holding labarum and globus cruciger. SBC 1868 var. With reddish brown toning. About Very Fine.
Estimated Value $125-150

Antiquities

- 2777 Flint Axe Blade of Neolithic Britain, England, c. 4th millennium BC. The elongated blade roughly biconvex, and fashioned of mottled deep gray flint. The stone rough knapped to shape, and then sharpened and finished with grinding and polishing. Intact – the blade still sharp and usable. Length 8 3/8". With old applied label stating: "Found at Mills works, Church End, Finchley, Nov 1905." A good example.
Estimated Value $650-750

Near East & Judea

- 2778 A Sumerian Dedicatory Cone in Clay, City State of Isin, ca. 1953-1935 BC. Inscribed on a terra cotta cone, with rounded base, is a text by King Ishme-Dagan of Isin. The Cuneiform inscription is around the shaft of the cone, in two registers of equal length. The text states: "Ishme-Dagan, mighty man, King of Isin, King of the Four Quarters, when he cancelled the taxes of Nippur, the city beloved by Enlil, and excused its men from military service, he built the wall of the city of Isin, naming it Ishme-Dagan, the might of the great god." Complete and intact, and finely preserved. Length: 5-3/4". Fine and scarce, with a much more interesting text than average.
Estimated Value $1,350-1,750

Clay cones were inscribed with dedicatory inscriptions and imbedded in the walls of various structures, usually temples, or, as the case here, the city's walls.

- 2779 An Administrative Tablet, Cuneiform Inscribed, Southern Mesopotamia, Old Babylonian Period, c. 1900-1700 BC. The tablet in a pinkish-brown clay, complete, and written in ten lines. It lists nine men who either received, or delivered one sheep, and their supervisor. The tablet does not denote the purpose of this enumeration, nor is it dated, but it originates in southern Mesopotamia. Intact and in extremely fine condition, the characters are written in a bold, if somewhat provincial hand. A neat and pleasing example overall. Size: 1 3/8" x 1-20/16". Comes with full translation of text.
Estimated Value $160-335

2780 Elaborately-handled Short Sword. Iran, Luristan or Peripheral Caspian, c. 1000-700 BC. Sword's blade of lanceolate shape, having thickly raised midrib and flanked by very shallow channels serving as blood grooves -- this very typical for the blades found in the region. The figural handle of twin lion protomes comprising the pommel, a segmented and knobbed grip, along with stylized felines forming the hilt, is more reminiscent of metalwork from the zone of Neo-Assyrian influence. The handle somewhat cleaned but still with areas of pleasing green patina; the blade left with crusty green patina. Repair at junction of blade and handle, and trivial restoration to segment of blade's edge -- otherwise, nicely preserved overall. Length: 18". A flashy and appealing artifact for the lover of ancient military exotica.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,850

2781 Jar Handle with King of Hebron's Seal. Israel, late 8th century BC. Fragment of a large storage jar, made of coarse gray ware, and containing the complete handle. The handle deeply impressed by a large oval seal bearing the king's device: suggestive of an X, a top view of an Egyptian scarab beetle displaying four wings. Above and below, a two line inscription in paleo-Hebrew characters: "Lmlkh Hbrn" ("Belonging to the King of Hebron"). Handle well preserved, the impression crisp and clean. The sealing remarkably complete, as it is more typical to encounter the seal only partially impressed. Height: 5-3/8". An exceptional specimen of Iron Age "Judaica." Rare.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

2782 Another Jar Handle with King of Hebron's Seal. Israel, late 8th century BC. An additional fragment, from the same jar as the preceding lot. On this the handle partially complete, but again deeply impressed by a large oval seal of the king's device: a top view of an Egyptian scarab beetle displaying four wings. Above and below, a two line inscription in paleo-Hebrew characters: "Lmlkh Hbrn" ("Belonging to the King of Hebron"). The impression sharp and clean! Likewise the sealing unusually complete, and much better than those usually encountered. Height: 3". Again, a choice specimen of Iron Age "Judaica." Rare.
Estimated Value $800-1,200

2783 Stylish Bronze Alabastron, from Persian Era Israel. Judaea, c. 6th - Early 5th century BC. This slim cosmetic vessel derived from earlier Egyptian prototypes in carved stone. The bottle with narrow conical body, the base truncated to form a small flat foot. The neck constricted with wide everted rim -- this slightly rounded to make an easy applicator for the oils or scented contents within (analogous to the roll-on applicators today). Tab handles on either side, with low projecting fins below. Within each handle, remains of links from the chain handle that was once attached. Item intact and pristine, with pleasing medium green patina. Height: 3-3/4", on custom plexiglass stand. Cf. Petrie, Stone Vases, for alabastera with similar handles: no. 955 (6th century BC.); no. 959 (beginning of Persian occupation); and no. 962, for applicator top. A simple yet elegant artifact. Searched this nice.
Estimated Value $700-900

- 2784 A Tenth Legion Floor Tile from Ancient Jerusalem, Israel, Late 1st - 2nd century AD. The tile, a paver, is fashioned from a gritty pinkish-biege clay and hard fired. A square of 7" on each side, and about 1-3/8" thick, the tile has impressed on its face a rectangular stamp with the letters "LEG X FR," for "Legio Decima Fretensis." The letters complete and clear, although the stamp was a bit weakly impressed at the center. The full tile nicely preserved. Decent examples are much more difficult to find these days. An important artifact for the Judaica or military collector.
- Estimated Value $975-1,250

Actually found in Jerusalem, the owner of this and the following two lots encountered a course of these tiles while performing some repairs and remodeling to his basement. (There must be many more interesting basements scattered around the Holy City!).

Stationed in Palestine and Syria, the Tenth Legion made up the forces that Vespasian employed in northern Israel during his campaign of 66 AD. Later, the legion comprised a good portion of the troops that destroyed Jerusalem under Titus. Three years later they completed the mopping up of the First Revolt when they captured Masada. Afterwards, the Tenth Legion became the official permanent garrison for the province of Judaea. Following the Bar Kochba revolt, the legion was stationed in Jerusalem (Aelia Capitolina) itself. In the early 1990's a major Tenth Legion site was discovered during excavations for a parking lot next to the National Auditorium in Jerusalem. At that time a number of like tiles came on to the market, but these have long since been dispersed. See N. Avigad, Discovering Jerusalem, 1980, p. 206, figs. 2, 3, and 4.

- 2785 Another Tenth Legion Floor Tile from Ancient Jerusalem, Israel, Late 1st - 2nd century AD. This tile like that in the preceding lot. A square of about 7" on each side, and 1-3/4" thick, but this in a more tan colored clay. Impressed on its face a rectangular stamp with the letters "LEG X FR," for "Legio Decima Fretensis." The letters complete, although the stamping is somewhat weak or worn at the center. The full tile nicely preserved. Again, an important collectible for the Judaica or military collector.
- Estimated Value $675-950

- 2786 A last Tenth Legion Floor Tile from Ancient Jerusalem, Israel, Late 1st - 2nd century AD. A good sized fragment of the tiles seen in the preceding lots. A roughly triangular piece of about 5" on the longest sides, and 1-1/4" thick. This tile is a red-orange clay. Impressed on its face a rectangular stamp with the letters "LEG X FR," for "Legio Decima Fretensis." The letters are three quarters complete, and fully legible. A beautiful example of this historic artifact.
- Estimated Value $400-475

- 2787 Important Judaic Ceramic Lamp with Menorah Motifs. Arab-Byzantine Era Palestine, c. 7th-9th century. So-called "slipper" lamp, for its shape, is molded in two pieces in a red-orange terra cotta. The underside of the lamp plain, the shoulders ornamented, a plain trough-like channel connects the wick and filling holes. As typical of this class, the decorative motifs are symmetrically placed: towards the nozzle, a long palm branch; at the knob handle a small tree or branch. Flanking these on either side are two menorahs, plus rectangular grids, suggesting walls or panels. The lamp virtually pristine, with thin, cleanable calcereous patina. Length: 3-1/2". Rare and noteworthy.

Estimated Value $1,500-UP

Usually in this class of lamps, menorah-like motifs are found but are very crude, and can with equal likelihood depict tree or floral subjects, rather than the menorahs as some attest them to be. On the above lamp, however, the menorahs are clear and explicit. In fact, two varieties are shown. One, the normal type with six arms flanking the central arm, is as expected.

However, the second, without a doubt shows eight arms and is thus a Haminkah lamp! Taken overall, the motifs around the lamp's shoulders can be considered an emblematic representation of a synagogue or temple. And so, an important object of early Judaica.

- 2788 A Fine Faience Bead, with Twin Eyes of Horus. Egypt, Third Intermediate Period, 1075-664 BC. The bead barrel-shaped, well molded, with an excellent, richly colored turquoise blue glaze. The design is replicated on each half of the bead, with one being the mirror image of the other. Each side with an udjat, the Sacred Eye of the Egyptian god, Horus. The brows and pupils with added black glaze. Dividing the the two eyes, a pair of leaf shapes with herringbone pattern. But for trivial edge chip, the bead intact and choice, the glaze fine and glossy. Length: 1-1/4". Excellent example of the type, which is scarce, and even more so in this condition. In the marketplace, over the past decade, prices on boldly colored faience amulets and objects have been rising steadily. Added to this is the market for exotic and unusual beads by a growing collector base. Desirable!

- 2789 Good-sized Amulet of Horus, Isis, and Nephthys. Egypt, Late Dynastic, c. 550-350 BC. The young Horus stands frontal, flanked by and holding hands with his mother, Isis, and aunt, Nephthys. Each goddess in long dress, with lappet wig, and each wearing a different symbolic headdress. Horus with solar disc above his head. They stand on rectangular base, against rectangular backing. Grooved loop at top for suspension. The faience amulet repaired across legs, with minor restoration at lower left corner. The green to slightly olive-tinged glaze glossy and beautifully preserved. Height: 1-7/8". Boldly detailed, and larger than usually encountered for this type of amulet.
Estimated Value $600-725

- 2790 Colorfully Glazed Faience Ushabti. Egypt, Late Dynastic, c. 450-350 BC. Probably XXXth Dynasty. Ushabti of mummy-form shape, standing with arms crossed, holding adze and hoe. Figure with lappet wig, beard on chin, and swathed in Osirid-like garments. Ushabti with inscriptions in panel running vertically down the front of the legs. The artifact in choice condition, the colorful turquoise to blue-green glaze very pleasing. Height: 4-1/4", mounted on black-colored base. A pleasing example of this popular Egyptian antiquity.
Estimated Value $525-675

- 2791 Another Colorfully Glazed Faience Ushabti. Egypt, Late Dynastic, c. 450-350 BC. XXxth Dynasty. Ushabti of mummy-form shape, standing with arms crossed, holding adze and hoe, plus a seed bag thrown over one shoulder. Figure with lappet wig, beard on chin, and swathed in Osirid-like garments. Ushabti with two lines of inscriptions, in two panels: one across, horizontally, underneath the arms, the second running vertically down the front of the legs. The artifact in choice condition, the colorful turquoise glaze even and attractive. Height: 4-1/4"; mounted on black-colored base. A excellent example of this popular Egyptian antiquity, with bold, sharply modelled facial details.

- 2792 Sizeable Hieratic Text, on Linen, from a Mummy's Wrapping. Egypt, Late Dynastic - Ptolemaic Period, c. 500-100 BC. On a strip of somewhat coarsely woven linen, running along its length two parallel lines of hieratic script are inked in. Hieratic was simplified, one can almost say a shorthand, version of the Egyptian hieroglyphs developed by the scribes to enable their pictographic form of writing to be jotted down with a speed not possible earlier. Done by a neat hand, the text is quite legible, even stylish. Said to have been among a mummy's wrappings, the now brown linen with a few modest stains and one hole in a portion of the cloth. Overall, however, the linen well preserved and the text extremely clear. Length: 41". A notable artifact, and choice. Such extensive texts rarely appear on the market these days, and this is an opportunity that shouldn't be missed.
Estimated Value $1,750-UP

- 2793 A Rare Silver Amulet of Harpocrates. Egypt, Late Period-Ptolemaic, c. 650-300 BC. The child Horus, son of Osiris and Isis, is represented in traditional Egyptian fashion -- nude and with arms held rigidly at side. His head is shorn, but for a child's sidelock of hair. He also wears the royal crown of Upper and Lower Egypt, plus a beaded broad collar. A small rectangular base contains his feet. Grooved loop at back for suspension. Intact, with only light wear, the details clear and wholly legible. With deep gray-brown "find" patina. Height: 1-7/8"; in old black lacquered wood mount. Although small, the object fully retains the monumental feeling of much larger Egyptian works. Choice and rare -- quality survivals of amulets in silver is actually rarer than that for gold.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

The traditional features, constantly realized on the piece, along with the absence of any foreign or classicizing elements, strongly suggests an earlier date for the amulet, rather than later -- perhaps even XXVI Dynasty.

- 2794 A Rare and Fine Pantheistic Harpocrates Amulet in Silver. Late Hellenistic Egypt, 1st century BC. Greco-Roman Egypt, Late 1st century BC. - 1st century AD. The child aspect of the Egyptian god, Horus, merged with that of Eros/Cupid. The figure modeled along the lines of the Hellenistic erote, with the child's figure plump and rounded, almost feminine in appearance. As per Egyptian traditions, the god holds his finger to his mouth to indicate his youthfulness, and wears the royal double crown. Aside from Cupid's attribute of the arrow-filled quiver, the god holds the cornucopia of Tyche, and wears the panther skin of Dionysus. The figure finely modeled and detailed, with suspension loop at back. Aside from losses to the feet and the tips of the wings, the silver nicely preserved for finds from this area. Height: 1-1/2"; mounted on stand. Rare!
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

Harpocrates, the child of Isis and Osiris, was often conflated with the Greek Eros (or Roman Cupid) during this period as a harbinger of abundance. In this example, that concept is further reinforced by the cornucopia of Tyche. The attribute of Dionysus added further spiritual nuances to those already covered by the three other deities.

- 2795 A Boldly Colored Carving of Horus as a Falcon, Roman Egypt, 2nd-4th century AD. Carved in the round in wood, and then gessoed and painted, the god stands on a rectangular base. The bird of traditional form, facing front, wings tight against the body, and wearing the crowns of Upper and Lower Egypt. The bird's anatomical details rendered as raised stylized patterns, and richly colored: its head feathers and feet painted in black, the crown in green and dark red, tail in green, and the wings and body in browns, dark reds, and ochres. The base motifs in dark red and green. Exceptionally preserved, with only minor touch-up or restoration. Height: 8-7/8". A colorful and desirable objet d'art.
Estimated Value $3,500-UP

Greek World

- 2796 Large and Impressive "Spectacle" Fibula, Celtic Eastern Europe, c. 8th century BC. Simply, yet ingeniously contrived from one length of copper or bronze heavy wire that has been wound to form the face plate, catch, and pin of a large garment fastener. The "spectacle" is comprised of two spiral discs, one forming the base of the pin and the other the base for the catch, and joined by a figure eight loop. Intact and perfect, with very good original green "find" patina, with some slight iron deposits. Width: 8-1/4". A choice and elegant object, exemplifying how 'modern' looking an antiquity can sometimes be. Rare for the pin being in perfect working order, as they are frequently missing, repaired, or fragmentary.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,800

Similar fibulae have been found in all parts of the Greek world and along the peripheries. The material has been discussed in J. Alexander, "The Spectacle Fibulae of Southern Europe," AJA, Vol 69, 1965, p. 5ff

- 2797 A Greek Protome bust of a Goddess, Archaic Period, Sicily, late 6th century BC. A female head from a votive bust or revetment. The fragment is molded in a moderately fine-grained micaceous clay of orange-tan color. She is veiled, with sharply angled almond-shaped eyes enlivening her plumpish face. A hole at the top of her head is provided for nailing to a surface. Head with moderate wear. Height: 6-1/8". A pleasant and affordable Greek sculpture of good size. Her sweet, archaic smile is eye-catching.
Estimated Value $475-600

- 2798 Another Greek Protome Bust of a Goddess of the Archaic Period. Sicily, end 6th - early 5th century B. A female bust, the head turned slightly down, is molded in a moderately fine-grained micaceous clay of creme-tan color. She is veiled, with a fringe of tightly curled ringlets framing her plumpish face. There is a hole at the top of her head for nailing to a surface. A spall in the clay at her neck, otherwise piece intact with moderate wear, and some easily cleanable dirt. Height: 6-5/8". An affordable Greek sculpture of decent size and quality.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 2799 A Rare and Important Group of Greek Gilded Silver Roundels. Greece, possibly Macedon, Mid-4th - Early 3rd century BC. Lot of five roundels, circular and shield-like in appearance, with raised convex faces, encircled by a recessed flange. The roundels each with a single ornamental device, worked en repoussé and chased. Four have variations on a six point star -- each with central round boss, and the rays ranging from thin, to thick rays, and ribbed rays to petal-like rays. The last roundel with a combination of four ribbed rays, of cruciform shape, atop a rose of four petals. On the reverses, two narrow bands of hammered silver sheet are crossed and riveted to the edges to allow the pieces to be slipped onto a belt or strap. Three pieces have these complete, but missing on the "rose" example, and one of the stars shows a loss of one of the bands. Roundels overall Very Fine, or better, with most of the gilding complete. The "rose" a little chipped and bent, with more of the silver visible. Average Diameter: 3". Important and rare! A very affordable group of historical Greek silver.
Estimated Value $1,750-UP

These pieces may be compared to the metalwork discovered in the royal tomb at Vergina, Macedon, and thought to be that of Philip II, father of Alexander the Great. The frequent appearance on artifacts retrieved from the excavations would seem to indicate that this type of star may have been a royal ensign.

It was said that these pieces were part of the accoutrements on a soldier's armament. They could well work as such, but more likely these were ornaments to a horse's trappings. But as an aside to that possibility, ownership and maintenance of a horse by a soldier in ancient Greece would also indicate that the person was one of some affluence and social status. This, along with the possible caché of "royal" because of the motif on the pieces, can suggest that the owner of these was attached to the guard or calvary of one of the kings of Macedon.

2800 A Splendid Sheep's Head Rhyton. Magna Graecia, Apulia, c. 350-320 BC. The drinking vessel shaped with trumpet-like neck and rim, flattened strap handle, and the bottom naturalistically modeled as a sheep's head. Rhyton potted from a fine grained pinkish-tan ware, and glazed with a tan-orange slip. Minor chipping to the tips of the animal's horns, otherwise intact and exceptionally preserved. Length: 7-1/4". A delightful work of art.

Estimated Value $3,250-4,250

Apulian rhyta in the form of animal heads -- deer, bulls, rams, sheep, and goats, etc., were produced in both the elaborate red figure manner, or with simpler undecorated slips such as the above vessel. Some were true rhyta, with a hole in the animal's mouth for the passage of wine. Others, as seen here, lack a pouring hole. For other plain glazed sheep's head rhyta, cf. H. Hoffmann, Tarentine Rhyta, Mann 1966, pls. XXI 1-IV, 4, & 7.

2801 Colorful and Detailed Gnathian Epichysis. Magna Graecia, Apulia, c. 330 BC. This class of bottle or juglet bears the consistent traits of a narrow neck, a thin beak-like spout, and high strap handle. Potted from a fine grained pinkish ware, it is covered with a slightly silvery, black glaze, with applied designs on the body in red, white, and yellow. The ornament in three bands: a stylized laurel wreath with central rosette, a band of chevron-filled zigzags, and a band of floral scrolls. These bordered top and bottom with bands of tongues. At the juncture of handle and spout are molded two small female masks. Slight repairs to handle and spout, otherwise bottle intact and pristine. Height: 7-1/8". A lovely example of this class of ornate bottle. Estimated Value $950-1,250

2802 Stemless Kylix with Portrait of Athena. Magna Graecia, probably Campania, later 4th century BC. The kylix, a shallow cup for drinking wine, of usual shape but for short ring foot on bottom. The whole with black glaze but for reserved area with bottom of foot and red figure tondo within cup. The tondo painted with profile left portrait of Athena. She wears crested Attic helmet, with upraised plume at side; a necklace and patterned collar, and holds before her the head of a lance. An atypical piece recomposed from large fragments, with minimal restoration and is in excellent condition overall. Maximum width 7-5/4". An unusual composition. Rare. Estimated Value $1,800-2,700

- 2803 A Splendid Eros in Terra Cotta. Magna Graecia, probably Tarentum, 3rd-2nd century BC. The figure of the youthful god of love (and lust), is both artful and dynamic. Comprised of both molded and hand modeled components, he flies forward, his head cocked to one side, his hand out and holding a now missing object. His legs are set as if he is striding along with an insouciant air. Emphasizing his pose, the cloak draped about him is an orchestration of folds and swirls. Fashioned from a deep red-brown clay, the figure retains much of the white slip, and a bit of the red paint that decorated him. An old collection number can be seen inked in on the back. Height: 4-7/8". Some modest repairs and restoration, mainly at the wings. Otherwise, the figure in choice condition -- the crispness of the molded and modelled face, along with the hand tooled hair, all retain their vivacity after more than two millennia! Very appealing Hellenistic art.
Estimated Value $1,250-UP

Etruscan & Roman

- 2804 Superbly Patinated Bronze of a Youthful Herakles. Etruscan or Italiote, late 5th-4th century BC. Herakles modeled as a youth, nude, with hair in relatively short ringlets and lacking a beard. Overall the figure is slim, the musculature on the torso soft and rounded, and sensitively modeled. He holds an object in his left hand, likely a snake (fragmentary) which he is about to club (missing) with his raised right hand. Draped over his left arm, the pelt of the Nemean lion. Left foot also absent, otherwise bronze splendidly preserved with a marvelous green patina. Comes with custom plexiglass stand. Height: 4-1/8". Cf. Adam, Bronzes Etrusques et Italiotes (Bibliothèque Nationale), p. 184, no. 279. A fine example of this subject which was particularly popular with the Etruscans.
Estimated Value $1,850-UP
- 2805 A Superb Balsamarium or Cosmetic Pot in Bronze, in the form of a Comedic Mask. Greco-Roman, 1st century BC - 1st century AD. The small vessel, roughly globular, is modeled in the round as the mask of a cunning and manipulative slave, a character made popular in the bawdy Athenian "New Comedies." The face very expressive, with glaring eyes, furrowed brows, short nose and wide gaping mouth. The mask's wig full and rounded, the hair depicted as tightly matted. Twined around the head a sinuous wreath of grapes and vines. The rim of the vessel with "dog tooth" edging, slightly turned out. There is a very small projecting foot at the bottom. This along with the two ribbons from the wreath form a shallow tripod base to the pot. Balsamarium choice preserved, with very pleasing deep green and black patina. Something different -- a bronze with an attitude and a look!

- 2806 A Masterful Bronze Statuette of Jupiter, Roman, 1st-2nd century AD. The god stands with left leg slightly flexed, his weight on the right, with torso slightly twisted and head partially turned to the side. The cloak draped long his left side further emphasizes the Praxitelean s-curve to his pose. His figure is robust and mature, the muscles on the torso strongly defined, and his beard long and full. His accoutrements include the large-leafed wreath on his head, and the thunderbolt (fulmen) in his right hand. The raised left hand once held a scepter, now missing. Left foot also missing, otherwise sculpture in choice condition, with fine, glossy olive and light green patina. Height: 3-3/4"; with custom stand. A quality work of art!
Estimated Value $3,000-5,000

This statuette of Jupiter may ultimately be based on a Greek cult statue of Zeus from the 5th century BC. For other bronzes of this type, cf. LIMC VIII, 430-31, pls. 252, nos. 274, 275.

- 2807 Impressively Sculpted Appliqué of a Ram's Head, in Bronze, 1st-2nd century AD. The appliqué, probably from a vessel or cauldron, boldly and naturalistically modeled. The ram with expressive eyes and richly curling mane, is displayed frontally and in high relief — to the point where it could have functioned as a handle. Intact and in choice condition, with excellent deep emerald patina, with touches of black. Height: 2-3/8". Outstanding Roman art!
Estimated Value $1,450-1,850

- 2808 An Interesting Pendant/Charm of Grotesque Head, Roman, 1st-2nd century AD. Carved from a narrow, slightly curved piece of cream-tan limestone or calcite, the pendant caricatures a man's profile. The head small and bald, the eyes squinty and frowning, the bony jaw with a twisted and sniveling mouth. All this, plus the dominating prow of a nose. The top of the head pierced to hold a gold cap and loop. The nose and ear also pierced, and which may have held further pendants or dangling rings. Limestone shows moderate wear to the high-points, but overall the pendant is well preserved. Height: 1-1/4". A fascinating and unusual miniature. Said to have been found in Egypt.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

The grotesque, an extremely popular theme among cosmopolitan Alexandrians, was thought to be an effective charm against the evil eye.

Lot 2809

Lot 2810

- 2809 A Roman Inscribed Funerary Plaque, in Marble. AD. Roman Western Europe, 4th-5th century AD. The smallish plaque carved from creme marble with gray veining. A three line inscription, in Latin, occupies the upper third of the stone: TINIA C F PRISCA / COMMVNIS / EXOCHE. "(here is buried) Titinia Prisca, daughter of G(aius), together with Exoche(?)." Size: 7-3/4" x 14-1/2"; set into custom frame. A simple but pleasing artifact. From an English collection. Scarce.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

The size of this plaque suggests that it was an employed in a columbarium, an above ground crypt-like burial system which took its name from its resemblance to dovecotes.

- 2810 A Lengthily Inscribed Funerary Plaque, in Marble. AD. Roman Asia Minor, 4th-5th century AD. The plaque carved from a block of quality white-creme marble of moderately large grain. It is entirely covered by a neatly carved seven line inscription in Greek, stating: "Tomb of the blessed and great Doxasia, daughter of Dora, these resting bones in soul, and in god and the mystery of death, and in the hour of judgement, that no one will remove from here, neither the remnants, nor would he separate the bones from me." From a very sheltered monument, as the marble shows only modest weathering. Overall, crisp and easily readable. Size: 11-1/4" x 17-7/8"; with custom base. A quality artifact for those collectors of inscribed works. From an Israeli collection. Scarce.

Estimated Value $4,000-6,000

Although there is no explicit reference to Christianity, the deceased or her family clearly believed in an afterlife and a final judgement. Thus, they would have been participants in a monotheistic mystery religion. Also of note is the absence of a father's name in the inscription. It would appear that the mother, whether widowed or single, would have to have been a woman of some substance and status to afford such a tombstone for her daughter.

- 2811 A Fine Erotic Roman Lamp. Roman Italy, 1st century AD. The lamp of discus type, without handle, but with elongated nozzle flanked by volutes. Within the large circular discus, a scene of a man and a woman engaged in sensual delights -- the man grasps her foot and raises her leg high. Also clearly indicated is the bed: with patterned bedding, a bolster-like pillow, and elaborately turned legs on the bed frame. On the base of the lamp is slightly raised maker's mark, looking like a ligature of a P and a C. Lamp intact and shows some moderate wear to the orange-brown glaze, mostly at the nozzle. The molded design is bold and the art quite good. Length: 4-1/4". For this motif, cf. BMC, Lamps, Q922. A very fine example, and absolutely genuine!

Estimated Value $600-750

Lot 2812

Lot 2813

Lot 2814

2812 Another Quality Erotic Roman Lamp, Roman Tunisia, 1st-2nd century AD. This lamp also of discus type, but with grooved ring handle, and short ovate nozzle. The scene here a variant on the preceding lamp. The man and the woman share close eye to eye contact, as he is about slip between her legs. The bed also different here -- more like a low divan, with raised board at the head, and very short turned legs. Base of the lamp is impressed with uncertain maker's mark. Lamp intact and nearly pristine, with only minor weathering to the red and brown slip. The art large and good, if a bit softly molded. Length: 4-3/8". Again, another fine example.

Estimated Value $650-750

2813 A Fine Early Severan Head Vase, North Africa, c. 200 AD. Molded in two halves, this thick-walled, robust vessel is fashioned from a moderately coarse buff ware, and covered with a creme-orange slip. Vase with short oval neck and spout, and single strap handle at back. Molded in the form of a woman's head, her features bold treated, but the detailing careful -- especially notable in the finely rendered hairdo. The hair arranged in the then contemporary fashion of rather tightly curled waves over the top and sides, and flattish, layered bun at the back. This is precisely the hairdo seen on the coins of Julia Domna up to around 210 AD. Considering the profile of the face seen on the vessel, and the shape of the nose, her portrait is likely intended here. Minor repair to handle, otherwise vase intact and finely preserved. Height: 8-3/8". Scarce, and choice.

Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

2814 Gold Fertility Figure of Venus/Astarte, Roman Near East, 2nd-4th century AD. The gold pendant comprised of two sheets of gold, and integral loop. Joined together by folding the front's edges over the back, it is strengthened by a hard filling substance within -- to give the piece solidity without adding extra gold weight. The figure that of Venus/Astarte, a Hellenized form of the Near East's most ancient goddess of love and fertility. The goddess stands frontal on a short dais. Clasp her breasts and raising one leg slightly to display her enlarged and boldly delineated pudenda, she stands naked but for a belt or girdle, with distinctive knot at center, which encircles her waist. Intact and pristine. Height: 2-1/2". Rare! Large, lightweight gold amulets, such as this, rarely survive from antiquity. If, on the one hand, they were not crushed or damaged from the weight of compressing earth over the centuries, then random finders would usually quickly reduce them to melted gold, a form more suitable to their modern day needs.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 2815 Lot of Two Fine Figural Fragments from Roman Red Ware Trays. North African, 4th-5th century AD. Probably from Carthage. Lot of two pieces from different serving trays of rectangular shape, with molded decorations on the raised, pedestal-like base. The largest fragment, of three recomposed pieces, shows a procession of three men and three woman, all in ornate fringed and patterned garments. One female holds a patera, while a man and a woman holds an item of fish-like shape (a basket?). At either end, partial figures of a flute player and one holding a helmet. Along with the molded designs, impressed rosettes in the field. The second piece, smaller, and with raised, molded design only. This with an intriguing scene. Within a rectangular section bordered by pillars, a woman(?) in chiton and bound hair, kneels left, one hand tipping a balance, a wide-mouthed vessel below. At left, a bearded man, wearing cap and short tunic, sits three quarters to the right on elaborate chair and regards her. He has sheathed sword resting on lap; horse protome above his shoulder. Beneath balance, raised inscription in Greek: KIPKH, "Circe." This perhaps a scene of Ulysses' encounter with the sorceress? Fragments well preserved and of much more interest than typically encountered. Lengths: 8-1/2"; 4-1/2". Scarce this nice; the latter motif rare.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 2816 Another Group of Fine Figural Fragments from Roman Red Ware Vessels. North African, 5th century. Probably from Carthage. Lot of four pieces, all but one with mythological motifs. Two pieces, again, from a large rectangular serving dish: one showing a draped and veiled woman leading a naked young child up to a centaur to the right, who holds a staff, and has one hand raised; the second with perhaps a satyr, in heavily patterned short tunic, and playing a large pan-pipes to the goat-footed Pan, who dances at the left. Also, a rim from a large tray: a male figure in long tunic holds cup(?) and cross-like object (thyrsus?), with short column, topped by ornate capital, occupying the corner. Last, a section of bowl with molded and applied fish. All well preserved, with strong, legible designs. Widths: 2-1/4" - 3-1/4". Lot of 4 pieces. Good dealer lot.
Estimated Value $400-475

- 2817 A Fine Christian Lamp from Carthage. North Africa, 5th century AD. Molded in a red-glazed red ware, the lamp with circular body and extended trough-like nozzle. Centered within the sunk central discus, a large Chi-Rho, the sacred monogram, with ornate interior patterning. Similar decoration comprised of alternating Chi-Rho roundels and patterned squares border the emblem along the lamp's shoulders. Lamp with tab handle, and slightly raised circular foot underneath. Slight chip to the handle, the nozzle a bit soot-stained from use. Otherwise the lamp in choice condition, with the designs crisply molded. Length: 5-1/2". For another related example, cf. A. Ennabli, Lampes Chrétiennes de Tunisie, no. 1042, but Chi-Rho retrograde. Choice!
Estimated Value $375-475

- 2818 A Lot of Seven Medical or Medicinal, or Cosmetic Implements in Bronze. Roman, 2nd-5th century AD. The group comprises a varied assortment of shapes. One certainly a cosmetic applicator -- long and simple, with ovate-shaped end at one side, the other end decorated with circular ribbed ornament. In addition there are four spoons with probe/applicator ends. The spoon's bowls each of different size or shape, along with three having molded decoration on the handle. Another item has a rather arrowhead-like end that may have been a form of lancet or scalpel -- if so, unused, as the blade has not been sharpened. The last an applicator/spatula, the blade end ornately shaped. All well preserved, with varying brown or green patinas. Lengths: 4-3/4" - 6-3/4". An pleasing assortment.
Estimated Value $650-850

- 2819 A Lot of Six Medical or Medicinal Implements in Bronze, Roman, 2nd-5th century AD. Group comprises a varied assortment of shapes and types. Two are probes or applicators -- one long and simple, with each with ovate-shaped end a different size; the other shorter and symmetrical, with central "handle" of geometric mouldings. Two more probe/applicators, but the rounded and rectangular ends could likewise have served as spatulas. Another item is short, one end of olivary form, the other rather arrowhead-like (slightly chipped) that may have been a form of lancet. The last piece a simple form of scalpel. All well preserved, with varying brown or green patinas. Lengths: 3-3/8" - 7-3/4". An interesting general assortment.
Estimated Value $650-800

- 2820 Another Lot of Seven Medical or Medicinal, or Cosmetic Implements in Bronze, Roman to Byzantine, 2nd-10th century AD. The group mostly larger pieces and some unusual shapes. Included are three spoons of different dates. The spoon's bowls each of different size or shape, along with two having molded decoration on the handle, and the largest and latest with arabesque-like decoration on the exterior. Another item seems to be a form of scoop, with narrow, elongated bowl. Also an applicator/spatula, the blade end narrow; and another "spatula" with circular blade. Lastly, a scalpel, the blade thin from use, with twisted "grip" at base of blade. All well preserved, with varying brown or green patinas. Lengths: 4-1/4" - 6-1/2". An interesting assortment of better items.
Estimated Value $700-850

Roman Thrace

- 2821 A Simple but Elegant Child's Fibula in Gold, Roman Thrace, 1st-2nd century AD. The fibula, wrought from a single bar of gold, is the epitome of simplicity and economy. At one end the gold is twisted and tapered to become the pin, in the middle it is flattened and bowed for strength, and as it again tapers to the decorative finial, the catch is drawn out and worked up. An ornamental wave pattern is chiseled along the "bow." Intact and perfect. Length: 1-1/8".
Estimated Value $425-575

- 2822 A Choice Roundel in Bronze with the Head of Pan, Roman Thrace, 2nd-3rd century AD. The roundel, or perhaps a phaleron, in cast and lathe-turned bronze, with the central head fashioned in bold relief. The head of Pan, broad, with stylized modelling, displays a full beard and thick hair, all in tightly curled locks. His expression aloof and impassive, bordering on the stern. Two strongly arched sheep's horns rise above his pointed, animal ears. The eyes are deeply sunk, along with a textured channel carved across the forehead -- indicating these were once inlaid, likely with silver. After the casting had been detailed and finished, the circular backing was lathe-turned to the even, gently swelling round shape presently seen. But for a few edge chips, the piece virtually pristine, with a superb, smooth dark green olive patina. The piece may have once adorned a vessel or metal chest or even may have been the center piece of soldier's cuirass -- the lead filling within the piece certainly adding strength to it. Diameter: 2-3/8", on circular lucite base. An eye catching object!
Estimated Value $1,000-2,000

- 2823 An Attractive Figural Bronze of a Sylvan God. Roman Thrace, 2nd-3rd century AD. Perhaps a satyr, or a woodland or river demigod, he stands, legs apart, bent over his forward thrusting leg and holding an object now missing from his hands. The figure is nude and slimly proportioned, but his hair and beard are richly and elaborated curled, and expansive. As another indication of his "wild" nature, he is depicted as hair-suit, with long locks of hair chiseled along his back and thighs. One hand is missing, and only the remains of the object he holds is still in the other hand -- perhaps a serpent? But for the minor losses, the sculpture in choice condition, with thin green patina, with occasional patches of dark red. Height: 3-1/2". A handsome and intriguing work of art.
Estimated Value $1,350-1,550

- 2824 An Unusual Bust of a Barbarian Youth, in Bronze. Roman Thrace, 2nd-3rd century AD. Hollow cast bust, with solid head, a fitting for a chest or furniture. The youth, unbearded, is portrayed frontal with his head barely turned to the left. His chest is bare, but for being draped by a heavy pendant necklace. The youth's hair is arranged into eight parallel rows of waved hair. At the back this is bound into a thick, folded over braid, reminiscent of the earlier hairstyles of Antonia and Agrippina. Two sizable rings for attachment at the youth's shoulders. Piece exceptionally preserved with a choice smooth, dark green patina. Height: 3"; Width: 3-1/4". A bold and appealing portrayal. Ethnic depictions of this sort are surprisingly uncommon even at this time in a hinterland where intrusions from "foreign migrants" were becoming more insistent.
Estimated Value $1,450-1,650

- 2825 A Stylish, Provincial Roman Head of a Youth, in Bronze. Roman Thrace, 2nd-3rd century AD. Hollow cast, the plumpish, roundly modeled head perhaps a fitting, or from a composite sculpture. The youth unbearded, and his hair arranged as concentric rows of locks, radiating out from the top of his head, along with a double row of tight curls framing his temples and forehead. The pupils of his eyes pierced. At the top of his head, a squarish hole, perhaps for attachment, or for the tenon of a separately applied hat or other attribute. A smaller attachment hole at back of neck. Intact with minimal wear, and with a mottled green, olive, and black patina. Height: 2-1/8". Pleasing provincial work.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 2826 Interesting "Mystery" Plaque, in Lead, from the Lower Danubian Area, or Thrace. 2nd-3rd century AD. The dominant motif of this detailed cast roundel is the large central female figure facing, standing behind a tripod table on which rests a fish. She wears a pleated short chiton and holds in her hands a serpent(?), or perhaps a length of cord. Flanking on either side in profile, two rider gods, perhaps meant to be the Dioscuri, who each trod a fallen figure below. Above and flanking, are facing busts of Sol and Selene (the Sun and the Moon, the pair equating to "eternity"), and a serpent above each. In the exergue, a Cupid(?) figure and an animal (boar?) flank a central kantharos, and beneath, three horse shoes. The whole encircled by a border of beading and tongues. Sharply preserved, with a thin gray and brown patina. Diameter: 2-1/4". A fascinating glimpse here of little understood mythologies. Scarce.
Estimated Value $325-450

- 2827 A Blue Tear Drop Bottle, or Unguentarium. Rome, 1st - 2nd century AD. Bottle of narrow, piriform shape, with cylindrical neck, slightly constricted at base, and flat, everted rim. Glass in a medium cobalt blue. Bottle intact and perfect, with faint iridescence in spots. Height: 3-5/8". Cf Hays, no. 664. Bottle of pleasing, balanced shape, and in a rarer color.
Estimated Value $750-850

- 2828 A Fine Glass Juglet, with Trailed Thread Decoration. Roman, 1st-2nd century AD. A single-handled juglet in colorless glass, with ovate body, tapering cylindrical neck, and wide, flat, everted rim. At side, an angular handle in trailed aubergine glass, along with a thin thread of aubergine trailing spirally around the body up to the base of the neck. Juglet intact, with a few slight age cracks, yet vessel stable and sound. Some slight iridescence on body, with two vivid patches on handle. Height 3-3/4". Cf Newark, Ancient Glass, no. 96. A choice, well-formed example of this popular collectible.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 2829 Wide Mouthed Jar with Trailed Thread Decoration. Roman, 3rd-4th century AD. Fashioned from blown colorless glass, the twin-handled jar with flattened ovoid body, rather wide short neck, and wide funnel mouth. The thick rounded rim with folded flange, or collar, beneath. Two thick applied and folded handles at sides, along with neatly trailed thin thread encircling the body. Jar with black patina-iridescence — revealing vivid and intense colors of silvery blue, to violet and deep lime and blue-greens in areas. Height 2-3/8". Cf Newark, nos. 475-478. Well crafted, the jar very handsome for the period.

- 2830 Sprinkler Flask, Finely Iridescent. Roman Syria, 3rd-4th century AD. The blown flask in light green glass, rather thick and quite substantial in heft. The body piriform and with six vertical ribs at regular intervals. The foot of the bottle consists of a ring of short, drawn out nubs. The mouth wide and funnel-like with encircling flange beneath. Within the neck a constricting ring, with small central opening. This to restrict the flow to the vessel's precious contents (perfume or oil). Exceptionally preserved, the bottle with some blackish patina, but mostly with translucent, multicolored silvery iridescence, and some smaller areas of transparent violets and coppery greens. Height: 3-1/2". A splendid and colorful example of this less common shape. Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 2831 Twin-handled Unguentarium, with Colored Thread Decoration. Roman, 3rd-4th century AD. Thick-walled and substantial, the cosmetic vessel blown from light green glass. The bottle of narrow conical/piriform shape, on flat ring foot, with wide funnel mouth having thick rim. Twin handles of a slightly darker green are attached to the rim, and pinched and angled at their base. Ornamental threading trails around from the neck to end as a row of zigzags along the bottom. This in a dark blue-green glass. Intact with some areas of iridescence. Height: 4". Cf. Newark, no. 182. Attractive and durable. Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 2832 Attractively Colored Double Unguentarium. Roman, 3rd-4th century AD. This hefty container was fashioned from a tube of aqua colored glass, pinched and folded in the middle, then heat joined and the bottom flattened. Enhancing the vessel's color is glass thread of a darker aqua color, in varying in thickness, which was trailed around the the length of the tubes. Interestingly, the applied handles at the sides are of different colors: one dark blue, one dark green. Presumably this was done to keep the customer straight on which tube held which contents. Exceptionally preserved, this unguentarium is an especially vivid example of this scarce and desired group of glass vessels. Height: 5-1/8". Estimated Value $1,450-1,650

- 2833 Iridescent Twin-handled Unguentarium. Roman, c. 4th century AD. Thick-walled and very robust, the cosmetic vessel blown from green glass. The bottle shaped like earlier examples -- narrow, with drop-shaped body and thin cylindrical neck -- but this on conical foot. The body with vertical ribbing, twisted to form a spiralling decorative ornament. Small twin handles are attached to the flaring rim and encircling ring below. Minor age crack at foot, with trivial ancient chip there also. Nevertheless the bottle sound and stable, with areas of opaquish silvery and transparent violet iridescence throughout. Height: 4-3/4". Cf. Hermitage no. 409. Scarcer type. Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

2834 Late Antique Globular Bottle in a deep Violet Color. Byzantine or Islamic, c. 9th-12th century AD. The intensely colored bottle of nearly spherical shape, with very short neck, and everted, rounded rim. The glass thick and quite robust. Intact and superbly preserved. Height: 2-3/4". Intact and attractive.
Estimated Value $1,250-UP

2835 A Large and Early Byzantine Cross in Bronze. Byzantium, 5th-7th century AD. A solid, robust cross of cast bronze, with integral suspension loop at top. The arms of the cross flare outward, with the ends slightly concave. On the front side, within a pattern of incised circle dots comprise a second cross with serif arms. Cross intact and sharp, with crusty green patina. Height: 3-1/4". A good early example, of unusual size.
Estimated Value $600-750

2836 An Attractive Byzantine Cross of Good Size. Byzantium, 9th-11th century AD. Cross of typical shape for period, with flaring arms ending in flat circular projections at each corner. Boldly and deeply engraved, the cross has at the center a similar, smaller cross with crescentic finials to the arms. Depicted on upper arm, facing nimbate bust of the Virgin, on right arm, nimbate bust of Saint Mark, right hand raised, at left, a similar bust of St. John. Bottom arm with facing nimbate bust of un-bearded Christ. Possibly a separate tang once attached, as at the bottom of the lower arm there is a hole for, and the remains of an iron rivet. Cross finely preserved, with black to dark green patina, with earthen highlights. Height: 4-1/4". on custom stand. Fine example of type.
Estimated Value $850-1100

Ex Milon E. Anastos Collection. Professor Anastos is a noted Byzantine scholar and collector.

- 2837 A Boldly Engraved Byzantine Reliquary Cross in Bronze. Byzantium, 9th-11th century AD. A reliquary cross, consisting of two sides joined by a hinge, in a finely patinated bronze. Each side with facing bearded male in orant pose. The two sides are nearly identical but for slight differences in the detailing of the ornately patterned robes. Partial hatched borders on three arms of each cross. But for minor loss to one hinge ring, cross is virtually pristine. Height: 3-1/4". A very striking work, with a lovely, deep olive patina.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 2838 A Rare and Ornate Byzantine Cross in Base Silver. Byzantium, 9th-12th century AD. A reliquary cross, consisting of two sides joined by a hinge, fashioned in an alloy of silver-billon. On side A: Nimbate Christ stands frontal, arms out to the sides, a small cross emerging from each wrist. Above, another small cross, on either side of which, the inscription: "Christ is Victorious." His garment with a finely rendered pattern of scallops. Side B: Virgin Orans standing, with Christ child before her. Ornamental fillers at sides. Above, swagged drapery, and inscription: "Mother of Christ." Some losses to hing rings on side B, otherwise cross with little wear and the metal very good, showing a deep gray patina with touches of dark green and brown. Height: 3-1/4". A very striking work, done in a very distinctive, and richly patterned style. Surviving crosses in silver, especially those of any significant artistic quality, are rare.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

- 2839 Attractive Small Reliquary Cross, in Nicely Patinated Bronze. Byzantium(?), c. 9th-12th century AD. The reliquary cross, consisting of two sides joined by hinges and with hinged loop, is complete and unopened. Cast with the artwork in relief, and finished off with chased detailing. Side A: Bearded and nimbate Christ, in long robe, stands with arms outstretched. Side B: A Veiled or nimbate Virgin Orans stands facing, arms upraised. The reliquary with good, glossy dark green to dark brown patina. Intact and in choice condition. Height: 2-1/4". A very pleasing example of this later type. The distinctive stylizations of the art might place its manufacture more in the eastern Europe rather than Byzantium.
Estimated Value $450-525

Antiquities

- 2840 Another Elaborate Reliquary Cross in Bronze. Byzantium, 10th-11th century AD. A reliquary cross, consisting of two sides joined by a hinges. This cross is cast with artwork in relief, and the incised detailing added. Side A: Bearded and nimbate Christ, in long robe, hangs on cross; at his left hand, the Virgin, at his right, St. John. Inscription in field beneath arms. Side B: A Nimbate Virgin Orans stands facing at center; around her, in each arm of the cross, a circular medallion bearing facing busts of Mathew, Mark, Luke, and John, each holding their gospels. But for missing suspension loop, cross intact and unopened. The reliquary with glossy brown and earthen brown patina. Height: 3-1/4". A good example of this later type.

Estimated Value $1,450-1,650

- 2841 A Small but Attractive Cross in Silver. Byzantium, c. 10th-12th century AD. Scarce pendant cross in silver -- a later type with longer and narrower arms, which terminate in twin rounded shape. Centered within the cross, another plain engraved one, with central circular medallion. Intact, the metal excellent. Height: 1-1/4". Simple but elegant, and suitable for wear even now.

Estimated Value $450-500

- 2842 A Late Byzantine Cross with the Virgin and Christ Child. Byzantium, c. 11th-13th century AD. A solid, robust cross of bronze, with integral suspension loop at top, and cast with the motif in rather high relief. The arms of the cross, like those in preceding lots, flare outward. Standing within the center, the Virgin, nimbate, faces forward and holds before her the infant Christ. On either side of her an angel supports her arm. Cross intact with minor wear. With good dark green-black patina. Height: 3". An appealing type, so suggestive of the Middle Ages. Rare.

Estimated Value $975-1,200

- 2843 Attractive Small Cross Inlay, in Bronze. Byzantium(?), c. 11th-14th century AD. The small, cast cross of an advanced shape compared to the preceding lots. As before, the arms flare outward; again, the ends are concave, but now the projecting ornaments at the corners are trefoil-shaped. Non-figurative ornament in the form of raised drop shapes occupy the arms. There are no indications that the piece was used as a pendant. Intact with little wear, with lightly crusty green and earthen patina. Height: 2". Perhaps made further in the East. Some of the traits seen here are reminiscent of contemporary Islamic bronze work. Very pleasing.
Estimated Value $325-400

- 2844 A Late Byzantine Cross Appliquè, in Bronze. Byzantium, c. 12th-13th century AD. A nearly square cross, with large rounded ends to the arms, is cast with a relief design of the Nimbate Virgin standing facing, in the center, and surrounding her in each arm of the cross, a circular medallion bearing facing busts of Mathew, Mark, Luke, and John. At back, remains of tenons where this piece would have been attached to a book cover or casket, or similar. Intact, and showing use. With brown and green patina, and legible devices. Height: 2-3/8". Interesting and scarce.
Estimated Value $450-575
